VARSITY CONQUERS MANSFIELD NORMAL

FIRST GAME OF SEASON WON BY A 25-0 SCORE.

NEW MEN ARE MAKING EXCELLENT SHOWING

Spotts, Newcomb, Hall and Waddell Are the Only Veterans.—Morrison, Elliott, Bortz and Harris Make Promising Showing.—Hard Game With Swarthmore Next Saturday.

Bucknell fully lived up to the good promise she made during the past week of football practice, when she met and defeated Mansfield Normal by a 25-0 score. Altho Bucknell was confident of victory from the start, many of the students had not dared to hope for a shut-out and a great deal of spirit was injected into the "Bucknell-el-el" which followed the blowing of the final whistle. Mansfield Normal School usually has the best normal school team in the State and quite often the team is of a full college plane; consequently, when our new team, with but a week's practic showed up so splendidly when in action, our student body was justified in feeling unusually happy and in being loud in its praises of the team.

Our team was composed of practically all green men. Four "B" men remained: Spotts, who last year was on the border during the football season, Newcomb, Hall and Waddell. Certain other men had had experience with the team last year, especially Morrison, Gerhart, Lewis and Freible, but the vast majority of the squad of twenty-seven men have appeared in Bucknell uniform this season for the first time.

The new men are making a very fine showing, and if they continue at the present rate, will help make this year's team better than any in the past few years. "Buck" Elliott, of baseball fame, has startled everyone by appearing in football togs and is already beginning to show the earmarks of a veritable Dean Sturgis at right end. Harris is another man who is showing wonderful ability at end and his tackling, running and receiving the ball have attracted favorable criticism. A third man who is a promising end is McGann. The manner in which he recovered the ball on Mansfield's fumble and then gained almost 20 yards brought a hearty cheer from the grandstands. Each of the latter two came to Bucknell with a reputation already made, Harris by his playing with Westminster, and McGann with Harrisburg Tech. Bortz, a backfield man is doing beautiful work and will in all probability be a regular Varsity man. "Bunny" Lewis, also in the backfield proved to be a consistent ground-gainer in center line plunges, and twice won the approval of the grandstands on Saturday. Dyer, playing at tackle, did some good work and scored a touchdown against Mansfield.

With these men, and Morrison, Spotts, Newcomb, Hall and Waddell as a foundation, Bucknell bids fair to have a team superior to that of last season. More than this, she will doubtless have an average of victories far higher than last season, for our schedule is a trifle less heavy, and, "due to the war" our opponents too, will be sending forth green teams. Present indications all point to several bon-fires between this time and Thanksgiving Day and it will gladden the heart of many an alumnus to again see Bucknell on the football map. This must be the season to put her there, and a good beginning was made by defeating Mansfield.

The best plays which our team has thus far developed are forward passes and off-tackle plays. It was by

CAP AND DAGGER

On Thursday evening Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society held its first business meeting of the year. Plans for carrying on the work of the society were discussed and it was decided that the annual fall play would be in the nature of a modern comedy. The production will probably be staged in the Orpheum Theatre Friday, November 16.

DEMOSTHENEAN FRAT. PURCHASES NEW HOME

HOUSE PARTICULARLY WELL ADAUTED FOR FRATERNITY USE.

During the past summer the Demosthenean fraternity purchased the Hulley property of St. George street, opposite the Seminary entrance and is now comfortably located in its new quarters. This leaves Bucknell with but one fraternity that is not housed in its own property.

The Demosthenean, or Delta Sigma, was founded June 27, 1899, as a literary club. It began with five students who were interested in literary activities and later it was branched out into a club for upperclassmen, who met in their rooms on Market street. The next step was to become a full-fledged local fraternity and for the past number of years has occupied rooms in the Lewisburg Trust company building on Market street.

The Hulley property now occupied by the "Demos" is among the most ideal in Lewisburg for a fraternity The property is a very spacious one and has a large brick dwelling, well arranged inside for fraternity use and close to the college campus. It makes a very pretty apearance surrounded by its large trees and owing to the interior arrangement very little repairs or alterations have been necessary, practically the only change being to alter the lighting system from gas to electricity.

Rules For Underclassmen.

1. Freshmen must attend all mass meetings and cheering parties.
2. Freshmen must wear blue skull caps with green buttons, black ties and socks, every week day for the college year, except to the Junior Prom and College Girls' Reception. They shall not wear derbies during the college year. Underclassmen will not at any time appear without headgear.
3. Freshmen must at all times salute members of the faculty and must show due respect to upperclassmen.
4. Freshmen must not smoke cigarettes in public and must not smoke at all in the halls or on the campus.
5. Underclassmen must not loiter around class memorials and steps, and the entrance of main college.
6. Freshmen, except in the company of an upperclassman, shall not be seen on the streets with a young lady before Washington's Birthday. (Wives and sisters excepted.) "Fussing" allowed at college functions, including athletic contests, but calling at the Seminary or in town forbidden before Washington's Birthday.
7. Freshmen must not cut across the campus or athletic field.
8. When leaving the chapel Seniors pass out first, then the Juniors, next the Sophs, and then the Freshmen in order. Sophs must not be seen on the upperclassmen's path when coming from chapel. Freshmen not at any time.
9. Freshmen must speak to everybody at all times.
10. Freshmen must not wear sweaters in class-rooms or in the halls.
11. All new students not having full Sophomore standing, who have not served at least one year under Freshmen Rules at some college, will be governed by these rules.
12. These rules and all college customs will be rigidly enforced and any person violating them will be dealt with according to the regulations of the Senior Council.

CLASSES OF 1918 and 1919.

BUCKNELL OPENS FOR 68TH TIME

ENROLLMENT 30 PER CENT. LOWER THAN LAST YEAR.

FRESHMAN CLASS NUMBERS 172

West College and West Wing Are Closed.——Total Enrollment is 490.—All Universities Suffer a Similar Decrease.

There are 172 new students entering Bucknell this fall. Of this number 101 are men and 65 women. The class is about 20 per cent. smaller than last year's Freshman class but this condition exists in practically every University and college in the country. As was the case last year, Chemical Engineering is the choice of most of the engineering students.

The total enrollment of the school is also below that of last year. Last years' catalog, which carries the official registration for the college year, shows a total of 669 students carrying college work. The enrollment up-to-date shows only 490 students or a decrease of about 30 per cent. However, it must be remembered that Bucknell had the largest enrollment in its history last year and that as early as last May a decrease in the size of the student body of this year was anticipated. A general decrease of 10 to 50 per cent. is noted in Colleges and Universities throughout the country.

Of course, the reason for the falling off in the number of students this year is due principally to the war. It is safe to assume that 20 per cent. of the men who are not back at Bucknell this year are in some branch of military service.

The present Senior class had an enrollment of 157 students last year and so far only 89 have registered for the work this year. The present Junior class numbered 159 last year and at present but 85 are back at school. The Sophomore class is also lacking in its number from last January; only 144 Sophs have returned out of 199 in last year's Freshman class.

The falling off in the number of men living on the "Hill" has made it advisable to close West College and the West Wing of Main College. The closing of these dormitories was caused by the falling off in students and also the fact that two fraternity houses have come into use since last spring.

On the whole Bucknell is in as stable a condition as she ever was and will continue her work even tho the student body is somewhat smaller than last year.

Some of the above figures may be changed before the catalog for next year is published, but they give in general the enrollment statistics for the year.

BAND MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Band at 7 o'clock Friday evening.

SWARTHMORE HERE SATURDAY.

Next Saturday at 2.30 p. m., the Varsity will meet the Swarthmore eleven on the Athletic Field. Swarthmore has four veterans of last year in the line-up, including Cornog who was their best bet last season. The other men on the team are mostly freshmen. Next Saturday's game will be Swarthmore's first game of the season.

NEW 1917 L'AGENDA OFFICIALS CHOSEN

EDITORSHIP PLACED IN CAPABLE HANDS OF JAS. R. HERMAN.

At a meeting of the Junior Class last Wednesday afternoon, new L'-Agenda officers were elected to take up the work of Davis and Thomas, who were elected business manager and editor respectively last spring, neither of whom have returned to school this fall. The new officers elected are Orchard, business manager, and Herman, editor.

Manager Orchard has selected Miss Jean Flanagan for his assistant and has already obtained a good start in providing for the business side of the publication.

Editor Herman wishes to anounce that all those originally appointed on the staff will be retained, new members being selected only to fill vacancies. The staff as a whole consists of twenty-four members comprising some of the best talent in the class. Miss Alice C. Ferris, Hayes L. Person and Kenneth Oakley have been selected as assistant editors, while Henry M. Weber and R. E. Boyer will take care of the art work. The other associate editors who will be assigned work as plans develop are:

Misses Florence A. Cleary, Eleanor Hyatt, Margaret McLaughlin, Meta Haldeman, Agnes Gilmour, Helen Hoffa; David C. Gall, Franklin D. Jones, Howard Hann, Gabriel Adams, Charles B. Moore, Raymond T. Tice, Alden Davis, James K. Pettite, George F. Jammer, George A. Starkweather, Paul Hartman and Benjamin Markowitz.

The above mentioned are requested to meet in the chapel at 4.15 Tuesday afternoon. A full attendance is imperative and those not attending and failing to inform Editor Herman before the meeting will be replaced on the staff by other classmates.

SPIRIT RENEWED AT BIG MASS MEETING

REGISTRAR WILCOX AND PROF. RIEMER GIVE TALKS

ELECTION OF CHEER LEADERS WAS HELD

Musser, '18, and Mathieson, '20, Are Chosen to Lead Cheers.—Much Valuable Advice is Given to the New Men.

The members of Bucknell's freshmen class were initiated to their first mass meeting on Friday evening when several hundred college men met in Bucknell Hall to instill "pep" for the game on Saturday. President Mackey, of the Senior class, took charge of the meeting and from beginning to end the old spirit renewed and manifested itself.

Musser, '18, was the first to start affairs. As cheer leader last year and popular as one of the 'varsity basketball players,' he again aroused admiration by his methods of conducting the old Orange and Blue yells. The old men almost fell over themselves to again make the familiar cheers ring out and the new class was not far behind in making a noise so that in a few minutes the chapel was vibrating to the echoes of "Bucknell,-el-el" and "Ray team."

A rousing cheer for "Coxey" greeted Prof. Walter S. Wilcox, who outlined for the freshmen a few activities that would greatly benefit them. Military drill of a volunteer nature was announced and a desire expressed for both the old and new men to take part, especially in these times. It is the intention to drill outside as long as possible and take advantage of the fall weather for regular exercise that is good for its disciplinary effect as well as an aid to many students who will likely be in the service in the next few months. Prof. Wilcox also explained the budget system and the saving to the students by this manner of grouping different small expenses under one sum which includes athletic expenses. The talk was closed with a desire that all men support and encourage the football team by their active presence.

Prof. G. C. L. Riemer, of the faculty, was the next speaker and he applied his remarks to the new men giving them an idea of the necessity of affiliating with Bucknell as soon as possible. He strongly expressed the fact that Bucknell is not a private corporation established for the purpose of making money, but an institution that belongs to the students and the alumni and it will always remain just what the students and alumni make it. It is every freshmen's duty to become a part of the institution and as soon as possible. The speaker told what Bucknell means and has meant to him, what he has obtained by being a graduate of the University and then clinched his talk with a plea for the new men to become sons of the Orange and Blue without delay, to affiliate themselves and become an active part of th institution.

President Mackey then took charge of the election for cheer leaders, resulting in Musser being r-elected head cher leader and Mathieson was elected assistant. Sophomore President Morrison then took the stand and performed the weighty matter of freshman roll call, an interesting as well as trying occasion for the wearers of conservated headgear. Following the meeting the cheers were practiced for the benefit of the incoming class members.

Already this week a rousing, old-time mass meeting with a parade is being urged preparatory to the game here with Swarthmore on Saturday. A band, a parade around town and a few expressions of sentiment at the coming meeting is the expectation of the students.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1917

Never in history has a Freshman class entered college under conditions as unusual as those which confront the class of 1921. The overshadowing thought has been the national one. Consequently it is natural that there should be considerable uncertainty in the minds of the students as to what their duty might be. But now that we are convinced that our duty lies right here, let us burn our bridges behind us. Since we are here in the line of what we consider our highest duty, let us enter into our work with determination and energy. The responsibilities of the future will be greater than ever before, so that we must work harder and to a better purpose.

VARSITY WINS

the successful working of forward forward passes that our first two touchdowns were made by Hall. Morrison and Dyer scored the other two touchdowns, but the kick following Dyer's score was the only one of the four to pass between the posts. When Freible dashed from out the mass of players with the ball under his arm, and ran 70 yards to plant the ball behind the goal posts, there was a breathless audience watching him. Great was the disappointment to learn that the spectacular run was made in vain because one of our men was off sides. The line plunging of Morrison, the end run by Elliott and the tackling by Harris and Waddell were all features of the game. Brandt was cheered when he tackled a Mansfield player behind his own line and threw him for a loss. The forward passes usually worked to perfection, but in many instances the interference might have been better.

The line-up:

Bucknell		Mansfield
Hall	left end	Brown
Smith	center	Decker
Piekarski	right guard	Johnson
Newcomb	right tackle	Naugle
Elliott	right end	Joyce
Waddell	quarterback	Creswell
Morrison	halfback	Francis
Spotts	halfback	Gazella
Bortz	fullback	Walters

Substitutions— Bucknell: McGann for Hall, Gerhart for Dyer, Miles for Smith, Harris for Elliott, Houser for Harris, Lewis for Borrtz, Kostos for Lewis, Freible for Lewis, Haus for Gerhart.

Mansfield—Creswell for Brown, Bailey for Naugle, Sayer for Gazella, Gazella for Francis.

Referee: Wingard, of Susquehanna. Umpire: Middlesworth, of Susquehanna. Linesmen: Harkins, of Susquehanna and Felton, of Bucknell. Time of quarters: 10 minutes.

SOPHOMORES WIN IN ANNUAL CLASS SCRAP

MANY INJURIES RESULT.—DISCONTINUANCE OF CUSTOM VERY PROBABLE.

Before one of the largest crowds that has ever witnessed a class scrap, the annual battle between the Sophomores and Freshmen took place Saturday morning, September 22, at ten o'clock on the Athletic Field.

Coming back with the same force, vigor, and strength displayed a year ago, the class of 1920 again carried away the honors by winning from the class of 1921. In its entirety the scrap was one of the best seen at Bucknell in a number of years. The experience of the Sophomores gained in last year's scrap stood out against the numbers of the Freshmen.

With the firing of the gun both sides which were lined up about seventy feet apart, dashed toward each other with speed, determination and a seriousness of purpose. The Sophomores instead of stopping to meet the Freshmen and starting to fight, rushed through the line, thereby forcing the Freshmen, who were unsuspecting of any tricks, back over their own goal, and all that was necessary was for the Sophs to hold them there. However this plan only worked in a measure and several good fights ensued before the final gun stopped all at the end of twenty minutes. At the final count the Sophomores had twenty-one men and the Freshmen nineteen.

Credit is to be given to the Freshmen for the manner in which they stuck to the fight, showing the Sophs they were not going to be beaten without a great attempt to carry away the laurels.

From the number of men on both sides who were carried from the field unconscious, and many more who felt the effects of the fight for days, it is probable that the scrap this year will be the last, and some other form of contest substituted. In fact it was after a great deal of discussion that the authorities of the school permitted the affair to take place this year.

BIBLE CLASS HEARS HELPFUL ADDRESS

DR. PHILLIPS SPEAKS TO STUDENTS ON "WHO IS A CHRISTIAN."

On Sunday morning Dr. Phillips addressed a large number of students at the College Bible Class, taking for his subject, "Who Is a Christian." An abstract of his talk follows:

We cannot answer the question, "Who is a Christian," by answering "What is a Christian," or by going back through the ages in an effort to formulate a definition for Christianity, for it cannot be considered as a thing, as something apart from life; but it must be treated as a part of life, affecting the activities of the individual. A Christian is he in whom love reigns, tho the reign of that love may not be perfect.

What this love is is hard to define in exact terms. Love is the essential part of a Christian's life. Sum up the life of a Christian at the end and you have love. Parents that make every possible sacrifice in order that their child may have every opportunity are prompted to do so by a love that reigns supreme. When you are always ready to make someone better, that is love. We interpret the word in terms of love. When the present world war broke out men were shocked. They were shocked because they thought love too great to permit such a thing. We must see in the bright and cloudy day alike the evidences of God's fatherly love. Love is essentially a social relation and the saying is true that "we do not love ourselves until we love another." In the knowledge of others is the realization of one's own fullness.

—Orchestra practice tonight at 6.45 in the Chapel.

THREE NEW TEACHERS FOR SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAVID BERLINO, MISS PINES AND MISS COOPER SECURED BY PROF. STOLZ.

Prof. Paul Stolz director of the Bucknell School of Music announces the addition of three new teachers to the music faculty. They are Prof. David M. Berlino, Miss Anna Pines and Miss Jessie Cooper. Miss Cooper and Prof. Berlino will teach piano forte, while Miss Pines has charge of the Supervisor's work. The constantly increasing number of music students may make it necessary to add still another piano teacher before long. Bucknell is fortunate in obtaining three such competent teachers and Prof. Stolz is to be commended for his choice.

Prof. David Berlino comes to Bucknell well renowned as a concert pianist and teacher. Commencing the study of piano forte at the early age of seven, Prof. Berlino has appeared in many large cities of the United States before he reached the age of eleven. In 1907 he went to Berlin, Germany, where he studied five years with Alberto Jonas; then two years with Ernest Dohdanyi and other well known musicians at the Royal Academy of Music.

As a concert pianist Prof. Berlino has done his greatest work, playing difficult concertos like the Liszt A Major, and the Saint-Saens G Minor compositions with various European orchestras. Along with the famous Berlino Concert trio of which he is still an active member, Br. Berlino, has appeared before the crowned heads of Europe, everywhere impressing his audiences and receiving requests for reappearance. Prof. Berlino gave a concert to a Bucknell audience last year in a program with Mme. De Sylva Shoen, another of the Bucknell Music faculty. Recently Mr. Berlino had an audience with Stokowsky, the leader of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra and after playing several of the difficult concertos, the management recommended that Mr. Berlino should appead in concert work with the orchestra. Success is assured for him in his work with students here.

Bucknell might justly consider itself fortunate in securing the professional services of Miss Anna Pines in the Supervisor's Department. She graduated from Bucknell in harmony and voice in 1902 under Dr. Elysee Avirognet. Nine years of active service in the Sewickley and Braddock schools of the Pittsburgh district has furnished her with the material necesary to direct prospective music supervisor's. Miss Pines designs all of her classwork to meet the requirements of the State Board of Music Examiners and, no doubt, will prove a valuable addition to the faculty.

Miss Cooper's services were obtained as a result of her brilliant concerts as a student here last year. Miss Cooper is a graduate of the Bucknell School of Music and won the Aviragnet prize for excellence in piano work. Miss Cooper has studied under Prof. Cruthers of the Coombs Conservatory and under Prof. Harold A. Briggs of the Boston Conservatory. As a representative of the Bucknell chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, Miss Cooper won great praise for her performance before the National convention of Mu Phi Epsilon held recently at the University of Kansas.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Helen Schaeffer, '18, received and accepted an invitation to membership in the Delta Delta Delta fraternity.

The Sophomore girls entertained the Freshmen girls at a little party on Friday night. The entertainment, however, was mainly provided by the Freshmen.

All the girls went to Shoner's Island a week ago Saturday to a picnic under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. There they had lively games and a general good time. Supper was cooked over a big bonfire and tasted just right.

Pi Beta Phi initiated the following girls: Anne Bertolet, Ruth Clark, Elthera Carson, Marian Goho, Pauline Schenck, Edith Larsen, Mable Ruckman, Elizabeth Patterson, Catherine Slifer, Helen Bodine and Marian Riess.

MILITARY DRILL IS AGAIN INSTITUTED

THOSE COMPLETING A FULL YEAR WILL RECEIVE COLLEGE CREDIT FOR WORK

Once again the steady tramp of marching feet to the tune of "forward, march, one, two, three, four," rang out across the Athletic Field as the most loyal of the volunteers responded to the call for drill at 9.30 on Saturday morning. Although the recruits numbered only twenty, many of them were veterans of last year's campaign and formed a good working foundation. Of these twenty, a bare half dozen were Freshmen, which was exceedingly disappointing because it was to them, the largest class of the school, that everyone looked for material with which to organize a new company. Of course as that was the first drill, not a very large number were expected, but it would be of great advantage to all to secure an early start.

With Lieutenant Ralph Bechtel in command and Olson, '20, as drill sergeant, the "company" executed various elementary foot movements and made splendid progress. Up and down the field they went, with a better military appearance each time. Then came an interesting variation from last year's drills. Olson, just back from the regulars set every man puffing by putting him through several simple but effective "setting-up" exercises. These exercises are the best of all gymnastics for rapid and desired physical results. A continuation of them will result in a source of joy for the examining physicians of succeeding draft boards, and will be in a class by itself for producing a bunch of husky young Bucknellians.

Future prospects for Military Training at Bucknell depend upon the drill on Saturday and the drills of this week.

Although no definite plans have as yet been made, owing to the fact that the number who will take the drill is as yet unknown, it is generally understood that arrangements to the following effect have been made: A minor course in Military Drill will be established with Lieutenant Bechtel in charge; three drills weekly, of an hour each will be called and absences recorded as in other classes; full credit for a college minor will be given those completing the course; drills in all probability will be conducted in the Armory on Third street.

Because, in years past, there has been no course in gymnastics at Bucknell, regardless of the statement to the contrary in the catalogs, a hearty support of a minor military course is warranted, for physical fitness, erect position, snappy movement and a well-balanced, graceful carriage are some of the very desirable features of the result of a good course in consistent training in military movments.

Notices on the Main College Bulletin Boards and in "The Bucknellian" will tell of further arrangements which have been made in this matter.

WALDNER, '17, WEDS.

Last Thursday afternoon at 3 p. m., Miss Lois McConnell became the wife of Carl Waldner, '17. Charles B. Moore, '19, acted as best man. The couple will tour Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, visiting the various training camps.

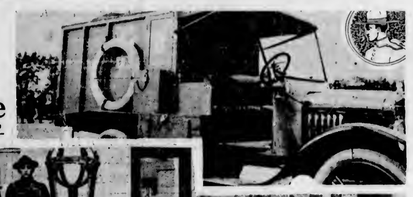
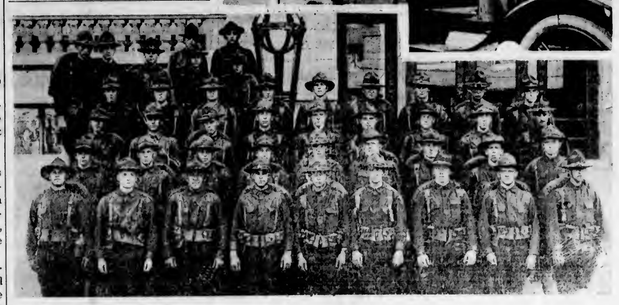
Ambulance Units Win Honor For Bucknell 125 Now in Service





BUCKNELL WELL REPRESENTED IN MANY BRANCHES

18 RECEIVE COMMISSIONED OFFICE BERTHS

First Ambulance Unit is Now In Active Service in France; Was One of First to Go.—Other May Not Leave Until Spring.

Bucknell is daily having honors heaped upon it by its two Ambulance units, one of which has been in France for many weeks. The second unit will camp at Valley Forge, according to recent orders, for the winter.

The first unit shown here was taken shortly before the boys left and the upper photograph illustrates the type of car with which the Orange and Blue boys worked. The showing of the first unit is one to be well proud of. During the summer's extensive training at Allentown the lads entered the work whole-hearted and as a result was almost the first unit to be chosen of the first 1,000 men called for service in France. In friendly contests, drill, deportment, the unit was always at the head of the list. Every man in the thousands of college men present prized membership in both Bucknell units and innumerable requests were received for transfers to our sections. High praise from the first was showered upon the local boys not only from their commanding officers but from other sectional comanding officers. When announcement came that the unit was almost the first of the first twelve to leave every member in Section 25 was envied by eager companions.

The second unit is not far behind the first in its good work and has a reputation that speaks well for Bucknell as a college. A surprising fact brought out at Allentown was the large number of Bucknell men in comparison to the size of the college. Even State College, with several times the number of students, supplied only one unit.

In addition to the Ambulance units there are about 75 Bucknell men in other branches of the service. Bucknell is represented in almost every training camp of the East. What is more the Bucknell men that are out are gaining honor for themselves and their college. Eighteen men have already received commisioned offices and many occupy the position of sergeant.

Following are the names and addresses of all the Bucknell men who are now in active service or in training.

STUDENT TREASURER READY TO RECEIVE BUDGETS

Bower, student treasurer of the Budget, will be in the College Office every day this week after 2.15 to take budget payments.

LOST!

A green fibre steamer trunk has been delivered to the wrong address. The person who has the trunk will please notify the College Office.

SOPHOMORE CLASS MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Sophomore class in the Chemical Lab at 4.15 P. M. Wednesday, Oct. 10. Everybody out!

PAY YOUR BUDGET

A Budget Ticket costs $10.00.

A budget admits the owner to all athletic contests and all other entertainments which are a part of the school's activities.

If you intend to support the various institutions of the college, as every loyal college man should, a budget will be a money saving proposition.

Because of the decreased enrollment the budget must be universally supported if it is to become of permanent institution.

Every student owes this to his college because the success of the college depends directly upon the support that the students give it; every student owes it to himself because a man is as big as his interests.

The names of all budget payers together with fraternity averages will be published in an early issue of the Bucknellian.

Pay your Budget and become a full-fledged Bucknell man.

VARSITY DOWNS SWARTHMORE 16-7

THRILLING PLAYS FEATURE THE GAME.

CELEBRATE VICTORY WITH HUGE BONFIRE

Spotts and Morrison Tear Up The Swarthmore Line.—Freible and Lewis Get Touchdowns.—Team Shows Power.

Saturday, October 6, 1917 will long be remembered in Bucknell history as the day on which she defeated Swarthmore by a 16-7 score and then celebrated with a huge bonfire. The fond hopes of many a day of both the student body and the team were realized, much to the surprise and chagrin of the men ni the Garnet jersies.

From the very beginning Swarthmore featured end runs and several times Bucknell "fell" for her opponents fake runs around either end. Cornog, who was about three-fourths of the visiting team, repeatedly received the ball and was the most consistent groundgainer Bucknell had to contend with. The man also had a formidable drop kick, as our team once discovered, much to her sorrow.

Enthusiasm rose high from the very beginning of the game. In the first quarter, after receiving the ball, Swarthmore tried several end runs. A minute later, Gerhart brought the grandstands to their feet by recovering the ball on a fumble by Swarthmore and running 25 yards before being tackled. With the ball in her possession, Bucknell successfully worked a forward pass for an additional 30 yards, placing the ball on the 30 yard line. Signals were called for "Waddell back" and from this position, he kicked a field goal. The quarter ended with the score at 3-0.

The second quarter was a display of some pretty football. Swarthmore nearly caused a Bucknellian heart failure by kicking the pig skin 35 yards, dropping the ball on the 10 yard line. Spotts and Morrison came to the rescue and rushed the ball down the field. In one center rush after another, Morrison would go through the line, each time netting a good gain for the team. The half ended with the ball in mid-field and no score made.

Following the kick-off for the second half, Swarthmore worked the ball down field by a system of line plunges. Then Cornog, by a long cross run, scored. He kicked out for position and the goal was also successful. Score 7-3. After the kick-off it was evident that the Bucknell team was fully aroused. Spotts was given the ball and sent through the line between guard and tackle. Morrison bucked the line at center, and Bucknell had another first down to her credit. Again did Spotts deserve the attention of the cheer-leaders by repeating his performance. Then Kostos duplicated the good work he had been doing throughout the game by executing an end run and dodging the majority of the Garnet men. Another first down for Bucknell was announced. Once more was the ball given to Spotts and there was a wild hurrah as he went over the two teams headlong in the form of an aerial torpedo. First downs were coming easily at this stage of the game. Kostos starred with another end run, Morrison with a center rush. A forward pass on a third down netted us fifteen yards but all efforts at scoring seemed in vain for the third quarter ended with Swarthmore ahead.

The final quarter was exciting in the extreme. The teams surged back and forth, keeping the specta-

THE BUDGET SYSTEM

The Budget System, initiated in the fall of 1914, made remarkable progress in the first three years of its existence, so that last year it seemed as if it had surely become a permament institution when there were over three hundred Budget tickets sold. This year the scheme lacks backing.

The Budget system is an organization for which the students alone are responsible. The authorities of the school are in no way concerned and could not be expected to take a hand in it. Its success or failure lies up to the students. Helpers in the college office have been kind enough to take the work in charge until the students get organized and already have collected 70 Budgets. This shows that the students are willing to support it and all that is lacking is a little energy on the part of those who have it in charge. The Budget has the sanction of the student body and the Senior Council should see to it that the proper measures are taken to make the system effective.

The usual objection made to the Budget is that too much goes for Athletics, but this can hardly be held as an objection in view of what happened to Swarthmore on Saturday. So that with the prospects bright for a highly prosperous football season the backers of the Budget ought to make it almost equal what it has been in the past.

As formerly the names of all Budget payers will be published in the Bucknellian together with fraternity averages.

tors in great suspense. It seemed certain that Bucknell would not be able to score for as the quarter advanced the ball was going farther and farther from the desired goal. Then Cornog tried another drop kick but it was blocked by Newcomb and the ball was ours. The ball was passed to Hall who advanced it 40 yards before hitting the turf. A surprise was in store for Swarthmore for Bucknell again passed the ball, this time over the other end. Freible gathered in the ball and dashed over the line for Bucknell's first touchdown. After Swarthmore received the ball she tried a forward pass which Lewis intercepted. In and out among the Swarthmore players he dodged, missing this one and straight-arming the next, until but one remained. This one, however, seemed especially dangerous until Dyer took him out as prettily as ever it was seen done. On down the field Lewis ran for three-fourths the length of the field, making the second touchdown in two minutes. The kick was as good as the run. There was but one more scrimmage between the touchdown and the final whistle. Bucknell was the winner by 16-7.

With the blowing of the whistle, Cheer-leader Musser announced a bon fire on the Athletic Field at 9 P. M. The Freshmen did their part nobly, and at 9 o'clock, when everyone had assembled, a huge pile of wood, as high as the Gym was in the center of the field. Swaying from the very top was a "snipe lantern" which some enterprising Freshman had borrowed for the occasion. Spotts was given the honor of touching off Swarthmore's pyre, and as the flames arose songs and cheers awoke echoes on old Montour. The Sem girls attended in full force and favored the audience with "Sem Specials." The stars of the team, Elliott, Gerhart, Kline, Spotts, Morrison, Hall Newcomb, Bortz, Kostos and others were called upon for speeches. The ceremony ended with a snake dance about the burning mass.

The line up:

Bucknell		Swarthmore
Hall	left end	Gillispee
Gerhart	center	Fitts
Kline	right guard	McAllister
Newcomb	right tackle	Larkin
Elliott	right end	Howell
Waddell	quarterback	Westcott
Morrison	halfback	Lukens
Kostos	halfback	Durbin
Bortz	fullback	Cornog

Substitutions—Bucknell: Mackey for Spotts; Spotts for Bortz; Moore for Mackey; Freible for Elliott.

Swarthmore—Heabner for McAllister; Ewell for Wstcott Stowe for Durbin.

Umpire: Davidson, Pensylvania. referee, Godcharles, Lafayette. Linesmen: Wingard, Maine; Pelton, Bucknell. Time of quarters 10 and 12 minutes.

MUSICAL CLUB

The Bucknell Musical Club, consisting of the Glee Club and the Orchestra, decided at their last meeting to present a minstrel show to begin the season's work. Director Paul Stolz has already arranged the songs that will be used in the chorus work. Excellent song material is available this season because of the almost superfluous amount of popular music on the market. The clubs will meet this evening and an interlocutor, end men and soloists will be selected. The Glee Club and Orchestra have fine prospects for the year because of the good material in the Freshmen class. All fellows with musical ability are urged to attend this evening's meeting as there is still a chance for a place in the minstrel which will be given within two weeks.

—The orchestra meets at 6.45 this evening in the chapel. Cap and Dagger meeting in Euepia at 7.30 P. M. Thursday.

WOMEN'S JOURNAL UNDERGOES A CHANGE

PUBLICATION BROADENS ITS SCOPE BY ADDING MEN TO THE STAFF.

The Bucknell Women's Journal underwent a slight change last week when arrangements were made for the men of Bucknell to assist in its publication. Heretofore the Women's Journal has been the official organ of the women's college. Acting upon the suggestion of Prof. Fries, the Publishers of the Women's Journal decided to extend the scope of their publication by annexing men to the staff, thus making it an organ of all Bucknell. Consequently last Thursday a meeting was held in the library in order to select representatives from the "hill" and to formulate plans for the issueing of the paper. At this meeting Samuel D. Lenox, '18; H. C. Greenland, '19, and Walter D. Roos, '20, were chosen to take care of the men's part in the publication.

Altho the paper will retain its original name thruout the coming year it will be considered as a literary production representative of the entire student body. Practically the same departments will be retained and several new ones introduced.

The ultimate aim of the Publication is to establish a purely literary journal. The activities of the school will occupy only a minor place, the special feature being short stories, poems and other bits of literature which are produced by the students. In all probability there will be short story contest open to all students with a money prize for the winner.

SECOND BIG MASS MEETING

Spirit ran high at the second mass meeting of the year Friday evening.

C. Dale Wolfe, Prothonotary of Union County, a Bucknell graduate of the clcass of '93, and one of the best linemen Bucknell ever had, was the principal speaker. Mr. Wolfe gave a vivid picture of the good old days when the Orange and Blue used to defeat Harvard on her own field to the tune of 72-0. Mr. Wolfe brought out the point that football players are divided into two classes—first, those who give in when the tide is against them, and those who, when the score in on the wrong side, are spurred on to greater effort. The speaker urged the team to do its best in the coming contest and the school to stand by their men assuring them that they could have anything in the world if they wanted it badly enough.

Next to Mr. Wolfe's address the band was the chief "pep" producer of the occasion. It made its bow to the public this season with a number of lively selections, including the famous trombone specials.

To add to the dignity of the occasion the football men were induced to occupy seats on the platform. Eliott, Hall, Kline and Morrison were called upon for speeches. Each of the speakers expressed his confidence in the team and called for the support of the school. Morrison, Sophomore class president, called the Freshmen roll.

The cheering and singing led by Cheer-leader Musser and his assistant Mathieson, showed improvement over that of the previous meeting and should become better as the Freshmen grow more practised.

OPERATIC SOCIETY

The Bucknell Operatic Society has begun rehearsing for this season's presentation which will be the celebrated English comic opera entitled, "H. M. S. Pinafore." Miss Etta A. Brown, of the Music faculty, who is the director of the club, has the cast about chosen, and work on the solo parts is well under way. "Pinafore" is perhaps a more catchy opera than either "The Mikado" or "The Little Tycoon," of last year. The cast consists of eleven characters and a chorus of about twenty ladies and the same number of men. Freshmen are eligible to membership in the operatic society and persons interested in the work should report at rehearsal this evening.

—Everybody out to give the team a send-off Friday.

VARSITY LOSES TO COLGATE TEAM

ORANGE AND BLUE TEAM PUTS UP HARD FIGHT.

WEIGHT GAVE BIG ODDS TO MAROON ELEVEN

Barsity Holds Out for a 3-0 Score in First Half.—Players Receive High Praise for Excellent Playing.—Best Prospects for Penn Game.

Although the Orange and Blue team was defeated by a 24-0 score on Saturday, the score is by no means an indication of the nature of the game played. The Colgate team was far superior in both weight and experience. Every man in the Maroon backfield had three full years' experience on the team, and not one of them was an ounce less than 190 pounds. Even the line of the Colgate team averaged 185 pounds. These were tremendous odds for our team to oppose, but Bucknell met them and made a splendid showing against them. Following the game, Dr. Bryant, Colgate's President, met our team and congratulated them upon their excellent playing. He told them they were the first team to hold their backfield in such a manner.

The score by quarters was 3, 0, 7, 14. Gillo, Colgate's big fullback, was the individual star of the New York team and made two touchdowns. One of these was made after a spectacular run of 40 yards. The large majority of our opponents' gains were made on off tackle plays and straight football. Seldom did they attempt any forward passes and few of these were worked for long gains.

Long passes were not very productive ground gainers for Bucknell. Short, snappy passes across centre were more consistent means of getting down the field, and even there our team seemed at a disadvantage, for but three of the seven attempts were successful to any degree. Colgate's first touchdown was on an intercepted forward pass; in turn, Wargo recovered the ball very prettily on a blocked pass by Colgate. The end runs of Lewis and Bortz and the line plunging of Spotts were the features of the game for Bucknell.

A notable comment of our returning team was upon the support given the team by the Colgate student body. Every man was in the stand cheering the team on and the President and Faculty were on the sidelines rooting as hard as the student body above them. The game was played before a crowd of about five hundred, and the day was an ideal one for football, brisk air and a little wind. Before such a crowd, our team did nobly after a hard trip on which but little or no sleep was had.

Prospects for the Penn game next week are of the best. Dyer and Frieble have minor injuries on the legs, but otherwise our team is O. K., excepting bruises. By hard work this week, our team will show Philadelphians something, and prove to them, that instead of the innocents being abroad, they have remained at home, on Franklin Field.

The line-up:

Bucknell.		Colgate.
Hall	Left end.	Castellanes
Gearhart	Center.	Carroll

VARSITY TO MEET PENN ON SATURDAY

RESUMPTION OF FOOTBAL RELATIONS WHICH WERE BROKEN OFF IN 1905.

Athletic relations will be resumed between Bucknell and Pennsylvania Saturday, October 20th, when the football teams of these two institutions will meet on Franklin Field.

This will be a big event for the alumni of Bucknell living in and about Philadelphia. It has been a long time since the severance of relations, and the students have been looking forward to this game with a great deal of anticipation.

Pennsylvania is the logical large college for Bucknell to meet in football. And perhaps Penn would have been our opponent continuously if had not been for the unfortunate circumstances surrounding a contest in 1905.

It is pleasant to note, however, that Pennsylvania has changed her attitude toward the small college in the last few years, and there is not today the constant charge that no small institution can get a square deal on the gridiron against Penn.

Why Pennsylvania ever allowed herself to gain such a reputation is a mystery to thoughtful persons, because Penn is an institution that draws very largely from the smaller institutions of learning, and it would seem that she should strive in every way to make her ideals appeal to persons connected with such institutions.

That Philadelphia will turn out a large Bucknell delegation for the Penn game this year is assured. It is the duty of every student who can possibly arrange to do so to be in Philadelphia next Saturday. Many have already made arrangements to see the game, which will be one well worth seeing.

ENTERS Y. M. C. A. SERVICE.

G. Grant Painter, '16, left Sunday night for New York City where he will enter the Y. M. C. A. war service and will probably embark for France in a short time. During the summer Painter took a course of training in Y. M. C. A. work at Springfield, Mass., and while awaiting the call of the government, assisted the college Y. M. C. A. organization by acting as General Secretary during the opening of the fall term.

S. A. E. ENTERTAINS.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertained at a progressive five hundred party at their house on Saturday evening. About 25 young ladies of the Seminary were the guests of the evening. Madame de Sylvia-Schoen and Miss Jessie Cooper acted as chaperones. Prizes of roses and candy for high scores were won by Miss Emily Mackey and Miss Alice Hackett.

—Pay your Budget.

BUDGET SYSTEM LACKS SUPPORTERS

RECORD FALLS FAR BELOW THAT OF LAST YEAR.

ONLY 83 BUDGETS HAVE BEEN SOLD

Institution of Auditing Committee Insures Proper Proportionment of Funds.—Fraternity and Class Averages in Next Week's Bucknellian.

With only eighty-three budgets paid to Student Treasurer Bower, it seems very evident that the students care very little whether Bucknell has Athletics, Dramatics, Glee Club, etc., this year or not. The activities which the Budget System supports keep the name of Bucknell before the public, brings students to this institution every year, and raises the reputation of the college. Surely all wide-awake, live Bucknell students do not wish to see the football team cancel its schedule for want of funds; especially this year with such a promising team on the field. The reputation made by the Combined Musical Clubs last year was made possible only by the help of the Budget System. Cap and Dagger with the assistance of the Budget gave the best plays of its history. and the Y. M. C. A. brought many excellent speakers here. The Budget also helps to support the Bucknellian.

All old Bucknell men realize what the Budget has done for the school in the past three years, and what a saving it has been to the students. Athletics alone are worth the full price of the Budget, and then to this is added all the other enjoyments one realizes for the payment of that few dollars. Last year the Budget System was a startling success. Nearly every man in school paid his Budget fee; this year many openly oppose the system, and the greatest argument is, that athletics are going to fall off and their money will be lost. Those who have seen the Varsity play know that Bucknell has one of the best football teams she has had in many years, and from the record made by the basket-ball team last year all feel confident that Bucknell will have a banner team again this year. Baseball, tennis and track, although cancelled last Spring by the sudden change of conditions, caused by the United States entering the war, will be in full force again this Spring and Bucknell will hold her old-time pace.

Treasurer Bower wshes every one to know that in case athletics are cancelled, everyone who has paid his Budget, will get a refund, so he will lose nothing. All the organizations dependent on the Budget System for support, will hardly be able to exist this year without that support, so that it is up to every live student to get busy and boost the Budget. Treasurer Bower has made a canvass of some of the fraternities, and the remainder will be visited this week. Be prepared to receive him, and pay the fee.

Last year discussion was prevalent as to the fact that the books of the Budget System were not audited a sufficient number of times, and the money was not divided equally enough. This year the auditing committee is headed by Professor Drum, and the books will be audited once a month, and every effort will be made to give every organization its full amount, in just consideration of what it gives to the students.

The Budget can be paid by cash only.

The Budget cannot be made successful by half-way support, it takes the co-operation and support of every man in college; and if every man has his interest centered in Bucknell's welfare he will pay his budget fee. The sooner he pays his Budget the sooner he becomes a real Bucknell man. Then he will feel that he is a part of the institution and will follow the course of its progress with a keen interest.

CAP AND DAGGER

On Thursday evening Cap and Dagger dramatic society held its second business meeting. Sherk, '20, was elected vice president of the society to fill the place of Aubrey, who has not returned to school this year.

BLOOMSBURG DEFEATS SCRUBS 46 TO 0

SECOND STRING MEN PUT UP GAME FIGHT AGAINST HEAVY TEAM.

The "Scrubs" journeyed to Bloomsburg Saturday where they met the Bloomsburg Normal team and were defeated by a 46-0 score. The Bucknell boys fought gamely to the finish even tho heavily outweighed, Bloomsburg was unable to gain thru the line but made most of their gains on end runs.

The line-up:

Blomsburg		Bucknell
Hodder	centre	Bell
Henrie	right guard	Stone
Dormack	right tackle	Lees
Johns	right end	Heim
Kirkuff	quarterback	Seeman
Howe	right half back	Schwenkler
Bavolack	full back	Kitlowski

THREE HUNDRED STUDENTS ENJOY SOCIAL EVENING AT ANNUAL AFFAIR

Vague rumors that have been floating about the "Hill" for the last few weeks that the annual College Christian Endeavor Reception to new students was a thing of the past, were effectively quieted last Friday night when that long-awaited event took place in the Baptist church. This reception has always been looked forward to as one of the features of the college year and this year proved to be no exception to the rule. About three hundred students turned out to enjoy the evening of entertainment provided by the committee in charge.

After those present had become acquainted and settled in groups, a literary program was provided which brought forth much applause. Humorous readings by Misses Hewitt, '18, Farley, '18, Stahl, '18, and Mr. Sherk, '20, evoked much laughter and were greatly appreciated. The Hartz brothers, '21, entertained by a violin and 'cello duet while Miss Schenck, '20, contributed her share with a delightful vocal selection.

Refreshments were served and the evening was brought to a close by the ruthless call of the chaperons.

The committee in charge of affairs to whom much credit must be given are: Misses Elizabeth Stevens, '18, Dorothy McClintick, '18, Messrs. T. J. Heim, '20 George Gaskill '20 and Elton Richards '20.

OPERA REHEARSAL

Opera rehearsal will take place this evening at 6.45 o'clock in Miss Brown's studio. All concerned are requested to be present.

NEWS COMES FROM AMBULANCE UNITS

ONE UNIT AT THE FRONT AND SECOND IS ANXIOUS.

UNIT 25 ENJOYING LIFE IN FRANCE

Strict Censorship Holds Letters to a Descriptive Nature.—Lighton and Sipley Tell of Army Life.—Hean, '12, Writes Humorous Letter About Camp Life in Georgia.

It is with much pleasure that the Bucknellian this week presents its first direct news letter from the two Ambulance Units which left here last June. The first letter is a fine description by one of the boys in France. Owing to censorship the letter is practically all descriptive, but very interestng in its contrasts.

The second letter is from one of the boys in the Unit still remaining at Allentown, and thru it runs the forward hope of active service, in comparison with the news from across the ocean which contains beneath its surface the satisfaction of already "being in the fight."

My Dear Friends:

Here is a little news for the Bucknell boys. At present we are enjoying the life—as far as that goes. It's so far different from anything I have ever known that the novelty hasn't altogether worn off yet. It's all a great experience, and is making real hard men of us, if sleeping on hard ground can do such. But the routine life does put one in condition to stand lots of knocks, and we get plenty of it.

This is a strange country, to what I have known, and it is very interesting to study the character and customs of the people. I have come into pretty close contact with two peasant families, and one of the merchant class. They present a chance for fine study.

In this section most of the farming is done by oxen, few horses being in evidence, except in the towns, where they are usually of a very poor type. The fields are small, 1-3 to 1 1-2 acres being the size of most of them; few wooden fences are in evidence, but the fields are divided by a thick blackberry hedge in most cases, (sometimes an evergreen or thorn bush is used) the hedges being from three to ten feet wide and about as high. To my mind they waste about as much land building these clumsy hedges, as they really till, and it is waste, for I have only seen a couple instances where they pick the berries.

Eats are about the same as in the States for some articles, others are very expensive. Sweets of any kind, pastry and chocolate are very high. We pay just about double for chocolate, and then I don't like it as well as we had back home.

Last Sunday I bought a dinner at a restaurant for 55 cents—5 courses, and it was great. I didn't eat the first tho, it consisted of boiled snails. Most of the French grub is good. The water supply doesn't amount to much, the people here don't care, they only use it for washing, drink wine for every thirst. But I can't go their wine. It's nothing like we have at home; sells here for 16 cents a bottle. Champagne is bought from $1.00 to $3.00 a bottle.

I am sending this to you at school, as you will doubtless be there before this reaches the States.

We can never say where we are, but mail will reach any of us by addressing Private ————, Sec. 25, U. S. A. A. S., American Expeditionary Forces, via New York. Mail from any or all the fellows will be quite welcome at any time.

Best regards to all Bucknell.

Lester E. Lighton.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1917

The Orange and Blue football team of 1917 is being followed with more than an ordinary degree of interest. The first big game of the season in which Swarthmore was defeated came as a startling surprise. No less surprising was the showing made against Colgate on Saturday. By hard fighting the Varsity held the score down to 24 points, the significance of which will be realized when it is seen what Colgate does to some of their future opponents.

The team, although it contains in its line-up many new men, is imbued with a fighting spirit that wins games. It has already proven itself worthy of the whole-hearted support of every student and alumnus. More so now than ever, for it is fighting an uphill fight. The end in view is to place Bucknell again in that high position in the football world which she once so proudly held, and to turn in a season's record which will approximate that of any of the wonderful Orange and Blue teams of former years.

A highly comendable showing was made last week when more than three teams of football candidates appeared on the field. This was a material advantage to the team, for it requires a good second team to make a good Varsity. It is imperative that an equally good showing be made this week, for it is absolutely the duty of every Bucknellian to put forth his greatest strength in an effort to help the team beat Penn in the coming struggle next Saturday.

To defeat the Red and Blue team may have seemed at one time more or less of a dream, but now we see even more than the possibility. It is the duty of every undergraduate and alumnus, who can possibly do so, to be on Franklin Field next Saturday to add his efforts, small tho they may be and help the team to that much-desired victory over Penn.

Such a victory would make the Orange and Blue team a recognized force in the football world, if it is not already worthy of such recognition.

To the Bucknellian:

Perhaps it would be of interest to the readers of this paper who are all loyal Bucknellians to know just what the men are doing who left Lewisburg in June with the Ambulance Corps.

When we arrived in Allentown we were divided into two units. At that time there were thirty-six men in a unit but since then the French system has been adopted and it takes forty-five men to make up a full unit.

One of our sections, No. 525, was fortunate enough to be selected to go over with the first overseas contingent and they have now been in France for over two months. Very seldom do we here from them but we have heard that they will not see any service before spring. They had a very exciting trip across but censorship forbids them telling us about it. I saw one letter in which the writer advised us to bring lots of chocolate over with us when we go as a tenent cake of Hershey's chocolate over there would cost fifty cents and it is going up every day.

This is the proper way to address a letter to any of your Bucknell friends who are in France.

Full name .....
United States Army Ambulance
Service, Section No. 525, A. E. F.
via New York.

The Bucknell men who are left are in Section No. 524. Since our coming here we have lost two of our men who took commissions as first lieutenants, Downing, '17, and Seeber, '18, have successfully passed the examinations and have fine positions. At the present time our section includes the following men: First Sergeant McDermott, Sec. Sergeants, Mangan and Newburry; Corporal, Murray, who joined us in July at Allentown; Cooks Sipley and Gandy; Bugler, Carvolth and Privates Gaenzle, Kerth, Rinebold, Davis, Ritter, Steele, Peck, Folmer, Watkins Heckendorn and Banks. In our section we also have men from Lehigh, Colgate, Penn State and from Reading and Williamsport.

Two weeks ago our section left Allentown in company with nineteen other sections and have been sleeping out in shelter tents since we left. We are about four miles from Norristown and have a beautiful location. The main purpose for taking us out was to empty the buildings so that heating and lighting appratus could be installed. Tomorrow we leave for our return trip to Allentown and expect to make it in three days. We are in Battalion 20 and have a fine lot of men to associate with as there are four other sections besides our own and they are from Purdue University, Iowa State, University of Florida and W. & J.

It made us happy and we certainly felt proud of our boys when we learned that the Orange and Blue football team defeated Swarthmore on Saturday by a score of 16-7. I am asked to congratulate the members of the team for their fine showing.

In the future we will try to keep the student body informed about what we are doing.

SIPLEY, '17

Augusta, Ga.
October 11, 1917

Dear Editor:

I trust that the school is up to normal in attendance and spirit. This war business has certainly knocked the spots off atendance figures in some of these Southern schools. I have not heard how the Northern colleges fared this fall.

Of course you know I gave Hershey the temporary 'good bye' and Law, the fickle goddess, a fleeting farewell, and in double quick time caught the Atlantic Coast Line Limited for Augusta, Ga., Camp Hancock, and the Army Y. M. C. A. work. It happened all so quickly that I hardly realized that I had left my home until the perspiration began to ooze while standing in the hot sun of an early September day on the main stem of this fine little southern city.

As the saying goes, "its a great life if you don't weaken" and here I am out in a leaky tent with a nice rain trying to dodge intermittent drops of water and drive this typewriter carriage along its weary way.

If drops seem to smear this page, please do not think they are tears. I am not weepy this A. M., only a bit damp.

All the same the Army Y. M. C. A. is doing a great work in the camp;

"A COLLEGE AIM," BIBLE CLASS TOPIC

DR. PHILLIPS IN TWO ADDRESSES DEVELOPS INTERESTING SUBJECT

Last Sunday and on the Sunday preceeding Dr. Phillips addressed the College Bible Class on the subject, "A College Aim."

The aim of a college man is, as set down by Dr. Phillips, to make progress in the way in which Jesus made progress. Jesus made progress because he set up no attainment as a goal. But he grew more and more until at the end he was deeper into the life of his time than ever before. Jesus grew not in an impracticable way, but by getting farther into the life about him. The life of a college man grows richer not from things outside of college but when he follows the leadings of his immediate circumstances.

Jesus made religion fundamental. He looked at life from the fundamental point of view, and that is religion. The three fundamental elements in life are: work, mating and worship. It is these that make life, and in order to be properly directed must be viewed from the religious point of view. When viewed from this standpoint they become natural and inherent.

The question may arise, how can we make progress in the same way that Jesus made progress. The answer is that we must take ourselves for what we are; for only as we see to it that these natural tendencies have their finest and fullest direction do we grow.

The highest and finest example of this can be found in Jesus. Jesus acted from principle. If, then, we are to make progress in the way in which He made progress we must test things as to their value and validity; if the principle involved is good we keep it, if it is bad we cast it aside, but to cast a thing aside before we have first tested it is anarchy. Thus we may choose the good from the bad; make progress as Jesus made progress and grow deeper into the life about us.

Lambda Chi Alpha Informal Dance

With thirty-two couples present the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity conducted a Columbus Day dance in its house on Front Street Friday night. Dancing began at 9 o'clock and continued until 1 o'clock, with the Phi Gamma Delta orchestra furnishing the music.

The fraternity was honored with eight men from Zeta Chapter, of State College, who were as follows: J. Dougherty, A. G. Bannett, H. R. Brunner, R. D. Gates, G. R. Weeks, J. Goodwin, P. Kestner and R. Bowman.

The patrons and patronesses for the evening were: Professor and Mrs. Frank Simpson, Professor and Mrs. F. Eugene Burpee, Professor and C. A. Lindeman, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Derby and Mr. and Mrs. Reish.

On Saturday, October 6, fraternities at the Women's College held initiations. The initiates were: not only in catering to the physical and educational requirements of the men but to their spiritual, as well. The platform upon which this camp work is carried on is a solid one and constant watch is kept that the minor things of Y. M. C. A. do not become the major. If any one asks you whether the Y. M. C. A. is just running a combination stationery and moving picture outfit, you can nail that 'camgaign lie' right on the head.

NEWS FROM AMBULANCE UNIT.

You know we enjoy (?) the same hours as the enlisted men. We arise at 5:45 A. M. You could not sleep if you wanted to as all the bands make a strenuous effort at that hour to blast all the sleep out of your system by their combined wind power. And who could sleep when that grand old patriotic air—The Old Gray Mare—is being indiscriminately scattered abroad upon the chilly air of this southern camp? You know I have serious doubts whether this is the Sunny South. About 5.45 A. M. it feels like Perry and the North pole.

We mess with the Supply Company of the Fourth Regiment, Infantry. The Unit I am attached to is number 79 and serves the First and Fourth Infantry. We are located at the extreme end of the Camp, about six miles from town. Pardon the digression but back to the important discussion of what we get to eat. Well sir, the days of hard tack and corn beef must be over, for I assure you I have not seen or smelt the above items of food. Why we had ham and eggs for breakfast this morning. Can you beat it? Yes sir, the quantity and quality of food can not be equaled or excelled. There are always kickers and you would gets kicks if caviar and pickled peacock tongues were served three times a day. I am beginning to think I am adding weight to my frame as the trouser belt must be slipped another notch front. I may surprise you all yet by thrusting upon the innocent and unsuspecting public a regular bay window.

Well, here I have strung along quite a lengthy letter of a wandering style that should shock Dr. Philips' class in English Composition. My warmest regards to the boys.

Yours,
Frank R. Hean, '12.

PENN WINS OUT OVER BUCKNELL

SPIRITED CONTEST ENDS IN 20-6 VICTORY FOR PENN

MANY BUCKNELL ROOTERS AT GAME

Teams Were Even But Varsity Gets Wrong End of the Breaks.—Hall Fractures Collar Bone.

Last Saturday the Varsity was defeated by Penn by a score of 20 to 6. The score, however, shows very little of what actually took place on Franklin Field. In no way does the score indicate the fact that Bucknell completely out-played the Penn team, that the ball was in Penn's territory over two-thirds of the time, and that it was penalties alone that beat Bucknell. In running down punts, in consistent ground gaining thru the line or around end, in the forward pass method and in punting Bucknell had the edge on Penn.

In the first quarter Bucknell received Penn's kick-off and tore thru the Penn team at such a rate that a touchdown would have resulted within the first few minutes of play. At this point five penalties coming close together stopped Bucknell and made Penn's score possible.

Altho the Varsity was within striking distance of the goal line many times in the next two quarters they were unable to score.

In the last period both teams scored. Penn's best playing came in the early part of this period when they carried the ball 40 yards by straight football for a touchdown. Their last touchdown was more or less of a fluke. Berry received a punt and ran thrue the entire team for a touchdown. To get by the team, however, it was necessary for him to go very "near the foul line." So near in fact that both teams stopped and as he was pacing down the field to down the ball, players of both teams began to line up again where he had eluded his tacklers. Bucknell's touchdown came near the close of the period. After the ball had been rushed up the field by straight football, a forward pass to Brandt netted the last few yards.

The fight that the Orange and Blue team displayed to the very end of the game was remarkable. There was no individual starring, but every man put up a brilliant exhibition of football. The student body should feel as proud of their team as if they had won a victory.

Bucknell rooters were there in force both from Bucknell and from the vicinity of Philadelphia. They occupied a section of the North Stands and sent out cheers for the team thruout the whole game.

Hall fractured his collar bone in the second half and was taken to the University Hospital. All other members of the team escaped serious injury.

Next Saturday the team will meet Cornell at Ithaca. Formerly the Cornell game has been an easy victory for Cornell, but this year the teams are about evenly matched and victory for the Orange and Blue would come as no great surprise.

The line-up::

Penn		Bucknell
Weil	left end	Hall
Jerauld	left guard	Kline
A. Wray	centre	Gerhart
Deiter	right guard	Boswell
Cook	right tackle	Newcomb Captain
Miller, (Capt)	right end	Elliott
Lerch	quarterback	Waddell

ALUMNUS WRITES ABOUT PENN GAME

CRITICISES STAND TAKEN BY PHILA. PAPERS.—PRAISE FOR THE TEAM.

History repeats itself. A score of years ago a Bucknell team played a Pennsylvania team in football. The Bucknell team was better than the Penn team yet were officially beaten by the score of 6-5.

Last Saturday another Bucknell team was beaten officially by the score of 20-6. The opinion of unbiased spectators was that Bucknell was the equal, if not better than the Penn team.

In the first quarter Bucknell tore up Penn's line and our backs made ten and fourteen yard runs around the ends.

In the fourth quarter a Penn man ran out of bounds near the grandstand on his way for a touchdown, and when the umpire was shown where he stepped over the line he ignored the protests and permitted the touchdown. At this time a Penn man in the grandstand remarked, "That's pretty rotten."

The Philadelphia newspapers, as is their custom, did not give Bucknell the proper credit in their accounts of the game.

Every man on our team fought every minute with the undauntable Bucknell spirit which brings credit to our University.

Lambda Chi Alpha Enjoys Musical Treat

Lambda Chi Alpha was agreeably entertained last Monday evening by a visit of the celebrated Tone Test artists of the Edison Phonograph Co., at their home on Front and St. Louis streets. Through the courtesy of Mr. Harold E. Lyman, the manager and personal friend of H. C. Chase. '18, Miss Coralina Lazzari, Italian contraltoist and Miss Freeman, New York violinist, came to the fraternity house at the conclusion of the concert to the town people, held in the court house.

The students who were fortunate enough to hear the trio at the court house can easily appreciate the ease with which they won the admiration and applause of the fellows.

When the artists were finally compelled to leave in order to catch a train, the men gathered together on the porch and showed their appreciation by giving a hearty yell for each one

STUDENT GOVT. BIBLE CLASS TOPIC

DR. PHILLIPS' ADDRESS OF PARTICULAR INTEREST

SHOWS WEAKNESS OF THE PRESENT SYSTEM

Points Out in Detail What Is Necessary for An Effective Student Government System.

Student government was the topic delt with by Dr. Phillips in the Bible Class on Sunday. The subject is one of more than ordinary importance at the present time and warrants the careful consideration of every student. An abstract of the address follows:

The principle arrived at in the preceeding talks was: we should make progress as Jesus did by going into our immediate environment. The purpose now is to apply this principle in reference to our Student Government.

The term covers five forms: (1) student courts for those caught cheating, (2) advisory committees to the faculty, (3) committees having more or less disciplinary power, (4) committees for the maintenance of order in some one dormitory and (5) student body asociations differing from the four preceding forms in having no connection with discipline. The Student Council among the young men coresponds with number three and the Student Executive Government among the young women corresponds with number five. In every form there is the same general aim: student participation in the government of the college.

Student government was first introduced in American colleges by Thomas Jefferson while he was in charge of the University of Virginia. Though it has existed in many colleges since the period of the American Revolution it has not been uniformly successful. But since we, members of a democracy, feel instinctively that the governed should have a voive in the government, we cannot but ask why has student government failed and how can it succeed.

The causes of failure are first a misconception of the function of student government. Students conceiving that the function is to give the students an opportunity to use their power have relied on rules and regulations. The consequence has been that the individual has had less liberty, less consideration than he has under faculty government.

The second cause of failure is the fact that the governing body sometimes does not represent that sentiment, that public opinion, upon which all order must rest. For example that the present Student Council among the young men does not represent the best judgement of the entire student body is shown by the fact that after one meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. room, the room was left in such a condition that the secretary felt it necessary to request that the meetings be held elsewhere. For the same reason the Council not rising above that weakness of emotionalism and independence, which tempts young people, permits the destruction of property for the purpose of celebrating a victory. This misrepresentation arises as a rule from an election based on political factions.

The third cause is a want of cooperation between the faculty and the students. Contrary to student opinion no scheme surrenders entire control into the hands of the students. In all schemes the faculty is supposed to have advisory power in ordinary matters and veto power in serious matters. The failure in this relation comes not from the veto power but from the attitude that does not know how to give advice or the attitude that does not know how to take advice.

To eliminate these causes and to make student government effective rules should be reduced to a minimum. Such a reduction may mean greater difficulties, may lead to partiality, but freedom, individual expression, implies more danger than does regulation. Again election to the representative bodies should be based on such majorities that it would be practically impossible for any faction to control an election. And in the representative bodies Sophomores and after the first term Freshmen should participate. For the governed should have a voice in the government.

Finally there should be a give and take spirit between faculty and the students. The faculty should not control but direct actions. For there is a difference between control and direction. Control is Prussian; direction is American. Control means taking over the power of decision and action by a higher authority; direction means trusting that the students will ultimately do what is best, expecting that advice will not always be taken, being satisfied not because forms of conduct have been established but because general good will has been created. For good will is more than specific acts; it is the government of social comity.

SCRUBS HOLD DICKINSON TO A SCORELESS TIE

SECOND STRING MEN PUT UP GOOD GAME ON A HEAVY FIELD

Considering the fact that the Bucknell Reserves practised together only one morning, and had a limited number of plays and signals, that they held the strong Dickinson Seminary eleven to a 0-0 score again demonstrates the fighting spirit that has been displayed this year by all football men. The game as played here on Saturday was after the first quarter, thrilling to watch, and caused no little excitement for the spectators, of which there was a goodly number

At times in the game Dickinson held Bucknell on her five-yard line. Few forward passes were used by the teams, and the best gains were made by line plunges and end runs. Kavanaugh starred for the visitors, while Grice and Kitlowski made the best showing for Bucknell.

The only serious injury of the entire game was Wilkison, '21, having his collar bone broken. This happened in the first few minutes of play.

The line up:

B. U. Reserves		Dickinson
Williamson	left end	Wolfe
Heim	left tackle	Hess
Clair	left guard	Kreps
Lewis	center	Berge
Keiser	right guard	Ellis
Wilkison	righttackle	Steavens
McGann	right end	Mattern
Grice	quarterback	Davis
LaClair	right half back	Forsman
Kitlowski	full back	Reed

Substitutions: Martin for Wilkison. Trumbar for Karvanaugh. Karvanaugh for Trumbar, Cox for Stevens Referee, Musser; Umpire, Mackey. Head Linesman, Irvin.

CAP & DAGGER IS REORGANIZED

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS DRAWN UP LAST YEAR

TRY-OUT SYSTEM TO BE ADOPTED

Society is Now on Sound Working Basis.—Try-outs Will Be Held in Spring.—Miss Schillinger to Act As Coach.

For the past few years Bucknell has had an unorganized, loosely-put-together dramatic society for the men of the College, known as the Cap and Dagger. Under the old conditions anyone taking part in one of the society's productions was considered as a member of the society, although there was really no organized body. Last year, due to increased numbers of men desiring membership it became necessary that some measures be taken whereby all those desiring membership could be offered an equal opportunity of becoming members.

The re-organization of Cap & Dagger under a complete constitution and set of by-laws has enabled the society to offer membership to everyone desiring it but only after they have proven themselves to be the best qualified for the place. Under the new rules of the society there can only be a membership of fifteen active men. Opportunity, however, has been offered to all desiring to become members through a try-out system which will select the best for active membership and allow the remainder to be on a waiting list. The try-outs will be held in the spring, on the second Friday folowing the opening of school. This will enable the incoming members to take part in the spring play. Those eligible to try-outs are: Juniors. Sophomores and Freshmen, provided that they are carrying a college course on the "Hill." There is, however, another limitation to those desiring try-outs and that is that all names must be submitted to the society before the Friday following Thanksgiving vacation. These names should be handed to the Treasures of the society, Chester Leaber.

For the benefit of the new students this limitation has been made in order to allow them the opportunity to observe some of the society's work before they decide one way or the other. There are no necesary requirements for application other than a willingness to work when the occasion demands. Miss Edith Schillinger, head of the Bucknell Department of Elocution. acts as coach for the society. However, she makes use of the applicants for membership by using them in scenes calling for groups other than the real actors. It is to be thoroughly understood, however, that her selections are always made through personal merit and not through any sense of obligation. The society is especially gifted in having such an efficient coach, Miss Schillinger being a graduate of King's School of Oratory, New York School of Expression and the Empire Theatre School in addition to her summer work in Columbia University.

If there should be any point not clear to any desiring to make application. full explanations will be made either by the President of the society or any of the officers.

SOPHS. ELECT OFFICERS.

At a meeting of the Sophomore class held Monday afternoon the following officers were elected: Historian, Miss Helen Fowler; Poetess, Miss Edith Larson; Manager Football, George Smith; Captain pro-tem Football, Henry Kitlowski.

Contributions from students and alumni are earnestly solicited. They should be written in a legible hand and on but one side of the paper. Address all articles to the editor.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1917

There is an established rule of the Bucknellian which provides that any student, alumnus, or friend of Bucknell may have the privilege of expressing his views thru the columns of this paper in the form of a communication. This is true so long as the communication sent in has to do with something in which the students are interested, and so long as no personal battles are waged. And the communication must also be accompanied by the name of the writer, but the name of the writer will be withheld from publication if so desired.

This department of the Bucknellian has for some reason or other been neglected for a long time. In this issue appear the first communications that have been received this year. It is the opinion of the staff that this department is of great value and that it should by all means be revived.

Perhaps you are unsatisfied with something that is being done about the college. If so send in a communication, there may be others who agree with you. Then again you may not agree with some ideas that are expressed in the Bucknellian, for no matter how impartial and fairminded the editor tries to be, there are times when he is in danger of inclining to one-sidedness. It is here that a communication may become a proper and conservative check. Our college paper reaches hundreds who are vitally interested, and it is fitting that it become a medium not only for the editor's views but for the views of others also who have the good of Bucknell at heart.

Communications can benefit the students by giving them the opportunity and practice of imparting their own ideas, and by allowing them to receive the stimulus of the ideas of others. It will benefit the college because it helps the students and because it arouses more and more interest and enthusiasm in the college itself.

Letters should be short, pithy, and to the point. They should each embody one separate central idea or problem. The choice of subjects is wide. Campus problems may be discussed, alumni matters made clear, a bit of college history told, reminiscences brought forth, comparisons made by alumni between conditions and ideals "then" and "now," reforms urged, reserved condemnation given or praise bestowed—anything of interest to college, students, or alumni. Is there something "on your chest" that you've been wanting to get off? If there is, write now.

Address all communications to "The Bucknellian," Lewisburg, Pa.

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor:

One interested in the spirit and "pep" of the student body of Bucknell raises the question, Why didn't we have a mass meeting on the eve before our team left for the game with Pennsylvania? Who shall we blame for this act of ingratitude toward our team? Can it be possible that the student body is not satisfied with the team? A team that has shown the most determined fight in years, beat Swarthmore and held Colgate to the small score of 24-0, Colgate having the heaviest and most experienced team in the country.

Judging from the number who attended the last two mass meetings we cannot place the blame there. If we cannot blame the student body for not turning out we must lay the blame on those who have charge of this. Again I raise this question, is it possible that those who have charge of such an important event, do not have enough "pep" themselves to come out to the Chapel for an hour, or hunt up a couple of old alumni who were once football men too, and have them tell us how they used to win games with the suport of the students, which was aroused in a spirited mass meeting? It has never been known in the history of the school for Bucknell to draw upon the eve of a great game and especially the one we had and not have a mass meeting.

Now, fellow students, let's show that old team we are right back of them and if those in charge are "peples" and unable to realize the importance of such matters, let's take them in hand ourselves and not let that team think we have quit them. We have had meetings start at 11 o'clock at night in order to have one after another college function. There wasn't a thing to stand in the way last Thursday night. There was no possible excuse.

I claim that we should rise up and declare ourselves on such an indescribable act to our college, team and ourselves.

Chicago, Oct. 7, 1917.

Mr. Editor:

Let me congratulate the football team on their recent glorious victory over Swartmore. It takes me back in memory to our first triumph over them in 1889 when the Quakers quaked and yelled "down" every time we tackled them, fearing to be thrown on the sharp stones which frequently protruded through the grass before our field was properly refilled. Those were the days before padding and protective apparatus were introduced. I also congratulate the boys on their fine showing against the strong Colgate team, and know that they will make a heroic fight against Penn.

I am still a football fan and with six thousand others saw the Chicago-Vanderbilt game last Saturday in preference to the Sox-Giant world-championship baseball game.

MORE NEWS COMES FROM U. S. A. A. S,

SECTION 524 WILL BE HERE TO WITNESS THE INDIAN GAME

Following is another letter from the Ambulance Unit at Allentown. The Bucknellian is always glad to publish news from the boys in the service and would be pleased if more of the Bucknell soldiers would take this means of reaching their friends.

Allentown, Pa.
October 18.

Dear Friends:

Section 524 has returned to Allentown from its sixteen-day hike to Betzwood. October 9 was the day that had been selected for everybody to break camp and start the return hike to Allentown. Our section packed their raincoats in their rolls, which were taken to our day's destination in a Packard truck and after one hour's hike it began to rain but we were compelled to march all day in a heavy rain. One thing after another came for at noon we dined along the rond and can you imagine eating sauer kraut, boiled potatoes, hot frankfurters, bread and syrup out of a canteen cup without knife, fork or spoon? Then to serve as a climax, our section was called upon for guard duty and had to stay up all night in their wet clothes. There was one good feature about this duty, however, for the men were not compelled to hike but had the privilege of riding in ambulances. We reached here on Thursday and everybody was in fine condition.

We have adopted a system here whereby we are able to have some money in the treasury whenever there is a necessity for it. We have a company fund which is now about $381. Each fellow contributes a dollar a month to the fund and it is lent out to the fellows in case any one is in immediate need. Last week there was a division of the money saved on the mess by the officers in charge and our section received $196.70 as our portion. We have also received a contribution of $5 from Mr. Murray, of Binghampton, the father of Corporal Murray.

On Monday evening, October 15, there was a big parade through the streets of Allentown in which every section in camp participated. The main purpose of the parade was to arouse enthusiasm on the part of the Allentown people for the benefit of the Liberty Loan bonds. I think the U. S. A. A. S. men did their part as there was about $225,000 worth of Liberty bonds subscribed to by them. Section 524 helped their battalion, No. 20, to raise the highest amount of any battalion, $16,150, by taking $4500 worth of bonds.

During the past week Mrs. Henderson, (formerly Miss Anne Dreisbach) of Chestnut Hill, in company with her mother stopped off to see some of the boys. We certainly are glad to see any Bucknell people at any time. While we were at Betzwood, Miss Wilma Knapp, '14, who is teaching at Norristown paid us a visit and Prof. Rockwell also visited us there.

Among the Bucknellians who have visited us since we have been here are: Dr. Harris, Prof. Wilcox, Prof. and Mrs. Everett, Miss Jeanette Owens, '17, and Margaret Sipley, '18; Mr. Boyer, '14, Reading, '14, Everett, '16 Tripician '16, Storer, '17, Knouse, '17, Newcomb, A. F. Elliott, R. F. Elliott, Grice Harris and Geating of 1918, Bichn, Tice, Mitchell, Herman, Davies, Martin and Markowitz, of 1919 and Waddell '19.

The fellows have postponed their trip to see the football team play and instead of going to Penn we are coming up for the Carlisle game. We can not make definite arrangements about coming up because it is rumored that we are going on another hike. We hope that it is not so because we are anxious to get back. We are following with great interest the work of the football team and every one of us is rooting for the success of the team.

John C. Johnson, '04, of Harrisburg, and F. J. McNitt, '03, of Reedsville, visited their S. A. E. brothers on Thursday.

Burrows, '21, Roller, '21 and Cruse, '19, spent Saturday hunting at their homes in Picture Rocks.

Kohler, '21, visited at his home in Hughesville Saturday and Sunday.

Heim, '20, visited his parents in Williamsport, returning to Bucknell to-day.

Mattern, Kavanaugh and Reed, of Dickinson Seminary, visited at the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity over the week-end.

FIRST NUMBER OF LYCEUM COURSE NOV. 21

DATES FOR FOLLOWING NUMBERS TO BE ANNOUNCED LATER.

Harry C. Fries, '19, manager of the Bucknell Y. M. C. A. Lyceum course, announces that the first number of this five-course series will be given in the Methodist church on the evening of November 21. The dates of the following four numbers will be announced later.

The first number will be the Weber Male Quartette which was so popular here last season. The quartette has many new song hits and promises an evening of excellent entertainment. Tickets will be sold this week by Fries, '19, and Miss Helen Bodine, '20 at the Women's College.

—The Washington (Pa.,) Reporter makes the following statement in regard to Miles Smith who was here two years ago:

"Bucknell" Smith by his work Saturday, makes it apparent that it will be hard to keep him off the regular backfield. He is fast and a hard runner and he goes into a line in good shape. Smith is the biggest man W. & J. has had in its backfield for some time. He is pretty close to the 170-pound mark and should prove a valuable man before many games have passed.

"JACK THE HUGGER" CAPTURED--ALMOST

"HILL" AROUSED WHEN PEACEFUL MEMBER OF FAIR IS TAKEN BY MISTAKE.

Excitement was rife in Lewisburg on Wednesday night. People were running back and forth; lights were flashing on and off; occasional shouts broke the usual stillness of a Lewisburg night. What could it all be about. Sem girls were hanging out the windows making eager inquiries of the passersby, but no one seemed to have time or inclination to pause long enough to enlighten the poor dears. Then, unexpectedly, "Jack the Hugger is caught and is at the sheriff's office," came floating over the telephone. Oh, my, wasn't it exciting! Everyone turned and sped madly to the combined Sheriff's, Justice of the Peace and Chief of Police Office on Second street. Vast multitudes thronged the street, about three-fourths of the vastness being composed of howling inhabitants of the Hill. Tar and feather him. Oh, no, that wouldn't be enuf! Should the culprit inside be ridden out of town on a rail, or given the Hill's famous Tallow Remedy? No, these punishments would all be too mild!

At this very moment, the door opened. The crowd surged forward with a sophomoric mixture of groan and yell. Then several football men appeared from within and startled the punitive expedition with the remark that they had caught the wrong man!

The spirit at Rutgers College is better this year than it has ever been before. The student enrollment is only 437. Once a week the entire student body asembles for cheering practice. Over sixty men are competing for positions on the college weekly. Eleven men from the Junior Class are trying out in a competition for cheer leader.

TAILORED SUITS UP TO $37.50

These are suits that any description would not do justice to because of their smartness and attractiveness all in the elegance of the material and beauty of the lines. They are of broadcloth, velours, burello cloth, serges, poplins, etc. All are silk lined. Some are exceedingly plain, while others are trimmed with braids, buttons, etc. Colors of blues, browns, Burgundy and so on, and black.

HUNDREDS GOOD WAR MWINTER COATS AT PRICES UP TO $59.50

The winter coat is probably the one thing in your wardrobe that has the hardest wear and must give the longest service, so it should be chosen with eyes open. Wise women are choosing such coats as are found in Seidel & Spangler's stocks today. The color and style variety is complete —there is nothing left out. Trimmings are becoming and linings are elegant.

We fit them all—from the tiniest babe up to the tallest or stoutest woman. Extra sizes are a speciality in this store. If you're stout and hard to fit, don't give up till you have gone through our stocks.

The important thing about these wool goods is their prices, which are far below today's.

ULTRA-FASHIONABLE TRIMMED MILLINERY MODERATELY PRICED

Do not let our exceedingly low prices deceive you, for every hat in our immense stock is worth more than we are asking for it. As for styles, our clever milliners have caught the spirit of the newest and most stylish models, and have copied them with an exactness that is remarkable.

CORNELL ATTACK TOO POWERFUL

"BIG RED TEAM" SCORES THREE TIMES ON VARSITY

TWO TOUCHDOWNS IN LAST FIVE MINUTES

Morrison Receives a Fractured Rib.—Miss Two Field Goals by Narrow Margins.—Indians Here Saturday.

During the first three periods, Bucknell held the Cornell eleven to a single touchdown on Saturday. Then in the final five minutes of play the Orange and Blue team weakened and allowed two touchdowns to be scored against them. This defeated our team by a 20-0 score.

In the very beginning of the game our eleven repeated its Philadelphia performance of rushing the ball down the field toward the opponent's goal. After that, Waddell at two different times tried to kick field goals, but missed each by a very narrow margin, one striking the bar and the second the post. At various times forward passes were called by our team and quite a few worked well. End runs netted us nice gains. but tho Bucknell several times approached dangerously near the scoring line, never were they quite able to push the pik-skin across the line.

To make matters worse, Morrison, is suffering from a rib which was fractured early in the second half. This means that he will be out of the game for a short time, probably not returning until the Gettysburg game on Nov. 17. With Morrison and Hall both on the crippled list, Bucknell will have to do some hard playing to defeat the Indians next Saturday and Syracuse the week following. Morrison will be sadly missed for in practically every game he has been one of the brightest stars. He occupied the same position on Saturday until injured, with Spotts. Waddell and Newcomb as colleagues.

Cornell seemed to be able to tear through our line with comparatively little difficulty and several runs of twenty and twenty-five yards each were made. Hoffman, Pendleton, Nethercott and Van Horn did the best work for the New York team and responsible for all the scoring against us.

This week's practise will be an important factor in the Carlisle game on Saturday. Coach Johnson will be obliged to frame up some new plays without relying on Morrison and Hall; he is, in fact, already on the job and thus far, the Indians are beaten on paper. Whether or not the paper game will stand the test cannot be decided until Saturday, but it is certain that the Redskins will not have easy sailing when they strike the field at the head of University Avenue.

Saturday's line up was:

Cornell		Bucknell
Harris	left guard	Boswell
Reuther	center	Gerhardt
Strauss	right guard	Kline
Harriman	right tackle	Newcomb
Eisenbrandt	right end	Elliott
Nethercott	quarterback	Waddell
Van Horn	left halfback	Morrison
Hoffman	right halfback	Spotts
Pendleton	fullback	Bortz

GLEE CLUB TO PRESENT MINSTREL SHOW

WILL TAKE PLACE IN BUCKNELL HALL THURSDAY, NOV. 8.

On Thursday night, Nov. 8, Bucknell will become a Darkytown for a few hours at least, when the Glee Club presents a minstrel show, the first entertainment of its kind to be given here for five years. Minstrels are always exceedingly popular. especially among college students, but for some reason or other, no minstrel has been staged since "A Busy Night in the Bucknell Buffet," which was given in April, 1912.

This minstrel will be of the old fashioned type, consisting of a circle, endmen, and an interlocutor. The program in detail. can not be announced now but will appear together with the names of the participants in next week's Bucknellian. Part I will consist of an opening chorus by the entire club, jokes and solos by endmen and men from the circle, and a closing chorus by the club. Part II will be taken up by a playlet entitled, "The Coontown Thirteen Club," a screaming farce which promises to end tragically for the unlucky thirteenth. How he escapes his fate will be shown at the performance.

The Orchestra is working on new music for the occasion and should contribute greatly to the success of the evening.

Previous minstrels have always been given in Commencement Hall before audiences which taxed the capacity of that hall. This year, however, on account of the inadequate heating facilities in the former place, the minstrel will be staged in Bucknell Hall, with scarcely half the seating capacity. On this account all who wish to attend, are advised to procure their tickets as soon as possible. They will not be placed on public sale until next week but can be obtained this week from members of the Glee Club and Orchestra.

MILITARY TRAINING POSSIBLE

At present a faculty committee is considering a plausible program, which will provide physical exercise for the entire college.

If some of the official and semi-official rumors that are being circulated about the campus are based at all upon fact, the Sophomore class will be facing the delightful prospect of another year's work in the gymnasium. It is well known that it is the President's desire, in view of the fact that the country is at war, to require from all undergraduates some physical exercise to keep high the average physical condition.

SOPHS HOLD HIKE.

Last Saturday a number of Sophomores hiked to Mount Montour with girls from the Sem. Miss Brown and Miss Cooper acted as chaperones.

MASS MEETING.

There will be a mass meeting on Friday evening to raise "pep" for the Indian game. Everybody out!

It's time to start the cry "On to Harrisburg!"

BUDGET REPORT ON PERCENTAGE BASIS

COMPUTATIONS SHOW SYSTEM POORLY SUPPORTED.

RECORD OF LAST YEAR LOWERED OVER 50 PER CENT.

Delta Sigma Tops the List in Fraternity Averages with 52 Per cent.—Freshmen Lead in Class Averages.

Fraternity and class averages computed from a list of all Budget payers, supplied by Student Secretary Bower, reveal a sorry situation in regard to the Budget. The figures below show that the record set last year is lowered by over 50 per cent. Fifty-two per cent. is the highest average obtained by any fraternity this year, while last year one fraternity attained as high as 84 per cent. This year two fraternities have passed the fifty mark; last year only one fraternty fell below fifty per cent.

In the class averages the freshmen had with 46 per cent. Last year the freshmen class topped the list with 73 per cent. and the three other classes came very close to this mark. This year the three uppr classes are pitifully low, Juniors and Sophomores giving the least support.

It is very plain to be seen. then, that the Budget is below standard this year because the superclassmen, who should stand back of the Budget and make plain to the new men its importance, have failed to give even a moderate degree of support. If there was any possible argument against the Budget this lack of support might be explained, but there is not.

The Budget may still be made a success this year, but it rests upon the upperclassmen to make it that. More complete averages will be published later in the term.

DEMOSTHENS ENTERTAIN

Saturday evening the Delta Sigma fraternity entertained a group of young ladies from the Women's College. The event was the first social event of the fraternity in its new house on St. George street. The house was decorated with appropriate Hallowe'en decorations and a feature of the evening was on orchestra composed entirely of "Demes." A program of vocal and instrumental music and other amusements was enjoyed and luncheon was served in a room covered on the walls and ceiling with cornstalks and carpeted with leaves.

MINISTERIALS MEET AND ELECT NEW OFFICERS

MEETING NEXT FRIDAY AT 4.15 WILL BE CONDUCTED BY DR. PHILLIPS

Last Thursday the Ministerial Association held a meeting and elected the folowing officers:

President, Elton Richards; vice president, Thomas Helm; secretary, Raymond Korrish; treasurer, George Gasco.

The next meeting of the ministerials will be held next Friday afternoon at 4.15 and will be conducted by Dr. Phillips. Everybody is invited to attend this meeting.

CHEMICALS

There will be a meeting of the Chemical Engineering Society in the Chemical Laboratory at 7.15 P. M. Thursday evening. Everybody enrolled in the Chemical Engineering course should be present, freshmen included.

D. T. U.'s ENTERTAIN

On Friday evening a number of girls from the Women's College were entertained at an informal party at the D. T. U. House. Miss Edith Schillinger acted as chaperon.

AMBULANCE UNIT MAY SEE INDIAN GAME

SOME WITNESSED PENN GAME; SURPRISED WITH WORK OF TEAM.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 26, 1917.

To The Bucknellian:—

It was with great pleasure that the following boys, McDermott, Mangan, Newbury, Murray, Banks, Gaenzle and Rinebold witnessed the Penn-Bucknell game at Philadelphia, and they speak only with great praise of the class of football shown by the members of our team. Several of them, football players themselves, claim that they never saw a Bucknell team show as much fight as on that day, even tho they were heavily outweighed and received the worst of the referee's decisions.

We are still on the fence in regard to the Carlisle game and if there is any possible means of our coming up we will be there. At the present time about fifteen or sixteen have signified their intentions to be back for that day. The only thing that is holding us back is the rumor that we are leaving Monday on a hike. We hope that this rumor is a false one, as we have been figuring on this trip for some time and it will be a keen disappointment to us to have to give it up.

On October 24 there were about a thousand men who left camp under command of Major Deveraux. It is generally understood that they are going to Camp Tobyhanna, Pa., where they will take winter quarters prior to their sailing for France. Section 524 has been in this overseas contingency from the latter part of July up to the first of this week when we were dropped from it.

On the morning of October 25th all the sections took part in a parade which passed in review before a noted French general. who visited the camp for the day. Everybody received the afternoon off afterwards and it was indeed fortunate for our section as they were scheduled to dig ditches for the whole day.

We received several copies of the Bucknellian this week and we wish to thank those in charge very much for their kindness. We certainly enjoyed them very much and let me offer a suggestion to those students who are accustomed to throwing away their Bucknellians. Undoubtedly some of you have friends who are doing their bit in some department of the army and seldom hear any news of their Alma Mater. Instead of destroying them, send them away to some of Uncle Sam's boys and I will guarantee you that both the Bucknellian and the kindness will be appreciated.

SIPLEY.

CARLISLE INDIANS WILL PLAY HERE SATURDAY

WILL BE INITIAL APPEARANCE FOR RED MEN.—GOOD GAME IS EXPECTED

Next Saturday afternoon the Carlisle Indians will appear on the Athletic Field for the first time. The Indians have been playing a fast game of football this season and an exciting contest is predicted. There are rumors that the Bucknell Ambulance Unit from Allentown will be present at the game.

THE SENIOR COUNCIL AND THE FRESHMAN

COUNCIL DEFINES ATTITUDE TOWARD NEW MEN

PROMISCUOUS HAZING NO LONGER TOLERATED

Proper Attitude for New Men to Assume Clearly Defined by Council.—Breach of Rules Only Cause for Hazing.

What, when, where, and why. is the freshman?

The hazing of six upperclassmen during the past month authorized by Senior Council action, has undoubtedly tolled the death knell of promiscuous hazing of new men. This action came as the result of several year's endeavor on the part of previous Senior Councils, and the Class of '18 feels that it has done itself justly proud in dealing out the final blow. If one had the opportunity of reviewing the actions of Senior councils for the past five years he would find that in general the tendency has been more and more to give a freshman a "square deal," so much so in fact, that the present Council feels it incumbent upon itself to present to the school the attitude which it will assume toward the new men.

This attitude resolves itself naturally into two considerations—first. as to how the upperclassmen should regard the freshman.

It seems quite safe to say that the general attitude at present is to get them down and then sit on them, and if perchance one hobs up because of a distinctive personality, then paddle the distinction out of him. This is the attitude the Council decries. A set of printed rules has been given to every wearer of the button and it is for a distinct breach of these rules that the Council will mete out punishment. It is the right, and even the duty of everyone to report such a breach to the Council. All that the Council asks is the name of the Freshman—what he has done to break the rules and where—and the writer's name. With such a report it is ready and willing to act. Charges of a general nature will receive no consideration. The Council reports for instance that such a charge as "general freshness" has been handed in. Out of respect to the writer of the charge, the man is called in. What can the Council do? The man is asked if he is fresh and practically every time his answer is, "I may have been, but I'm sure I don't remember it." The Council must give him the benefit of the doubt, and he is dismissed. The upper-classmen should in no case seek revenge for personal grudge under cover of such a blanket charge. The fershman is a college man amongst college men and as such he is entitled to develop his personality. What is considered freshness in a freshman is the same personality in him which makes of him, when a Senior, a most popular and valuable man. Concretely—a freshman is entitled to have his good times, and his freshman year should indeed be one of the pleasant, if not the most pleasant, in his college career. Of course it is understood that such cases of "general freshness" as amount to insults to upperclassmen will always be considered by the Council a breach of the unwritten law of "gentlemanly conduct," and as such will be dealt with severely A discussion of this phase however leads to the second consideration—How the freshmen should regard the upperclassmen.

There are two classes of freshmen who are over-fresh and those who in who are ovr-fresh and those who in college argot are known as "Lilies." To be classed as either is infinitely worse than to be classed as "green."

MONDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1917

There was one distasteful feature of the game played here with Swarthmore, and that was that some of the students watched the game from the side lines. It not only gave a ragged appearance to the field but also made it impossible at times for those in the stands to see the players. But the more serious objection is, that it is hardly becoming of college men to go crowding back and forth along the side lines when there are plenty of vacant seats in the cheering section. If other colleges can refrain from such a practice there is no reason why Bucknell cannot avoid it also. A little careful thought shows very clearly that the proper place for a college man to cheer for his team is the cheering section and not the side lines.

GETTYSBURG VS BUCKNELL

After the game with West Virginia on Saturday Gettysburg will begin the last part of her schedule, the games in which we are most interested. From that time on, we can expect that our boys will bring home victories instead of defeats. The games with St. John's and Mt. St. Mary's should result in victories, and also enable us to get our team in perfect condition to battle with our ancient enemy, Bucknell. As this game is of great importance to us we must begin to look forward to it, and with only one idea in view, that of giving Bucknell a trimming. After we have accomplished that we will have one more game of importance on our schedule.—The Gettysburgian.

Such are the ambitions of the students at Getysburg. They are already beginning to think of the annual fray which takes place in Harrisburg and so should we. This game, which is only three weeks off, is one of the most important on our schedule; the more so when we recall that last year Gettysburg won for the first time in many years. This year Bucknell is going back to get revenge and the students should begin now to make arrangements to accompany the team and thus contribute their share in helping the team to achieve the much-desired victory over the rival Orange and Blue team.

ENERGY MISDIRECTED.

Assuming that there is a definite amount of work performed at a university and likewise, a definite amount of benefit resulting from the strict performance of this work, a little investigation into the reasons why many men are so busy and so many others idle, gives basis to serious thought, disconcerting if not unpleasant. It is disconcerting in that the answer is difficult to find and unpleasant in that, when it is found, it is difficult to frame.

The great motif of the industrial world is efficiency. The great motif of the educational world seems to be haphazard, misdirected energy. In business, a man takes up a certain line of work with a definite object in view; if he does not sell his goods he fails. Business failures are occurring every day. Over fifty per cent. of the small dealers and merchantmen fail twice before they succeed once. They learn to make their failures stepping stones to success.

A student, on the other hand, is met with a complexity of varying interests, all calling upon his time and energy and all holding for the bright prospects of future reward.

He cannot specialize because his nature demands that he be "broad" (the business man does not care whether he is "broad" or not as long as his business succeeds.) The college man takes his courses usually as a ground work for future work—they do not seem to give any immediate results—he rushes into student activities for the sake of loyalty and experience.

Student activities may or may not be examples of misdirected energy—according to the activity and the man entering it. Men should enter the work they are best fitted for. Amazing discoveries are sometimes made just when a man is leaving college; he was temperamentally fitted to serve his university in a useful capacity but no one "got him out" for anything. He devoted his bit of energy to college courses—half of that was misdirected. Another man went out for everything, gave no heed to his college courses as being worthy of anything but cursory attention—half of his energy was also misdirected.

So, although it is not altogether a pleasant situation to face, we have it. Some men narrow themselves to college work and lose what is best in college life and experience; others see nothing important in college work and give their best efforts entirely in support of college activities. Both are misdirected.

We believe that, with a little good common sense and serious thought, a man's time can be so arranged to allow for all his interests. He must enter student activities with this thought uppermost in his mind—that students' activities are really only the side shows and that the main ring is always the University itself.—Spectator.

COMMUNICATION

Lewisburg. Pa.
October 28, 1917

To the Editor of the Bucknellian:

Allow me to express through the medium of the columns of "The Bucknellian," my utter disgust for a certain clique of individuals here on the "Hill" who insist on marking, changing and otherwise defacing notices posted on the various bulletin boards in the main hall way.

Some of this during the past two weeks has been particularly offensive, especially to the young ladies who are brought constantly face to face with it, in passing to and from the classes.

Why should the majority of the serious-minded men on the 'Hill', to say nothing of the girls in the Sem., need to have their sense of decency given a jolt almost every time they wish to consult the bulletin board? Such tricks may be excusable in the case of boys in knickerbockers, but they certainly should have no place among the activities of college men. Their perpetrators should be forced to quit their little game, or quit School—one of the two. They are no credit to Bucknell, whoever they are.

SOPHOMORE

A FRESHMAN SAYS:

I love little Sophie,
His paddle's so warm;
If I don't displease him
He'll do me no harm.
So I'll not cross the campus,
Nor wear passionate hose,
But follow him meekly,
Wherever he goes.

L'AGENDA BOARD

The 1919 L'Agenda Board will meet on Thursday evening in the Living Room at the Women's College at 7 o'clock.

—In the proc-scrap at Albright College, acording to the Albright Bulletin, the Sophomores were handed a severe walloping by the freshmen. The Sophs were greatly outnumbered. There are 19 men in the freshmen class at Albright. Wonder how many Seniors there are?

Elmer Dewey Bitler, of Pottsgrove, who entered Bucknell this year with the class of 1921 and later left school taking a position in the Pennsylvania yards at Northumberland, met death last week when hit by an engine.

BIBLE CLASS HEARS HELPFUL ADDRESS

DR. PHILLIPS TALKS ON "PRAYER AND THE WAR."

Dr. Phillips chose, for his address to the Bible Class on Sunday morning, the timely subject. "Prayer and the War." In his talk he clearly pointed out the place of prayer in relation to the present world war. A digest of his address follows.

The President's request for prayer raises two questions: Are prayer and the war consistent? Will prayer be of any avail?

The first question we answer by pointing out that the ideal, a world safe for democracy, is an expression of the golden rule in national and international relations. The object of our prayer is, then, consistent with the purpose of Jesus. The seeming contradiction between prayer and fighting armies belongs to the problem of suffering and its mystery. This world is the home of man in the making.

The objection to prayer in our preset situation arises from a misapprehension. Prayer is not in the realm of mere mechanical forces as pagans think; it is a personal relation. The ideal of personal relations is not exhausted by cause and effect; it does not rest on inequality, but on co-operation. Father and son are ideal in their relation when they share interests and when each inspires the other to do what each has capacity to do.

Therefore in this tragedy we ask not that lightning destroy our enemies, we ask not for any special interposition, but believing that our Father is bent on the realization of the principle of Jesus, finding ourselves in an inexplicable situation, we ask that "God's blessing may rest upon the high task which is laid upon us."

The second question, will prayer avail, can be answered only by Christian faith. There will be a reaction on ourselves of course; but if only a reaction prayer is a fool's game. Rather believing that prayer is a personal relation with the omnipotent Father whose home is where love and justice dwell, believing that in prayer we so dispose ourselves to Him that we enter into co-operation with Him and He with us, then as sure as one person helps another when both are in sympathetic accord, so sure can and will God exert his power through us his children in this world in which we live.

RIFLE CLUB HOLDS FIRST TARGET PRACTICE

FIVE GET HIGH SCORES.—ANOTHER SHOOT NEXT SATURDAY.

Last Saturday morning the Rifle Club held its first target practice of the year. Five members of the club obtained high scores. The following scores were made: Lowry 38; Zeller 37; Weinrich 36; Bechtel 32, and Hulley 31.

Another shoot will be held next Saturday morning at 9.30 a. m. Every member of the club is invited to come out and shoot.

THE SENIOR COUNCIL AND THE FRESHMAN

Concluded from 1st page.

In attempting to find his place among college men a freshman should try to strike a happy medium. If he distinctly breaks a rule what can be expect but the penalty attached?

The fact that the other men have gone thru the mill, he should consider as prima facie evidence that they are competent to make rules, fair for those following. On the other hand he is supposed to stand up for his rights, and for what is right. The time has passed when first year men are considered as sheep, and with the personality of such. He should consider his upperclassmen as friends treat them as such, and lastly he should consider the Senior Council meeting a place in which he is distinctly not wanted.

STUDENTS SHOW MUCH PEP IN MASS MEETING

TEAM GETS HUGE SEND-OFF PREVIOUS TO GAME WITH CORNELL

Judging from the mass meeting of Thursday night, the freshmen aftermath and the send-off for the team Friday the students are not at all lacking in the old-time fire and ginger that has characterized this school for years.

Many were the comments of the Seniors that the mass meeting held on Thursday night was the finest they ever attended, and more spirit was shown by the student body than they had seen since they have been in school.

Never had such a crowd gathered at the Pennsy station as was there Friday to see the team off. It looked as though all the fellows of the school were there. For fully fifteen minutes cheer after cheer was given for the team. The band also played several numbers and when they left the station the student body formed after them and had a snake dance to the "Hill."

The thing to look forward to now is the mass meeting this week in preparation for the Indian game. The Indians have not played here in years and this year have a strong team. Bucknell is going to give them a great battle, but the team must have the assistance of the cheering to win.

It would be pleasant to see all the students get in the cheering section and not stand on the side lines. Heretofore only Freshmen get in the cheering section and the others stand on the side-lines. Let every man be in the cheering section and give all he has to the cause. It is probable that hundreds of out-of-town visitors will witness the game, because the Indian-Bucknell games have become famous. Now Saturday let Bucknell show visitors that it is alive.

Don't forget the mass meeting.

It is for Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors as well as the Freshmen.

Good music will be provided by the band.

TAILORED SUITS UP TO $37.50

These are suits that any description would not do justice to because of their smartness and attractiveness all in the elegance of the material and beauty of the lines. They are of broadcloth, velours, burello cloth, serges, poplins, etc. All are silk lined. Some are exceedingly plain, while others are trimmed with braids, buttons, etc. Colors of blues, browns, Burgundy and so on, and black.

HUNDREDS GOOD WAR MWINTER COATS AT PRICES UP TO $59.50

The winter coat is probably the one thing in your wardrobe that has the hardest wear and must give the longest service, so it should be chosen with eyes open. Wise women are choosing such coats as are found in Seidel & Spangler's stocks today. The color and style variety is complete—there is nothing left out. Trimmings are becoming and linings are elegant.

We fit them all—from the tiniest babe up to the tallest or stoutest woman. Extra sizes are a speciality in this store. If you're stout and hard to fit, don't give up till you have gone through our stocks.

The important thing about these wool goods is their prices, which are far below today's.

ULTRA-FASHIONABLE TRIMMED MILLINERY MODERATELY PRICED

Do not let our exceedingly low prices deceive you, for every hat in our immense stock is worth more than we are asking for it. As for styles, our clever milliners have caught the spirit of the newest and most stylish models, and have copied them with an exactness that is remarkable.

BUCKNELL DOWNS INDIAN ELEVEN

MONSTER CROWD WITNESSES SNAPPY CONTEST

CARLISLE BOYS FAIL TO SCORE

Final Score 10-0.—Indians Completely Outclassed.—Ball in Indian Territory Nine-tenths of the Time.

The Orange and Blue eleven continued its history making drive by trotting off with the Indians' scalp Saturday, the latter suffering a 10-0 defeat. The score hardly indicates how completely the Redskins were outclassed. Only for two very brief intervals was the ball in Bucknell's territory; once in the first quarter and once in the last few minutes of the game. Many times the Varsity rushed the ball up close to the Indian's goal, but in close quarters the visitors stiffened their defense and the advance stopped. On three of these occasions Waddell made tries at a field goal; one attempt in the second quarter made from the 15-yard line was successful, giving Bucknell her first score.

In the next period, although no scores were made, Bucknell had a distinct edge on the Indians. The Carlisle boys were fast and put up a game fight, but their offensive crumbled before Bucknell's stone wall defense. Newcomb and Morrison nipped many of their plays in the bud (by breaking through the line and throwing their opponents for a loss.

On the other hand Bucknell's offensive was at its best. Lewis staged some runs around end that brought the crowd to its feet. Several times he ran back kicks for one-fourth the length of the field, avoiding one tackler after another. Morrison, playing with a fractured rib, was at his best and contributed 4 or 5 yards whenever called upon to carry the ball.

Only once did the Indian threaten a score. In the third period, with the ball on the 55-yard line, an attempt was made to kick a goal from placement. The ball went true but fell short of crossing the bar by a few inches.

The forward pass was seldom successful for either team. Of Bucknell's attempts two were successfully handled by Morrison, netting 40 yards gain, and Kostos received the other over the goal line, giving Bucknell her only touchdown.

The game was attended by the largest crowd of the season. Many visitors came from the vicinity of Williamsport where the Bucknell-Indian game used to be the main football attraction. Alumni were also here in numbers, and they all left with the impression that Bucknell had again put a team in the field that commanded the serious consideration of the biggest teams.

In next week's game with Syracuse victory can hardly be expected as the team will be preserved as much as possible to meet our ancient enemy, Gettysburg, on the Saturday following.

The line-up:

Bucknell.		Carlisle.
Freeble	Right end.	Cueller
Newcomb	Right tackle.	Flinchum
Elliott	Right guard.	L. Godfrey
Smith	Center.	F. Walker
Boswell	Left guard.	F. Godfrey
Waddell	Quarter-back.	Miles
Morrison	Right halfback.	Herman
Lewis	Left half-back.	Tibbetts
Spotts	Full-back.	Leroy

Substitutions: Bucknell, McGann for Freeble, Harris for Hall, Wargo for Harris, Kostos for Lewis, Bortz for Kostos. Brandt for Hall; Indians, F. Godfrey for Hood, Tacquechi for Godfrey, Vigil for Miles, Lewis for C. Walker, Metoxen for Tibbetts, Tibbetts for Cueller, Cueller for Metoxen. Referee—Godcharles, Lafayette. Umpire—Ryan, Michigan. Linesman—Kline, Cornell. Touchdowns—Kostos. Field goal—Waddell. Goal from touchdown—Hall. Time of quarters—12 minutes.

RIFLE CLUB.

In Room 2 on Thursday evening there will be a meeting of the Rifle Club. Two new officers will be elected and plans will be formulated for an indoor range. Everybody is invited to attend the meeting.

MASS MEETING.

On Thursday evening there will be a mass meeting in Bucknell Hall. In all probability plans for the Gettysburg trip will be started at this meeting. Everybody out! Let's make this a real mass meeting.

ATTRACTIVE BOOK TO BE SOLD BY B. U. WOMEN

WRITTEN BY MRS. NELSON F. DAVIS. TO BENEFIT RED CROSS

To the Men of Bucknell University:

To do our bit in the world's struggle we, the Bucknell women, are selling a little book, "Pokey Ikey." written by Mrs. Nelson F. Davis, wife of Professor Davis of our Faculty. Mrs. Davis herself is really a genius which you will discover before you finsh reading the book.

"Pokey Ikey" is a simple out-of-door love story, breathing the freshness of the woods in every line. The binding is pale blue with gold lettering and Mrs. Davis has painted the illustrations in every book herself with water colors, carrying out the spirit of the out-of-doors. The blue gentian plays a large part in the story and is scattered in great abundance throughout the pages.

This book would make an ideal gift. It sells for $1.25 of which $.35 goes to the Red Cross. We would like to sell each one of you a copy and if you desire the same please give us your order. We cannot promise the books before Christmas as the handpainting takes so long but do not pay for the book until you receive it. Please give your order to

FRILL AND FROWN GIVES HALLOWE'EN PARTY

On Wednesday night, Hallowe'en night, the one time of the year now that witches and ghosts have full sway over our thoughts, the Woman's College assembled to greet their Eerie visitors. The festivities began with dinner. At six the Senior Sailors led the way into the dining room followed by their frivolous sisters, the Juniors. Finally the Sophomores and Freshmen in varied costumes filed in. The Frill and Frown girls, as hostesses of the evening, after giving the Frill and Frown yell took their places also in the dining room. Each class had its tables and its distinct table decorations. They were according to the class colors and costume idea. The Seniors gazed upon huge ships and tiny canoes full of candy while the Juniors had dolls dressed as dancers for favors. After the first course each class gave its yells and songs and even the Faculty table had its little song.

After dinner everyone went to the

The Weber Male Quartet to Appear First.—Price of Season Ticket is 1.50.

The Y. M. C. A. of Bucknell has for a number of years been giving to the student body a Lyceum course, not for financial gain or interest, but for the pure service which such a course can give to the students. In years past our college men and women have recognized the educational value of such a course, composed of up-to-the-minute talent. They have rallied to its support freely and have made possible the purchasing of high-class musical companies and lectures.

Because of the success attained in the past years and because of the desire to provide still better material, the Y. M. C. A. has purchased a much heavier course. Little need be said, by way of explanation, for the course speaks for itself to all those who are in the least familiar with lyceum talent.

The first number, The Weber Male Quartet, will appear Wednesday evening, November 21st. The Weber boys were on last year's course and through their excellent work, they brought the request on the part of students and town people, for their return. Hence they are coming back to us with a stronger and more richly seasoned program than ever. The other four numbers of the course in order, will be the Fairchild Ladies Quartet, Ralph Bingham, Dr. Frederick Poole and Dr. George H. Bradford. The dates and advertising for the appearance of these will be given later.

The usual price of $1.50 for season tickets will be maintained as other years, although the price of the course has greatly advanced. This advance is due partially to war conditions but mostly to the fact that stronger and better talent has been bought. The Y. M. C. A. holds this same price, in spite of advances, in order to induce more of the students to avail themselves of such lyceum entertainment. Students are being encouraged on all sides to cut down all unnecessary expenses and to give their extra money toward alleviating the awful conditions in the war. These acts are all good and proper, but students must not forget that certain entertainments, amusements and instruction are as essential in their lives as in the lives of our soldiers. This fact recognized by President Wilson when he says that he considers the Lyceum Movement one of the greatest forces for good in the country and that it is his opinion that the people of the country would rally to its support now more than ever.

Fellow students, the Y. M. C. A. of Bucknell appeals to you through these columns to avail yourselves of the opportunities given in this course. The Y. M. C. A. needs your support in order to make the course a financial success. You need the benefit to be derived from the course. Be fair—will you make the exchange?

FELTON, '17, WEDS

Raleigh M. Felton, '17, who has been employed in the College Office, left for South Boston, Va., last week where his wedding to Miss Mary Agnes Hill took place. The wedding was held at the home of the bride's parents and was attended by a few relatives and friends of the families. Mr. and Mrs. H. Eyer Spyker and daughters, Misses Elizabeth and Maria and A. W. Elliott, '18 accompanied Felton to South Boston. The couple will return sometime this week.

CAP AND DAGGER PLAY NOVEMBER 15

"IT OFTEN HAPPENS." A FARCE COMEDY, TO BE PRESENTED.

On Nov. 15th Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society will make its annual bow to the student body and general public at the Orpheum Theatre. The "bow" will take the form of a pleasing and delightfully entertaining modern comedy—"It Often Happens." The play consists of a prologue and three acts. The play cannot be classed as a farce comedy yet in parts it closely approaches the farce comedy while in succeeding scenes there is a touching bit of pathos.

The play adapts itself readily to staging and is almost ideal for production by college dramatic societies. For several weeks past a cast has been working under the able instruction of Miss Edith Schillinger, and when it is considered that every member of the cast has had dramatic experience the student body may rest assured that an evening of delightful entertainment is in store for them.

Because of the splendid success of the society's productions in the past and the fact that on most occasions the capacity of Bucknell Hall was overtaxed it has been decided to hold the play in the Orpheum Theatre which has a larger seating capacity

STUDENTS' WAR FUND REACHES ALMOST $1,000

MOVEMENT LIBERALLY SUPPORTED BY BUCKNELL STUDENTS.

Bucknell students and faculty have pledged almost $1,000 to the college fund for Y. M. C. A. work and there is a possibility that the sum will be increased to $1,500. The fund is the result of an enthusiastic Bible Class meeting yesterday morning and a canvass of the students during the day.

One of the best programs ever heard at Bucknell was given to almost 70 per cent. of the students from Woman's College and on the "hill." The meeting was in charge of Dr. Phillips and included four speakers. William E. Kroll, State Y. M. C. A. secretary, spoke in behalf of the campaign for $35,000,000 for Y. M. C. A. army work. Kroll is making a round of the colleges for a college fund of $1,000,000, and it is toward this amount that Bucknell is contributing.

Miss Pearson, of the Y. W. C. A. secretary, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and told what the Y. W. C. A. is doing with the Y. M. C. A. She told of the desire to establish community houses at the training camps for visitors and of the desire to place two representatives of the Y. W. C. A. in each base hospital in France.

Clinton I. Sprout, '17, a former editor of The Bucknellian, who is now in Y. M. C. A. work at Camp Meade, told of the activities and exactly what the Y. M. C. A. work in training camps includes.

Charles R. Sipley, '17, a member of the Bucknell Ambulance unit at Allentown, was the last speaker and told as a soldier what benefits he and his companions derive from Army Y. M. C. A. associations.

The local Y. M. C. A. cabinet under direction of the new secretary, Thomas Heim, met at the close of the meeting. Delegates were appointed and visited students groups during the day where the sum of almost $1,000 was pledged. Of this amount the young women have pledged almost two-thirds. An oportunity will be given this week to all students who desire to pledge or contribute to the fund. Full particulars can be had at the Y. M. C. A. office from Secretary Heim.

MINSTREL NIGHT NEXT THURSDAY

FIRST ENTERTAINMENT OF ITS KIND SINCE 1912

CAST OF CHARACTERS WELL CHOSEN

Produced By Combined Musical Clubs.—Prof. Stolz in Charge of Rehearsals.—Evening of Fun Assured.

Thursday evening, November 8, is Minstrel Night in Lewisburg.

A special and pressing invitation is hereby extended to every student on the "Hill" and every citizen of the community to forget about the war for an evening and spend a few gladsome hours in laughing with the famous Bucknell Minstrels.

Thursday evening will mark their first appearance at Bucknell Hall since 1912, and the management promises a world famous cast of characters and a complete new repertoire of funny stuff, including a freshly imported consignment of jokes and witticisms and a bunch of the songs they are singing on Broadway.

The entertainment will be divided into two parts, the first consisting of repertoire songs and jokes. Mackey, '18, will act as interlocutor, and Jones, '18, Martin, '19, Sherk, '20, and Craig, '20, will be the end men. A chorus of 30 men will furnish the music.

Part two will be a comedy sketch, the "Coontown Thirteen Club," which depicts the varying fortunes and trying situations of a negro suicide club. The difficulty of the situation lies in the selection of one darky member to commit suicide, and the public is assured that the sketch will be a scream from start to finish.

Prof. Paul Stolz, head of the University Music Department, has charge of the rehearsals, and the production will be presented under the auspices of the Combined Musical Clubs, the officers of which are: Mackey, '18, president; Fairheller, '18, manager; Lunk, '20, assistant; Sherk, '20, secretary; Tice, '19, treasurer; and Warfel, '20, librarian. Lunk is the student director of the minstrels. Dewitt Botts, '19, will preside at the piano.

The coming minstrels will be the first musical event of the season and it is hoped that the efforts of our coontown comedians will be rewarded by the attention of a large audience. Bucknell Hall is the place, Thursday, November 8, at 8 o'clock, is the time, and 35 cents the price of admission. Budgets will not be accepted.

Tickets on sale at Heiser's drug store.

JUNIORS, DO YOUR DUTY.

The L'Agenda this year is your L'Agenda. It is the tablet of memory that will live after you at Bucknell. Make it good. Every Junior write something snappy for the L'Agenda. This is not the book of the L'Agenda board but of the Junior class, so Juniors it is up to you to make it worth while. Write an article or a suggestion tonight and hand it to a member of the board. Make this L'Agenda of 1919 one that will be talked about for years. You can do it, Juniors. Just cooperate with the board and help produce the snappiest year book ever published at Bucknell.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1917.

Early in the season there was a sufficiently large number of men reporting daily for football to make the temporary formation of three full teams possible. Prospects for a large and efficient football squad seemed of the brightest. but along came Old Man Disappointment and knocked these plans in the head. Of late there have at times not been enough men on the field to form two teams and have scrimmage. Many of the original candidates have found other interests which they regard as more important and which they are pursuing more diligently than their football instincts.

The majority of the men to whom this applies are Freshmen. It is very likely that some of these had been considered good players in their Prep Schools and expected to win the same distinction here immediately and without much difficulty. Should they stop to think for a brief moment, they would plainly see that such a thing is impossible unless they are players of remarkable ability. Discouragement at such an obstacle should not deter them from appearing again, for the oftener they play, the better developed will become their ability and the coach will appreciate it more also.

But not all the "slackers" have been Freshmen. The other three classes have their quota as well. When a man gets a bump in a scrimmage and then quits for fear of another bump, he is a coward and there is no defense for him. A man should not report for practice in the first place if he does not intend to remain with the squad until the close of the season. If he quits because he was not chosen as a member of the Varsity, he was guided by purely selfish motives when he originally reported. Had he the good of the school at heart, he would continue to practice to better the Varsity. The coach cannot do his best with a shifting squad. He never knows how many will report until late in the afternoon. and consequently cannot plan his work ahead. As a result, the team and school is not getting the best that the coach is willing to give, nor does it give the coach credit due to his good intentions, which he is unable to live up to.

If a man is working for the benefit of the school he will report until he is satisfied that he has done all he can to raise Bucknell's standard of athletics to the highest possible point. If he is reporting for purely personal motives, he had better join some gym class and get his exercise there. Bucknell is no place for a slacker!

Mass meeting Thursday night. Everybody out!

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor:

With great regret I learn that the annual Thanksgiving game at Bucknell has been discontinued and in its place the team which has shown such marked improvement over previous years has to fight its last game of the season on a foreign field. This is but a minor factor.

The real item of interest to the surrounding community is the fact the Thanksgiving game at Bucknell is looked forward to by at least two thousand enthusiasts from nearby towns who journey to Lewisburg Thanksgiving day to see the only football game in this community.

If the annual Thanksgiving game was not well supported and made a paying proposition, there would be reason for the management taking such action. But when thousands of people from Williamsport, Sunbury, Danville, Bloomsburg, and Milton journey to Lewisburg and support the only football game in this community, it is a question in my mind just what the real cause of such action is.

If the honor of Bucknell is not at stake and the interest of the community, then what more can be expected from such a management?

Milton Citizen Interested in the Welfare of B. U.

COMMUNICATION

Mr. Editor:

In last week's "Bucknellian" appeared a statement to which many of us take exception. This statement was contained in an article discussing the Budget and its woeful condition. The sentence which we quote was "If there was any possible argument against the Budget this lack of support might be explained, but there is not." We would suggest that whoever wrote that article would stand on the corners and byways. in the corridors and classrooms and listen for a moment to the general trend of student conversation when any subject kindred to the Budget is broached.

There is but small doubt that if there should be a separate Budget for Organizations that it would receive nearly 100 per cent. support from the student body. What, then, is causing the lack of support in the Budget which combines Organizations and Athletics? The answer is evident. It is not the Athletics themselves which are defeating the Budget; this has been shown at each home game, by the large attendance of students, many of whom were without Budgets. It is the management, the manner in which the Athletics are being conducted that has aroused the students.

According to the originally published schedule, there would be five home football games for Bucknell this year, one minor team and four of full college standing. When as many had paid the Budget as seemed probable, two of these games were changed. The game with Susquehanna was cancelled and the Dickinson game postponed and transferred to Carlisle. This deprives Bucknell of a Thanksgiving Day game, which for years has been a drawing card as well as a paying investment. The result of this action leaves Bucknell with the Mansfield Normal, Swarthmore and Indian games on her own field. What a wonderfully large return is being given to the poor, deceived Budget payer! In all probability, it was to soothe such a feeling that the admission charge for the game on Saturday was increased seventy-five cents. It caused the Budget man to think he was getting better returns for his investment.

Until the Athletic Association is willing to give the students a square deal. it can scarcely expect a very ardent support from them. There would in all probability have been very litle objection to cancelling one of the two games, but Bucknell is very loathe to give up her Thanksgiving Day celebration. Dickinson has not been accustomed to have a Thanksgiving Day game at home consequently would hardly have objected to playing here, but as matters now stand, we like the Belgians, must patiently grin and bear it. This is quite a novel method of fostering Bucknell spirit!

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

HEIM ELECTED PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY; CORNISH VICE PRESIDENT.

On Thursday evening at a meeting of the members of the Bucknell Y. M. C. A., J. S. Heim was elected president and secretary, and Cornish, '17, vice president. In spite of the fact that several organizations were holding meetings at the same time, the meeting was well attended, about 37 being present.

Dr. Phillips opened the meeting and described the character of work which is to confront the new officers. He dwelt at length upon the responsibility of the office of president and secretary, showing how the work was vital to student life and emphasizing the fact that it was a "man's job." He also spoke about the Y. M. C. A. work among the troops and of the importance of the present campaign of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A., urging every student here to do his best toward attaining the desired goal.

WILL SERVE AS SUBSTITUTE FOR ANNUAL THANKSGIVING DAY GAME.

In place of the postponed Dickinson game, Bucknell football enthusiasts will have an opportunity to witness another game, one which may not display the same amount of skill and "science" in playing, but one in which there will be more rivalry and competition than would probably be the case in the Varsity game. Saturday, November 24, is the date for the annual Sophomore-Freshman football game, and the game this year bids fair to have an unlimited amount of pep and spirit.

As was the case in previous years, the Freshmen must furnish the ball. If the Sophomores win the game, the ball becomes their property; in case of a tie or a Freshman victory, the ball remains in their possession. The officials for the game have not yet been chosen, but, if students, they will be upperclassmen.

At a game of this kind, every Sophomore and every Freshman should be out rooting for his team. It would also be a good idea for the girls to follow suit. The Freshmen will please remember that they occupy the side of the field next to the railroad.

FRILL AND FROWN

living room where the Witches' Scene from Macbeth was given by four of the Frill and Frown girls.

Finally the crowd headed for the gymnasium. After a cold reception into a black room they finally followed the sign post to the "Law 'Em Lowe Cemetery." There at the withes' signal ,the inmates of the cemetery arose from their leafy graves and took up the business of their lives. There were the Postmasters who dealt out letters to the Freshmen thru a gigantic envelope. Then there was the farmer, his wife and daughter, who gave out cider and doughnuts. Smokehouse apples lay in heaps about the farm and everyone was entitled to help herself. Then came the class stunts. The Freshman gave a country school scene filled with clever jokes and puns. The Sophomores gave the Freshmen an idea of the solemn ceremony of matriculation. each Sophomore representing a member of the Freshman class, wore her green dress and "twenty one," and carried her long white kid gloves. At roll call each said her verse and deposited her gold piece in the box held by the pseudo Registrar Wilcox. The faculty including President Harris, was individually and faithfully represented. Even the choir was not slighted. The Juniors gave as their stunt a short dance.

Effie Muir, '21, was awarded the prize for the most beautiful costume. She wore Scoth kilties which had been thru the Boer war. Margaret Sprout, '21, received the prize for the most original. She represented a knting bag with a profusion of yarn.

Off course, this will mean that budget tickets will not be negotiable, but the same would hold true if the play were given in Bucknell Hall because Cap and Dagger is not a beneficiary of the budget this year. General admittance will be 25 cents and reserved seats 35 cents. Tickets will be on sale at the box office of the Orpheum Theatre next week.

Autumn Offerings at Seidel and Spangler's Milton, Penna.

TAILORED SUITS UP TO $37.50

These are suits that any description would not do justice to because of their smartness and attractiveness all in the elegance of the material and beauty of the lines. They are of broadcloth, velours, burello cloth, serges, poplins, etc. All are silk lined. Some are exceedingly plain, while others are trimmed with braids, buttons, etc. Colors of blues, browns, Burgundy and so on, and black.

HUNDREDS GOOD WAR MWINTER COATS AT PRICES UP TO $59.50

The winter coat is probably the one thing in your wardrobe that has the hardest wear and must give the longest service, so it should be chosen with eyes open. Wise women are choosing such coats as are found in Seidel & Spangler's stocks today. The color and style variety is complete —there is nothing left out. Trimmings are becoming and linings are elegant.

We fit them all—from the tiniest babe up to the tallest or stoutest woman. Extra sizes are a speciality in this store. If you're stout and hard to fit, don't give up till you have gone through our stocks.

The important thing about these wool goods is their prices, which are far below today's.

ULTRA-FASHIONABLE TRIMMED MILLINERY
MODERATELY PRICED

Do not let our exceedingly low prices deceive you, for every hat in our immense stock is worth more than we are asking for it. As for styles, our clever milliners have caught the spirit of the newest and most stylish models, and have copied them with an exactness that is remarkable.

Drop into our millinery salon and choose the hat you like best.

SYRACUSE EASILY TROUNCES VARSITY

SATURDAY'S GAME BRINGS 42-0 DEFEAT.

ORANGE BACKS TOO FAST FOR BUCKNELL

Score 28 Points in First Period.—Team Will Be in Good Shape for the Game With Gettysburg on Saturday.

When Bucknell sent a team against Syracuse on Saturday, she did not expect it to reurn victorious. Here expectations were fuuly realized by a 42-0 score, 28 of the points being scored in the initial quarter of the game.

The Syracuse eleven handled the ball at will during the first quarter, gaining for touchdowns with comparative ease. After Syracuse perceived that we had not sent our full first string quota she started using the reserve team against us, saving her best players for her game with Colgate next Saturday. As more and more of her reserves were introduced into the game, less scoring was done, so that by the final period, no score was recorded for either side.

Our best opportunity to score presented itself when, in the third quarter. Smith picked up a ball fumbled by Brown, the Syracuse full-back. Down the field he raced for 60 yards until tackled on Syracuse's 20 yard line. There the New Yorker's line stiffened and held our men until the third down. A forward pass on the third down was intercepted by the Orange quarterback, and in a few moments, Syracuse was no longer in danger of being scored upon.

Bucknell's feature play was the triple pass. It was on this play that Kostos gained 30 yards. This was possibly our most brilliant play of any, while the ball was in our possession.

Brown, Flannery, Festerwald and Meehan were the stars of the opposing team. Of the 42 points that were scored, Syracuse owed 24 to Brown. 6 to Flannery, 6 to Festerwald and 6 to Meehan, the latter having kicked all goals for the six touchdowns scored.

Altho this is a defeat for Bucknell we are by no means disappointed. We could not hope to win and our only alternative hope might have been a smaller score. That we expected defeat may be inferred from the fact that six of our best players Spotts, Morrison, Hall, Elliott, Gerhart and Lewis remained at home in order to be in prime condition to defeat Gettysburg next week. We feel assured that our defeats for the year are at an end, for we will be quite violently surprised should our team fail to bring home the bacon in either of the two remaining games which are upon our schedule for this year.

The line-up for Saturday's game:

Syracuse		Bucknell
E. Brown		Wargo
	Left End
Cobb		Lees
	Left Tackle
Alexander		Boswell
	Left Guard
Robertson		Smith
	Center
Thompson		Kline
	Right Guard
Segal		Newcombe
	Right Tackle
Schwarzer		Freeble
	Right End
Meehan		Waddell
	Quarter-back
Barsha		Kostos
	Feft Half
I. Brown		Bortz
	Right Half
Fensterwald		Brandt
	Full Back

Substitutions—Flannery for Barsha, Steele for Flannery. Hooble for. Segal, Goulding for Steele, Sarseen for Fensterwald, Hearst for Thompson, Levslin for Robertosos, Baird for Wargo, Markowitz for Baird, Moore for Boswell. Wargo for Markowitz, Schwinkler for Kostos, McGann for Wargo, Kostos for Schwinkler, Miles for Smith, Smith for Miles. Touchdowns—Brown, 4; Flannery, Fensterwald. Goals from touch downs—Meehan, 6.

DO YOUR BIT

What we have done.—We have about one thousand dollars. But the young women, though not by any means equal to the young men, have given one-half.

What we should do.—Each student should give according to his ability. Fifty per cent. of the Freshmen have not given. Some groups who have not given anything should give something. Some groups should give more. Some individuals should give more.

Why we should give.—The cause is worthy. For proof read your newspaper. You help your fellow-students in the army. at home and abroad. You may be helping yourself, for you may be called soon.

BIG MASS MEETING SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT

PLANS WILL BE MADE FOR HARRISBURG TRIP.—GIRLS TO ATTEND.

Bucknell students will have their biggest mass meeting in several years at Bucknell Hall this evening at 9 o'clock when the girls will be present and plans will be completed for the annual trip by special train to Harrisburg to see the Gettysburg-Bucknell football game.

The famous "specials" to Harrisburg have carried nearly every man on the Hill to the Capitol City and this year the question of taking the girls along will be brought up. The Band also has accompanied the team and the students on the special and the student delegation will make arrangements this evening to take this organization along if at all possible, for it is a necessary thing in the big Bucknell parade about Harrisburg and on the field at the game. Gettysburg's delegation has never appeared without its music and the Orange and Blue will make every effort tonight not to be outclassed by the Battlefield Collegians.

Several other details about the trip concerning rates and other incidentals including the good, rousing time always had on this annual trip, will be discussed along with several short and snappy speeches by prominent speakers and football men. Everybody out and show the girls what a mass meeting can be.

NOTED ORGANIST HERE THIS WEEK

WILL GIVE FIRST OF SERIES OF CONCERTS.

AT WOMEN'S COLLEGE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

C. Walter Wallace Is Far Famed As The Blind Organists.—Concert Open to All.—Admission 50 Cents.

The first of a series of concerts of the Artist Course given by the School of Music will be given next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Organ room at Women's College by Prof. C. Walter Wallace, organist and director of St. John's Reformed church and concert organist of the Hippodrome theatre at Williamsport. The concert will be a sacred one and the program arranged is an excellent one and will be given along with four following numbers primarily for the students in the school of music and open to the other students and general public. The second number, the date of which is to be announced later, will be a pinno concert by Prof. Berlino of the music department.

Prof. Wallace has state-wide fame as the blind organist and is now enjoying much popularity at Williamsport where he gave a large recital some days ago. He was born in Hamilton, Canada, 1872, and at the age of six years, lost his sight thro an accident. He entered the Canadian School for the blind at seven, and graduated with marked distinction when fourteen years old. He studied under the famous Organist, David D. Wood. of Philadelphia, graduating when twenty-one years of age with honors. When sixteen years of age he rendered Mozart's great Concerto in E flat, with the Germania Orchestra. At sixteen years he began teaching sighted pupils and at twenty-three, accepted his first church position as organist and chorister, being actively engaged training volunteer choirs and choral societies ever since. Many press notices and letters testify to his ability as a musician and artist on both organ and piano.

PROF. C. WALTER WALLACE who will give an organ recital at the Women's College Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The program for this concert follows::

PART I

Largo from New World Symphony, Dvorack
Romanza from Concerto No. 2, Mozart.
(Arranged from piano and orchestra score by Prof. Wallace.
Hymn of the Nuns ..... Wely
Communion in E Minor ..... Batiste
Festive March ..... Smart

PART TWO

Largo Cantabile from Fifth Symphony ..... Hadyn
Prayer and Cradle Song .. Guilmant
Menuett ..... Beethoven
Tocatto in G ..... DuBois
Fantasia on an old familiar hymn ..... C. W. Wallace

Prof. Stolz announces that this concert is open to the public but is first for the students of music and for the other Bucknell students so that a special price of 35 cents is offered to students while the admission for others who wish to hear the program will be 50 cents.

RESOLUTIONS SUBMITTED TO THE STUDENT COUNCIL AND STUDENT EXECUTIVE

Resolvrd, That as long as the war lasts neither as individuals nor as groups will we participate in any social function that averages in cost not more than fifty cents for each participant.

PHI PSI PARTY

The Phi Kappa Psis entertained a number of Seminary girls Saturday evening in their chapter house at a patriotic party. Miss Fowler and Miss Armstrong acted as chaperons. Miss Armstrong was awarded the prize for the contests of the evening.

NEWS COMES FROM AMBULANCE SECTION 25

DR. DAVIS GETS INTERESTING LETTER FROM FORMER BUCKNELL STUDENT.

On Saturday, November 10, Prof. Davis received a letter from Alex. H. Chalfant, one of our Bucknell boys in France. From that letter these extracts are taken:

"Our period of training was very interesting, altho mighty strenuous, and since we have been across we have been too busy to think of anything but work.

"We are stationed away up front and at times find things mighty interesting, as we continually hear noise as a thunder. A little excitement is rumored for tonight.

"The boys are all well and getting along fine. We find this a mighty fine branch of the service. We have a very fine crowd of men in Section 25 and get along like one big family."

The address of any of the men is:—Section No. 25, U. S. A. A. S., American Epeditionary Forces, Paris France, via New York.

STIFF TRAINING FOR ALLENTOWN BOYS

MANY MEMBERS OF UNIT EXPECT TO SEE GAME AT HARRISBURG.

To the Bucknellian:

The members of the section who had intended to return for the Carlisle Indian game regret very much that conditions were such that they could not get back. However, they have heard with much joy and pride the outcome of the game and truly we think that Bucknell is fast coming back to its strong foot-ball reputation of a few years ago.

And now a victory over Gettysburg and the season will be a success in our opinion and there are a large number of the fellows planning to be in Harrisburg for that game and do their best to help Bucknell down its ancient rival and avenge last year's defeat.

At the present time we are camping out in the open about eight miles from Allentown. We are not alone, however. for there are about sixteen hundred of us and with a thousand camping at Tobyhanna for the winter the Allentown camp is about deserted as there are now not quite a thousand men occupying the barracks. We expect to return to camp on or near the first of December when several new barracks have been completed and the heating plant

CAP AND DAGGER WORKING HARD

IN PREPARATION FOR THIS TERM'S PLAY.

"IT OFTEN HAPPENS" TO BE GIVEN THURSDAY NIGHT

Cast of Thirteen Working Under Miss Schillinger's Direction.—Budget Ticket Will Not Be Good For Admission.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 15, the Bucknell lovers of dramatics will have an opportunity to witness one of the strongest plays that Cap and Dagger Dramaite Society has ever presented. The society will present a rousing modern comedy "It Often Happens." The production will be staged at the Orpheum Theatre and the curtain will go up at eight o'clock.

The supporters who have been asking for a play of a modern nature in the form of a comedy will be entirely pleased by the choice the society has made in "It Often Happens." During the past four weeks a cast of thirteen characters has been rehearsing under the able direction of Miss Edith Schillinger.

A mere mentioning of the cast will serve to show the followers of Cap and Dagger that something beyond the ordinary is awaiting them. Miss Grace Good who received such favorable criticism for her work in "The Doll's House," last spring will again have the leading lady's part, while Chester R. Leaber who also played a most important part in "The Doll's House," will have the role of leading man. Miss Annette Stahl, who will also be remembered for her work in "The Doll's House," and various other Cap and Dagger plays will also appear in the cast. The cast is particularly well balanced and shows marked individual ability in the respective parts.

The play itself consists of a prologue and three acts. A steady action serves to hold the interest thruout the entire presentation and the comedy combined with the clever pathos gives the play a decided "snap" in the entire.

A Budget ticket will not admit the holder. General admission tickets are on sale for 25 cents. These tickets can be exchanged at the Orpheum box office for reserved seat tickets by paying 10 cents extra. Because of the nature of the society and the purpose to which the proceeds are devoted it is probable that no war tax will be charged.

Tickets can be purchased at the Orpheum box office or from Dimlich, F. D. Jones, Cosgrove, Leaher, Chance, Mathieson or Weigand. The chart for reserved seats is open at the Orpheum box office and all reservation will be made there. Be sure and get yours early.

Don't forget the time—Thursday evening, November 15, at the Orpheum Theatre at 8 o'clock.

Fussers will be allowed to take Junior or Senior girls.

FREE COURSE FOR RADIO OPERATORS

FIRST MEETING TO BE HELD MONDAY, NOV. 19, IN ROOM 1.

The following proposition has been laid before this school by the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

The United States government must secure 15,000 radio or buzzer operators at the earliest possible date for service in the Signal Corps of the Army. At the request of the Signal Corps the Federal board has asked Bucknell to assist this school in the training of such operators from the ranks of the men who are

THE HARRISBURG TRIP

Yale has its Harvard; W. and J. has its Pitt; Gettysburg has its Bucknell. The time for the big event is only a few days off. The trip to Harrisburg has always been the big thing for the students of Bucknell—long looked forward to and long remembered.

The first steps toward formulating plans for the trip will be taken at the mass meeting in Bucknell Hall tonight. Every Freshman is required to be present; every upperclassman should be there whether or not he is contemplating taking the Harrisburg trip.

The unusual feature of tonight's mass meeting will be that it will be attended by the girls from the Women's College. We can see no reason why the women of Bucknell should be kept from attending mass meetings; neither do we see any reason why those who care to should be kept from having a place on the special which is to take Bucknell to Harrisburg. At the mass meeting tonight an effort will be made to secure for the girls this privilege.

There is very little uncertainty about the outcome of the game. It must not be assumed, however, that it will be a "walk-away" for Bucknell. On the contrary it will be in all probability the most hard-fought game on our schedule. Gettysburg has reserved all her strength for this battle and they are sure to put up a formidable fight.

The Band, too, is making arrangements to be on hand. So that the Harrisburg trip this year has lost none of the attractions of former years, but more glorious than ever when we consider that we are out for vengeance for last year's 17-0 defeat. We have a team that it fully capable of exacting it.

We leave it to the team to outclass Gettysburg on the field; let's do our share by outclassing the Gettysburg rooters.

NORTH AMERICAN WANTS PUBLICITY.

The Philadelphia North American would be pleased if The Bucknellian would, thru editorial comment or otherwise, give publicity to one of its special feature article. We suggest that the North American, when sending out circular letters of this kind, cross the Bucknellian from its mailing list. By the way it would be well for every Bucknell man to read what the Editor of the Bucknell Alumni Monthly has to say about the write-up in The North American following the Bucknell-Penn game, in the next issue of the Monthly.

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor:—

I wish to submit the following facts for the purpose of correcting the misstatements made by contributors in your last issue.

The Bloomsburg game was cancelled by Bloomsburg. The Susquehanna game was cancelled by Susquehanna. The game with Dickinson was scheduled for Carlisle and was not transferred to that place from Saturday to Thanksgiving Day with the idea of making the arrangement permanent, thereby assuring a Thanksgiving Day game every other year with a good team at Lewisburg.

B. W. GRIFFITH.

NEW EDITOR FOR THE ALUMNI MONTHLY.

Clinton I. Sprout, '17, has been chosen to edit The Bucknell Alumni Monthly, taking the place of Romain C. Hassrick, '06, who has had the publication in charge during the past year. Hassrick, upon becoming engaged in the service of the govcrment in the Civilian Personell Division at Washington, D. C., was forced to resign the editorship. The new editor, who will assume charge of the next issue, was editor of The Bucknellian last year.

FREE COURSE FOR RADIO OPERATORS

shortly to be called to the cantonments.

We are informed by the authorities at Washington that drafted men who attain the required proficiency are practically certain of rapid promotion and increased pay in the army. The rank of corporal and Sergeant with a wage of from $36 to $51 a month awaits the majority of the men thus trained, and in proportion as a man so shows his ability and interest, promotion lies ahead of him to the position of Master Signal Electrician, with a wage of $81 a month.

The plan is to hold the first meeting at 7 P. M. Monday, November 19 in class room No. 1, Main College. Details of training and class arrangements will then be made known. It is the object of this class to train radio or buzzer operators so as to be able to receive and send a minimum of 20 words of 5 letters each per minute. The desired standard would be reached by the average student in about 200 hours, some would require less than this time, some more.

There will be no charge whatever for the course, instructors and equipment being supplied without cost.

The classes will be limited only to conscripted men due for the second and following drafts, and the general progress of the class will not be held back by inability of some members to maintain high standards of progress and efficiency.

Please notify the Registrar of Bucknell University at your earliest convenience your decision, no matter whether or not you decide that you can spare the time. The authorities at Washington have already called upon us for a report as to our enrollment.

BUCKNELL HALL CROWDED AT BUCKNELL MINSTRELS

PRODUCTION OF BUCKNELL COMBINED MUSICAL CLUBS SCORES SUCCESS.

"Standing room only" was the sign hung out at the door of Bucknell Hall last Thursday evening when the famous Bucknell Minstrels appeared in Lewisburg in the first black-face stunt presented here since 1912. It was indeed a "Welcome to our City" event, for the Hill turned out en masse and with a goodly number of town enthusiasts combined to fill the hall to overflowing.

The entertainment opened with with a medley selection by a chorus of 28 men, all "made up" with unusually red cheeks and suspiciously black eye-brows, and dolled up in the regulation spike tail coat with "fixins to match." At this point two "gemmen ob color" tripped gayly in. These personages were none other than the justly famous end men, "Chic" Martin, '19, and "Rastus" Jones, '18. With the aid of interlocutor Mackey, Chic and Rastus got the audience going and interspersed generalities with a number of sly personal digs which are always the life of a minstrel performance.

After a musical number by the chorus, end men "Rippis," Abe Sherk and "Hoodlums," Jim Craig succeeded Martin and Jones as high lights in the minstrel picture. Not being able to express himself Abe had to be sent by freight andwas carried upon the stage in a trunk. However, once Abe was safely interned behind the footlights, his powers of expression soon returned and he and his co-partner Jimmie enlivened the assemblage with an array of sparkling and original witticisms. When things began to get dry Abe and Jim freshened the atmosphere with a realistic stage imitation of the town pump.

The "Sandpaper Quartet" composed of Davis, '19, Stout, '19, Harris, '21, and Hutchinson, '21, breezed in and smoothed things over with a well rendered selection and several encores.

Part two consisted of a comedy skit entitled "The Coontown Thirteen Club." The scene was the banquet room of the club, and when the members seated themselves about the board their struggles to obtain points of vantage resembled a regiment of Allies charging a German trench.

The President of the Club (Jimmie Craig,) announced that the purpose of the meeting was to select one of the members who should commit suicide. The unfortunate victim had the pleasure of choosing any means of shuffling off this mortal coil and was assured of a grand and gorgeous funeral. Percy Lowshoes (Mal. Musser) drew the black ball and promptly tried to resign from the club. Failing in this he decided that since gin was a slow poison he would drink himself to death. The club then broke up in a fight for possession of a jug of gin.

The concluding number of the performance was "The Star Spangled Banner" sung by the entire company and the audience joined in.

It remains to say a word of praise for the Orchestra and the management of the enterprise. The orchestra made its first public appearance under the leadership of Prof. Paul Stolz and added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Bucknell "Scrubs" Lose to High School

On Saturday afternoon a delegation of students masquerading under the name of "Bucknell Scrubs" were defeated by the Lewisburg High School by a score of 19-7. The "Scrubs" were strong at the beginning but weakened in the last half and allowed the High School boys to pile up 19 points. The first score of the game was made by the "Scrubs" on a 99-yard run by Mathieson.

is in working order.

It is optional with the sections whether the men sleep in dug-outs or in their "pup" tents. To see the various dug-outs and the different trenches and to hear the cracking of the revolvers as the lieutenants are practising one wonders whether he is in Pennsylvania or in France. Our section is digging a dug-out which corresponds to that used in the Russian army. The plan is to dig one long hole and to have one opening in it and all the men sleep in it, which one of the captains who has been in the Rusian army as a surgeon thinks is the best kind for all conditions. It is rapidly being dug by all the fellows and we hope to find out for ourselves just how the men in the trenches are living.

We are not so far away that it is difficult to get back to town because a trolley car runs directly from our camping site to Allentown. The Y. M. C. A. at Allentown, for the small sum of one dollar per month allows the soldiers from the camp all the privileges given to a regular member and there is always a great rush for the showers and the pool every evening.

Everybody is happy and waiting now for pay day, which is expected at any time.

Varsity and Gettysburg Battle to a Tie Score

GETTYSBURG SHOWS SURPRISING STRENGTH

HARD FOUGHT GAME ENDS IN 6-6 TIE

Bortz Shows Up Well a New Position.—Spotts and Morrison Are Chief Ground-Gainers.—Newcomb Plays Well.—Waddell and Freeble Injured.

"We are out for blood and gore," must have been the slogan of the Gettysburg team; what is more, we are sorry to say they got it. The game in itself was a fierce battle and a closer approach to old-time football than is usually the case. In the second play the havoc began when Waddell was thrown and broke his arm between the wrist and elbow. This dampened the high spirit of all Bucknellians, whether in uniform or civilian clothes, for a trained substitute for Waddell was nowhere to be found.

The Jinx then jumped from the backfield to the line. In the same play he laid Freeble, playing right end, low with a fractured shoulder. Freeble realized that he was injured, but failed to grasp the serious extent of the injury, continuing to play through several scrimmages thereafter. After playing was resumed, the Jinx still hovered about, for as the men arose from the third scrimmage, Captain Newcomb came out of the mass of struggling humanity with blood gushing from a cut over his eye. When the cut had been bandaged, he re-entered the game and played until the finish.

The game was an interesting one to watch. The two lines surged up and down the field in true piston-rod style. Bucknell several times threatened to score, but almost every time the referee succeeded in finding a bit of bad playing among our men and a penalty was the inevitable result. In the first half, when we had placed the ball on Gettysburg's two-yard line we received a large penalty because of the incorrect use of the arms of one of the men on the line. The penalties donated to our team amounted to more than the entire length of the field.

Bortz called signals in the absence of Waddell, and played a remarkable game for a man who had never before in his life called signals. Practically no forward passes were tried because Waddell was the only one on the team who had the necessary experience. Consequently nothing was left to our choice but a system of straight football. Spotts and Morrison were valuable in this kind of a game. By his aggressive line plunges, Spotts repeatedly made gains of five or six yards; in fact, more ground was gained Saturday by line plunging than in any other game of the season. Morrison also did good work in backing the line and added to his glory by several long punts. Through the good work of these men, our team with but little difficulty twice in the last half made three successive first downs.

Captain Moyer of the Gettysburg team brought the Gettsburg cheering section to its feet in the first quarter when he ran almost 50 yards for their only score. Spirit ran high from that moment, and it was only after their score that Gettysburg seemed to have any hope of a victory.

The third quarter was the most thrilling of the four. Spotts was given the ball on the fifteen yard line. By a pretty run, he manged to put the ball across the line, but his feet were out of bounds, and the ball was placed on the two-and line.

CAP AND DAGGER PLAY PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE

ORPHEUM PACKED AT PRESENTATION OF "IT OFTEN HAPPENS."

Greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience at the Orpheum theatre Thursday night, the members of Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society gave a very creditable presentation of the modern comedy. "It Often Happens." For weeks the memebrs of the society worked on the play under the direction of Miss Edith Schillinger, head of the Dramatics Department. There was plenty of evidence to show that their efforts did not go unrewarded.

The characters were admirably suited to their parts and by their clever interpretations of their lines were able to hold the audience throughout the two-hour entertainment. Several parts gave opportunity for considerable humor and the characters in these roles demonstrated their ability to handle work of that nature in an effective manner.

To Miss Edith Schillinger as director of the play must go the greatest credit for the splendid success of the society's production. The play from beginning to end showed a careful supervision and efficient coaching.

Highly commendable was the work of Miss Grace Good and Chester Leaber, who took the leading parts. Excellent support was given them by Miss Eudora Hamler, Miss Annette Stahl, A. L. Sherk. F. D. Jones, L. W. Sipley. A. R. Mathieson and others.

The cast is as follows;

Amanda Sharp Miss Eudora Hamler
Margarie Wood ...Miss Grace Good

WEBER MALE QUARTET HERE WEDNESDAY EVENING

LARGE CROWD WILL HEAR FIRST NUMBER OF Y. M. C. A. COURSE

The first number of the Bucknell Y. M. C. A. Lceum Course, The Weber Male Quartet, will be given in the Lewisburg Episcopal church Wednesday evening at 8:15 p. m. Several hundred tickets have already been disposed of among the students and townpeople and an attendance, fully as large as last year's is expected in spite of the adverse conditions.

The Weber Male Quartet needs no introduction to Bucknell students or to the people of Lewisburg. Those who heard the Quartet last year declared it to be one of the best numbers on the Redpath Lyceum Bureau. The personnel of the Quartet is unique in that each man is a musician as well as a singer.

The remaining four numbers of the course will be staged at regular intervals during the college year.

BUCKNELL REPRESENTED AT STUDENT GOVT. CONFERENCE

JEAN FLANNIGAN AND HAZEL GAY ATTEND MEETING IN SYRACUSE, N. Y.

Jean Flannigan and Hazel Gay spent the week-end at Syracuse, N. Y., attending the Women's Intercollegiate Student Government Conference. There were delegates present from thirty-seven of the different colleges this side of the Mississippi. A large part of the time was spent at the business meetings where many topics, pertaining to Student Government were discussed.

There was also a large mass meeting at which each representative told what her college was doing in War Relief work. Besides the business that was transacted there was also a social side to the conference which included the Syracuse-Colagte game.

This assembling of representatives from the different colleges brought much enthusiasm and inspiration and emphasized the importance and value of Studen' Government.

The Senior Council meeting will be held this evening at 9 o'clock.

LARGE CROWD ENJOYS FIRST NUMBER OF ARTIST COURSE

GIVEN BY PROF. C. WALTER WALLACE AT WOMEN'S COLLEGE SUNDAY.

The first number of the Artist course in the Department of Music was given yesterday afternoon in the form of a sacred organ recital by Prof. C. Walter Wallace, the blind organist of Williamsport, in the organ room of Women's College. The recital was very well attended especially by all music lovers of the school. Prof. Wallace showed excellent ability in playing the organ and his program was greatly enjoyed by every one present.

An interesting feature of the program was a short address by Mr. Wallace on "How the Blind Attain Their Education."

The next number of the course is to be given by Prof. Berlino, of the Music Faculty, at a date to be announced later.

—On Wednesday evening the first number of the Lyceum course will take place in the Methodist church. Fussers may take upperclassmen girls.

SOPHS AND FRESHMEN WILL CLASH SATURDAY

ANNUAL CONTEST PROMISES TO BE A SPIRITED BATTLE

The Sophomore-Freshmen game will furnish the attraction to followers of the gridiron game this week. The annual footall game between the two underclasses is practically a school tradition and the rivalry between the two classes has resulted in many spirited and exceptionally well-played games and from present indications this year's battle will not be a disappointment.

The game this year promises to be hard fought all the way through. The Sophs are out to better last year's scoreless tie by defeating the Freshmen and the Freshmen, in turn, have fond hopes of starting their inter-class contests with a football victory.

In the past it has been the custom to prohibit Varsity men from taking part in the class contest, but there is a possibility that the ruling may be changed this year so as to allow Varsity men to play with their class team. Should the case be an exceptionally good game may be expected, because both classes are well represented on the Varsity. However, should this be allowed the Freshmen would undoubtedly be benefitted most.

During the game the Freshmen will take the side of the field toward the railroad while the Sophs and their supporters will occupy the bleachers and side-lines at the foot of the bleachers.

L'AGENDA BOARD MAKES IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

ALL PROSPECTIVE BUYERS MUST DEPOSIT 75 CENTS BEFORE DEC. 15.

It will be of interest to the student body at large to know that present conditions have necessitated drastic action on the part of the management of the L'Agenda.

Realizing that many persons now at Bucknell will find themselves in the service of the United States before the L'Agenda is in the hands of the purchasers and that as a result, delivery of the books and collection on the same will be very difficult, the management has decided that a deposit of seventy-five cents must be made by all prospective purchasers before December 15, 1917.

It will be very easily seen that such a course of action is dictated only by necessity and by desire that the publication of this important college annual shall not be suspended.

This deposit must be paid when order is placed, and if a sufficient number of advance orders is not in the hands of the management by December 15, the publication of the L'Agenda will be impossible.

KAPPA SIGS ENTERTAIN

On Friday evening Kappa Sigma entertained a number of girls from Women's College at a dinner. Miss Fowler chaperoned the party.

ALMOST EVERY STUDENT MAKES CONTRIBUTION

OVER $1125 HAS BEEN SUBSCRIBED

Women's College Gives Almost Half. —Some Reports Are Still Incomplete.—Sums May Still Be Subscribed.

The campaign of the Cabinet Board of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. committee for the students Friendship War fund among the faculty and the students has reached about $1125, and several other amounts are still to be heard from.

During the week a complete canvass of the seminary, faculty, fraternities and on the hill has been made. Almost every student has contributed and many, especially the girls, have sacrificed much for the fund. Many have given up getting new party dresses, one has sold a canoe and house and turned the sum to the Red Cross. Many similar sacrifices are being made and among the college men various luxuries, trips and pleasures have been given up to help swell the fund.

The members who have been canvassing find nearly every student has friends in the service and they are more than ready to aid the fund which shall bring a few home comforts to the "fighting boys."

The campaign has proved more successful and has more interest and number of contributors than any ever before started at Bucknell.

The fund in itself is divided among college men and women and a total of $1,000,000 is asked to be contributed by various colleges. State Y. M. C. A. secretary, William Kroll, who spoke two weeks ago stated that other college sums total on the average between $1500 and $2500 and the colleges he named were much larger than Bucknell. This $1,000,000 will be divided between Y. M. C. A. work in Europe in cantonment camps and for Y. W. C. A. nurses at base hospitals in war zones.

A list of the amounts subscribed by fraternities and organizations follows This is not complete for the faculty sum and several of the fraternities have not completed their subscriptions. Altho the campaign officially closed yesterday sums can still be subscribed to secretary Heim of the Bucknell Y. M. C. A. or Dr. Phillips of the faculty. The subscriptions follow:—

Women's College $525.00
Faculty $150.00
Delta Sigma (Demosthenean) $88.00.
Kappa Sigma$64.00
Phi Gamma Delta $54.00
Non-Frats $50.00
Sigma Alpha Epsilon $36.00
Lamba Chi Alpha $36.00
Phi Kappa Psi $31.00
Forum $30.00
Delta Theta Upsilon $28.00
Baptist C. E. $15.00

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1917

An excellent opportunity is being offered by the university to the students of Bucknell who are in line for service in the national army. The opportunity presents itself in the form of a free course which trains the men to be radio or buzzer operators.

Those who take the course are practically assured of rapid promotion and increased pay in the army. Promotion awaits the men thus trained in proportion as a man shows interest and attains proficiency. It is possible to attain rank anywhere from Sergeant to Master Signal Electrician.

The classes will be limited to conscripted men who are due for the second and following drafts. It is these men who should be looking forward most seriously to the future. The time is close at hand when they are going to be called to the colors. A man with a college training is better fitted to fill the more responsible positions of the army than are those who are not thus trained, and furthermore, it is with less difficulty and time that the nation can fill these positions by appealing to the college men. The nation has made such an appeal by asking the universities to institute a course of training for radio operators such as Bucknell will begin if a satisfactory number of students sign up.

The first meeting at which the class arrangements will be made known will be held tonight in Room 1, at 7 o'clock. We have every reason to believe that the conscripted men of Bucknell will fall in line and avail themselves of the splendid opportunity. No previous experience whatever is required to secure entrance to the classes. A more favorable opportunity could not be presented for it would be hard to find a more desirable branch of the service. The course costs you nothing and avails you much. Sign up now and assure yourself of a good position when you are called later.

HOW ABOUT THIS?

The Indians suffered an overwhelming defeat at the hands of Bucknell last Saturday 10-0. What does this mean to Dickinson? It heralds the fact that if we are not stronger than the Indians we had better dig our grave for a Thanksgiving burial. But we are stronger than the Indians according to the Hopkins game, and very much stronger. Our team has been scored on but once this season. However, there is going to be a battle staged on Biddle Field, November 29 which will be recorded in books and memory as fierce and bloody.

The above is taken from "The Dickinsonian" and shows what Dickinson students are thinking of the Thanksgiving Day game. Bucknell is as confident of winning the game as is Dickinson, but we are forced to agree that the contest will be "fierce and bloody."

MILITARY "B" TO BE GIVEN TO B. U. MEN IN FRANCE

GIRLS TAKE PART IN ROUSING MASS MEETING BEFORE GETTYSBURG GAME

The first Bucknell mass meeting ever held at which the girls of the school were present occured on Monday evening at Bucknell Hall in anticipation of the annual Gettysburg contest.

At least 350 students were present, the largest turnout in several years, despite the present decreased enrollment of students. The girls occupied a full section of the hall and added much to the spirit and enthusiasm of the meeting. It is expected that in future meetings their presence will be a regular feature.

Senior President Mackey took charge of the meeting. Prof. Lindeman was the first spenker and he contributed to the occasion with a number of pertinent observations about things in general and had everybody feeling good when Prof. Griffith brought forward the real business of the evening. Prof. Griffith stated that the Commander of the Bucknell Ambulance in France had written to the Athletic Board requesting that the B. U. men in the service in France be given a letter, similar to the Athletic "B," as a mark of recognition of the regard of Bucknell for her sons in the governmental service.

As the awarding of letters for anything but athletic powers is beyond the jurisdiction of the Athletic Board, Prof. Griffith referred the question to the meeting. On motion of Lewisson, '18, it was unanimously voted to award to each Bucknell man in the military service of the United States, a special insignia to be known as the military "B"

Prof. Griffith also made public the plans for the Gettysburg trip, which included the usual special train for the accomodation of the players, the band and the student rooters.

Cheerleader Musser, '18, assisted by Mathieson, '20, led the cheering, and gave the girls a little special instruction with very encouraging results. Songs were sung, including the Alma Mater, and after a few rousing Bucknell-ell-ell's the assembly broke up.

The second mass meeting in preparation for the trip was held on Friday evening. The speakers on this occasion were Prof. Bromley S. Smith, who gave some "pep-raising" remarks and Everett Jones, who spoke in behalf of the band. The girls were present again and their presence was hailed so agreeably that girls at mass meetings has become an established rule. Many of those who attended this meeting abandoned their intentions of remaining at home, so high did the "pep" of the meeting run.

Harvard University has signified her intentions of entering a freshman cross-country team in the annual I. C. A. A. run in New York.

Plans are being discussed out west whereby a football game can be arranged between the University of Chicago and the University of Michigan to take place in Chicago on December first. The game should prove a worthy substitute for the annual big games in the East.

Rutgers College has an extraordinary youth in her big colored lineman Robeson. He is nineteen years old, six feet three inches tall, and weighs 210 pounds. He is a junior in college, has ranked first in his classes during his freshman and Sophomore year and has captured every oratorical prize he tried for during the past two years.

The athletic associations of Dartmouth College and the University of Pennsylvania have announced that they will pay the 10 per cent. war tax on the tickets for their annual game.

The football team at Wesleyan College has lost the services of its captain, Hawed Wooley, who has been sent home with typhoid fever. Sutter, a guard, has been selected to act as captain for the remainder of

From there Spotts went thru center for the touchdown that tied the score. The grandstands were deathlike in their silence as Hall poised before attempting to kick the goal. A groan arose from one end of the field and a cheer from the other, as the ball went wide of the posts. The second half of the game presented some of the prettiest football lately shown to a crowd of Bucknell spectators.

Special trains were run from each college to carry the students. The size of the crowd has been estimated at 3000. Each college had its band, but of course the Bucknell Band was far superior. There were two snakedances between the halves, one by each school headed by the respective bands.

The line-up:—

Bucknell		Gettysburg
Hall	Left End	Houtz
Boswell	Left Guard	Fisher
Smith	Center	Newcome
Elliott	Right Guard	Nicely
Newcomb	Right Tackle	Phillipps
Freeble	Right End	Gilliland
Waddell	Quarter-back	Moyer
Morrison	Left Half Back	Hamil
Spotts	Right Half Back	Scheffer
Bortz	Full Back	Martz

Touchdowns—Moyer and Spotts; Substitutions—Bortz for Waddell, Kostos for Bortz, Wargo for Freeble, Wilhyde for Hamil, Marcus for Nicely, Kaiser for Houtz. Referee—Eberle, Swarthmore. Umpire—Ryan, of Michigan. Linesman—Saul, Oberlin. Time of quarters—15 minutes.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Gettysburg was more than happy to get away with a tie score.

Bortz acquitted himself remarkably well for his first attempt at the quarterback position.

Bucknell lost a chance to score in the last quarter when an attempt at a field goal from the 20-yard line was blocked.

Newcomb, as usual, played a great game at tackle. He has outplayed every man that he has opposed this season.

Bucknell was weak in getting down under punts, while on every one of Gettysburg's punts the Bucknell man was tackled in his tracks as he caught the ball.

Gettysburg was outfought and outplayed but always at the crucial point the break of the game went the wrong way.

The next football attraction will be the Sophomore-Freshman game next Saturday. A keen competition always features this contest in which a good brand of football is played.

Kostos who filled in the backfield when Waddell was injured played a great game and was responsible for some long runs around the ends.

Outside of one kick that went out of bounds Morrison's punting was of the best quality.

The coach has over a week to round up a team to go against the undefeated Dickinson eleven. Neither Waddell or Freeble will be able to Waddell or Freeble will be able to play in this game. Because Dickinson is thus far undefeated and if they win the game with Bucknell on Thanksgiving Day they will complete their schedule without a defeat, they are placing tremendous stress on the coming battle and will make every possible effort to come out victorious. They have not played since November 12th.

Near the close of the second quarter prospects for a score looked very bright when Bucknell recovered a fumble on Gettysburg's 20-yard line. All hopes were shattered, however, when the referee's whistle ended the half before the first scrimmage.

About twenty-five Bucknell girls were among the Bucknell followers and added greatly to the prestige of the Bucknell cheering section.

On the gridiron last Saturday was the day of surprises; Bucknell received her jolt when the "weak" Gettysburg team held the Varsity to a tie score.

It was very evident that Gettysburg knew Bucknell's signals; we wonder, did they know, too, that Bucknell had but one man trained for the quarterback position.

Doping it out from Saturday's scores it is pretty sure that Bucknell could beat Georgia Tech. by a 10-0 score.

Lewisson, '18, and Rosenberger, '18 autoed to Gettysburg after the game Saturday.

Miller A. Johnson, ex-'18, Second Lieutenant stationed at Camp Meade, visited his Kappa Sigma brothers over the week-end.

Shelley, '21, and Williams, '21, started to hike to Harrisburg Friday afternoon and through the aid of a passing motorist reached the Capital City in plenty of time for the big game.

Mitterling, '14, and son accompanied by some friends were at the Kappa Sigma home Wednesday evening.

Kunkle, '21, spent the week-end at his home in Williamsport.

Elliott, '18, and Houser, '18, enjoyed a hunting trip over the week-end at the latter's home in Milroy.

Harris, '21, preached at the Augusta Baptist church at Fisher's Ferry last Sunday.

Benjamin, '20, spent the week-end in Williamsport.

Dale Crawford, ex-'19, saw the game at Harrisburg Saturday, after which he returned to Lewisburg and spent a short time with his Phi Psi brothers. He expects to sail for France in about two weeks.

Holsing, '19, spent Sunday in Chambersburg.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE

Evelyn Powell, '20, has accepted an invitation extended to her by the Pi Beta Phi sorority to become a member.

The Harrisburg trip took twenty or more girls from the Women's College on Saturday.

A chicken and waffle supper at the United Evangelical church for the benefit of the Red Cross claimed a number of the girls last Thursday evening.

Y. W. C. A.

Last Tuesday's meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was devoted to the Freshmen. Marguerite Lott, '21, took charge of the meeting and a good Freshman spirit was shown in the responses she received.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The Y. M. C. A. cabinet, at their session held Friday night decided to continue the weekl religious meeting of the Y. M. C. A. beginning this coming Thursday night in Euzpia at 7.30 o'clock.

While the association is somewhat handicapped in not being able to have meetings in the regular Y. M. C. A. room in West College, yet an attempt will be made to do the next best thing and Bucknell Hall has been chosen as the meeting place.

Every member of the Y. M. C. A. and all others interested are invited and urged to come out this coming Thursday night and make the first meeting a success. Watch the bulletin board for further announcement of the speaker and the topic.

TEACHER'S CONFERENCE ADOPTS PROF. SMITH'S VIEWS

The September number of the Quarterly Journal of Public Speaking contains an article by Prof. B. S. Smith on "The Importance of Parliamentary Law to Public Speakers." Students of speech will be pleased to know that Prof. Smith's views on the subject were embodied in a resolution adopted by the annual conference of teachers in his line.

1917 CLASS MEMORIAL IN THE MAKING

Workmen have been busy for the past week erecting the 1917 class memorial at the main entrance to the Women's College grounds on St. George street. The memorial consists of two large brownstone pillars and a concrete walk extending from the pillars to the foot of the entrance steps.

The announcement comes from Princeton University that no student who is not connected with some sort of military activity will be permitted to participate in any sports. This system is similar to the one recently installed at Yale University.

TAILORED SUITS UP TO $37.50

These are suits that any description would not do justice to because of their smartness and attractiveness all in the elegance of the material and beauty of the lines. They are of broadcloth, velours, burello cloth, serges, poplins, etc. All are silk lined. Some are exceedingly plain, while others are trimmed with braids, buttons, etc. Colors of blues, browns, Burgundy and so on, and black.

HUNDREDS GOOD WAR MWINTER COATS AT PRICES UP TO $59.50

The winter coat is probably the one thing in your wardrobe that has the hardest wear and must give the longest service, so it should be chosen with eyes open. Wise women are choosing such coats as are found in Seidel & Spangler's stocks today. The color and style variety is complete—there is nothing left out. Trimmings are becoming and linings are elegant.

We fit them all—from the tiniest babe up to the tallest or stoutest woman. Extra sizes are a speciality in this store. If you're stout and hard to fit, don't give up till you have gone through our stocks.

The important thing about these wool goods is their prices, which are far below today's.

ULTRA-FASHIONABLE TRIMMED MILLINERY MODERATELY PRICED

Freshmen Downed by Sophs in Annual Game

SCHWENKLER IS STAR OF THE GAME.

SOPHOMORES PILE UP THIRTEEN POINTS

Brandt Plays Good Game for First Year Men.—Freshmen, Outweighed, Put Up Game Fight.

The football dopester has been missing his guess all along on the gridiron this season and the annual Sophomore-Freshman interclass battle staged Saturday on the Athletic Field ran true to form. The Sophomore Tank smashed, routed and otherwise manhandled the wearers of the green to the tune of 13-0, the largest score run up by any team in the underclass contests for several years.

Schwenkler, of the Sophomore eleven, was the particular star of the game, and with his colleague played a smashing game. The 1920 backfield, tore their opponents' line to ribbons and skirted their ends with ease. Although he did not cross the goal line with the ball, the entire credit for the first Sophomore touchdown goes to Schwenkler. Soon after the kick-off by the Sophs, the latter recovered the ball on a blocked kick. On the first play Schwenkler hit the freshman line for a first down, and followed soon after by a 15-yard run which brought the ball to the freshman 10-yard line. The scrappy Sophomore halfback brought the pigskin to the 1-yard line, where upon a mob of howling partisans called for him to take the ball over. The Freshman line held, however, and after a line plunge by Schwenkler the quarter ended with the Sophs' ball on the Freshman six-inch line.

At the beginning of the second period the Sophomore quarter, La Clair, with appropriate stratagem sent Schwelkler through the Frosh line with an imaginary ball while La Clair without opposition rounded left end for the first touchdown of the game. Schwenkler kicked the goal.

In the rest of the second quarter the advantage was with the first year men but they were unable to score. Williams ran back La Clair's kick 10 yards. The Freshman failed to gain through the line and after an unsuccessful attempt at a pass Brandt punted. After a 15-yard run by Schwenkler the Sophs were held for downs. Brandt punted over the goal line and the ball went to the second-year men on their 20-yard line. They could not gain and a grounded forward by La Clair on the fourth down gave the pigskin to the Frosh. The Frosh were in the same predicament and Brandt kicked. The kick was blocked but the Freshman full-back made a pretty recovery and advanced the ball for 15-yards before he was downed. The quarter ended with the Freshmen's ball on the 27-yard line.

In the second half the Sophs executed a neat forward to La Clair to Mathieson, the latter being downed by Brandt with a net gain of 25 yards. Schwenkler hit the line for a short gain and Wagoner was thrown for a loss on the next play. McGann smeared La Clair's forward and Schwenkler was forced to punt, the ball going to the Fresh on their 10-yard line. Brandt immediately tore off a 25-yard run, taking the ball out of the danger zone. Lunk took Wagner's place at full-back. The 1920 men bracced and held their opponents for downs. The Freshmen center Lewis threw La Clair for a loss and the Sophs, failing to gain, punted back to their opponents' goal line, Brandt running back the kick was blocked by Craig and in attempting to avoid him collided with one of the goal posts with such force that the top section was jarred loose and fell to the ground. From the violence of the impact it was feared that the Freshman star was out of the game, but he was only dazed and continued the game. On the next play Brandt's kick was blocked and Ohlson, the burly Sophomore tackle, fell on it for the second score of the game. Schwnekler missed the goal.

The remainder of the game was hard fought but did not result in a change of the score on either side.

LARGE ENROLLMENT IN NEW RADIO COURSE

COURSE OPEN TO STUDENTS AND OUTSIDERS WHO ARE IN THE DRAFT.

The radio course under the supervision of the United States Government, established last week at Bucknell is now in full operation. After the notice in last week's Bucknellian, between thirty-five and forty men have signed for the course.

The course is to cover 200 hours work, or four hours a week for 50 weeks. Those who may apply for the course are drafted men who have been examined and waiting for a call, and drafted men who have not been examined, and then others who are interested. The course is not only open to school men but to any in this district. The impression received by many was that the course was for school men. This is wrong. The government only asked the school authorities to take charge of the course.

The main object of the work is to train men in the various codes, and prepare them for signal work in the army, thus securing them better positions than that of privates. To any who are interested in that line of work, the course now starting will be a big benefit, and one that many should take advantage of.

At present the class meets Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at seven o'clock, and is under the supervision of Professor Rhodes, who is assisted by Weber, '19. The average attendance for the past week was twenty-five, which was very encouraging to those in charge.

It is probable that as the class progresses government instruments will be sent here, and a thorough course given, which will enable those taking the course to enter the army in the signal corps. At present the signal corps department of the army needs many men and this affords excellent opportunities for many to get good positions.

FRESHMEN DECORATE RAILROAD BRIDGE

WILL BE PRIVILEGED TO DO MORE PAINTING AFTER SENIOR COUNCIL MEETING.

On Friday night the word "Freshmen" in large red letters was painted on the railroad bridge on St. George St. At Senior Council meeting tonight a time will be set for the disfigurement to be removed. There is somequestion as to whether the painting was done by the freshmen or by some village cut-ups in search of a little excitement. In either case the freshmen will be given the privilege of removing it. The task will be consigned to 9 members of the class, including a representative from each fraternity.

IMPORANT MEETING.

On the first Tuesday after Thanksgiving vacation the Senior class will hold a very imporant meeting. The meeting was first called for last week but because so few members of the class attended it was postponed. It is imperative that every Senior be present at this meeitng as there is some very important business to trancact. Remember the date, Tuesday, at 4.15, in the Chapel.

SEASON'S LAST MASS MEETING TOMORROW NIGHT

AT 9 O'CLOCK IN THE CHAPEL IN PREPARATION FOR THE DICKINSON GAME.

Tomorrow evening at 9 o'clock in Bucknell Hall the last mass meeting of the football season will take place. This is the last time that the students will have the opportunity to give the Orange and Blue team a send-off. If mass meetings contribute anything to the fighting strength of a team, a monster meeting is in order for the coming contest. Dickinson is undefeated this season and they are staking everything on the game with Bucknell.

On the other hand it will be a big contribution to Bucknell's 1917 football record to achieve a victory over the Carlisle boys. Let every student turn out and make the last mass meeting the biggest meeting of the year.

The regular Senior Council meeting will be held tonight at 9 o'clock.

FRESHMEN ELECTION WILL BE HELD TO-MORROW

The election of all officers of the Freshman class will take place tomorrow afternoon immediately after matriculation. Non-matriculates should make it a point to be on hand at Bucknell Hall after matriculation to cast their vote.

WEBER MALE QUARTET PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE

NEXT NUMBER OF LYCEUM COURSE, THE FAIRCHILD LADIES QUARTET.

The first number of the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum course took place Wednesday evening when the Weber Male Quartet again made its appearance before a Bucknell audience of town people and students. The program for the evening was a pleasing one and was largely attended.

The four singers have already gained their reputation here and their work was of the usual high standard. The program was varied and all numbers were quite pleasing. Old favorites were again sung and many new numbers pleased. Solos, readings, quartet numbers and pianologues, humorous and serious, were given. Negro dialectic songs made an especial hit with the audience and many encores were called forth.

Manager Fries, '18, announced the completion of the dates for the four following numbers. The next one, the Fairchild Ladies Quartet, will take place December 17. February 4, Ralph Bingham, America's foremost platform humorist, will speak, and on February 28 Frederic Poole will give a Chinese dramatic reading and also scenes from the first act of The Yellow Jacket. The last number will take place March 29 and is a lecture by Chancellor George H. Bradford who has made a study of the problem of education.

DICKINSON TEAM IS UNDEFEATED THIS YEAR

HAVE NOT PLAYED SINCE NOV. 12.—PRACTICE BEHIND CLOSED DOORS.

The Dickinson team which the Varsity will oppose on Thanksgiving Day has not been defeated this season. This, however, does not mean that Bucknell has no chance to bring back a victory. On the contrary Dickinson is very much worried about the outcome of the game. They have been resting since Novmeber 12th, and their practices lately have been held behind closed doors.

In preparation for the game Coach Dunn has been holding long and snappy scrimmages. The students are going to hold what they call a "Crazy Mass Meeting." In case of a Dickinson victory the Dickinson team will be tendered a banquet on Thanksgiving eve. Bucknell can do just as much for its team by coming out to the mass meeting on Tuesday evening.

A COMIC OPERA IN TWO ACTS SCHEDULED FOR DEC. 5.

TREAT FOR BUCKNELL LOVERS OF MUSIC

Forty Characters in Chorus.—College Orchestra Will Furnish Music.—Miss Etta Brown in Charge of Production.

Lovers of music will have an opportunity of hearing one of the musical treats of the season on Wednesday evening, Dec. 5, when the Operatic Society presents H. M. S. Pinafore, a comic opera in two acts, in Bucknell Hall.

The opera, a maritime production by Sir Arthur Sullivan, contains excellent music and very attractive stage settings. The chorus consists of forty characters, including a cast of eleven principals, all of whom have been carefully selected for their musical and dramatic ability. The leading female part will be taken by Miss Olive Thompson of Mifflinburg. Misses Pauline Schenck, Elthera Coursen, and Messrs. Alden Davis, Arthur Harris, Hobart Brown and Herbert Greenland also have prominent parts. Miss Jessie Cooper will officiate at the piano. A special feature this year will be an orchestral accompaniment by the College Orchestra under the leadership of Harry Warfel.

Miss Etta Brown has charge of the staging of the opera and has been conducting rehearsals steadily since the beginning of the term. In fact, the entire musical faculty are concentrating their efforts to make the H. M. S. Pinafore the paramount musical event of the year.

Those who have seen any of the four operas given in the past by the Operatei Society need no urging to be present. Pinafore is fully up to the standard set in the past and a large attendance is expected. Bucknell Hall is small and the prices of admission have been lowered from that of other years. So come early and get a good seat.

WOMAN'S JOURNAL SCHEDULED TO APPEAR NEXT WEEK

The first issue of the Woman's Journal is scheduled to make its appearance next week. The character of the Journal has been changed somewhat, in that three men have been added to the staff, making the publication of interest to all Bucknell students. The forthcoming issue contains fifty-four pages of printed matter. There are in the paper some short stories and other literary productions which speak well for the literary talent at Bucknell.

KAPPA SIGMA SMOKER.

On Thursday evening the active chapter of Kappa Sigma entertained the pledges at a smoker.

1917 CLASS MEMORIAL HAS BEEN COMPLETED

GREATLY IMPROVES APPEARANCE OF CAMPUS AT ENTRANCE TO WOMAN'S COLLEGE

The class memorial of the class of 1917 has been completed. The memorial consists of two brownstone pillars situated before the main entrance steps. The memorial adds much to the beauty of the campus about the Woman's College, and the memorial committee of the class of 1917 deserves considerable credit for making this welcome addition to Bucknell's beautiful campus.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1917.

Spirit is surely a commendable feature in a freshman class, but when the freshmen painted the bridge last Friday night they got their spirit going in the wrong direction. There are plenty of other ways for a class to show its college spirit besides smearing paint on bridges. This is a custom that has not been in vogue at Bucknell for a long time and there seems to be no immediate need for its revival. Perhaps the freshmen are not responsible for the offence. If this is so then it would be well for the freshmen to get together and denounce the act as the freshman class did last year under similar circumstances.

Who slights his studies in these days of effort does not deserve a college education. He is the slacker of whom it behooves us as a university to speak. The Federal government is caring for the others. It is the duty of each student to make the most of his opportunities at all times, but especially in these days of trial he ought not to neglect a single means that lends to self government. With their lives others are paying the price for the peace we now enjoy. By our application to the tasks before us do we show our appreciation of the sacrifice. Or do we rather tend to let things take their course and wait to see what the result of it all will be? If so we had better awake to our better selves and by our labor in the self-imposed task of education in some way we are conscious of the essential needs of the day in which we live.

The first business of a university, even in war times, is to prepare men for the affairs of life, and so far as most of us are concerned the affairs of life are to be the essential processes of peace. Highly concerned as we are for the successes of this war, we are not unmindful of the fact that this war is not to be won entirely by the use of the nearest guns—Napoleon had such at Waterloo—nor is it to be won merely for the sake of the winning. Arms alone we fear will prove a broken reed, and such an aim will be our surest degradation. Why cannot we as educated men and women keep these facts in mind?

We cannot justly consider ourselves slackers because we are not enlisted in the nation's fighing army. Altho in another field we are just as much in the nation's service as are the khaki clad youths. But to keep from becoming slackers we must feel our duty as college students as important as do those who are doing the actual fighting.

NO ISSUE NEXT WEEK.

Owing to the Thanksgiving vacation there will be no issue of The Bucknellian next week.

ALLENTOWN BOYS HAVE ARRANGED FOR BASKETBALL

WILL PLAY THE VARSITY ON JANUARY 11.

Guth's Station, Pa.
November 23, 1917

To the Bucknellian:

We are still located at our private little camp which is fast becoming more popularly known as "Pneumonia Hill." The last few days have not been what one would call very pleasant. The heavy rains have raised havoc with a large number of the dug-outs and have turned the camping ground into a veritable sea of mud. We expect to be here for some time yet and everybody will be glad and anxious for the word to break camp.

It will probably be possible for all of us to spend Christmas at our homes. It is not known just how many will be allowed to go but it is generally understood that 70 per cent will be given leave and the others will get ten days after New Years. This is not what is known generally as a furlough, but in this special case is called a pass. Just who will be the fortunate ones to get first choice is a cause for considerable talk among the fellows.

Next week the section basketball team goes to Reading for its first game. We have what we consider a fairly good team and have succeeded in arranging a game with the Varsity to be played in Lewisburg on January 11. Murray and Jones, a former Bellefonte Academy star, are our forwards, Gaenzle has the tip-off position and Mangan and Sipley will take care of the guard positions.

Lieutenant Downing, formerly our first sergeant, is on the Athletic Board and Murray is manager of the camp basketball team. He has succeeded in arranging a fine schedule. He has games with Yale, Cornell, Lehigh, Pennsylvania, Dartmouth, Lafayette and several others.

It was impossible for any of the fellows to get away for the Gettysburg game. We are now awaiting the outcome of the Dickinson game and hope that we will be able to lower their colors.

Several of the fellows are planing to go away at Thanksgiving but as pay roll muster is the next day no time off will be given other than Thursday. We expect to have a regular turkey dinner out here and all that goes with it.

SIPLEY, 1917

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor:

The selfish and dishonest attitude which some students have toward the reference books in the college library should not be tolerated. When a book is reserved, that means that the number of copies is limited to one or two and that several students need them for daily use. When this is the case, it is not right for a student to keep the book out. Neither is it wise, thoughtful nor honest for him to sneak it out when the librarian's back is turned and keep it indefinitely. It is a lamentable fact that certain reference books have a habit of disappearing just when they are most needed.

A Student.

STUDENTS MAY BECOME AFFILIATE MEMEBRS AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Presbyterian church of Lewisburg has issued to the students of Bucknell who are interested Student Membership cards. By filling out one of these cards a student becomes a affiliate member of the church. He is then free to attend any of the church's social functions and entertainments. A student signing one of these cards agrees to strive after the highest Christian ideals of character during his student days, and to sustain the public service and activities of the church. The appeal is made principally to students belonging to the Presbyterian church, but students of any denomination may become affiliate members. The movement is under the Board of Education of the Presbyterian church.

In the closing minutes of the game Coaches Musser, of the Sophomores, and Dave Martin, of the Freshmen, run in their entire string of substitutes, so that every man in uniform was enabled to win his numerals.

The line-up follows:

1920		1921
Mathieson	right end	McGann
Piekarski (Capt.)	right tackle	Stadulus
Smith	right guard	Willman
Band	center	Lewis
La Clair	quarterback	Hutchinson
Schwenkler	right half-back	Williams
Wagoner	full-back	Brandt, (Capt.)

Referee, Middlesworth, Susquehanna. Umpire, Shannon, Susquehanna. Head linesman, Zellers. Timekeeper Northrup, '18, and Wilson, '19.

NOTES.

The contest was marked by the absence of inter-class feeling. Both sides confined their enthusiasm to cheering, which was led by Klingelhoeffer on the Freshmen side, and Reamer for the Sophomores.

Contrary to the usual custom, a number of Varsity men were permitted to play on each side. The better quality of playing thus obtained made up in part for the lack of a Varsity game.

"Red" Baird, the husky Sophomore center, was in the scrimmage every minute and played a bang-up game both on the defense and the offense.

Lunk played a brilliant game at full-back for the Sophs in the last quarter.

The Varsity squad are hard at work for the Thanksgviing game at Carlisle. Both sides expect a close contest.

A MESSAGE TO COLLEGE STUDENTS

The defeat of the German autocracy is not the only task of armies and navies, but of every one who believes in the principles of democracy. It is not alone our soldiers and sailors who are fighting Germany but every true American should also be doing what he can to bring about a speedy victory.

Young men and women in our Amelcan universities and colleges will soon be playing a very real part in our national life. You are preparing yourself now for future usefulness. You should remember always that your first duty is to the nation and that you will find your highest success in public service.

The fact that your country is at war imposes on you a double duty to study as hard as possible an to make yourself as valuable economically as you can. Live up to your duty as well as the men in the big trenches are living up to theirs.

There is however, one way you can be of immediate assistance to your country. You can purchase and help sell Liberty Bonds. Put what money you can spare now into the safest investment in the world. The cash into which you can at any time convert these interest-bearing bonds, may prove most useful when you are starting to earn your own living. Buy Liberty Bonds and urge others to buy them.

Yours Sincerely,
P. P. CLAXTON
(Head of the U. S. Dep't. of Education.)

Madonna Harris, ex-'18, has been visiting friends in town.

The Sophomores in Domestic Science entertained their Freshmen at an informal tea on Thursday.

Dorothy Kanter, '18, entertained her mother for a few days recently.

Helen Bodine, '20, and Dorothy Lawrnece, '19, spent the week-end at Lehigh.

Miss Carey entertained the faculty in honor of Miss Fowler. Miss Cooper and Miss Pines, the new teachers at the Woman's College this year, on Tuesday evneing.

Frill and Frown held its annual try-out plays on Saturday morning. There were four plays and approximately thirty girls tried out. The following were invited to membership in Frill and Frown: Grace Good, Katherine Fulford, Beatrice Fetterman, Martha Leiser, Elizabeth Patterson, Ethel Pryor, Evelyn Powell, Anna Sterling, Larue Unger Marjory Sprout and Helen Walton.

FRILL AND FROWN BENEFIT.

Come out and Help Frill and Frown on Monday evening, December 10th. This is the first benefit this society has had in years and it invites your assistance. Several plays will be presented and the evening will be most enjoyable. The admission fee is twenty-five cents and the tickets can now be obtained from members of Frill and Frown.

Y. M. C. A.

The regular weekly religious meeting of the Y. M. C. A. last Thursday night was a decided success and a helpful meeting in every sense of the word. A good number of college men were in attendance and every one present expressed himself to the effect that it was one of the most profitable hours spent at Bucknell. The meeting was in charge of Sec. Heim and after a short song service, the College Male Quartet appeared and sang a number. The Quartet was composed of Davis, Stout, Hutchison and Harris. Prof. Lindemann then spoke to the fellows on the great work of the Y. M. C. A. and the place of the Y. M. C. A. in every college man's life. Renewed interest was taken at this meeting and even better things are in store for everyone who will take an hour off for the next regular meeting.

No meeting will be held this week due to Thanksgiving vacation, but there will be one the week following. Watch bulletin board for further announcements.

ERROR.

Romain C. Hassrick, editor of The Bucknell lumni Monthly, is now serving in the Civilian Personnel Division Ordinance Department, War Department at Washington. He has been commissioned as a first lieutenant.

Affairs of The Alumni Monthly, therefore, are temporarily in the hands of the assistant editors. Communications should be addressed to Carl Sprout, The North American, Philadelphia, until further announcement.

This statement is made to correct a statement in The Bucknellian announcing that Clinton I. Sprout, '17, had taken the affairs of The Monthly in hand. Carl Sprout graduated here in 1908. He was editor of The Bucknellian in 1907-8.

Colgate is praetically an army training camp this year. Classes are held only in the morning hours, the entire afternoon being devoted to drill. The football men are excused from this practice, but they must make up their drill work at night. Consequently, the Colgate footballers cannot spend all their effort on the gridiron, knowing that a hard drill will follow.

In order that all her men in service may be made acquainted with affairs occuring on the campus, the student council at the University of Oakland have decided that the Diary be mailed to all her students in active service.

Minor sports have taken a sudden jump at Yale and swimming, tennis and wrestling will be represented by University teams. Freshman teams in every minor sport will be formed.

Fine Silks and Wool Dress Goods

Delay means higher prices and less to pick from, for under present conditions we are not going to carry such big varieties as when conditions were normal.

Remember this, that it's going to be not a question of the price in the near future, but the question will be, can we get the goods at all?

You know that there are lots of things off the market today the ywere used by almost every person, each day because of the scarcity of some articles.

SEASON'S LAST GAME RESULTS IN DEFEAT

GAME PLAYED AT CARLISLE ON THANKSGIVING DAY

DICKINSON WINS BY A SINGLE TALLY

Waddell and Freeble on Injured List. —Lewis is the Chief Ground Gainer in Final Game.

Disorgnaization of our team due to its crippuled condition seemd to be the chief cause for its downfall and defeat at Dickinson on Thanksgiving Day. When the team departed for Carlisle it consisted of a squad of 19 men, with Waddell, the quarterback, and Freeble, the end, on the hospital list as a result of the bloody tussle with Gettysburg, twelve days previous. Several others of the squad were not in tiptop shape as a result of the same or other games earlier in the season.

Because our team was so crippled certain changes were necessary. On the offensive Hall dropped back from right to quarterback and on defense, Newcomb and Lees would exchange positions on plays thru our right side.

"Bunny" Lewis seemed to be the only man on our team who showed old time form. End runs and open field running were the means by which he would set back the Dickinsonians. His experience as a track man enabled him to make a quick getaway, and that is what always gave him the advantage. Without Lewis, the game would have been more or less of a farce.

Captain Swope, of the Carlisle boys aided by Goldstein, his quarterback, did the best work for our opponents. Repeatedly one of these men would get away with some play that looked marvelous but which really was but a result of our team's condition. The only score of the game came in the second quarter, when after a penalty Swope managed to get the ball across the line. A few seconds later he kicked the goal, thus scoring all of the seven points himself. The score of the game was 7-0.

The line-up: :

Bucknell		Dickinson
Smith	centre	Williams
Boswell	right guard	Myers
Lees	right tackle	Connelly
Hall	right end	Gray
Kostos	quarterback	Goldstein
Morrison	right halfback	Wilson
Lewis (capt.)	fullback	Swope

GLEE CLUB.

Much elated by the success of the big trip taken last year, the management of the Combined Musical Clubs is planning another one to take place some time next term. The clubs have already started work on the programme, which promises to be better than ever before. Return dates will be arranged in all the cities visited last year, while several new ones may be added to the list.

Positions are obtained in the clubs by competation, which is open to any Bucknellian. All prospective members are urged to be at the next rehearsal.

Students at the University of Indiana, who were rejected in the military tests, will be given the opportunities of taking corrective gymnasium work with a view to overcome their defects and thus become fit for service.

FORUM FOUNDERS' DAY

The annual Founders' Day banquet of the Forum Literary Fraternity was held last Friday evening at the Buffalo Valley Inn, Mifflinburg. Fryling, '13, acted as toastmaster. Dr. Perrine gave the chief address. Toasts were also given by Moore, '18, Cornish, '19, Gaskill, '20, and Sutton '21.

H. M. S. PINAFORE PLEASES STUDENTS

ANNUAL EVENT HELD IN CHAPEL LAST WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Bucknell's Operatic Society again proved its ability to please by cleverly presenting the comic opera, "H. M. S. Pinafore" last Wednesday evening in Bucknell Hall. The opera contained some excellent music and the stage was tastefully arranged. Suitable costmues aided materially in making the opera the success that it was.

The solo work of Miss Pauline Schenck and Miss Olive Thompson was most pleasing. Arthur Harris, Alden Davis and Hobart Brown taking the principle male parts did commendable work both in singing and speaking.

The chorus, composed of thirty members, harmonized well and show skill by the manner in which the action was carried out in the various scenes.

To Miss Etta Brown, as musical director and stage manager, belongs the greatest credit for the opera's success. The opera from beginning to end showed a careful supervision and efficient coaching. Miss Jessie Cooper, as accompanist, is also to be commended. The Bucknell Orchestra assisting the Society in the production of the opera, carried out its part in flawless manner.

The east of characters follows:

NEXT LYCEUM COURSE NUMBER ON DEC. 17

ENTERTAINMENT WILL BE IN METHODIST CHURCH

FAIRCHILD LADIES QUARTET TO APPEAR

Will Be First Appearance Before A Bucknell Audience.—Will be This Term's Last Entertainment.

The second number of the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum course will take place in the Methodist church on the evening of December 17 at 8 o'clock when the Fairchild Ladies' Quartet will make its initial appearance before a Bucknell audience. The reputation of this unusual quartet is considered very high among Redpath numbers and students and people of the town are sure to find a varied and pleasing entertainment.

This will be the last entertainment before the close of the winter term and the next number will be Ralph Bingham, the humorist, who will greet Bucknell in January, and the two final numbers will take place in the succeeding months.

The personnel of this company is as follows:

Bessie Fairchild, pianist and soprano; Mildred Mereness, cellist and soprano; Dorothy Fairchild, violinist and contralto; Lelu Fairchild, reader, violinist, contralto and pianologist.

The demand among Lyceum committees everywhere for a quartet of ladies who, in addition to being vocalists, are versatile upon orchestral instruments has been insistent during recent years. Few demands of the Lyceum have been more difficult to fill, which accounts for the small number of such companies now on the Redpath list. A company may be found which has the requirements for an instrumental program, but not good vocalists, and vice versa.

The members of the Fairchild Ladies' Quartet are both vocalists and instrumentalists. Their program will include instrumental and vocal quartet, piano, violin, cello, soprano and contralto solos, readings, pianologues, whistling quartets and solos, instrumental duets and trios and vocal duets.

Dorothy Fairchild, the youngest member of the company, began her musical education at the age of seven years and appeared in public recital at the age of nine. She is a pupil of Herbert Butler (American Conservatory, Chicago). Last year she was a member of the Coyla Spring Concert company.

Lelu Fairchild studied expression at the University of Wisconsin and voice with Magnus Schurz of the Sherwood school, Chicago. She was a member of the Spring Concert company.

Bessie Fairchild studied piano with Emil Liebling for a number of years. She has also taken an active part as a member of the Rockford (Ill.) Mendelssohn club and the Treble Clef club of Beloit, Wis.

Mildred Mereness studied voice with Magnus Schurz; also the cello with well-known Chicago teachers.

OLDEST ALUMNUS WRITES SONG

Bucknell's oldest living graduate, who is the author of many poems, has written a song. The song is of a patriotic nature and its title, "We're Battling for Freedom." The song was dedicated to Lieut John Phillip Sousa. N. R. F. Music for the song was written by William W. Bentley.

FRILL AND FROWN ENTERTAINMENT TONIGHT

AT EIGHT O'CLOCK IN BUCKNELL HALL.—ADMISSION 25 CENTS

Tonight at eight o'clock in Bucknell Hall, Frill and Frown will hold for the first time a benefit performance in behalf of the society itself. This organization has done an immense amount of good during the past years in many ways. It has given to the students a fine line of high-class entertainments, it has set a standard for all similar productions, and since its beginning has been looked upon with favor by the students in general. The plays presented in the past have been for the benefit of various causes and tonight for the first time proceeds will be used for the advancement of the society. Considering the readiness with which Frill and Frown listens to calls for need from outside sources, the above announcement should meet with the approval of the students, and every one ought to show his appreciation by coming out tonight.

A novel program awaits those who attend the performance this year. Older students will remember that "The Jesters" was presented last year and "Robin Hood" three years ago, both with great success. Tonight, however, the program does not consist of one play, but of several playlets, ranging from the comedy and farce up to and including tragedy thus regardless of your taste, if it be for something light or something serious you can be satisfied. This method has been tried elsewhere and always proves very successful. Those in charge of the entertainment this evening feel confident that the students of Bucknell will appreciate and enjoy this variety of performances.

The coaching has been done by Miss Edith Schillinger and Miss Eudora Hamler and these names vouch for creditable productions.

The young people participating in the plays this evening have worked faithfully and deserve a large audience. The cast includes among the older girls, Miss Potts, Miss Hahn, Miss Stahl, Miss Ruggles. Miss Spotts, Miss Fritz, and among the older men, Messrs. Leaber, Sherk, Heim and Sipley. Several new names will appear upon the program this time and among them will be Miss Pryor, Miss Sprout, Miss Muir and Messrs. Northrop, Chance, Ingram, Maggio and Reamer.

Remember the time and place: tonight, eight o'clock, Bucknell Hall. Admission tyenty-five cents.

SEC. HEIM ATTENDS Y. M. C. A. CONF. AT HARRISBURG

Last Friday the Y. M. C. A. cabinet decided to send Secr Thos. Heim to Harrisburg to attend a conference of the Y. M. C. A. Secretaries of the colleges of central and eastern Pennsylvania. The conference was called by State Secretary W. E. Kroll, who conducted the Students' Friendship Fund for the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. at Bucknell a few weeks ago. Mr. Tricker, of New York, was also among the speakers and outlined special work. Mr. Kroll will be at Bucknell this Thursday and will address the Y. M. C. A. and a special meeting of the cabinet afterward.

1917 FOOTBALL SEASON REVIEWED

3 VICTORIES, A TIE AND 5 DEFEATS SEASON'S RECORD

TEAM SHOWS UP WELL IN HARD GAMES

Syracuse Only Eleven That Rolls Up High Score.—Showing Made at Penn Boosts Bucknell.

Looking back over the football season that has just passed it may seem at first glance that the season was more or less of a failure. A little closer scrutinization, however, reveals facts that make the season seem highly successful.

In the first place, let it be remembered that the schedule was as heavy as that played thru by any of the larger colleges. Colgate, Penn and Cornell are among the strongest teams in the country. Bucknell confronted those three on three successive Saturdays. Two weeks later the team met Syracuse and the worst defeat of the season. Syracuse met with only one defeat this year, being downed by Pitt in the early part of the season, and is acknowledged now by many of the football critics as second only to Georgia Tech. What is more Bucknell did not send her strongest combination against the Orange team in order that some of the regulars might be saved for the Gettysburg game. If the Syracuse game were eliminated from the season's record the computations show that Bucknell scored as many points as their opponents scored against them.

The most striking game of the season, and one which shows Bucknell in the truest light is the Penn game. Penn was very much worried about the outcome of the game and was extremely delighted when they achieved a 20-6 victory. Those who saw the game at Philadelphia know that it was not because Penn was better than Bucknell that they came out victorious. The breaks of the game were the determining factor of this contest and they were all against Bucknell. Had there been no penalties in the first half on either side in all probability the score at half time would have favored Bucknell. If the Penn game had been played on the home field it is almost certain that Penn would have been beaten. Then, in the light of what Penn did to some of the strong teams, it can easily be seen that Bucknell holds a place in the football world, even tho a majority of the games were not victories.

Of the nine games played, three were Orange and Blue victories. The first game of the season was an easy victory over Mansfield Normal. The other two victories were glorious contests, especially the one with Swarthmore, over which there was great celebration. The annau fray with Gettysburg resulted in a tie. In this game as in the Penn game, the breaks of the game were in favor of the enemy.

The scores of the season follow:

Bucknell	25	Mansfield Normal	0
Bucknell	16	Swarthmore	7
Bucknell	0	Colgate	24
Bucknell	6	Penn	20
Bucknell	0	Cornell	20
Bucknell	10	Indians	0
Bucknell	0	Syracuse	42
Bucknell	6	Gettysburg	6
Bucknell	0	Dickinson	7

The team that represented Bucknell on the gridiron this season was one every Bucknell man can justly feel proud of, one which the strongest teams in the country feared to oppose, one which under efficient coaching could have established a glorious record. This was the one weak point in Bucknell's football machinery. Had Bucknell been properly coached Gettysburg would never have been able to

Contributions from students and alumni are earnestly solicited. They should be written in a legible hand and on but one side of the paper. Address all articles to the editor.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1917

In view of the fact that this issue of the Bucknellian is the last of the present term, we wish to extend to the students and readers our best wishes for an enjoyable Christmas season. At the same time we desire to remind the students of the fact, that they are Bucknell students no matter where they may spend their vacation. Remember your school during the holidays and if the chance offers itself don't hesitate to put forth an effort to enlarge the range of Bucknell's influence in your home community.

COMMUNICATION

Mr. Editor:—

The writer has before him a letter from a Bucknellian who is "over there." Of course, the letter does not contain much real news about the fellows, nor does it state where they are. But the letter is full of requests for news of Bucknell.

For the past two months the papers have been full of requests for Christmas gifts for the soldiers. This is a mighty good cause, and every one should give as much as his means will allow. Yet a big gift will not perhaps, convey as much of the real Christmas Spirit as something of far less pecunary value. With this thought in mind, I suggest that the friends of those who have gone subscribe for our School paper and have it sent to the front. I am sure the boys will appreciate it, and I know the Author of Christmas will bless the giver.

COMMUNICATION

Camp Dix. N. J.

Editor of the Bucknellian: :

Having been in the service for a couple of months I have at last conceived the necessary energy to write a brief resume of operations down here at Camp Dix. The U. S. Government is getting things whipped into shape pretty fast. They have in addition to loads and loads of infantry companies, a complete artillery section, excepting the biggest of guns, heavy machine gun battalions, supply companies, depot brigades, signal corps, sanitary corps, engineers, quartermaster corps and in addition Y. M. C. A. buildings and canteens.

Have seen a few Bucknell men down here. Was down a couple weeks ago to the Y. M. C. A. auditorium with Joe Dent, Heinrich and Hill. They had a dandy entertainment including clever vaudeville and a few chorus girls.

Met Eber Swope a few weeks ago and spent the week-end with him at Moorestown, N. J. He is now at Camp Meade.

I felt sorry for a lot of these men who just arrived. They sure are in for it. And this cold weather makes it pretty disagreable down here.

The barracks throughout the camp are being fixed up so that in the main they are quite warm. They did leak at first however.

New things are coming up in this army every day and I wouldn't be surprised if I mailed pretty soon—in another branch than machine gun work. I'd like to get over but I don't care to get bumped off just yet.

This first letter will undoubtedly prove disappointing, but its the first time I have ever corresponded for a publication and hence the crudeness. With practise I shall no doubt improve.

At the first opportunity I shall take a trip back and see the place again. Until then the best I can do is to say "Hello" to everybody, including my Milton friends.

Very sincerely,
W. HATFIELD.
309th Machine Gun Battalion
Compang G
Camp Dix, N. J.

In all of the cities restrictions are being placed upon the wasteful burning of electric lights. Coal is in great demand and an early start on conservation is very much needed. In the dormitories lights are often left burning during the day. We acquire the habit and think nothing of it, mainly because we do not have to pay directly for our lights. Let's give the matter some thought and turn off the current that is, in a way, helping the enemy.

get away with a tie. But when the majority of the student body is out of sympathy with the coach, when the coach cannot command the respect of the men whom he is coaching and when he allows his good judgement to be overcome by political favoritism there is little wonder that a team capable of winning nearly all of its games wins only a few.

L'AGENDA

The class of 1919 in spite of the prevailing unprecedented conditions have determined to publish the college annual, the "L'Agenda." At a recent meeting of the members of the class promised their enthusiastic support in shouldering the responsibility of the publication.

Before the editorial staff can produce a "L'Agenda" it must, however be assured of the support of the entire student body. Members of the staff are canvassing the students this week to ascertain to what extent the students are willing to cooperate. To assure a publication equal to that of former years, at least two hundred subscriptions must have been made and seventy-five cents paid on each subscription before Christmas in order to permit the management to continue their work. Although existing conditions have crippled and impaired college activities the L'Agenda will be bigger and better than ever if the student body will but give the proper support to the committee.

COURSE IN INTERPRETATIVE READING NEXT TERM

A major course in Interpretative Reading will be offered during the winter term. The course has been arranged especially for those who expect to become teachers and supervisors, as well as for those who are seeking general culture. Attention will be given to the pedagogical and psychological aspects of reading. Likewise, the use of the voice in bringing out the meaning of the best literature, and the training of the voice, will be obtained by practice in class.

INTERESTING GAMES ON BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

AMBULANCE TEAM WILL PLAY HERE ON THE ELEVENTH OF JANUARY

Some interesting games have been scheduled for the coming basketball season. The first game will be played on the home floor on January 4 with Bloomsburg. Thbe second game will be on the following Friday, Jan. 11 with the Ambulance team from Allentown. The entire schedule has not as yet been made up but it is announced that games have been arranged with Swarthmore, Colgate, Gettysburg, Carnegie Tech and other first class teams. A good proportion of these games will be played on the home floor.

SEM GIRLS ENTERTAIN

On Saturday, December 1, the "Semites" staged a miniature College Girls in the parlors of the Woman's College. The affair, which was in charge of Miss Hulda Arthur, consisted of a grand march and proms. The march was thru Miss Carey's office, where each couple received the approval of Miss Carey. After the noise made by the march had died away, Miss Pauline Schenck sang two solos. Mr. Adams next gave some of the latest "rags" on the piano. Next followed the eats, after which Mr. "Romeo" Davis sang. Messrs. Craig and Sherk followed with a mandolin duet. By this time it was ten o'clock and the men returned to the hill, much pleased with their evening of fun.

KAPPA SIGMA DANCE

The Kappa Sigma Fraternity staged a very pretty house dance on Friday night. The house was tastefully decorated with spruce and pine boughs. Mrs. A. W. Johnson acted as chaperon. The Lewisburg High School orchestra furnished the music.

SENIOR COMMITTEES

At a meeting of the Senior class held last Tuesday two important committees were chosen. They are as follows: Senior Class Play—Sipley, chairman, Northrop, Reddig, Moore. Class Memorial Committee—Fonda, chairman, Musser, DeLand, Lennox.

FRESHMEN ELECT NEW OFFICERS

T. S. WILLIAMS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF FIRST YEAR MEN

Immediately after matriculation exercises on Nov. 27 the Freshmen class held an election of officers for the year. The following were the successful candidates; President, W. S. Williams; vice president, Albert Goho; secretary, Miss Hannah Madison, treasurer, George H. Klingelhafer, poetess, Miss Marjarie Sprout, and Miss Lucille Evans, historian. Stanford Kunkle who was president pro tem, presided at the election.

Fine Silks and Wool Dress Goods

Delay means higher prices and less to pick from, for under present conditions we are not going to carry such big varieties as when conditions were normal.

Remember this, that it's going to be not a question of the price in the near future, but the question will be, can we get the goods at all?

You know that there are lots of things off the market today the ywere used by almost every person, each day because of the scarcity of some articles.

Wool Dress Goods—All Colors and Black

Plains and fancies, in plaids and checks. They are worth up to $1 today the world over, our sale price 50c a yard.

SECOND—Wool goods worth up to $2 a yard will be $1 a yard. All colors included, plain and plaids. Some are 50 inches wide. Think of it—you never bought them for less.

THIRD—The Finest French and Storm Serges, extra good qualities. Values worth $2.50 per yard, our sale price is $1.50.

FOURTH—This covers the finest wool goods we have in the store, including velour checks, spot-proof broadcloths in all colors, and all the newest and best weaves. Materials that are worth as much as $4.50 a yard today our sale price $2.50.

Do Your Best, But That Will Not Be As Good As You Can Do Here on Ready-to-Wear Garments

We have the merchandise, the right styles, in the right materials, and made in the right way. They are made to fit—not slung together. But seldom our suits or dresses need alterations, so well and carefully are they designed and made up.

Right now you will find every suit and silk dress reduced for quick selling. They must be sold.

Lots of New Winter Coats

If you've looked before, then look again, for you will see lots of new ones, new and exclusive styles; coats that are becoming to almost every lady.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR BASKETBALL

MANY CONTESTANTS FOR VARSITY POSITIONS.

EXCELLENT SCHEDULE HAS BEEN ARRANGED

Carnegie Tech, the Feature.—Three New Teams Slated. —Musser, '18, Star of Last Year, Coaching.

With fourteen games on its schedule, Bucknell's new basketball quintet will have some hard work before it, especially with such teams as Carnegie Tech, Lafayette and "Usaacs" to compete against. The schedule arranged thus far by Manager Sipley, '18, is still a tenative one and imcomplete but will likely be ratified by the Athletic Board as soon as the several dates now pending are settled. There remains only one or two entirely open dates, as two home games and a third away from home are all sealed except a few minor details.

In spite of the fact that not one regular Varsity man remains this year, some excellent material is rapidly developig under the coaching of Musser, '18, last year's center, who is unable to play this year, due to physical disability. Waddell, a Varsity man last year, who is recovering from a fractured arm sustained in football, hopes to get in the game again in the near future. The first victory against Bloomsburg shows Townsend, Mathieson, Elliott, Bell Gearhart, Harris and Lees all showed up in good form for the first game and lovers of the cage sport will see some of the best teams on the home floor that is possible to obtain in basketball.

The biggest of the six home games is with Carnegie Tech, on Feb. 15th, and other home games include rivals bright and Gettysburg. The games on other floors are in several instances of past years as Lebanon Valley, Alreturn contests and the schedule has two trips of two games each with a possibility of a similar double-header early in February.

Below is the tenative schedule that will likely be completed before the week is up;

Jan. 15—Lebanon Valley at Annville.
Jan. 18—Gettysburg at Lewisburg.
Jan. 25—Pending at Lewisburg.
Feb. 1—Lebanon Valley at Lewisburg.
Feb. 11—Usaacs (U. S. Ambulance Corps,) at Allentown.
Feb. 12—Lafayette at Easton.
Feb. 15—Carnegie Tech. at Lewisburg.
Feb. 20—Pending at Lewisburg.
Feb. 27—Mt. St. Marys at Emittsburg, Md.
Feb. 28—Gettysburg at Gettysburg.
Mar. 1—Albright at Myerstown.
Mar. 5—Albright at Lewisburg.
Mar. 8—Open.

Of these teams Usaacs, Carnegie Tech and Lafayette are new teams on the Bucknell schedule and all represent fast teams and good games.

WADDELL CHOSEN CAPTAIN OF FOOTBALL TEAM

ELECTED AT MEETING OF LETTER MEN AT THE CLOSE OF LAST TERM.

At a meeting of the "B" men of the football team at the close of last term R. N. Waddell, of Pittsburgh, was chosen for next year's captain. Waddell filled the position of quarterback during the past season up to the time of his injury in the game with Gettysburg. He occupied the same position during the latter part of the 1916 season, and with two years of experience promises to be a capable leader of next year's team, which, providing the draft does not interfere too extensively, will be one of the best that Bucknell has had for some time, as only four men, Newcomb, Spotts, Elliott and Boswell, will be lost from this season's team by graduation.

L'AGENDA BOARD MEETING

The L'Agenda Board will hold an important meeting in the Living Rooms of the Women's College, Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. All members of the board are requested to bring along snapshots and whatever work has been assigned to them.

CHEMICAL ENG. SOCIETY

There will be a meeting of the Chemical Engineering Society in the Chemical Laboratory at 8 o'clock on Thursday night. A picture of the society will be taken at 1 o'clock noon on Friday at Miss Shields' studio. Every chamical engineer out!

MILITARY TRAINING AGAIN ORGANIZED

FULL CREDIT WILL BE GIVEN AS A MINOR

TO TAKE PLACE OF ANY NON ESSENTIAL MINOR

Lieut. Bechtel Has Charge of Work, Assisted by Ohlson.—Drill Held on Monday, Thursday and Friday Afternoons.

For the first time since last spring Bucknell now has an organized effort in Military Training. As was the case at that time, the drill is entirely voluntary. Although there was a slight movement in this direction during the fall term, it did not deserve very much notice as there were, on the average, about two squads who reported regularly.

Lieutenant Bechtel, who was in command last year will again assume the position of commanding officer. There can be no doubt of his competence, as he has had a full seventeen years of service in the National Guard. He is deeply interested in the attempts of the Bucknell boys in military affairs, and will do his utmost to help produce an efficient and soldierly looking bunch from the rookies he must begin with.

His right hand man will be "Big Swede" Ohlson. Ohlson has had two years of this training in the National Guards and particularly on the Border. His ability as a drill sergeant is well proven in the minds of anyone participating in the drill or even only watching it. Calisthenics must be his middle name, for he just takes to them naturally and soon has everyone else doing the same thing.

This term, for the first time, the training will be given the credit of a minor. It officially takes the place of the Gym work that the boys are supposed to take during the winter term, according to the catalog. The drill may be taken instead of Oratory, History of Art, Sanitary Science or any other minor which is not essential to the course of the student, and full credit will be given for the course. It is but natural that there should be some restrictions upon this. The drill is for three hours a week, during a term of ten weeks, totaling thirty hours for the term. No more than two cuts will be allowed to continue in the drill regardless of the number of cuts, unless he cuts so often that his ignorance of the proposed movements makes him a hindrance to the remainder of the company. Target practice on a rifle range will be started as soon as possible, and time spent on the range will be given one half the credit of time spent in actual drill. This will furnish some hope to the men who have a number of cuts to make up.

The course in its present arrangements is one half calisthenics, one half drill in the School of the Soldier. The men, the majority of whom have never had any training whatever, are coming along nicely. To watch them at work, one would hardly magine that they have had but three drills. This training will stand them well in hand, should they be drafted. A man with but a small degree of efficiency in military training and the possessor of a college education, would with but little difficulty be able to act the part of a sergeant. Once a drafted man has risen from the ranks, the road to a commissioned office will be an easy one. As practically any student of Bucknell is liable to draft on becoming twenty-one years of age, this should interest the student body to a man. Men will be automatically drafted at the age of twenty-one. In this case, a preliminary training is the only hope for the possibility of ranking higher than a private. In view of these facts, the men in charge of the drill expect a constantly increasing number of men to report for drill. Drill will be continued on Monday, Thursday and Friday throughout the term.

FRESHMEN DEPARTMENT

The roll of honor has six names on it this week. Werner, Haus, Bitner, Williams, Key and C. B. Moore will have the privilege to visit the council hall this evening.

THE BAND

Band meeting Thursday evening at 7:30 in Eupin. All men out to practice for the Gettysburg game.

The picture of the Band for the 1919 L'Agenda will be taken Monday, January 21, at one o'clock at Miss Shields' studio. All men be there.

CAP AND DAGGER PREPARING ANOTHER PLAY

CAST TRAINING FOR "THE WORLD AND HIS WIFE" TO BE GIVEN IN FEB.

Another treat is in store for appreciators of dramatics.

On Thursday evening, February 14 Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society will present "The World and His Wife." The play is extremely well known in the dramatic world and has recently played with great success in many of the foremost dramatic circles.

The production rights of the play are controlled by Faversham and Julia Opp; which fact recommends the play very strongly. The original was done in French by Neiderling and the version t obe given has proven itself to be an entirely satisfactory and successful translation.

A cast has already started work under the direction of Miss Schillinger and considering the possibilities offered by this play and how similar possibilities have been developed in the past it is safe to assume that a feast is being prepared for those dramatically inclined. The play will be staged in the Orpheum Theatre.

AMBULANCE UNIT 524 CANCELS BASKETBALL GAME

The second Bucknell Ambulance Unit, which was formed last spring it, which was formed last Spring and and has since been training at Allentown Training Camp, is reported to be on its way to France or Italy. No definite knowledge can be obtained as to their destination but is is almost certain that they have left the United States. The basketball team of the Allentown camp was scheduled to play here last Friday and that they failed to put in an appearance seems to substantiate the report that they are on their way across. This team was composed entirely of old Bucknell men.

MUSSER ELECTED BASKETBALL COACH.

Musser, last year's star centre, has been elected to train the team this year. His knowledge of the game makes him well fitted for this work, the product of which has already appeared in the first game of the season in which Bloomsbury was defeated

There will be a meeting of the Sophomore class in the Chemical Laboratory on Friday afternoon, January 18, at 4.15.

ATHLETIC BOARD AWARDS LETTERS

SEVENTEEN MEN OF FOOTBALL SQUAD RECEIVE VARSRITY INSIGNIA.

At a meeting of the Advisory Board held near the close of last term seventeen men of the football squad were awarded the football "B." They are: Newcomb, Spotts, Elliott, Boswell, Gerhart, Waddell, Smith, Kline, Lewis, Hall, Lees, Bortz, Morrison, Brandt, Freeble, Kostos and Wargo.

Dr. Evans Addresses College Religious Service

Place of Meeting Has Been Changed to Bucknell Hall. —Time 9:45 A. M.

With the beginning of the new year the College Religious Service is being held in Bucknell Hall every Sunday morning at 9.45 A. M. This change has proven to be most satisfying and agreeable, owing to the fact that it gives a splendid and distinct element of worship to the college students. The first service on the morning of Januarry 6 was very well attended. Dr. Phillips spoke on the subject "What Shall Be Done With Jerusalem?" This service was featured by a pleasing vocal solo by Miss Pauline Schenck, accompanied by Prof. Berlino.

Yesterday an exceptionally large number of both students and faculty turned out to hear Dr. Milton G. Evans, president of Crozer Theological Seminary. He spoke on the subject "Christianity, the Great World Religion."

Dr. Evans showed by statistics that Christianity is by no means the dominant religion in the world, the followers of all other great religions outnumbering those who profess to follow Christ. But the hope of Christianity becoming the great world religion does not lie in its numbers. Rather Christianity must be interpreted prospectively and retrospectively. We must judge, not by what has been accomplished in the past, but rather by the prospects for the future.

In order to make these prospects good, in order to make sure a place for Christianity in the world in the future, an educated leadership is essential. Unless this can be obtained Christianity will eventually cease to be a world religion, for the followers of the other religions are rapidly coming to the place where they realize that it is true for their religion as well as for Christianity, and are going about to secure for themselves an educated leadership. In many cases they have been known to send men to Christian colleges and universities to secure an education.

In view of the fact that it is at the present time far ahead of the other religions along educational lines, Christianity lays claim to the hope of becoming the great world religion.

BASKETBALL TEAM ON FLYING START

TEAM MADE UP OF ALL NEW MEN.

EASILY TROUNCES BLOOMSBURG 35-22

Hard Practices Held Last Week.—Game With Gettysburg Friday Night Will Test Team's Strength.

The Varsity opened up the basketball season on Friday evening, Jan. 4 by handing Bloomsburg Normal a 35-22 defeat. The game was not the fastest kind but the team showed excellent form and shows promise of developing into a fast combination when it once gets into its stride.

Bloomsburg was the first to score when Barolack caged a foul. Our opponents then proceeded to score seven points while our machine was scoring a single foul goal. However, at this point in the game Gearhart opened up matters and scored the first field goal of the season. Soon the Varsity had overcome the small lead of the opposing five and the advantage was not lost during the rest of the game. The score at the end of the first half was 18-8.

At the beginning of the second half Bloomsburg displayed a nice passing game but the Bucknell guards very cleverly covered their men and easily held the Normal's forwards in check. In the first half the Varsity had trouble in locating the basket but in the second half played with improved team-work and caged the ball with comparative ease.

This year's team is composed entirely of new men. Musser is the only regular man left from last year's quintet and he is coaching the team. Gearhart, who played centre, showed up well against Bloomsbury's rangy pivot man and should prove a valuable man for the team. Elliott is a new man at guard but seems to be well suited to the position and played a brilliant game. Mathieson and Bell, played forward and guard respectively on their class team last year and are showing up well as Varsity men. Townsend a first year man, worked nicely at forward and succeeded in caging five two-pointers.

During the last part of the game several substitutions were made; Lewis, Lees and Smith all showed up well as Varsity substitutes.

The score:

Bucknell	Position	Bloomsburg
Mathieson	Forward	Kirhuff
Townsend	Forward	Brace
Gearhart	Centre	Miller
Elliott	Guard	Hower
Bell	Guard	Barolack

Goals:—Mathieson, 5; Townsend, 5; Gearhart, 2; Elliott, 2; Kirhuff, 3; Brace, 1; Miller, 3. Foul goals; Mathieson 7 out of 19; Barolack 8 out of 21. Substitutions; R. Lewis for Townsend, Lees for Bell and Smith for Gearhart. Referee, Jackson.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The members of the Athletic Association last term elected the following men to manage the business affairs of the association for the coming year. Sheffer and Musser were elected as student members of the visory Board. . The official count of the election was as follows:

THE KNOCKER

He comes strolling over the campus with a slow drawling, stumbling motion. He swings a book in one hand and allows the other hand to dangle at his side. He is at odds with the world; if he had the power, everything would be changed by him, and no one would share the earth with him. He would keep the birds from singing. It would never be allowed to become bitter cold nor extremely warm. Work or responsibility would be inconceivable. Everything would be changed. He thinks the thoughts of one who dreams on, but accomplishes nothing.

He can't see anything good in the Professors. They are all know-nothings looking for soft snaps.

His fellow students are his enemies. He should shun them as much as possible.

He feels that he should get his credits before he enrolls; that the University simply adds insult to injury when it asks him for tuition.

He can see nothing good in the activities of the school. He says that athletics are cut and dried and a good man like himself never gets a chance. He can see nothing good in the college paper; the editors are a bunch of mossbacks who never write any news and use the columns to further their own interests.

A hard lot it that of the knocker. He deserves sympathy and not scorn; he may some day wake up and realize that the successful man is not the knocker, not the individual who lives behind the screen of skepticism, but the man who gets out, does his best, and gives his own energy in every possible reform.

BOOST THAT L'AGENDA

Do you know, Mr. Undergraduate, that in the face of the present status of affairs you seem to be the most exasperatingly inconsistent creature in the world? So you seem, and we have a sneaking suspicion that you delight in the distinction.

To get right down to facts, consider one of your own activities, the L'Agenda. Can you picture the howl that you would raise if the L'Agenda failed to appear? Do you know the way you would deride your board if the book was a little late in coming out, to say nothing of what you would say if it never appeared at all? And yet you know as well as the board knows that the success of the publication is in your hands. Without your co-operation, your contributions, your photographs, but above all your subscriptions, the L'Agenda could not be published.

It is very essential that the board know how well the volume is to be supported. The only means by which it can determine this is by the advance subscriptions. You all know full well that when those handsome books are being distributed you will want one, for it will contain a record of the year's events that are of the most interest to you. It will have pictures and scenes you will recall and would like to preserve. The four L'Agendas of your four years in college will some day be your most highly treasured record of Bucknell days.

Here is your chance to do yourself a good turn. Seek out one of those in charge and sign up for the 1919 L'Agenda, and in so doing help to boost one of Bucknell's enterprises of which she is rightfully proud.

MILITARY DRILL

We wish to call special attention to the article in this issue concerning the course that is being conducted this term in military training. The course has been given the rating of a minor and will take the place of the regular gymnasium work that is required in the winter term. The course, as well as providing excellent physical training, is particularly valuable to draftees. The direction of the work has been placed in the capable hands of Lieut. Ralph Bechtel, who has had much experience in this line. It is useless to relate the numerous advantages accruing from military drill—it remains only to support it.

"KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNRING"

There will be a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. next Thursday night in Bucknell Hall. This will be a purely patriotic meeting in nature, in honor of our own Bucknell boys who are in actual military service at the present time. Several letters will be read from the boys who are over in France and in training camps of this country. It surely will be your duty to come out and hear from our fellow school mates and devote an hour in memory of them. "Dave" Boswell will sing "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and this with other features will make you want to attend the meeting next Thursday night at 7.30 in Bucknell Hall.

* * * *

If anyone has a leter or letters from a Bucknell student in the service and will read it or consent to have it read at this meeting kindly make this known to either Thos. J. S. Heim or Miss Stephens.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE STARTED

The football schedule for next year has begun to take a definite form. As usual the Gettysbug game will take place at Harrisburg. On Thanksgiving Dickinson will be the attraction on the home field. The Indians will play either here or in Williamsport. Syracuse and Penn will be met on their home fields on Nov. 9 and Oct. 12, respectively. The tentative date for the Swarthmore game is October 26. Negotations have been opened with Carnegie Tech for a game on their field on one of the open dates. The opening game of the season will be with one of the Normal schools. An effort is being made to make the schedule somewhat lighter than it has been in the past few years.

FRESHMAN DECLAMATION PRELIMINARIES.

In order to give every man of the Freshman class an opportunity to try for the Declamation Contest, preliminary contests will be held within the next two weeks. Any man of the Freshman class is eligible to this contest. Those who are not taking Oratory and who wish to compete will arrange with the professor in charge.

The co-eds of Susquehanna University have presented the school with a huge service flag. The flag measures 12 by 20 feet and contains 88 stars. It is suspended before Seibert Hall, the most prominent building.

ENGINEERS MAY ENLIST IN RESERVES

MAY CONTINUE SCHOOL UNTIL COMPLETION OF COURSE AS EXEMPTS.

As is stated in the official announcement for this issue, engineering students are to be allowed to enlist in the Engineer's Reserve School. The form of certificate used by the head of the school for that purpose is as follows:

"I hereby cehtify that .....is a regular student of the .....class in good standing, as a candidate for an engineering degree at.....and that in the judgement of the faculty of this school, based upon his academic records, supplemented by his relations with fellow students and by observation of his instructors, he may fairly be regarded as deserving a place in the first third qualitatively of the young men graduating from this institution during the past ten years.

It is evident that such rules allow considerable latitude. A recent number of the Engineering News Record has this to say on the subject.

"The Provost Marshal General's regulation means that the selected students are to be permitted to complete their engineering course as exempts, just as though they were in the military service of the United States, but they will not be dressed in uniform nor will they be put under salary as members of the military forces of the United States. They, are, however, members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the United States Engineer Department, and as such are subject to immediate call to the colors at any time. At the completion of their course, they will become subject to the call of the draft and may be detailed to any service in the jurisdiction of the military authorities. It is probable, however, that a number of the graduates will be permitted to enter civilian engineering work necessary for the conduct of the war. All engineering students not included within the groups selected by the faculty are subject to the regular provisions of the draft law.

"As at first projected, the evemption was to apply to a flat one-third of all engineering students of draft age; that is, the upper third to be selected by straight scholastic grading. It was pointed out by a number of technical educators, however, that in the first place it is very difficult, as most engineering schools are conducted, to determine a fixed percentage grading of students, because in many schools such a system of marking is not used. It was further pointed out that the constant reduction in the size of the upper classes in the technical school would very soon lead to the inclusion within the upper third of any one class of a number of decidedly low-grade engineering students who are specificially intended to be excluded from exemption by the provisions of the order."

SOPH. ORATORY CONTEST.

Volunteers for the annual contest of Sophomores in Orotary are requested to consult with Professor Smith. This contest is open to any Sophomore. A separate prize is given to the best woman speaker. The young women are not confined to selections of an oratorical type as are the young men. On account of the war, a program somewhat similar to that of last year, will probably be presented, consisting largely of patriotic addresses.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

At the regular weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. held Thursday night David Boswell was the leader and he gave a very helpful address to the men in a pleasing manner. A noteworthy feature of the meeting was the hearty response that the fellows gave in taking an active part in the meeting.

The meeting this week will be held Thursday night at nine o'clock in Theta Alpha and our State Secretary W. E. Kroll is expected to be with us at that time. Come out fellows—everyone—you will find in this meeting something that will satisfy.

PHI GAMS ENTERTAIN

The Phi Gams entertained with a small Victrola dance on Friday evening.

Lafayette College had the honor of the presence of General Viqual of the French Embassy at its annual celebration of Founder's day.

Statistics from Cornell University show that 1,805 of the students who attended that institution during 1916-1917 are now in the service of the government.

BUCKNELL WILL REOPEN ON JANUARY THIRD

Bucknell is scheduled to reopen on January third. Students are urged to be back on time for registration.

On the second day after the opening of school there is a basketball game scheduled with Bloomsburg.

—The girls at Cornell have agreed to wear cotton dresses this winter in order that they may do their share of saving.

Fine Silks and Wool Dress Goods

Delay means higher prices and less to pick from, for under present conditions we are not going to carry such big varieties as when conditions were normal.

Remember this, that it's going to be not a question of the price in the near future, but the question will be, can we get the goods at all?

You know that there are lots of things off the market today the ywere used by almost every person, each day because of the scarcity of some articles.

Wool Dress Goods—All Colors and Black

Plains and fancies, in plaids and checks. They are worth up to $1 today the world over, our sale price 50c a yard.

SECOND—Wool goods worth up to $2 a yard will be $1 a yard. All colors included, plain and plaids. Some are 50 inches wide. Think of it—you never bought them for less.

THIRD—The Finest French and Storm Serges, extra good qualities. Values worth $2.50 per yard, our sale price is $1.50.

FOURTH—This covers the finest wool goods we have in the store, including velour checks, spot-proof broadcloths in all colors, and all the newest and best weaves. Materials that are worth as much as $4.50 a yard today our sale price $2.50.

Do Your Best, But That Will Not Be As Good As You Can Do Here on Ready-to-Wear Garments

We have the merchandise, the right styles, in the right materials, and made in the right way. They are made to fit—not slung together. But seldom our suits or dresses need alterations, so well and carefully are they designed and made up.

Right now you will find every suit and silk dress reduced for quick selling. They must be sold.

Lots of New Winter Coats

If you've looked before, then look again, for you will see lots of new ones, new and exclusive styles; coats that are becoming to almost every lady.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR BASKETBALL

MANY CONTESTANTS FOR VARSITY POSITIONS.

EXCELLENT SCHEDULE HAS BEEN ARRANGED

Carnegie Tech, the Feature.—Three New Teams Slated. —Musser, '18, Star of Last Year, Coaching.

With fourteen games on its schedule, Bucknell's new basketball quintet will have some hard work before it, especially with such teams as Carnegie Tech, Lafayette and "Usaacs" to compete against. The schedule arranged thus far by Manager Sipley, '18, is still a tenative one and imcomplete but will likely be ratified by the Athletic Board as soon as the several dates now pending are settled. There remains only one or two entirely open dates, as two home games and a third away from home are all sealed except a few minor details.

In spite of the fact that not one regular Varsity man remains this year, some excellent material is rapidly developig under the coaching of Musser, '18, last year's center, who is unable to play this year, due to physical disability. Waddell, a Varsity man last year, who is recovering from a fractured arm sustained in football, hopes to get in the game again in the near future. The first victory against Bloomsburg shows Townsend, Mathieson, Elliott, Bell Gearhart, Harris and Lees all showed up in good form for the first game and lovers of the cage sport will see some of the best teams on the home floor that is possible to obtain in basketball.

The biggest of the six home games is with Carnegie Tech. on Feb. 15th, and other home games include rivals bright and Gettysburg. The games on other floors are in several instances of past years as Lebanon Valley, Alreturn contests and the schedule has two trips of two games each with a possibility of a similar double-header early in February.

Below is the tenative schedule that will likely be completed before the week is up: :

Jan. 15—Lebanon Valley at Annville.
Jan. 18—Gettysburg at Lewisburg.
Jan. 25—Pending at Lewisburg.
Feb. 1—Lebanon Valley at Lewisburg.
Feb. 11—Usaacs (U. S. Ambulance Corps,) at Allentown.
Feb. 12—Lafayette at Easton.
Feb. 15—Carnegie Tech. at Lewisburg.
Feb. 20—Pending at Lewisburg.
Feb. 27—Mt. St. Marys at Emittsburg, Md.
Feb. 28—Gettysburg at Gettysburg.
Mar. 1—Albright at Myerstown.
Mar. 5.—Albright at Lewisburg.
Mar. 8—Open.

Of these teams Ussaes, Carnegie Tech and Lafayette are new teams on the Bucknell schedule and all represent fast teams and good games.

WADDELL CHOSEN CAPTAIN OF FOOTBALL TEAM

ELECTED AT MEETING OF LETTER MEN AT THE CLOSE OF LAST TERM.

At a meeting of the "B" men of the football team at the close of last term R. N. Waddell, of Pittsburgh, was chosen for next year's captain. Waddell filled the position of quarterback during the past season up to the time of his injury in the game with Gettysburg. He occupied the same position during the latter part of the 1916 season, and with two years of experience promises to be a capable leader of next year's team, which, providing the draft does not interfere too extensively, will be one of the best that Bucknell has had for some time, as only four men, Newcomb, Spotts, Elliott and Boswell, will be lost from this season's team by graduation.

L'AGENDA BOARD MEETING

The L'Agenda Board will hold an important meeting in the Living Rooms of the Women's College, Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. All members of the board are requested to bring along snapshots and whatever work has been assigned to them.

CHEMICAL ENG. SOCIETY

There will be a meeting of the Chemical Engineering Society in the Chemical Laboratory at 8 o'clock on Thursday night. A picture of the society will be taken at 1 o'clock noon on Friday at Miss Shields' studio. Every chamical engineer out!

Dr. Evans Addresses College Religious Service

Place of Meeting Has Been Changed to Bucknell Hall. —Time 9:45 A. M.

With the beginning of the new year the College Religious Service is being held in Bucknell Hall every Sunday morning at 9.45 A. M. This change has proven to be most satisfying and agreeabe, owing to the fact that it gives a splendid and distinct element of worship to the college students. The first service on the morning of Januarry 6 was very well attended. Dr. Phillips spoke on the subject "What Shall Be Done With Jerusalem?" This service was featured by a pleasing vocal solo by Miss Pauline Schenck, accompanied by Prof. Berlino.

Yesterday an exceptionally large number of both students and faculty turned out to hear Dr. Milton G. Evans, president of Crozer Theological Seminary. He spoke on the subject "Christianity, the Great World Religion."

Dr. Evans showed by statistics that Christianity is by no means the dominant religion in the world, the followers of all other great religions outnumbering those who profess to follow Christ. But the hope of Christianity becoming the great world religion does not lie in its numbers. Rather Christianity must be interpreted prospectively and retrospectively. We must judge, not by what has been accomplished in the past, but rather by the prospects for the future.

In order to make these prospects good, in order to make sure a place for Christianity in the world in the future, an educated leadership is essential. Unless this can be obtained Christianity will eventually cease to be a world religion, for the followers of the other religions are rapidly coming to the place where they realize that it is true for their religion as well as for Christianity, and are going about to secure for themselves an educated leadership. In many cases they have been known to send men to Christian colleges and universities to secure an education.

In view of the fact that it is at the present time far ahead of the other religions along educational lines, Christianity has claim to the hope of becoming the great world religion.

MILITARY TRAINING AGAIN ORGANIZED

FULL CREDIT WILL BE GIVEN AS A MINOR

TO TAKE PLACE OF ANY NON ESSENTIAL MINOR

Lieut. Bechtel Has Charge of Work, Assisted by Ohlson.—Drill Held on Monday, Thursday and Friday Afternoons.

For the first time since last spring Bucknell now has an organized effort in Military Training. As was the case at that time, the drill is entirely voluntary. Although there was a slight movement in this direction during the fall term, it did not deserve very much notice as there were, on the average, about two squads who reported regularly.

Lieutenant Bechtel, who was in command last year will again assume the position of commanding officer. There can be no doubt of his competence, as he has had a full seventeen years of service in the National Guard. He is deeply interested in the attempts of the Bucknell boys in military affairs, and will do his utmost to help produce an efficient and soldierly looking bunch from the rookies he must begin with.

His right hand man will be "Big Swede" Ohlson. Ohlson has had two years of this training in the National Guards and particularly on the Border. His ability as a drill sergeant is well proven in the minds of anyone participating in the drill or even only watching it. Calisthenics must be his middle name, for he just takes to them naturally and soon has everyone else doing the same thing.

This term, for the first time, the training will be given the credit of a minor. It officially takes the place of the Gym work that the boys are supposed to take during the winter term, according to the catalog. The drill may be taken instead of Oratory, History of Art, Sanitary Science or any other minor which is not essential to the course of the student, and full credit will be given for the course. It is but natural that there should be some restrictions upon this. The drill is for three hours a week, during a term of ten weeks, totaling thirty hours for the term. No more than two cuts will be allowed to continue in the drill regardless of the number of cuts, unless he cuts so often that his ignorance of the proposed movements makes him a hindrance to the remainder of the company. Target practice on a rifle range will be started as soon as possible, and time spent on the range will be given one half the credit of time spent in actual drill. This will furnish some hope to the men who have a number of cuts to make up.

The course in its present arrangements is one half calisthenics, one half drill in the School of the Soldier. The men, the majority of whom have never had any training whatever, are coming along nicely. To watch them at work, one would hardly magine that they have had but three drills. This training will stand them well in hand, should they be drafted. A man with but a small degree of efficiency in military training and the possessor of a college education, would with but little difficulty be able to act the part of a sergeant. Once a drafted man has risen from the ranks, the road to a commissioned office will be an easy one. As practically any student of Bucknell is liable to draft on becoming twenty-one years of age, this should interest the student body to a man. Men will be automatically drafted at the age of twenty-one. In this case, a preliminary training is the only hope for the possibility of ranking higher than a private. In view of these facts, the men in charge of the drill expect a constantly increasing number of men to report for drill. Drill will be continued on Monday, Thursday and Friday throughout the term.

FRESHMEN DEPARTMENT

The roll of honor has six names on it this week. Werner, Haus, Bitner, Williams, Key and C. B. Moore will have the privilege to visit the council hall this evening.

THE BAND

Band meeting Thursday evening at 7.30 in Eneplu. All men out to practice for the Gettysburg game.

The picture of the Band for the 1919 L'Agenda will be taken Monday, January 21, at one o'clock at Miss Shields' studio. All men be there.

CAP AND DAGGER PREPARING ANOTHER PLAY

CAST TRAINING FOR "THE WORLD AND HIS WIFE" TO BE GIVEN IN FEB.

Another treat is in store for appreciators of dramatics.

On Thursday evening, February 14 Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society will present "The World and His Wife." The play is extremely well known in the dramatic world and has recently played with great success in many of the foremost dramatic circles.

The production rights of the play are controlled by Enversham and Julia Opp; which fact recommends the play very strongly. The original was done in French by Neiderling and the version t obe given has proven itself to be an entirely satisfactory and successful translation.

A cast has already started work under the direction of Miss Schillinger and considering the possibilities offered by this play and how similar possibilities have been developed in the past it is safe to assume that a feast is being prepared for those dramatically inclined. The play will be staged in the Orpheum Theatre.

AMBULANCE UNIT 524 CANCELS BASKETBALL GAME

The second Bucknell Ambulance Unit, which was formed last spring it, which was formed last Spring and and has since been training at Allentown Training Camp, is reported to be on its way to France or Italy. No definite knowledge can be obtained as to their destination but is is almost certain that they have left the Unted States. The basketball team of the Allentown camp was scheduled to play here last Friday and that they failed to put in an appearance seems to substantiate the report that they are on their way across. This team was composed entirely of old Bucknell men.

MUSSER ELECTED BASKETBALL COACH.

Musser, last year's star centre, has been elected to train the team this year. His knowledge of the game makes him well fitted for this work, the product of which has already appeared in the first game of the season in which Bloomsburg was defeated

SOPHOMORE CLASS MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Sophomore class in the Chemical Laboratory on Friday afternoon, January 18, at 4.15.

ATHLETIC BOARD AWARDS LETTERS

SEVENTEEN MEN OF FOOTBALL SQUAD RECEIVE VARSRITY INSIGNIA.

At a meeting of the Advisory Board held near the close of last term seventeen men of the football squad were awarded the football "B." They are: Newcomb, Spotts, Elliott, Boswell, Gerhart, Waddell, Smith, Kline, Lewis, Hall, Lees, Bortz, Morrison, Brandt, Freeble, Kostos and Wargo.

BASKETBALL TEAM ON FLYING START

TEAM MADE UP OF ALL NEW MEN.

EASILY TROUNCES BLOOMSBURG 35-22

Hard Practices Held Last Week.—Game With Gettysburg Friday Night Will Test Team's Strength.

The Varsity opened up the basketball season on Friday evening, Jan. 4 by handing Bloomsburg Normal a 35-22 defeat. The game was not the fastest kind but the team showed excellent form and shows promise of developing into a fast combination when it once gets into its stride.

Bloomsburg was the first to score when Barolack caged a foul. Our opponents then proceeded to score seven points while our machine was scoring a single foul goal. However, at this point in the game Gearhart opened up matters and scored the first field goal of the season. Soon the Varsity had overcome the small lead of the opposing five and the advantage was not lost during the rest of the game. The score at the end of the first half was 18-8.

At the beginning of the second half Bloomsburg displayed a nice passing game but the Bucknell guards very cleverly covered their men and easily held the Normal's forwards in check. In the first half the Varsity had trouble in locating the basket but in the second half played with improved team-work and caged the ball with comparative ease.

This year's team is composed entirely of new men. Musser is the only regular man left from last year's quintet and he is coaching the team. Gearhart, who played centre, showed up well against Bloomsburg's rangy pivot man and should prove a valuable man for the team. Elliott is a new man at guard but seems to be well suited to the position and played a brilliant game. Mathieson and Bell, played forward and guard respectively on their class team last year and are showing up well as Varsity men. Townsend, a first year man, worked nicely at forward and succeeded in caging five two-pointers.

During the last part of the game several substitutions were made; Lewis, Lees and Smith all showed up well as Varsity substitutes.

The score:

Bucknell	Position	Bloomsburg
Mathieson	Forward	Kirhuff
Townsend	Forward	Brace
Gearhart	Centre	Miller
Elliott	Guard	Hower
Bell	Guard	Barolack

Goals:—Mathieson, 5; Townsend, 5; Gearhart, 2; Elliott, 2; Kirhuff, 3; Brace, 1; Miller, 3. Foul goals: Mathieson 7 out of 19; Barolack 8 out of 21. Substitutions: R. Lewis for Townsend, Lees for Bell and Smith for Gearhart. Referee, Jackson.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The members of the Athletic Association last term elected the following men to manage the business affairs of the association for the coming year. Sheffer and Musser were elected as student members of the visory Board. The official count of the election was as follows:

Advisory Board, Musser, 79, Sheffer, 71, Boswell, 24, Fonda 16.

President, Williams 77, Lewis 18.

Vice President, Hartman, 79, Smith 16.

Secretary, Fries 81.

The Assistant managers elected are as follows:

Football, Smith, 85, Benjamin 10.
Basketball, Kruse, 81, Jones, 18.
Baseball, Kline 78, Oakley, 18.
Track, Stout, 78, Witchey, 17.

THE KNOCKER

He comes strolling over the campus with a slow drawling, stumbling motion. He swings a book in one hand and allows the other hand to dangle at his side. He is at odds with the world; if he had the power, everything would be changed by him, and no one would share the earth with him. He would keep the birds from singing. It would never be allowed to become bitter cold nor extremely warm. Work or responsibility would be inconceivable. Everything would be changed. He thinks the thoughts of one who dreams on, but accomplishes nothing.

He can't see anything good in the Professors. They are all know-nothings looking for soft snaps.

His fellow students are his enemies. He should shun them as much as possible.

He feels that he should get his credits before he enrolls; that the University simply adds insult to injury when it asks him for tuition.

He can see nothing good in the activities of the school. He says that athletics are cut and dried and a good man like himself never gets a chance. He can see nothing good in the college paper; the editors are a bunch of moss-backs who never write any news and use the columns to further their own interests.

A hard lot it that of the knocker. He deserves sympathy and not scorn; he may some day wake up and realize that the successful man is not the knocker, not the individual who lives behind the screen of skepticism, but the man who gets out, does his best, and gives his own energy in every possible reform.

BOOST THAT L'AGENDA

Do you know, Mr. Undergraduate, that in the face of the present status of affairs you seem to be the most exasperatingly inconsistent creature in the world? So you seem, and we have a sneaking suspicion that you delight in the distinction.

To get right down to facts, consider one of your own activities, the L'-Agenda. Can you picture the howl that you would raise if the L'Agenda failed to appear? Do you know the way you would deride your board if the book was a little late in coming out, to say nothing of what you would say if it never appeared at all? And yet you know as well as the board knows that the success of the publication is in your hands. Without your co-operation, your contributions, your photographs, but above all your subscriptions, the L'Agenda could not be published.

It is very essential that the board know how well the volume is to be supported. The only means by which it can determine this is by the advance subscriptions. You all know full well that when those handsome books are being distributed you will want one, for it will contain a record of the year's events that are of the most interest to you. It will have pictures and scenes you will recall and would like to preserve. The four L'Agendas of your four years in college will some day be your most highly treasured record of Bucknell days.

Here is your chance to do yourself a good turn. Seek out one of those in charge and sign up for the 1919 L'-Agenda, and in so doing help to boost one of Bucknell's enterprises of which she is rightfully proud.

MILITARY DRILL

We wish to call special attention to the article in this issue concerning the course that is being conducted this term in military training. The course has been given the rating of a minor and will take the place of the regular gymnasium work that is required in the winter term. The course, as well as providing excellent physical training, is particularly valuable to draftees. The direction of the work has been placed in the capable hands of Lieut. Ralph Bechtel, who has had much experience in this line. It is useless to relate the numerous advantages accruing from military drill—it remains only to support it.

"KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING"

There will be a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. next Thursday night in Bucknell Hall. This will be a purely patriotic meeting in nature, in honor of our own Bucknell boys who are in actual military service at the present time. Several letters will be read from the boys who are over in France and in training camps of this country. It surely will be your duty to come out and hear from our fellow school mates and devote an hour in memory of them. "Dave" Boswell will sing "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and this with other features will make you want to attend the meeting next Thursday night at 7.30 in Bucknell Hall.

* * * *

If anyone has a leter or letters from a Bucknell student in the service and will read it or consent to have it read at this meeting kindly make this known to either Thos. J. S. Heim or Miss Stephens.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE STARTED

The football schedule for next year has begun to take a definite form. As usual the Gettysbug game will take place at Harrisburg. On Thanksgiving Dickinson will be the attraction on the home field. The Indians will play either here or in Williamsport. Syracuse and Penn will be met on their home fields on Nov. 9 and Oct. 12, respectively. The tentative date for the Swarthmore game is October 26. Negotations have been opened with Carnegie Tech for a game on their field on one of the open dates. The opening game of the season will be with one of the Normal schools. An effort is being made to make the schedule somewhat lighter than it has been in the past few years.

FRESHMAN DECLAMATION PRELIMINARIES.

In order to give every man of the Freshman class an opportunity to try for the Declamation Contest, preliminary contests will be held within the next two weeks. Any man of the Freshman class is eligible to this contest. Those who are not taking Oratory and who wish to compete will arrange with the professor in charge.

The co-eds of Susquehanna University have presented the school with a huge service flag. The flag measures 12 by 20 feet and contains 88 stars. It is suspended before Seibert Hall, the most prominent building.

ENGINEERS MAY ENLIST IN RESERVES

MAY CONTINUE SCHOOL UNTIL COMPLETION OF COURSE AS EXEMPTS.

As is stated in the official announcement for this issue, engineering students are to be allowed to enlist in the Engineer's Reserve School. The form of certificate used by the head of the school for that purpose is as follows:

"I hereby ceh1tify that .....is a regular student of the .....class in good standing, as a candidate for an engineering degree at.....and that in the judgement of the faculty of this school, based upon his academic records, supplemented by his relations with fellow students and by observation of his instructors, he may fairly be regarded as deserving a place in the first third qualitatively of the young men graduating from this institution during the past ten years.

It is evident that such rules allow considerable latitude. A recent number of the Engineering News Record has this to say on the subject.

"The Provost Marshal General's regulation means that the selected students are to be permitted to complete their engineering course as exempts, just as though they were in the military service of the United States, but they will not be dressed in uniform nor will they be put under salary as members of the military forces of the United States. They, are, however, members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the United States Engineer Department, and as such are subject to immediate call to the colors at any time. At the completion of their course, they will become subject to the call of the draft and may be detailed to any service in the jurisdiction of the military authorities. It is probable, however, that a number of the graduates will be permitted to enter civilian engineering work necessary for the conduct of the war. All engineering students not included within the groups selected by the faculty are subject to the regular provisions of the draft law.

"As at first projected, the exemption was to apply to a flat one-third of all engineering students of draft age; that is, the upper third to be selected by straight scholastic grading. It was pointed out by a number of technical educators, however, that in the first place it is very difficult, as most engineering schools are conducted, to determine a fixed percentage grading of students, because in many schools such a system of marking is not used. It was further pointed out that the constant reduction in the size of the upper classes in the technical school would very soon lead to the inclusion within the upper third of any one class of a number of decidedly low-grade engineering students who are specifically intended to be excluded from exemption by the provisions of the order."

SOPH. ORATORY CONTEST.

Volunteers for the annual contest of Sophomores in Orotary are requested to consult with Professor Smith. This contest is open to any Sophomore. A separate prize is given to the best woman speaker. The young women are not confined to selections of an oratorical type as are the young men. On account of the war, a program somewhat similar to that of last year, will probably be presented, consisting largely of patriotic addresses.

Vera Welch, '21, returned to her home for a few days, while her brother was home on a furlough.

Amanda Whittaker, '17, who has been teaching in Leesburg, spent several days with her friends in the Women's College.

Marian Ellenbogen, '20, entertained her brother at dinner in the Women's College on Sunday.

On Saturday Miss Rainey chaperoned a sleighing party to Mifflinburg for a chicken and waffle dinner at the Hopp Hotel.

The Student Government Association of the Women's College held its semi-annual election on Wednesday. The result was as follows: Margaret Mattern, '18, president; Dorothy McClintic, '18, vice president; Margaret Coates, '18, senior member; Agnes Gilmour, '19, and Golda Clark, '19, junior members and Katherine Johnson, '20, secretary.

A card acknowledging the arrival of the Christmas boxes sent by the girls to the Bucknell boys in France was received by Miss Schillinger.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Last Thursday night Dr. Nelson F. Davis gave a lecture before the Y. M. C. A. on the subject, "A Young Man's Problems." This was attended by over 200 fellows and the meeting was full of enthusiasm from beginning to end. The lecture was most helpful to the students and enjoyed by everyone. The Glee Club was present in a body and gave a selection.

There will be an important meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet tonight at the office at 11 East College at 7 o'clock. It is imperative that every member attend.

TWO GAMES THIS WEEK

The basketball team will play two games this week. The first will be played at Annville with Lebanon Valley tomorrow evening and the other with Gettysburg here on Friday evening. The Gettysburg game last year was the best contest witnessed on the home floor. This year's game with the Orange and Blue rivals will prove the strength of the Varsity and promises to be a highly exciting battle.

The Student Council of Gettysburg has presented the college with a service flag. The flag is 8x12 feet and contains at present 87 stars.

Fine Silks and Wool Dress Goods

Delay means higher prices and less to pick from, for under present conditions we are not going to carry such big varieties as when conditions were normal.

Remember this, that it's going to be not a question of the price in the near future, but the question will be, can we get the goods at all?

You know that there are lots of things off the market today the ywere used by almost every person, each day because of the scarcity of some articles.

Wool Dress Goods—All Colors and Black

Plains and fancies, in plaids and checks. They are worth up to $1 today the world over, our sale price 50c a yard.

SECOND—Wool goods worth up to $2 a yard will be $1 a yard. All colors included, plain and plaids. Some are 50 inches wide. Think of it—you never bought them for less.

THIRD—The Finest French and Storm Serges, extra good qualities. Values worth $2.50 per yard, our sale price is $1.50.

FOURTH—This covers the finest wool goods we have in the store, including velour checks, spot-proof broadcloths in all colors, and all the newest and best weaves. Materials that are worth as much as $4.50 a yard today our sale price $2.50.

Do Your Best, But That Will Not Be As Good As You Can Do Here on Ready-to-Wear Garments

We have the merchandise, the right styles, in the right materials, and made in the right way. They are made to fit—not slung together. But seldom our suits or dresses need alterations, so well and carefully are they designed and made up.

Right now you will find every suit and silk dress reduced for quick selling. They must be sold.

Lots of New Winter Coats

GETTYSBURG BEATEN IN FAST CONTEST

VARSITY LOSES TO LEBANON VALLEY 43-34.

BRILLIANT SHOWING MADE IN GETTYSBURG GAME

Decided Improvement in Team-work and Shooting.—First Big Game on Home Floor Is Full of Thrills.

Bucknell's new quintet during the past week has a victory from its old rival Gettysburg to its credit and a defeat from the Lebanon Valley team which in no wise is a disgrace when facts of the game are known. The players are also to be commended for securing the confidence of the students by the high class of playing they exhibited on the floor Friday night.

Lebanon Valley Game.

The defeat at Annville on Tuesday from Lebanon Valley of 43-34 was due largely to a narrow floor which made team work impossible. But in spite of these difficulties the Orange and Blue team kept up the scores on their part until the last few minutes of play, the score being 17-17 at the end of the first half. In the very opening of the game Bucknell started in with playing that made Lebanon Valley fans open their eyes in wonder. Harris caught the ball in the center of the floor and an overhead sling sent it at full speed through the basket for a clean shot that won applause. The game was nip and tuck for both teams during the first half and the score ended 17-17. The Bucknell boys took a slight lead early in the second half and with only a few minutes to play the score was 31-31. Lebanon Valley then gave a spurt and run the final score for a 43-34 victory. Mathieson secured six baskets and in the second half Harris shot seven of eight fouls. Gerhart made three spectacular baskets.

The line-up:

Lebanon Valley		Bucknell.
Keating	forward	Mathieson
Dupes	forward	Harris
Seltzer	center	Gerhart
Atticks	guard	Bell
Fisburn	guard	Elliott

Goals—Keating, 2; Dupes, Seltzer, 5; Atticks, 2; Fisburn, 4; Harris, 2; Moore, 3; Mathieson, 6; Berhart, 3. Fouls—Seltzer 9 out of 17, Harris 12 out of 19. Referee, White. Substitutions—Moore for Dupes.

Gettysburg Game.

The local victory on Friday of 40-32 against the old rival, Gettysburg, gave Bucknell fans confidence in the new five which exhibited a great improvement from the initial game won from Bloomsburg. Team work and shooting were surprising and by defeating the Gettysburg combination which showed much practice the Varsity gave Bucknell followers reasonable grounds on which to build high hopes for a successful season.

From the start of the game Bucknell played the offensive and outclassed the visiting team in all points of the game, contrary to the expectations of all. Gettysburg played hard at the opening of the game and the score grew slowly for both sides for the greater part of the first period. Gerhart and Mathieson each caged caged a spectacular basket and Harris aided materially in the lead of scoring. Bucknell led by a score of 22-17 at the end of the first half.

Elliott and Bell showed up well at guarding throughout both halves and had Gettysburg been without Baker, who scored 24 of their 32 points, the game would have been a runaway. Coach Musser stated that every man on the new team gained confidence in the Lebanon Valley game and there was much evidence of this in this last contest.

"Doc" Gerhart played a pretty game in spite of an attack of grip and Harris and Mathieson totalled 11 baskets. Elliott had a pretty basket to his credit, and Bell played a steady consistent game against Scheffer allowing him one accidental basket.

The line up:

Gettysburg.		Bucknell.
Scheffer	forward	Mathieson
Herman	forward	Harris
Shawkey	center	Gerhart
Baker	guard	Bell
Wells	guard	Elliott

Goals—Scheffer, Herman, Shawkey, 2; Baker, 4; Campbell; Mathieson, 5; Harris, 6; Gerhart, 3; Elliott. Fouls—Baker 11 out of 20; Harris 14 out of 22. Referee—Jackson. Substitutions—Campbell for Herman.

NOTED LECTURER HERE THURSDAY EVENING

DR. S. W. GRATHWELL WILL ADDRESS Y. M. C. A. MEETING IN THE CHAPEL.

The present National Prohibition Movement comes as a challenge to the students of America. While so many are enlisting for service in foreign fields in the war, it is more than ever important that those who remain in college should take aggressive stand in behalf of this effort "to make America strong at home."

Because of the new opportunity created by the passing of the amendment at Washington and the important local and state conflicts against the saloon in Pennsylvania during the next two years, the colleges of Pennsylvania will be more anxious than ever to take part this year. In order to bring the movement as it now is before the student body at Bucknell the Y. M. C. A. has arranged to have one of the strongest speakers in the National Prohibition Association to lecture at Bucknell Hall next Thursday night, January 24. Dr. S. W. Grathwell, for two years Southern District Secretary of the Inter-collegiate Prohibition Association, is a very able speaker; he is well equipped to inspire students. We feel sure every Bucknell man and woman will be glad to welcome this opportunity which will help to bring the meaning of the present prohibition movement to the college as a whole.

The young women will be there we know; they always do attend very well. So its up to the fellows, to do their best and see that every one hears this lecture on Thursday night.

Prof. Stolz has again kindly arranged to have special musical numbers in the College Glee Club and also a ladies chorus. Don't miss it Thursday at 7.30 in Bucknell Hall.

WANTED!

Names and Addresses of Prospective Students.

Doubtless each student who is attending Bucknell has in mind one or more prospective students who should enter next September. What a magnificent class would result if all these prospects should decide in our favor.

The Registrar is anxious to have the names and addresses of all those who may be interested in receiving the catalog and other Bucknell literature.

SGT. REGINALD S. NEWBERRY DIES AT CAMP.

SUCCUMBS TO PNEUMONIA AT ALLENTOWN CAMP

Was Member of Ambulance Unit Formed at Bucknell Last Spring.—Belonged to the Sigma Chi Fraternity.

Sergeant Reginald S. Newberry, Bucknell Unit, Section 524, United States Ambulance Camp, died on Sunday night, January 13, at the Allentown hospital, a victim of pneumonia.

Sergeant Newberry was a member of the class of 1917, in the civil engineering course. He had about determined to accept an offer to enter the oriental service of the Standard Oil Company and go to China, when the call came for volunteers and he enlisted in the ambulance corps.

Sergeant Newberry married Miss Ethelwynne Thorp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Thorp, of Manasquan, N. J., last October at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Newberry, at Point Pleasant, N. J. Two weeks ago the bride came to Allentown to remain until he departed overseas, stopping at a home near the camp.

Sergt. Newberry was taken sick Monday, January 7 and on Tuesday morning was admitted to the camp infirmary. Pneumonia developing rapidly he was that afternoon removed to the Allentown hospital. The origin of his illness was a cold he caught when he marched withe any coat thru a driving rain on a hike home from Betzwood and it fell to his lot to go on guard immediately for the entire night without any chance to change his wet clothes. The camp sent the body home with an escort, which attended the funeral Wednesday at Point Pleasant with military honors.

While a student at Bucknell Sergeant Newberry was respected and well-liked by all the students on the Hill and it was with the deepest of sorrow that Bucknell received the news of his death. He was the first Bucknell man to meet death in this war.

RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS: It has pleased God in His infinite, wisdom and providence to remove Sergeant Reginald Spofford Newberry, Section 524, United States Army Ambulance Corps, and a graduate of Bucknell University in the class of 1917, from this life and

WHEREAS: We realize in his death the family lost a faithful son, his wife a true husband, and his fraternity a loyal brother, be it

RESOLVED: That the Senior Council of Bucknell University extends to his family, his wife and fraternity brothers, its sincere sympathy and expresses its earnest sorrow, and be it further

RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family, his wife, and his fraternity brothers, also a copy published in the Bucknellian, and also spread on the minutes of the Senior Council.

TWO GAMES THIS WEEK FOR FLOOR TEAM

JUNIATA AND HASSETT WILL BE MET ON FOREIGN FLOORS.

The Bucknell Varsity Five has a hard week before it in the form of two games; one with Juniata on Wednesday night and the other with Hassett School on Thusday night.

On Wednesday the team will leave for Huntingdon where they will stack up against the Juniata five and a closely contested match is expected. On Thursday the Varsity will make a trip to Harrisburg and Hassett School will be met. Bucknell has an account to square with the latter team for the 21-20 defeat of last year.

Bucknell has started the season well and the men are rapidly developing into a formidable five. The Orange and Blue fans are confident that the team will bring back victories in both of this week's contests.

DR. HARRIS ADDRESSES COLLEGE RELIGIOUS SERVICE

"THE WORK OF JESUS." HIS SUBJECT. MUSICAL PROGRAM FOR NEXT SUNDAY'S SERVICE.

On Sunday morning President Harris addressed the College Religious Service, taking as his subject "The Work of Jesus." He based his discussion on the later part of the first chapter of the gospel of Mark, an account of the healing of those possessed with devils. He pointed out that Christ's work was largely that of healing the sick and casting out of the devils, which the ancients thought were the causes of all the sickness.

There are three kinds of such devils that must be cast out; two kinds were discussed. The first is the aggressive type, or the class in which the devil possesses the man, and the man not realizing that a devil has possession of him does not want to be healed. Today when a man is possessed by such a devil he is said to be psychologically perverted and is called a Paranoiac. The characteristics by which this class is distinguished are as follows: first an exalted opinion of themselves, secondly they are continually suspecting other people and thirdly they consider themselves as being ordained to set the world right. Today we can see a modern example of this class in the German Kaiser.

The second class of devils is that which, when a man is possessed by one, he realizes that he is possessed by a devil and wants to be healed. Today the work of medical science is the healing of this second class of people just as Christ did. It first seeks out the cause of the sickness and then attempts to heal it. It also aims at the prevention of disease and the caring for those who are sick by means of hospitals.

But Jesus did not heal only physical diseases. He was chiefly a spiritual healer. Faith always followed or preceded His works! Everywhere He went He called for repentance and after that came the physical healing.

Next Sunday morning, January 27, the program will be changed. There will be no speaker but the entire service will be given up to a musical program in charge of Prof. Stolz.

At a meeting of the Freshmen class on Tuesday Sheldon Smith was elected basketball captain and Williams was chosen manager. A strong team is expected to meet the Sophomore five in the coming annual event.

BUCKNELL "Y" HOLD JOINT MEETING

LETTERS READ FROM B. U. MEN "OVER THERE."

HELD IN HONOR OF B. U. MEN IN FRANCE

Dr. Phillips Speaks.—College Quartet, Ralph Hartz, '21, and David Boswell, '18, Renders Several Fine Selections.

On Thursday evening the first joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. for the new year was held in the chapel. Thomas J. S. Heim, Y. M. C. A. secretary took charge of the meeting. He briefly stated that the meeting was in the honor of the Bucknell boys in France. Carrying out the idea of the meeting several letters were read from Bucknellians in foreign service.

As customary the meeting opened with songs and prayer. Before the reading of the letters the college male quartet composed of Davis, '19, Stout, '19, Hutchinson, '21, and Harris, '21, rendered a very good and appropriate number.

Letters from Everett Stone, '18, Prof. G. Wade Earle, '15, E. N. Holinger, '18, Julius Seebach, '18, Eugene Duffy, '19, and Lester Leighton, '18, were read. With the exception of Holinger all the above named men are serving in the B. U. Ambulance Unit in the Verdun section, the center of the war. The men described the general routine of their work and life at the front and they gave us a better idea of what others are doing to win this great war for democracy. Holinger, who is now somewhere in Italy with the U. S. Aviation corps described at length how it feels to be an aviator and how to attain proficiency in aviation. With all letters came a pledge of allegiance to the cause for which they are fighting and a fervent hope to soon return to old Bucknell.

Ralph Hartz, '21, accompanied by Miss Hagerman and David Boswell, '18, accompanied by Greenland, '20, appreciably rendered solos.

Dr. Phillips then gave the real keynote of the meeting when he said, "We can't all be over there, we should not be; we can't all be in training camps, we should not be; but we can correspond with the boys in France to cheer them and we in return catch their spirit to do our work. "The women especially should not shirk in this," were his final words.

The meeting was closed by all singing "America." Judging from the attitude shown by the men and women the combined meeting was a huge success and more meetings of this type are to be held in the near future.

MONDAY, JANUARY 21, 1918

It was with the deepest sorrow that Bucknell students learned of the death of Sergeant Reginald S. Newberry, of the Bucknell Ambulance Unit. In student life during his four years in college his conduct was such as to win him a warm place in the hearts of Bucknell men.

Last Spring he went forth with many fellow students to aid his country in "making the world safe for democracy." To this cause he gave his life. He could do no more.

To his family and to his fraternity we offer our heartfelt sympathy in this, our mutual bereavement.

Perhaps the most noticeable feature of the basketball games played by Bucknell so far this season has been the lack of support given to the team by the student body. There may be some excuse in the case of the Bloomsburg game which took place before many of the students had returned and was only a practice game. But apparently this game had almost as good attendance as the game with Gettysburg. The Gettysburg game is always a big drawing card on a Bucknell schedule. Whether you think that the team is doing good work or not you should feel it your duty to come out and help make the season a success. If the team is doing good work come out and show your appreciation of their efforts; if the team is losing it needs your support. it is your place to come out and help it brace up.

When a team knows that half of the men who should be interested and enthusiastic concerning its success are indifferent as to whether it wins or loses it is practically beaten before it goes on the floor.

What about the game with Lebanon Valley a week from next Friday? Bucknell has an account to square with them for the defeat of last week. The team is confident that it can beat Lebanon Valley on its home floor. You want to see Bucknell win. Come out and do your part!

COMMUNICATIONS

For the benefit of the student body in general and the Freshmen in particular it may be well to state that the time is ripe for the apprehension of somebody and a few stolen articles about the buildings on the Hill.

Such practice began early last term with the "borrowing" of electric light globes from the halls. Recently the trouble has increased until furniture has been removed from the Y. M. C. A. room—without being returned. The limit was reached a few days ago when it was discovered that a box of books, belonging to a Bucknell soldier in France, had been removed from West Wing. The fellow who can take the books of one who is fighting for the freedom of that very "borrower" is not a particularly preferable student.

Now chairs are easy to identify, as well as many other missing articles. Bucknell's system of removing certain obnoxious and similar practices last year might be very profitably worked again by Senior Council this year. This student organization has done all in its power to stand for justice and square dealing—here's a chance for it to earn the full thanks of the students.

Let's get 'em!

MR. UTOPIA.

CINDERLESS DAYS

These are woeful days, yea bitter cold; so cold in fact that the air freezes up tight, warming up only long enough every other day to let the congealed air fall down on us suffering mortals in copious snowflakes.

But this is not our only trouble, we students have. With heads weighted down with knowledge, and arms with books, we struggle up slippery paths, treated rarely with several shovels of what was once precious coal. Only later to return down grade with emptied heads and brakes slipping, we breath a prayer and—down we go, sometimes literally, sometimes figuratively, forming all sorts of Arabics in the air.

But why all these words—please may we have another helping of cinders Mr. Professor Burpee? And a wee bit oftener? You see Professor we'd hate for the sake of Bucknell to report at the Pearly Gates that we broke our necks falling or watching someone else fall.

CHEMICAL ENGINEER NOTES

A service flag with twenty stars in its white field now floats from the Chemical Laboratory. The flag was put out by the Chemical Engineering Society in honor of former members of the Society who are now in service. The flag is the first of its kind to be put out by any organization of the school and might well serve as a forerunner of service flags of kindred organizations.

On Thursday evening the Chemical Engineering Society held the first meeting of the term. Franklin D. Jones gave a very interesting talk on "Ore Flotation" describing the process in detail and pointing out its importance to the Chemical Engineer.

Dr. Brown, professor of Quantitative and Industrial Chemistry, has obtained a leave of absence. Dr. Brown is in the employ of the Du-Pont's but has made arrangements which will permit him to return every two weeks and meet his class of Senior Chemical Engineering students.

A bunch of Bucknell boosters who hailed from the Quaker City met last Thursday to organize the Philadelphia-Bucknell Club. The primary object of the Club is to line up certain high school students in the city who may be open to persuasion as to the right place to go to college. The secondary purpose is to have a good time. Officers were chosen to the end of the year, as follows:

BUCKNELL RECRUITS MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

EXPECT TO TRAIN WITH GUNS SOON. MORE VOLUNTEERS WANTED.

Ohlson's Army is making good.

The men no longer act like rookies, but are obeying orders like so many Napoleons. Although nothing more than the most simple foot and squad movements have thus far been tried, the recruits have shown a proficiency and a willingness to be told their mistakes, which would gladden the heart of any drill sergeant of Uncle Sam.

The preliminary calisthenics is already showing its good results in a more erect and military bearing of the men. The rounded droop which characterized the shoulders of practically every one of them, is slowly but surely straightening out into the position in which they were supposed to be. If the effect of two weeks of drill and exercise has produced such marvelous effects, at the end of the eight remaining weeks, General Pershing himself will have nothing on the Bucknell Volunteers as far as military carriage is concerned.

Guns have not yet been used, but it is the plan of Ohlson to secure the pieces belonging to the Rifle Club and put the men through the manual of arms during the present week. This feature cannot fail to make the drill more interesting, for a man does not feel like a soldier until he has a gun in his hand. A large turn-out is expected as soon as drill with guns is started.

Lieutenant Bechtel has not yet assumed charge of the company, but he will wait until it is farther advanced in its knowledge of "military science." It is even probable that he will not take actual charge of the men before they start drilling out doors and begin to try the extended order formation.

BUCKNELL COUPLE MARRIED

The marriage of Miss Dorothy E. Bunnell, '16, to Fred O. Schnure, ex-'14, took place at the home of the bride, Union, New Jersey, on December 20, at 8.30 P. M. The bridal party was composed of Miss Margaret Mattern, '18, who was maid of honor, Miss Helen Brown, '17, and Miss Hannah Nelson, cousin of the bride, who were brideswaids. The best man was John O'Rourke, of Sparrow's Point, Md., and the ushers were Robert S. Bunnell, brother of the bride, and Louis Lyon, '14. Miss Helen Potter, of Union, played the wedding march and Miss Etta Brown sang "O Promise Me." Both bride and groom are well known among Bucknell people and were popular while in college. The bride was a member of Pi Beta Phi, the groom was a member of Sigma Chi. Mrs. Schnure was president of the Woman's Student Government for two successive terms.

Kathryn Keeler, '20, has as her guest of the week-end, Miss Martha Harvey, of Philadelphia.

Y. W. C. A. Gave Circus

On Saturday the Y. W. C. A. gave a circus in the gymnasium of the Woman's College. The circus leader, Miss Riese, '19, wishes to announce that financially the circus was a success. Those who took in the side shows and attended the auction sale and vaudeville show will agree that it was a success in other ways also. A great many town people attended the event and the aim of the Woman's College girls was to get all the town girls attending college in the buildin. for the night. This was largelysuccessful and we had many guests from town.

"Over There," was the keynote of the meeting last week. Miss Potts and Miss Mattern read chapters from "Over the Top," which gave vivid pictures of Tommy in the trench, the actual experience of going "Over the Top," how a traitor was shot and how a coward redeemed himself. Anyone passing the girls in the halls after the close of the meeting would have caught scetches of "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

We are looking forward to having with us tomorrow, Mrs McClure, a former professor of Westminster College, whom we understand to be a very attractive talker.

SOPH. BANQUET COM. CHOSEN

Last Friday afternoon the Sophomores held a spirited class meeting in the chemical laboratory. Doc. Speare was chosen to manage the class basketball team. Because Day had enlisted and left the position of manager open, Chance was appointed to fill the position for the remainder of the year. A unanimous vote decided the fate of the banquet, upon which the following committee is now working: Kolb, Freehle, Smith, Shea, Hoover, Wagner, Nancarrow, Kitlowski and Gibbs. Sherk was elected chairman.

Fine Silks and Wool Dress Goods

Delay means higher prices and less to pick from, for under present conditions we are not going to carry such big varieties as when conditions were normal.

Remember this, that it's going to be not a question of the price in the near future, but the question will be, can we get the goods at all?

You know that there are lots of things off the market today the ywere used by almost every person, each day because of the scarcity of some articles.

Wool Dress Goods—All Colors and Black

Plains and fancies, in plaids and checks. They are worth up to $1 today the world over, our sale price 50c a yard.

SECOND—Wool goods worth up to $2 a yard will be $1 a yard. All colors included, plain and plaids. Some are 50 inches wide. Think of it—you never bought them for less.

THIRD—The Finest French and Storm Serges, extra good qualities. Values worth $2.50 per yard, our sale price is $1.50.

FOURTH—This covers the finest wool goods we have in the store, including velour checks, spot-proof broadcloths in all colors, and all the newest and best weaves. Materials that are worth as much as $4.50 a yard today our sale price $2.50.

Do Your Best, But That Will Not Be As Good As You Can Do Here on Ready-to-Wear Garments

We have the merchandise, the right styles, in the right materials, and made in the right way. They are made to fit—not slung together. But seldom our suits or dresses need alterations, so well and carefully are they designed and made up.

Right now you will find every suit and silk dress reduced for quick selling. They must be sold.

Lots of New Winter Coats

If you've looked before, then look again, for you will see lots of new ones, new and exclusive styles; coats that are becoming to almost every lady.

Bucknell Passers Win Two on Hard Trip

CARRY OFF DECISIVE VICTORIES FROM STRONG TEAMS

DOWN HASSETT 28-24; JUNIATA BEATEN 40-29

Varsity Puts Up High Class Team Work.—Shows Strength at the Finish.—Lebanon Valley Here on Friday.

Bucknell's "green" quintet added two more victories to its list last week by defeating Juniata college by a score of 40-29 and Hassett Club, of Harrisburg, by a score of 28-24. Both teams were defeated on their home floors and the Hassett Club's strong aggregation that defeated the Orange and Blue by one point last year expected a runaway from Bucknell this season. The new team overcame its one weak point on this trip by holding up in the last ten minutes of play, a thing which they had been unable to do in the previous games.

At Juniata excellent spirit was shown and the team was given the best of treatment. In spite of the floor being a large one and out of bounds on all sides, Bucknell soon found itself and kept up a rush thru the first half that netted a score of 25-17 in the first period. In the second half Juniata came back with a rush until the last ten minutes of play and the score stood 27-26 in Bucknell's favor. Elliott called time out to rally the team and when the whistle blew the Orange and Blue quintet made its first last minute rally by this season and ran the score up to 40-29 . The game was team work throughout as the summary shows and every player played a class of team work that amazed Juniata.

Summary::

Juniata		Bucknell
Fowler	forward	Mathieson
Oller	forward	Townsend
Livingwood	center	Gerhart
Howe	guard	Bell
Griffith	guard	Elliott

Goals—Fowler 4, Oller 6, Livingwood, Mathieson 5, Townsend 5, Gerhart 3, Bell. Fouls—Fowler 5 out of 11, Oller 2 out of 7, Townsend 12 out of 21. Referee, Rogers. Substitutions—Griffith for Livingwood, Kulp for Griffith.

The Hasset game was the fastest and hardest of the season so far, and was won only by a big rally in the last few minutes of play. The team cannot be given too much credit for this 28-24 victory. The game was won by the hardest sort of team work and every Bucknell player deserves commendation.

The contest began with a mad rush and Hassett Club with the aid of a giant center maintained a slight lead until the last of the first period which ended in Bucknell's favor 14-13. The big man outreached Gerhart but could not fathom Gery's floor work.

In the second period there was another double rush for the lead and the score advanced by alternating points until almost the last 60 seconds of play when Elliott came down the floor and shot a basket that gave Bucknell a lead in the score. Townsend and Mathieson found themselves in the last period and played excellent team work as the scoring itself shows. Elliott and Bell played a consistent game throughout, while Gerhart made his big opponent run circles to keep near him.

Summary::::

Hassett		Bucknell
Gerdes	forward	Mathieson
Huston	forward	Townsend
Ed. Sourbeer	center	Gerhart
Gough	guard	Bell
Biehl	guard	Elliott

Goals—Gerdes, Huston 2, Sourbeer 2,Gough, Mathieson 3, Townsend 4, Elliott. Fouls, Gerdes 3 out of 4; Sourbeer 9 out of 15, Townsend 12 out of 17. Referee, Ford.

NOTES OF THE GAME

Miss Fay Shope and mother, of Huntingdon, entertained the entire Bucknell team for suppor previous to the game with Juniata. Miss Shope is very well known here an I was

INSIGNIA FUND TO BE ESTABLISHED AT BUCKNELL

TO BE USED FOR PURCHASING OF SERVICE FLAG AND MILITARY "B."

Bucknell's Insignia Fund is her latest creation, but promises to be one of the most active and beneficial of any of her recent projects. It is a fund with the purpose of decorating and showing marks of appreciation of our men in service.

Senior Council has decided that each man and woman attending Bucknell will be assessed twenty-five cents for the purpose. Students failing to subscribe will be termed "slackers" and a black list of slackers names will be published. Collections will be made by fraternities and eating clubs and careful accounts kept. Prof. Lindemann is the treasurer of the fund.

There are two uses for which the money of the fund will be used. One is to purchase a large service flag bearing a star for each man now in service and space in which to add stars for Bucknell's recruits in the future. Our University should have had a flag of this kind months ago, but there was no fund with which to buy one. A large service flag would make a fine appearance floating from the flag pole.

The other purpose was discussed loc. term at a joint mass meeting. It was then decided that all our boys at the front or preparing to go there had earned a military "B". The design of this insignia, as decided upon by the Senior Council, is the monogram B. U. neatly arranged. These letters will be purchased from the insignia fund and mailed to the men in service.

SOPH FIVE LOSES.

The Sophomore basketball quintet journeyed to Williamsport Saturday where they received a defeat at the hands of the Dickinson Seminary team by the score of 61-38. The second year men attribute their defeat to the presence of two "ringers" in the Dickinson line-up, notably Cornwall, who scored 40 of Dickinson's 61 point. Cornwall is a member of the Williamsport Big Five and played last year against the Varsity. The local team was composed of Dorris and Hall, forwards, Lees, center, and Kitlowski and Bierly, guards. Manager Speare accompanied the team.

RIFLE CLUB HOLDS SHOOT

Last Friday evening the Rifle Club held a shoot in the armory. The three highest scores were made by Lowry, Hann and Wenrich. Out of a possible 200 Lowry scored 177, Hann 170 and Wenrich 163. Another shoot will be held Wednesday evening at 8 P. M., in the armory. The Rifle Club extends an invitation to all students to come and shoot.

Have you forgotten about the Y. M. C. A. pledge? There is still some money out and the prison camps are certainly in need of the money. Pay it now.

OSCAR D. BERWICK MEETS DEATH IN CAMP

WAS FIRST BUCKNELL MAN TO LOSE HIS LIFE IN THIS WAR.

News has reached here of the death of Oscar D. Berwick at Camp Beauregard on December 31, 1917. He was in Bucknell Academy in the class of 1917 but did not complete the course.

He was the first Bucknell soldier to lose his life in the war. He died two weeks before Sergeant Reginald S. Newberry, who was the second Bucknell man whose life was claimed by this war.

The St. Mary's Banner, Franklin, La., says of Berwick.

Young Oscar Berwick had all the qualities of mind and heart which made his people honored and respected among their fellowmen He died at the early age of twenty-two years in the flush and vigor of his promising manhood—when the years before him were peopled with shapes of brightness. When our country issued the call to arms young Berwick was numbered among the first to volunteer and he enlisted in Louisiana's famous command, the Washington Artillery.

MARRIED

Olga P. Webb, ex-'19 and Harold A. Larcombe were united in marriage at the home of the bride in Wildwood, N. J., at noon, January 9, 1918. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fisher, of that place.

LEBANON VALLEY HERE ON FRIDAY NIGHT

PROMISES TO BE ONE OF THE BEST CONTESTS PLAYED ON HOME FLOOR

On Friday evening the Varsity floor team will go up against the strong Lebanon Valley team for the second time this season. The first game, played at Lebonon Valley several weeks ago resulted in a 42-34 defeat for the Orange and Blue, consequently the Varsity is out for revenge and the prospects for getting it could not be brighter. During the past two weeks Coach Musser's team has been showing great form as is shown by the two victories over the strong teams, Juniata and Hassett Club. There is every reason to believe that Friday night's contest will be one of the best that will be played on the home floor. The probable line-up for Bucknell will be: Mathieson and Townsend, forwards; Gerhart, center; Elliott and Bell, guards.

PRE-MEDICALS ELECT

Last Monday evening the pre-medical students held a meeting for the purpose of reorganization. As a result, the following were elected: Weber, '18, president; Miles, '18, vice president; Tice, '19, treasurer and Speare, '20, secretary. Meetings are to be held every Monday evening in the Biology Lab. Papers will be prepared and discussed. Following the example of the Chemicals, the Medicals will present each year a picture of the Society to the Biology Department. The next meeting will be held on February 11 in the Biology Lab.

FISHER, '13, WOUNDED

Howard V. Fisher, '13, who is with the Ambulance Corps somewhere in France, had the misfortune to be the first Bucknellian in that unit to meet with trouble. "Sal," as he was known up the hill, was struck with a piece of shrapnel above the left eye. Part of this fore-head and nose were torn away making a very hideous wound. Fisher writes, that altho he has been wounded, he is still alive and will get well.

Ambulance Men Working Near "Dead Man's Hill"

LESTER E. LIGHTON GIVES VIVID DESCRIPTION

MEN HAVE HAD SOME NARROW ESCAPES

Bucknell Men Are in Action at One of the Most Dangerous Posts.—No Casualties Reported.

The following letter from Lester E. Lighton is one of the best that has been received since the first unit arrived in France. The letter shows that the Bucknell men are in the heart of the fighting zone, and the inference is that they are in the vicinity of "Dead Man's Hill."

American Expeditionary Forces.
Dec. 18, 1917.

Dear Friend:

I received your letter some time ago and will now try and get an answer from "somewhere" for you. We were 'en repos" for six weeks after our first "sortie" against the "Boche"—not that the action was so hard on us, as it was on our cars. They were in poor condition when turned over to us by the Red Cross section we relieved, and we "fixed" a couple more so that we had eleven good cars to tow the ten bad ones—when we retired. The whole bunch we dumped back about 30 miles and got all new Fords—we had 12 Fiats and 9 Fords before, and are pretty well fixed now. We had a long drive out from Paris with the new cars, then went over them good to be sure they'd carry us "vite" (quickly) when we wanted to go. But now—well we're out on a real mission. We thought we had business when we were out four weeks ago, but it looks bad now. If we come through this "sortie" with every man alive and well, we can be sure the Jinx is with us. No pictures shown in the papers back home can do justice to the land we are working in now; it is absolutely impossible to describe the place. We are in the mountains now, east of the town whose name is a byword in the war, in country recently taken from the Huns, and I only wish you could see the place. One town we pass through doesn't have a wall standing over ten feet high now, simply shot to pieces. It is full of artillery now, sending "hot ones" over the hill to the "Boche."

But we go on through this place, up a couple of valleys to a poste; less than a mile from the Hun trenches. Of course the road is in full range of the enemy's guns, and it different every time we go over it. Sometimes we have to start out when they are shelling, and then we take another road to get by the place. The mountains are full of batteries and the "Boche" are hunting them, consequently, the entire mountain sides are more than honey-combed with holes. As one drives along the road shells break upon the side of the mountain, making it "just a bit wierd" and take it from me, Henry's car can't go quite fast enough thru those valleys. One of our fellows, Harry Thomas, had his engine stopped by a shell which hit about 20 feet before his engine showering it with dust and shrapnell and the concussion stalled the engine—a common occurrance when a shell breaks close. That's the closest call yet. He got out without a scratch. The danger lasts only for about 15 minutes for a s soon as we get to the "poste" we are safe under 40 feet of ground. The chief danger is going over the shelled roads as we can't make any night trips in this sector—the roads are too bad, and they shell so much at night.

It is a pretty sight in the daytime to sit in the door of the "abri" and see the shells throw up the dirt on the mountain side opposite and on the road in the valley (our poste is on the mountain opposite the Huns, so they can't reach us with a shell here, only by airplane bombs.) But at night it's far prettier, the cannons along the ridges spitting fire in rapid succession, seemingly directly at you, and you can hear the continual roar of the sheels passing overhead to the enemy. Then comes the answer to the "barrage" and the whole mountainside is covered with spots of light, marking the points of the breaking shells. However, the prettiest sight of all is the shells directed at the airplanes, which fly overhead, directing the artillery fire and making observations. The aviators do some clever dodging to get out of range, and show themselves to be some real drivers. They have the life all right.

You may read in the papers of the experience of ambulance men over here:—we have it as bad or worse, for our poste is noted as one of the worst on the whole front. Several sections have lost men on these roads this last year—two were killed about ten weeks ago just below our posts. That's bad and it seems so much worse to us when we are looked upon as combatants, and subject to all the war regulations due an infantryman, yet we have nothing to protect ourselves with; simply have to "take it and not a chance to reply." The Huns have levelled everything as they retreated. The mountains here are just about like Montour in slope and height, yet not a tree stands and they were thickly wooded, simply ploughed with exploded shells.

We hear from home sometimes, insinuations that ours here is a woman's work, and that we should be in places where we could do more good. But I'm telling you that this is far from a slacker's job,—the men in the trenches, the engineers, the artillerymen—all have a safe "abri" to go in when under shell fire,—while we—load up the wounded and make a dash for the lines back—hoping the little car with its load of unfortunates entrusted to our care will come safely thru the firing. No "abri" or "safe spot" for us—simply take a chance and trust to get thru safe. It's true that women do avacuation work way back, but it's more than a man's job up here. We're glad to hear from any of the fellows at any time any news of Bucknell.

Sincerely,
LESTER E. LIGHTON.

MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 1918

Perhaps it is safe to say that there never was a time when the thoughts of college men were distraught with such a turmoil of conflicting emotions and duties. This manifests itself for the most part in the men who have not yet arrived at their majority. For those who did not register in the draft of June 5, such unrest is to say the least groundless. For those men the proper thing is to remain in college and acquire the training that will make them more valuable for future requirements. As Dr. Harris pointed out, it is the duty of the college man to stay in college and get the best education possible, and it is the duty of the university to continue as in normal times.

This is not the time for uneasiness; if anything it is the time for cool-headedness. To rush headlong into the service without weighing with calm deliberation future possibilities is as futile as the attempt at concealment that the ostrich makes when it buries its head in the sand.

The same may be said of the men of draft age. Official communications from the War Department tend to prove that the evident unrest on the campuses because of war conditions is groundless. Men of draft age are assured that they will be placed in military work for which they have received training in the college.

Coincident with the decision on the composition of the army the plea went forth for the younger men to stay in school. This applies to any man regardless of the type of his course. He is becoming a trained man with a trained and organized mind. The war is demanding and the subsequent peace will demand trained men, moreso than has any other period in the history of the world. Therefore, every day, every hour, sent in school raises a man's national value, and will make him a more potential factor in American affairs, whether for peace or war.

When making a decision, then, each man should ponder over the fact that right here in school is where he can render the greatest and most far-reaching service. This war is one in which merciless efficiency rules, and every American student should apply his energy where efforts produce the greatest possible results.

D. T. U. ENTERTAINS TRI DELTA

On Saturday evening, January 26, the Tri Delta girls were entertained by Delta Theta Upsilon. Cards were the chief diversion of the evening. Miss Lotte was the winner of a novel guessing contest, for which she received a silver loving cup. Miss Edith Schillinger was the chaperon.

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor:

Last year, for the first time in the history of Bucknell Athletics, this institution was represented by a wrestling team. This team, without coaching of any kind, made a better showing at Cornell than any other team that met Cornell on the home floor. So far this year there has been nothing done towards organization of another team of this type, altho there is material equal to, if not better than, last year's team.

It may not be possible to meet Cornell or any other teams this year but it is possible to have interclass bouts, and meet between the halves in basketball games. Since this sport made such a flying start at Bucknell last year, it would indeed be a crime to permit it to degenerate and die this year.

BUCKNEL PASSERS WIN TWO ON HARD TRIP

graduated from Bucknell several years ago.

Matty and Townsend showed the prettiest teamwork of the season in the Juniata contest and the guards also put up a similar manner of play. Gerhart's floor work surprised even the other members of the team.

Bell and Elliott played team work from the beginning to the end and are largely responsible for keeping the Hassett score low, especially in the first period.

For the second time on the trip the team rallied and held up in the last ten minutes of play.

The team is anxious for revenge against Lebanon Valley here on Friday and practiced the day after returning in order to keep in shape.

Mathieson's dodging bewildered his guard in the Hassett contest, especially a couple times when followed by a neat basket.

Elliott's basket in the last fifteen seconds of play put a dramatic finish to the tension of the entire game.

If Bucknell wins out over Lebanon Valley it will make a clean slate of victories for the first part of the season.

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT COLLEGE RELIGIOUS SERVICE

DR. PHILLIPS GIVES SHORT ADDRESS ON "THE RELATION OF MUSIC TO RELIGION."

Yesterday morning the College Religious Service was varied somewhat. The greater part of it was unusual, consisting of a solo by Alden P. Davis, a sextette composed of Misses Hahn, Larson, Hagermann, Hoffman, a ladies quartet composed of Misses Mohr, Ruggles, Hoffman and Larson, and a selection by the college male quartet composed of Davis, Stout, Harris and Hutchinson.

After the musical program Dr. Phillips gave a short address on "The Relation of Music to Religion." Next Sunday the speaker will be Dr. Frank W. Radford, secretary of the Education Board of the Northern Baptist convention. Dr. Radford has spoken in nearly every college and university in the country. He comes with a message for the faculty and the students.

B. U. MEN GET COMMISSIONS.

News has reached here of the promotion of H. M. Gilbert, ex-'20, and Samuel P. Teamer, '12, to the position of first lieutenant. These men, now at Camp Meade are well known among Bucknell followers as heroes of the gridiron.

Kappa Sigma Dance

Kappa Sigma entertained at an informal dance Saturday evening at their chapter house. About 20 couples danced to music furnished by the Lewisburg High School orchestra. Mrs. Neil Baker and Mrs. Johnosn were patronesses.

DR. S. W. GRATHWELL SPEAKS TO BUCKNELL "Y's"

GIVES STUDENTS INTERESTING TALK ON THE PROHIBITION QUUESTION

Dr. S. W. Grathwell, of Chicago, exponent of the National Prohibition Movement and for two years Southern District Secretary of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association, addressed a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. in Bucknell Hall on Thursday night, January 24. He based his lecture on II Timothy, 2:15, and showed that God is daily calling each of us to serve Him in some way. He also pointed out the attitude of the war-stricken world to the drink problem.

Some people are under the impression that it is unnecessary to study in order to be a Christian, but because of the many and varied calls which come from the Master daily, it might be well to prepare just as one prepares for a profession. It is our duty to show faith by good works. The calls are of three kinds: internal, external and what may be termed a self-call. The internal is the call of the heart, illustrated by the experience which came to Dwight L. Moody. The external call is believed to come to everyone—the opportunity to play the good Samaritan. The third call is not often evident, except among those who consecrate themselves to the ministry, missionary work and the like. Its significance is embodied in the words which Paul spoke on his journey to Damascus, "Lord, what wilt thou have me do?" How many use it when in doubt?

In these wartimes the doors of the churches and schools are being closed because of a lack of fuel and yet the breweries continue "full blast." The breweries use enough coal in one day to send a ship like the Mauretania seven hundred and eighty times around the world. Lloyd George has said, "We are fighting three foes, Germany, Austria and drink." Fighting the drink menace is fighting to free mankind from the shackles of a radical poison.

Last Tuesday Mrs. Drum led the Y. W. C. A. Her talk was of present day interest. She showed the girls what it means to "do your bit" by contrasting a woman in our town and another who is serving in a hospital "over there." The quartet gave a selection. This week we are to have a play by some of our own girls.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Mu Phi Epsilon entertained the Supreme President, Mrs. Harriet Wright over the week-end. A reception with all the sororities present was given in her honor Thursday evening in the parlors of the Woman's College. There were also, given recitals in which the members rendered evidences of individual ability. On Friday evening Pi Beta Phi entertained Mrs. Wright informally in the suite.

In Student Government meeting on Wednesday last, it was unanimously voted to support the project of the new service flag.

Elizabeth Champion, '18, returned to her home in Montoursville for the week-end.

Dorothy Lawrence, '19, accompanied Mabel Ruckman, '20, to her home for a few days.

Miss Helen Balsley, visiting delegate of Tri Delta, came ou Tuesday morning to visit Tau chapter. Tuesday afternoon she was entertained by a tea given by the active chapter to their alumnae and patronesses. A reception was given to Greek letter girls by Tri Delta Sorority on Tuesday evening at which Miss Balsley was introduced. On Wednesday afternoon the active chapter gave a sleigh ride terminating with a chicken and waffle dinner at the Hotel Hopp, in Mifflinburg. There were a few invited guests. Miss Balsley terminated her visit on Friday morning.

S. A. E.'s Hold Dance

Sigma Alpha Epsilon held an informal dance Wednesday evening at the Lewisburg Club. The Lewisburg High School orchestra were the noise makers of the evening. War-time refreshments were served.

TEAM GETS REVENGE FROM LEBANON VAL.

COMES OUT ON THE LONG END OF A 59—37 SCORE

GREAT EXHIBITION OF TEAM WORK

Mathieson Gets Nine Baskets.—Townsend Shoots Fouls Well.—Many Substitutions.—No Game This Week.

Bucknell's quintet obtained revenge from Lebanon Valley on Friday evening by defeating them on the local floor in the return game of the season by the score of 59—37. The game was a whirl from the beginning until Coach Musser put the entire scrub team in during the last half of the final period. Except for a few minutes in the second half Lebanon Valley was unable to get its team work into play and the work of the Orange and Blue five completely bewildered them.

A game faster even than the Gettysburg game here two weeks ago was expected and seemed probable when the contest began with a lead of one point by the visiting team for the first minute of play. It took only a couple of minutes for the local five to find its place and in the first five minutes of play Townsend and Mathieson, assisted by a basket from Gerhart had totalled up a score of 17—5. Lebanon Valley played hard but took only an occassional shot at the basket. Mathieson amazed the spectators with his floor work and dodging, accompanied many times by scoring. Townsend missed only two of his nine fouls and Bell and Elliott played the most consistent floor work that has been shown so far this season in the guard positions.

In the second quarter Dorris replaced Townsend, with the score standing in Bucknell's favor 35—17. Bucknell set out at a live pace but Lebanon Valley found itself for a minute or two and showed some pretty team work. Moore located the basket for two shots and Fishburn showed some neat work at foul shooting. Dupes was substituted for Keating in this period and obtained two pretty baskets, but Bucknell set a margin of 20 points in the lead in scoring and kept it for the remainder of the game.

Both Bell and Elliott each obtained a pretty basket and Gerhart showed very commendable floor work. Coach Musser in the last half of the second period began running in the second men until the entire scrub team faced the visiting team. Against this team Lebanon Valley could make no headway and with the aid of Dorris' foul shooting and two long, clean shots from the centre of the floor, the big lead in the score continued to grow.

Each man on Bucknell's quintet played a star game and the floor work of Mathieson was of unusual quality. Gerhart's five baskets represented well his class of playing and Townsend's three baskets and his accurate foul shooting showed up the highest class of basketball. Both Elliott and Bell played a steady and a hard game and kept the ball from the opponent's forwards. Moore alone scored 11 baskets from Gettysburg recently and the accuracy of Lebanon Valley forwards shows the credit due our guards for holding them to such a low scoring.

Junior—The Pied Piper of Hamelin—Browning; The Piper—Josephine Peabody.

Freshman—Emmo—Jane Austen.

For information concerning the rules of the contest and texts consult Prof. Fries.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS HOLD CONFERFNCE

DELEGATES FROM PENN STATE AND LOCK HAVEN NORMAL ATTEND.

The members of the local Student Volunteer Association were afforded a surprise Saturday by the unexpected arrival of a number of Student Volunteer delegates from Penn State college and Lock Haven Normal. Penn State was represented by ten ladies and four men while Lock Haven sent three lady delegates. Misses Pearson and Fairbanks, national secretaries of the association also attended the meeting which convened in the parlors of the Woman's College Saturday afternoon.

The conference held is the outcome of the Northfield Student Volunteer Convention which met last fall. The central purpose of the discussion was to form local plans for carrrying out the decisions of the Northfield meeting. The plan of the conference is to promote the study of Christian principles of Democracy among the college students and finally to call for a decision of college men and women to live out these democratic principles. Dr. Phillips presided over the meeting and it was decided that study classes for the work should begin at once.

Following the business meeting a reception was given to the delegates by the local volunteer members. Miss Elthera Coursen. Prof. David Berlino and Alden Davis furnished musical numbers which were very much appreciated by all. A dainty luncheon ended a profitable and social afternoon.

D. T. U. ENTERTAINS PI BETA PHI

On Saturday evening, February 2 the members of Pi Beta Phi were entertained by Delta Theta Upsilon. Cards were the chief diversion of the evening. Miss Patterson was the winner of a guessing contest for which she received a silver loving cup. Miss Etta A. Brown was the chaperon.

NO GAME THIS WEEK.

The Varsity has no game on its schedule for this week. This will put the team in good shape for the big games with Lafayette, Usanes and Carnegie Tech the week following.

GLEE CLUB PLANS EXTENDED TRIP

TRYING TO GET DATES FOR A TWO WEEK'S TRIP

ORCHESTRA WILL ACCOMPANY CLUB

Good Material Has Been Secured from the Freshmen Class.—Competition is Keen.—Trip to State Being Arranged.

The prospect of a big trip through the western part of the state has again served as an impetus to make this year's club equally as good as that of last year which won so much high praise on its western trip An average of thirty men have been reporting regularly for practice and the number is constantly growing larger. Director Stolz and Manager Fairheller are doing their best to make this year's Glee Club surpass any that Bucknell has had in recent years.

Competition this year is very keen, as the Freshmen class contributed more than a dozen candidates of more than usual ability. Each candidate will be given a fair chance to prove his worth before selections are made. Regular attendance at rehearsals will have a bearing on this selection.

The trip will include most of the places visited last year, Williamsport, Renovo, Warren, Corry, Kane, Bradford, Erie, Franklin, Pittsburgh, Oil City, Sharon, New Castle, Greenville, Altoona, Tyrone, Lewistown and Bellefonte. Perhaps dates at all these towns will not be arranged but enough can be arranged to make the trip certain.

The orchestra will accompany the club on the trip. It suffered a big loss when "Tommy" Eshelman did not return to school, but the vacancy was well filled by R. P. Hartz, a violinist of rare ability. His brother, R. F. Hartz, is the soloist of the club. He is also a 'cellolst of some note.

The program will contain both the classical and the songs of lighter vein. Although the definite number of selections has not yet been worked out, the leader has been determined. It will be "King Olaf," the words by Longfellow and the music by Dudley Buck.

There will laso be a trip to Penn State, a return to the date filled here last year by State. Rehearsals are now being held twice a week. The next rehearsal will be held in Bucknell Hall on Thursday night. Every candidate is urged to be present.

1919 L'AGENDA GOES TO PRESS THIS WEEK

WILL BE COMPLETED AT THE BEGINNING OF NEXT TERM

The 1919 L'Agenda will be sent to the printer this week and should make its appearance immediately after the spring vacation. The board found itself facing a difficult proposition in the publication of this year's class book. Gettysburg and many other colleges thruout the country have discontinued their annual publication while present conditions exist. The L'Agenda Board, however, have succeeded in preparing a book, which should be a credit to the class and to the school.

It is not fitting at this time to enumerate the contents of the book in detail. Suffice is to say that the L'Agenda will be radically different from any and all preceding class books. Desirable features have been taken from the publications of various universities for several years back. These together with numerous originial ideas, should do a great deal in eliminating that catalogue

The marriage of Miss Ramona F. Lenington, '15, to Sergeant-Major S. P. Davies, '12, took place at the home of the bride's parents on December 22. Mrs. Davies is living at present at 108 E. 4th Ave., Conshohocken, Pa. Her husband is stationed at Camp Meade.

MEDICALS

Next Monday evening at seven o'clock there will be a meeting of the Medical Society in the Biology Lab. William Morrison will speak on the work of the Red Cross in France. The paper will be an interesting one, and one in which every member ought to be interested. Visitors are invited.

SECOND BUCKNELL UNIT ARRIVES IN FRANCE

TELEGRAMS REPORT THAT THEY HAVE LANDED SAFELY "OVERSEAS."

The second Bucknell Ambulance Unit, which has been in training at Allentown, has arrived safely "overseas" according to telegrams received here by friends of men in the Unit. Although no port or country was named in the brief but welcome message it is believed that they have landed in France. The messages contain nothing of their experiences on the way across. They sailed for overseas about two weeks ago.

MANY FOOTBALL PLAYERS ANSWER NATION'S CALL.

Since the outbreak of the war 18 colleges have discontinued athletics.

Statistics compiled by Walter Camp show that the gridiron heroes of the country have gone to the colors practically en masse. He takes as an example the Yale and Harvard teams. Practically every man who played in the Yale-Harvard game last year at the Yale Bowl is now in the service, 32 men out of the two squads are in some branch of the service. He says that this is true of most of the other colleges. The government is glad to get these men for they make the best soldiers. The football game gives them the strength and bravery, qualities so essential to the soldier.

One of the greatest personages that we know these days is "Philip the Great."

Most of the Universities of the country have adopted military training in some form. In most cases the trainings is compulsory.

Y. M. C. A. LYCEUM COURSE TONIGHT

PRESENTS THIRD ENTERTAINMENT OF THE SEASON

RALPH BINGHAM, HUMORIST, TO APPEAR

Will Take Place in Lutheran Church at 8.15.—Speaker Well Known to Bucknell Audiences.—Admission is Fifty Cents.

The third number of the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum Course will take place in the Lutheran church this evening at 8.15 P. M. Ralph Bingham will be the entertainer. He is well known to Bucknell audiences and his reputation as a humorist is well established.

Ralph Bingham, another number on the forthcoming entertainment course, is a humorist who for thirty-five years has been making large audiences laugh and still is in the prime of life. This is accounted for by the fact that his first appearance was at the age of six years, when he traveled as the "Boy Orator of America." His appearances on the American continent number nearly 10,000.

T. De Witt Talmage, after hearing Bingham, said: "Bless Bingham and all the apostolic college of humorists. He does that makes me laugh is my benefactor. God bless all skillful punsters, all those who mirthfully surprise us with unusual juxtapositioa of words. Theirs is a divine mission."

Mr. Bingham is an impersonator, a humorist, a violinist, a pianist and a vocalist. His wife travels with him and plays the accompaniments for his vocal and violin selections.

The committee, headed by Sherk, is thoroughly up-to-date and promise a rollicking awake time for all those who come.

STUDENTS SPEAK AT Y. M. C. A. MEETING

FOUR SENIORS GIVE SHORT TALKS ON COLLEGE PROBLEMS.

On Thursday evening four Seniors gave short talks at the Y. M. C. A. meeting. Each speaker took as his subject some problem of college life and told his own experience. David Boswell spoke on "What Do We Owe to the Church," John Gold took as his subject "The Prodigal Big Boy." C. C. Ward discussed the question, "Should a Student Be Honest About Everything," and F. A. Berckenstock spoke on "My Experience with the Honor System."

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1918

We have heard much of the wonderful work of the Y. M. C. A in the army camps. We were impressed by the splendid response made by the students of the American colleges when they were called upon to support the Y. M. C. A. War Fund. That the money we gave went to a good cause we have no doubt, for we know what a gigantic task confronts the Y. M. C. A. in the camps, and we are aware that the organization is accomplishing a great work among the soldiers.

The task that is confronting the college Y. M. C. A. at home is of no less magnitude. The organization has undertaken the task of 'making democracy safe for the world.' Dr. Padelford, in his address to the College Religious Service, pointed out that a democracy not founded on faith could not stand. So that, while our boys over there are making the world safe for democracy, unless the world here is made fit to receive democracy, the efforts of those who are giving their lives will go unrewarded. Secretary McAdoo stated that:

"The sacrifices we are exacting of the noble American boys who are going to the bloody fields of France for the lives and liberty of us who stay at home call to us with an irresistible appeal to support them with our earnest efforts in the work we must do at home."

The country has directed its appeal to the college students to become an active force in constructing the national life at home so that it will be fit to receive democracy after the fight for it has been won. Such is the burden that has been placed on the shoulders of the Y. M. C. A. For the accomplishment of this work the organization is now formulating plans for an intensive campaign. Theirs is a great task and if any degree of success is to be achieved they must receive, not the disinterested support of a few, but the whole-hearted support of all the students. The organization has a place for every college man who wishes to affiliate himself with its new and serious enterprise. It has a place for you, get in it!

SAVE THE HEAT!

The coal shortage at Bucknell has not reached proportions sufficient to cause any great alarm. Every student, however, should make it a point to conserve the heat in every way possible. Open windows and similar ways of allowing precious heat to escape should be closely guarded against.

During the past week the Editor received the price of a subscription from a Bucknell Alumnus from the class of '08, requesting that The Bucknellian be sent to some Bucknell man in the service for a year. The idea is such a worthy one and from the large request for Bucknellians from Bucknell men in service, it has been decided to open a subscriptnon list to any Bucknell student, alumnus, parent or friend who wishes to keep some Bucknell boy informed of the "doings" of his Alma Mater

The iden is one suggested and encouraged to such a large extent by Alumni that it has been decided to open this opportunity for a "Bucknellian Service Fund." Any letter sent to the Editor and accompanied by $1.25 will be used in sending The Bucknellian to a Bucknell man in the service. The paper will be sent to any man designated if the address accompanies the subscription. Otherwise the subscription will be used in sending the publication to one of the many requests received, asking that students mail their copies of The Bucknellian to the boys in service when thru with them.

Since the opening of the college year letters are received each week, some of which have been printed expressing a desire that students write to men in service and tell them Bucknell news. Letters from the units at Allentown to the Bucknellian and to private persons expressed an eagerness for Bucknell news. Similar letters requesting that Bucknellians be forwarded after students finish reading them, have been received frequently from draft cantonments and camps thruout the east and south.

DR. F. W. PADELFORD AT COLLEGE RELIGIOUS SERVICE

ADDRESSES STUDENTS ON THE PROBLEMS OF AMERICAN COLLEGES OF TODAY.

Yesterday morning Dr. Frank W. Padelford, of the Educational Board of the Northern Baptist Convention addressed the College Religious service. He spoke on "The Problems Which the American Colleges are Facing Today.

Dr Padelford showed by statistics the great contribution that the American colleges have made to the army that is fighting to "make the world safe for democracy." But there is a still greater fight before the world than that of making the world safe for democracy; it is making democracy safe for the world; and it is the American college that must furnish the men who are to carry on this great fight.

In order to make democracy safe for the world there are certain principles that are essential to democracy and which must be lived up to. The first of these principles is faith in God. If a democracy loses its faith in God it loses its moral power and soon ceases to be a democracy. It is this very thing that we must be prepared to fight at the end of the war, for in the past all nations when they have thrown off the authority of another nation, have lost their faith in God, and agnosticism and atheism have become prevalent.

The second of the principles essential to democracy is a spirit of brotherhood. There was no real democracy in the world until Jesus came and brought that spirit of brotherhood into the world, and since then it has been growing rapidly. If any nation is to have a permanent democracy it must have that spirit of brotherhood..

It is not so easy to develop the spirit of brotherhood today. There are thousands in the country today of many different nationalities who cannot understand each other's speech. But nevertheless we must face the fact and unless we can develope the spirit of brotherhood among those people we can have no permanent democracy.

"Democracy and the Teachings of Jesus" will be the topic discussed at the College Religious Service next Sunday.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

Cornell, Penn State, Brown, Tufts, Middlebury, Vermont, Rutgers and New Hampshire State, by omitting vacations and holidays, expect to close several weeks earlier in order to allow students to go into government service as soon as possible.

Mary Bubb, '17, returned with a friend to visit her friends in Women's College.

Mu Phi Epsilon gave a small recital on Thursday last. A small but interesting program based principally on Betthoven and Handel was given.

While the attendance at women's colleges shows a slight increase, figures compiled by a Boston newspaper show that the number of men and women attending college this year is 10,964 less than last year.

N. H. State College can boast the honor of doing its share. This institution has been placed at the disposal of the government as a summer school for war manoeuvers.

The coal problem for one college, at least, stands a fair prospect of being solved! There are immense peat bogs near Lewistown, Me. It has been suggested that Bates College follow the example of the worthy Irish peasants, and use peat for fuel.

effort which is so apt to occur in class books. Much of the catalogue material has been either eliminated or compressed, or presented in a form more attractive to the reader.

A feature of the book are the snapshots, taken on and about the campus. These add a great deal of "pep" and tend to represent college life as it really is. The drawings, by Weber and Boyer are also of exceptional quality and add life to the book! No time or effort has been spared by the Board in the preparation of the book. The printers promise to have it ready for publication by the first week in April.

Here Comes the First Sprinkling of New Spring Millinery

While the Spring styles are all set, and most the shapes are now made up for this Spring's season, you are safe in considering your new Spring hat early, and there are a number of good reasons why you should.

First. Our early prices are always considerably lower than when it is in the rush of the season.

Second. We are trying to educate those who can, to buy their hat early and avoid the Easter rush.

Third. This Spring, by the time the millinery season is in full sway, all stores may have a very hard time to get the goods.

Fourth. If you buy your hat early, you will get your choice of the cream. You will get better materials, and you will get more wear from your hat.

Come and choose at your earliest convenience.

Special Sale of Woolen Cap and Scarf Sets, Separate Caps and Shoulder Throws

The very low prices mentioned here below are unusual, and especially at this time of the year when goods of this kinds are so much in demand.

BUCKELL TO CLOSE THREE WEEKS EARLY

ACTION TAKEN AT FACULTY MEETING SATURDAY.

ALL VACATIONS AND HOLIDAYS ABANDONED

Date For Commencement Not Yet Determined.—There Will Be No Additional Saturday Classes.

All vacations and holidays during the remainder of the school year at Bucknell will be omitted, and the university graduation exercises will be held the last of May instead of June 20th, the time originially fixed. This was decided at a meeting of the university faculty, held Saturday morning, at which Bucknell professors, after discussing the matter from all standpoints, decided that in view of present war economics which are being made everywhere, it would be the patriotic thing for the student body to do their bit in the great war by sacrificing a few days of vacation. This will not shorten the actual time spent in recitation and laboratory work and will add about three weeks to the summer vacation, which will help considerably to lessen the country-wide shortage in labor, as most of the students thus freed will spend part if not all of their spare time this summer in some useful employment. This will also mean a considerable saving to the University in fuel and will mean a saving to the student in various ways.

In addition to having classes on Washington's Birthday and Memorial Day, the usual week's vacation at the close of the Winter Term will be omitted and the Spring Term will begin immediately after examinations are over. The usual two hour exams at the end of each term have been shortened to one hour tests which will occur at the regular class hours on the last day of the term.

According to the new plan, the Winter Term will close about the 16th of March, instead of the 20th. The Spring Term will therefore open on the 17th instead of the 27th and the Commencement exercises will occur on the last of May instead of June 20 thus cutting about three weeks off the school year.

The proposition of continuing classes on Saturday was discussed, but owing to the fact that many of the engineering students have their Saturdays occupied with laboratory and shop work, this part of the plan was not adopted.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

A very important meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Wed. night at 7 o'clock in the living room of woman's college. Every member should be on hand.

There will be no Y. M. C. A. meeting this week due to Cap and Dagger play which is given Thursday night. Let us not forget the college religious service on Sunday morning, they are expressly for you.

COLLEGE GIRLS HOLD ANNUAL RECEPTION

EVENT TOOK PLACE AT WOMEN'S COLLEGE LAST FRIDAY NIGHT.

The young ladies of the Women's College held their annual College Girls' Reception on the night of February eighth, in the parlors of the College. True to precedent, the affair was one of the most delightful, fraught with the spirit of cordiality so characteristic of Bucknell functions, especially those given by the co-eds.

Since it is only just that we sacrifice a little here at home while our boys endure hardships "over there," the reception was not formal, as in previous years, but this change, tho serving to bring the world conflict, closer "home," did not in any way detract from the enjoyableness of the reception has been looked forward to for some time; in fact ever since the opening of the University last fall, the new class of men anxiously awaiting what the most talked of event on the calendar might have in store for them,—the other men having fond recollections of former occasions.

Just about the time that the big clock "on the hill" rang out eight o'clock, an innocent bystander might have seen the guests of the evening arriving, some singly, some in groups, cautiously picking their way over the icy pavements. After checking their hats and overcoats at the office, they passed upstairs to the parlors, where they were cordially greeted by the ladies in the receiving line. They found their partners for the evening and occupied the few minutes before the first promenade walking to and fro, getting better acquainted and exchanging greetings with the other merry makers.

Programs indicating the guest's partners for the twelve promenades of the evening were presented each one and shortly aftr the hour the

CAP AND DAGGER PLAY THIS WEEK

WILL BE STAGED AT ORPHEUM THURSDAY NIGHT.

TITLE, "THE WORLD AND HIS WIFE"

Cast Has Been at Work All Term Under the Coaching of Miss Edith Schillinger. Admission 25, 35 and 50 Cents.

Thursday evening at eight o'clock Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society will stage its annal Winter Term play, at the Orpheum Theatre. The title of the play is "The World and His Wife." The Society has spared no expense in its effort to give the student body and townspeople something out of the ordinary. A heavy royality is being paid on the play and since the first week of the term a cast of characters have been working under the direction of Miss Edith Schillinger.

The play consists of three acts and the scene is laid in the drawing room of a gentleman's home in Madrid. The story of the play is that of the ever-serviceable domestic triangle, the husband, the wife and the husband's man friend. To recite the play briefly, a wealthy, respected and happily married resident of Madrid, has had under his shelter for many months a young man, protecting him as much for his own sake as for that of his father, the latter having aided the protector in the past. Between the youth and his protector's wife exists a pure, perfectly natural friendship. From the idle, gossip-seeking city beyond the walls of the husband's wonderfully attractive house comes rumors of the inuendos of Madrid, a city refusing to believe in the purity of the relationship between the wife and the husband's man friend.

These rumors are brought into the house by the brother of the husband. Scoffed at at first, ultimately the poison works and the husband comes to believe the untruth. To avenge the slur cast on the wife, the youth, who has already left the house of his friend and protector, fights a duel with the slanderer and kills him, but not before the husband, fighting the same man, has been mortally wounded. From this point the complex situations are cleverly unraveled and the play has a unique ending which holds interest to the last minute. The play is decidely worth while as literature, as a play and as entertainment.

General admission tickets are on sale now for 25 cents and these tickets can be exchanged at the Orpheum box office for reserved seat tickets which are 35 and 50 cents. The usual fussing privileges will be extended.

LIEUT. MILLER A. JOHNSON WILL ADDRESS CHEMICALS.

On Friday afternoon the student body will have an opportunity to learn something of the training our men are being given in the concentration camps of the country and what means are being used to protect our boys from the deadly gases "over there."

The Chemical Engineering Society has arranged to have Lieutenant Miller A. Johnson, ex-'18, lecture on "Gas Defense in Modern Warfare." Lieut. Johnson will explain the construction of the American Gas Mask and demonstrate how it is used in trench warfare. Lieut. Johnson is one of the instructors in Gas Defense at Camp Meade, Maryland.

The lecture will be given in the Chemical Laboratory at 4.15 Friday. Everybody is invited.

MEDICALS.

The Medicals will meet tonight at 7 o'clock in the Biology Laboratory. William Morrison will speak on the Red Cross in France.

SERVICE FLAG

The movement that was started a number of weeks ago for the purchasing of a Service Flag and sending the Military "B" to the Bucknell men in France is meeting with excellent success, according to information given out by the committee. Most of the students have made their 25-cent contribution. Those who have not done so will greatly aid the committee by paying their representative as soon as possible. A report will be made by the committee next week.

REGISTRATION NOTICE.

Next Monday is the date that has been set for registration for the Spring term.

CLARKE, EX-'18, WRITES OF WORK IN FRANCE

GIVES GOOD DESCRIPTION OF WAR WORK IN LETTER TO PROF. LINDEMANN.

France.
January 8, 1918

Your letter of November thirtieth came to me only yesterday, after many and varied wanderings. It had been to an aviation parc and to two ambulance cantonments before it finally caught me.

We have moved so far and so often since December 1 that this same proceedure has held nearly all our mail. In the time mentioned, our section made a trip half way across France, after new ambulances and returned to the front.

When we first relieved a section of A. R. C. boys, we took over their cars, sixteen Fiats and several Fords. The cars were in bad condition when we took them, and tho' our real work for the first month at the Front was comparatively easy, yet all our driving was over bad roads, usually mudcovered to a depth of several inches. Consequently we soon came to need new ambulances and went to our base after them.

Every day now shows us the immense advantage of the Ford in our branch of service. They go places, and at speeds altogether unattainable with a larger, heavier car. Of course they have all the vagaries peculiar to the car, and all that, but on the whole they command respect, from ourselves and from the French authorities we serve, as well. The one golden fact, is the wonderful mileage we get on the French gasoline "Essence" they call it. This is really a very important thing, this gas proposition. There is such an enormous amount used that it has to be used as carefully as possible. Essence, indirectly, won the Battle of the Marne they say. It made possible the quick transportation of French troops to the point where they were needed by the camions, while the Boche marched their troops.

Our present sector is a very active one, and our work is hard. Practically all the roads are shelled off and on during the day and night—gas is an every day occurrence. The accuracy of the Boche artillery is marvelous—and yet they have every reason to know the country, having held it as recently as last August a year. The ground has every appearance of having been boiled and churned. One shell hole overlaps the next—whole forests have been destroyed until absolutely all that is left is a few black stumps and few of them. The destruction is unbelievable, and even if a vivid imaginer could see it, he misses the details which make the picture so awful. Here and there a bit of a shell torn uniform, or an axle of a cart sticking up out of the earth—and so on. As I say, one has to see it to realize what has happened. Up to this time about four cars are all that have shrapnel marks and aside from a few bruises, due to "eclats" set in motion by exploding

BUCKNELL MEN IN FRANCE WIN HONOR

FOUR MEMBERS OF B. U. UNIT DECORATED.

AWARDED CROSS OF HONOR BY PRES. POINCAIRE

Are the First Bucknellians and Among the First Americans to Be Decorated For Acts of Bravery.

PARIS, FEB. 5.—Excellent work has been done recently by the U. S. Army Ambulance according to reports made by French Officers under which the men have been serving. Lieutenant H. L. Bibby, Corporal Leroy G. Clark, Mechanic H. A. Dolda and John B. Vanderbilt of Section 525, all have been decorated with the War Cross.

This dispatch was received as a Special News Item by a Pittsburgh daily from its correspondent behind the lines "over there." No statement of the services rendered was made in this semi-official report.

Previous reports of bravery in danger has been received concerning these men. Mr. Earle, of the Faculty last year, wrote that while "Dutch" Miller was in a dangerous and exposed position, he began to lose consciousness from a sudden gas assault seeing this, Vanderbilt placed Miller's gas mask in position and saved Miller.

President Poincaire, the French President, decorated these four Bucknell heroes with the War Cross of Honor. As far as present evidence would show, they were the first of the Ambulance Corps to receive attention of this kind, and among the very vanguard of the American legion of honor. The fact that the four men are members of the first Bucknell Unit and have distinguished themselves by conspicious bravery upon the field of battle, reflects to a measure the honor upon their Alma Mater.

Two of these men were in school only last year and enlisted when the units were recruited here last May. Clark, a Junior last year, was very popular. His work in the stringed orchestra alone made him popular with the student body. Vanderbilt would have been a Sophomore this year, had he not entered the army. He was the fellow who had to stand on his toes in order to be tall enough to be accepted for service. Both men were members of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

Bucknell should take some action in the formal recognition of the services of these men and the honor accorded the University by those services. The Military "B" will be given to all men in service, but when men deserve especial mention for meritorious services from an allied government, surely Bucknell too should take steps to grant additional recognition to them. Whatever the form of this attention should be, whether resolutions by the Faculty and student body, an insignia, different from that conferred upon other men in service, or merely placing their names at the head of a Roll of Honor for names of men receiving special honors, is a matter for the decision of Senior Council, the Faculty or some committee to be appointed to decide the matter.

SOPH. ORATORY

On account of a misunderstanding concerning the conditions of competition in the Sophomore contest in Oratory the terms are hereby stated: A separate prize is given for women; a separate prize is given for men; original productions are not required; women may present selections of any type; men are restricted to selections of an oratorical type. Any Sophomore may become a contestant.

North American Students Mobolizing For Christian World Democracy

In co-operation with all the colleges of the country under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. the Bucknell students will undertake a new campaign. This campaign is described in the following words:

is the largest contribution of money ever made by students and faculties of the United States for any cause. The original goal of one million dollars for the relief of prisioners of war, for the men in the armies and for women in war zones served by the two Christian Associations was largely over-subscribed. Such a sacrificial offering in which students of the entire nation shared afforded the opportunity for fellowship with those to whom the war has brought suffering and disaster. It created a new consciousness of the needs of the world.

At the Student Volunteer Conference at East Northfield, January 3d to 6th, the students, professors and leaders of the Church present faced with courage and faith their responsibility. They were led to a united conviction that the program of Jesus Christ offers the only real hope in the present world catastrophe and the only solution of all international problems.

In view of this united conviction, the following program was accepted:

1. Two hundred thousand students enlisted in study and discussion of Christian principles based on:

(a) The life and teaching of Jesus Christ.

(b) The need of these principles in the world today.

(c) The need of these principles in the inter-racial and social life of North America.

2. A call to decision for Christ and His service at whatever cost—on the campus, in the nation, in the world.

The method of conducting the campaign at Bucknell will be as follows: The Gospel of Mark will be used as a basis for the teachings of Jesus. Each week a section of the gospel will be discussed in the College Religious Service under the general topic "Democracy and the Teachings of Jesus." The substance of this address will be published each week in The Bucknellian, together with the references in the Gospel of Mark on which the addresses will be based. Each student will be requested to read each week the material in the Bucknellian and the passage on which the material is based. He will also be requested to discuss the topic with his fellow students. Besides, each student will be urged to attend the College Religious Service.

Yesterday the introductory address was based on "The Temptation of Jesus." The topic was "Shall Force Rule." The address was as follows:

The present struggle has brought out the hidden power of the nations; it has like a great crisis, brought out those traits of character that are peculiar to the different divisions of the human race. The quiet, subdued life of the Orient contrasts more strongly now with the restless life of the Occident. The steady movement of the modern German toward a goal contrasts more strongly now with the somewhat desultory movement of the English toward a generous contentment. As we survey these secret powers which only a world tragedy can reveal, we cannot but ask "what shall rule the world and how shall the rule be established?"

Germany's answer to this question is that force will rule the world. Germany believes that the advancement of one group is to be made at the expense of another group and she aims to establish her rule by that method through nations, that method three which nations even modern nations, have acquiesced territory. Her belief can be briefly stated in the words of Kellog, a halogist, "That human group which is in the most advanced evolutionary stage as regards internal organization and form of social relationship is best, and should, for the sake of the species, be preserved at the expense of the less advanced, the less effective." When a nation accepts this as its creed it soon becomes convinced that it is chosen of God to carry out its purposes as the German people of today are.

It was into such a world as this that Jesus was born, a world dominated by this conception of power and government. His people believed that they were commissioned to conquer and rule the world. Jesus before entering on His public career concluded that He was to be God's representative to His people, and with this conviction came the question how he should go about His work. Should He follow the methods of the world? Should He group the the kingdoms of the world and their glory, or should He give a new interpretation to power, rulership and dominion?

These are the questions that presented themselves in the temptations, when at the beginning of his career He thonught of His mission to the world. In the words "thou shalt worship the Lord Thy God and Him only shalt thou worship," He turned the enticements of force aside and chose the dominion and method of securing dominion for which He stands in history and which we now call democracy.

orchestra broke into the strains of the opening number. Various cozy corners and other convenient points were quickly occupied by the couples who cared to, while some promenaded in and about the spacious rooms tastefully decorated with draperies and flowers.

At ten o'clock the gay promenaders made their way to the dining room below where refreshments in the form of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. After partaking of these they returned to the parlors and continued their promenading until the stroke of twelve, at which time the melody of "Home, Sweet Home" brought the gala night to a close,—all too soon, in the opinion of the guests. After expressing their appreciations, the guests passed downstairs and out into the night, where a snow flurry which has accompanied every College Girls' Reception for a number of years fell about them as they slowly wended their way back to their rooms.

shells we are unhit. It has been remarkable, for we have had nearly a month of it now. No one will be sorry when we leave either.

I was very much interested in what you wrote of the past summer you spent at the A. C. and F. plant in Milton. The fellows all knew about it through newspaper clippings and other ways and it made every one of us proud, I can assure you. We, too, had something to boast of to other sections.

When I was in the States I often regretted that I was not in the Engineers. But when I compare their work with ours, I find that I prefer to stay where I am. A French machine gunner gave me this classification from the point of danger: First, the men in the first lines, under both rifle, grenade and shell fire; then the men in aviation, then light artillery, which operates within half a mile bach of the lines, then the ambulance work. So I feel as if, after all, I am doing something real—and not in an "embrusque" job as was my first idea after I arrived over here.

BINGHAM, HUMORIST, PLEASES AUDIENCE

STUDENTS AND TOWNSPEOPLE ENJOY THIRD NUMBER OF LYCEUM COURSE.

The third number of the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum Course took place on Monday night in the Lutheran church. Ralph Bingham, one of America's foremost platform humorist, was the entertainer and he kept the large audience in a merry mood for two hours.

The humorist commenced his performance with numerous witticisms followed by an original production, "Bill Johnson and his one tune." He illustrated the cleverness of one man with one tune by turning the same song into a waltz, wedding march, prelude, funeral march and ragtime. He also rendered three selections on the violin with considerable tequnique and style.

One of Mr. Bingham's accomplishments is making records for the Victor Talking Machine Co. He gave the original of one of his records Monday evening. He also gave a selection from James Whitcombe Riley and concluded his program with a very humorous piece entitled "How Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Jones went to the Nigger's Picnic." At the close he spoke very highly of the two remaining numbers of the course, Mr. Frederich Poole, February 28, and Dr. George H. Bradford, March 19.

At Lafayette an inter-fraternity basketball league has been formed which will play out a schedule of sixty games.

HARD GAMES FOR VARSITY THIS WEEK

WILL MEET USAACS, LAFAYETTE AND CARNEGIE TECH.

With only seven or eight games remaining on the schedule, Coach Musser has been putting the basketball quintet through rigid practice in preparation for the three largest games of the season this week. All last week with no games on the program, daily practice was possible and the regular five had especially severe practice in preparation for this week.

Bell and Elliott as usual kept in trim at guard position and Mathieson and Townsend used their ability in the formard positions, with Gerhart at center. Lees is alternating at center and Dorris is the third man to work out as extra forward. These men Coach Musser has been working to their full power all week and they are in excellent condition for the first of the three games this week, which takes place at Allentown tonight with Usaacs.

On Tuesday night the Orange and Blue will meet Lafayette at Easton and the last game of the strenuous week will he played on the home floor with Carnegie Tech's strong five. The first and last of the games are with the best of teams that play basketball and Bucknell will have two chances to rate the ability of the local team. The Lafayette team is a fast one but does not have the reputation of the other two. The game here with Carnegie will be by far the best that has been played on the local floor in several seasons, and a victory by the Orange and Blue will mean one of the biggest feathers ever won in the basketball department .

A few weeks ago Sec. Heim called together a representative group of freshmen men and formulated a junior cabinet. This is an entirely new movement but we feel sure that the good that will come out of it cannot be overestimated. The bigness of Y. M. C. A. work was explained and a great deal of enthusiasm prevailed among the new workers. They will meet next Wed. night from 8:30 to 9:30 at the Y. M. C. A. office for an hour of study. A. E. Harris was elected president and B. G. Clair, sec. The cabinet consists of the following men of 1921, S. W. Sutton. Hobart Brown, D. H. Stewartson, J. B. Hutchison, D. H. Evans, Clarence Key, P. P. Hartz, W. Edwards, A. E. Harris, V. G. Clair.

ERROR

An omission was made in last week's issue of The Bucknellian relative to the announcement of the program given at Y. M. .C. A. meeting Thursday night. M. E. Musser gave a very excellent and hehpful address on the subject "Values and Danger Points in Athletics." H. G. Miles gave a talk on the subject, "What I Would Do If I Were a Freshman Again."

LOST.—A diamond ring has been lost by one of the students. Reward if returned to the Lewisburg Journal office.

Here Comes the First Sprinkling of New Spring Millinery

While the Spring styles are all set, and most the shapes are now made up for this Spring's season, you are safe in considering your new Spring hat early, and there are a number of good reasons why you should.

First. Our early prices are always considerably lower than when it is in the rush of the season.

Second. We are trying to educate those who can, to buy their hat early and avoid the Easter rush.

Third. This Spring, by the time the millinery season is in full sway, all stores may have a very hard time to get the goods.

Fourth. If you buy your hat early, you will get your choice of the cream. You will get better materials, and you will get more wear from your hat.

Come and choose at your earliest convenience.

Orange and Blue Defeats Carnegie Tech. Five

DOWN PLAID TOSSERS 45-32 IN BRILLIANT GAME

LOSE ON TRIP TO USAACS AND LAFAYETTE

Usaacs Win 40-24; Lafayette Winner by 49-31 Score.—Varsity Atones for Defeats by Spectacular Playing Against Tech.

Bucknell's 45-32 basketball victory over Carnegie Tech on Friday evening cannot be overestimated, and is the largest victory that has come to the Orange and Blue quintet in several seasons. The game throughout showed an advantage in team work by the Bucknell lads and a confidence as well as an ability to came back in the last few minutes of play and run away from the opponents.

The contest began with a bang and an accuracy in shooting by Carnegie that seented defeat for the Orange and Blue five. Almost over-confident of their ability, the visitors displayed a team work, passing and shooting that has outdone any seen in the last couple previous seasons on the local floor. A basket by Mathieson and a pretty one-hand shot by Gerhart at last aroused the home five, but Townsend and Mathieson were unable to get away from the close guarding and with the exception of two or three leads in the scoring, Carnegie managed to keep two points ahead of the game the greater part of the first period. Bucknell's passing and ability to break up the similar work of the opponents was all that kept the visitors from taking a long lead for their shooting was wonderfully accurate. Bell and Elliott had to put forth their best efforts to prevent scoring. Gerhart succeeded in getting the better of his man and tossed three baskets the first period in addition to all-round floor work. The half closed 23-21 in Carnegie's favor.

In the second period there was a lightning beginning with a battle for the lead in the score which Mathieson succeed in getting by two pretty tosses from near the center of the floor. Carnegie recovered and Doherty got loose for three baskets which looked bad for the Orange and Blue team. The visitors saw a chance for a long lead, playing their best floor work and passing of the evening, but Townsend and Mathieson found their pace and Bucknell caught up and passed with rapid scoring. From this time on Bucknell edged away and took a lead of ten points. In general throughout the entire second half Bucknell had the advantage for Carnegie got only two baskets against 11 by the home team.

Carnegie		Bucknell
Doherty	forward	Mathieson
Lynn	forward	Townsend
Gretzler	center	Gerhart
Koefed	guard	Bell
Cosgrove	guard	Elliott

Goals—Doherty 6, Lynn 2, Cosgrove 3, Mathieson 7, Gerhart 6, Townsend 5, Elliott. Fouls—Doherty 10 out of 18, Townsend 7 out of 21. Substitution, Hobar for Lynn. Referee, Jackson.

USAACS GAME

The two defeats earlier in the week by the Orange and Blue are no discredit to the team for Lafayette and Usaacs are represented by the best fives in this section of the country. The Usaacs defeat of 40-24 was at the hands of a team of the cream of college basketball men. All were over six feet in height and had the advantage when it came to recovering the ball.

With the aid of Bell and Townsend Bucknell took the lead at the opening period and held it for some time, but the soldier lads played the ball over the heads of the Orange and Blue team and pulled ahead for a slight lead. The entire Orange and Blue five played hard and won the favor from the large number of spectators. Usaacs were pushed closely both in the scoring and team work the entire first period, the score ending 20-17 against Bucknell. In the last period Mathieson injured his leg soon after starting and Dorris was substituted. Bucknell was forced to take the defensive and played hard at guard work and breaking up the passing.

The summary:

JUNIATA WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday evening the Varsity quintet will meet the fast Juniata five on the home floor. The Varsity has defeated the Juniata boys on their home floor by a narrow margin. They will be here for revenge and a fast game is expected.

MEDICALS MEET

The Medical Society held a meeting last Monday evening in the Biology Lab. After a short business meeting two papers were read. The first, by S. Dale Spotts, was a history of the Red Cross. Wm. H. Morrison then read a paner on the present work of the Red Cross. When he finished the papers were opened for discussion. Prof. Stewart gave a short talk which showed his interest in the society. Both papers given showed much preparation and were thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Watch the bulletin board for notice of the next meeting.

SENIOR INVITATION COM.

The Senior invitation committee announced includes the following members: Chairman, Carlyle Mason, Northrop. Harris, Elizabeth Phillips, Hazel Gay.

BASEBALL MEN BEGIN ACTIVITIES

HELD FIRST MEETING IN GYM SATURDAY TO DETERMINE PROSPECTS.

Last Saturday afternoon the baseball men met in the gymnasium. The meeting was held for the purpose of getting a line on the material for the coming season. About thirty-five men responded to the first call and some who are known to have considerable baseball ability were not out. There were many who signed up as candidates for the most important positions. The most doubtful point was the pitching staff; there were ten men signed up for this position.

Most of the men who were on the team last year have been lost through graduation or enlistment. There is, however, much ability in the school, but whether there is enough to make a Varsity team worth while is yet to be decided by the board.

Nearly all of the colleges throughout the east, tho many had decided last year to drop baseball, have decided to have teams and are already at work upon schedules.

All those who have baseball ability and have not yet signed up as a candidate should do so at the gymnasium today or tomorrow.

Bucknell's Honor Roll Is Rapidly Increasing

TOTAL NUMBER OF B. U. MEN IN SERVICE IS 252.

FORTY NAMES ADDED TO ROLL OF HONOR

165 Have Gone to Colors From Last Year's Student Body.—Many Are Officers.—Alumni Hold Positions of High Rank.

On the last honor roll that was published in The Bucknellian there appeared the names of one hundred and twenty-five Bucknell men. All these were men that were in school last year. Since that time forty men who were members of the University last year have gone to the colors. This makes a total of one hundred and sixty-five men from last year's student body now serving in the army in France or in the training camps in America.

Besides these there are eighty-seven alumni in the service. That is, eighty-seven of the Bucknell men in the service who graduated in the year of 1916 or before have been heard from. There are beyond a doubt many more of the older Bucknell men from whom no word has been received. Taking the number of alumni who are in the service at 87 Bucknell's honor roll now stands at 252. If all the alumni and perhaps a few of the undergraduates were heard from the honor roll would take much greater porportions.

The Bucknell men that have joined the forces of Uncle Sam are winning their share of glory for themselves and for their Alma Mater. A large percentage of the boys have received or are soon to receive commissiond offices. Some are in France winning war crosses for acts of bravery. Not only are the Bucknell men in France being praised for bravery but are highly commended on the good feeling that exists within the units. It is said that in the Bucknell units there is none of the friction that exists in so many of the college ambulance units.

The alumni of Bucknell, too, are well represented in the ranks of Uncle Sam's armies. General Bliss, of the class of 1873, is with General Pershing in France and is of equal rank with the latter, already becoming famous in the war. Captain Geo. Shorkley, of the class of 1892, is captain of the 161st Regiment of the famous rainbow division. Besides these there are many other positions of rank held by Bucknell men; enough that Bucknell can feel justly proud of the part that she is playing in the fight for democracy.

The following is an addition to the honor roll published October 8. It covers the men in the classes up to and including the class of 1917.

"Jesus and Democracy" Topic at College Religious Service

Scripture Lessons: Mark 2:13-17; Matthew 9:9-18; 11:28-30; Luke 15: 1-30; 18: 9-14; 19:1-10.

Yesterday morning Dr. Phillips gave the second of the series of addresses on Democracy And the Teachings of Jesus. The subject of yesterday's address was, "Jesus and Democracy." The substance of the address is as follows:

When in the Temptation Jesus rejected the rule of force, He accepted the principle of self-determination. For soon after on beginning His work of winning the rulership of the world. He invited His desciples to be with Him and to share His work.

Since democracy is a society in which each member is allowed to reach his own level according to his capacity for service, since Jewish society was one in which the free movement of each person was hindered by a religious exclusiveness and a system of ceremonies and ritualism, Jesus at the outset had to face the first problem of democracy; namely, class disinction.

The Jews objected to free association with the publicans and sinners. The first, the publicans, the Jews excluded from religious privileges, because, being tariff collectors they exacted money from the Jews who believed that they should pay no taxes to the government. The second, the sinners, the Jews created out of those people who refused to conform to the excessive legal requiremnts of the synogogue. Together the publicans and the sinners were the unchurched class. The Jews also spoke of them as lost because they were outside of the existing religious organizations.

Jesus in His attitude proved Himself a genuine democrat. Ignoring Jewish exclusiveness He became a physicin to those who needed His service; rejecting religious ceremony, He exercised mercy, brotherly kindness, recognizing their discontent and despair He invited them to learn of Him. He opened the door of opportunity.

Jesus' democracy means among students conduct based on insight into a fellow-student's capacity. It means in America opportunity for education according to capacity. It means internationally in President Wilson's words: "What we demand in this war is nothing peculiar to ourselves."

Discussion: The relation of the members of a group to those who are not members.

BAND MEN OUT!

Members of the Bucknell Musical Band are requested to turn out in full force for the game on Wednesday evening.

PROM. COMMITTEE NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the Junior Prom committee Wednesday at 6.30 P. M. at the Kappa Sigma House.

HATS OFF!

Last year there was called to the attention of the student body through these columns a practice among the fellows on the "Hill" which subjected them to adverse criticism by men from other schools. The article at that time was called forth because of such criticism being offered on the spot. The practice at which this article is directed is the wearing of hats by the fellows while escorting young ladies across the basketball court of the gymnasium to the reserved seats at the east end. The sight of freshmen wearing their caps while crossing the floor with young ladies has been very much in evidence. Surely Bucknell men are just as courteous and considerate as any that are. This is not aimed as an attack in that direction. Just a little reminder lest we forget. Let the upperclassmen train the freshmen in the way he should be brought up and in his older and riper age he will not depart from it.

Our attention is being called almost daily to the fires that are being lighted in the halls of East College. Of course this has been going on in the halls for a number of years without any serious situations arising, but of late there seems to be an increase in the number and size of the fires. It may appear to some that calling attention to the fact now is only the outburst of an alarmist, but when we see daily the number of great fires that are reported as happening in buildings of this nature it might be well to stop and consider. The seriousness of such fires is most generally due to the kind of weather we are having and the lack at times of a normal water pressure.

There is only one way to stop this practice. It is the duty of the Senior Council to see that these fires cease, if their policy is constructive and if they desire in any way to co-orepate with the school. It is a student affair and should accordingly be settled by the students.

COMMUNICATION

Mr. Editor:

I was very much interested in your article in the last issue of the Bucknellian asking for subscriptions to send The Bucknellian to the boys in the service.

I can readily understand how eager they are for all the news, because I know how much I appreciate the paper out here in Colorado.

I am enclosing a check for a year's subscription which I hope you will send to some Bucknell man in the service of Uncle Sam.

Hoping that this may add its small share of enjoyment, I am,

Very truly yours,
LILLIAN E. DUFF,

Goals—Haaven 7, Rowe 5, Adams, 6, Jester, Mathieson, Townsend 6, Gerhart, Bell, Elliott. Fouls—Adams 2 out of 16, Townsend 4 out of 14. Substitutions Dorris for Mathieson, Cramer for Eldrigde.

LAFAYETTE GAME.

At Lafayette on Tuesday the game was staged on a poor floor and Mathieson's absence from the game was felt in the 49-31 defeat. The entire first period was nip and tuck playing with Bucknell in the lead until the last two minutes of play. The Orange and Blue work on the floor in passing and guarding was especially strong and the score stood 18-16 in the favor of Lafayette at the close of the first half. Anderson was the strong man for Lafayette and a wizard in foul shooting, missin one out of 18. It is due largely to his work that Lafayette won out. Bucknell took seven baskets to Lafayette's six in the first half, but lost out in foul shooting.

In the last period the team missed most the work of Mathieson, but the team fought through the entire contest and again showed up in defensive floor work. Lafayette had an especially fast team and the defeat is one not to be felt as a serious one. The summary:

Lafayette	Bucknell
Anderson ..... forward	Townsend
Keating ..... forward	Dorris
Miller ..... center	Gerhart
Bobbe ..... guard	Bell
King ..... guard	Elliott

Goals—Anderson 6, Keating 5, Miller, Bobbe, King 3, Townsend 7, Dorris 2, Gerhart 2, Bell. Fouls—Anderson 17 out of 18; Baney 0 out of 1; Townsend 1 out of 7, Dorris 6 out of 20. Substitutions, Baney for Anderson.

LIEUT. MILLER A. JOHNSON ADRESSES CHEMICALS

Friday afternoon Lieut. Miller A. Johnson, ex-'18, gave a very interesting address on "Gas Defense in Modern Warfare."

Lieut. Johnson is an instructor in the use of gas masks at Camp Meade, Md., and gave his audience the advantage of his knowledge gained through this position. He demonstrated the American gas masks and pointed out how great a part it plays in modern warfare. The Central Powers are now loading 68 per cent. of their shells with deadly gases, as well as shrapnel. The most common of these gases are phosphine, chlorine, and what is known among the troops as "mustard gas." The latter is an organic compound and perhaps the most dreaded of gases.

Lieut. Johnson is the first of a number of men the Chemical Engineering Society has planned to bring here during the year.

THE RELATION OF THE COLLEGE MAN TO THE WAR
COLLEGE MAN HAS A GREAT RESPONSIBILITY SAYS U. S. ATTY. GENERAL.
By T. W. Gregory
Atty. General of the United States.

The relationship of the college man to the war is almost sui generis. It has a great point of vantage and a great responsibility.

Fresh from the study of the course and the instances of history, the college man should be able to look through the words and acts with which men and nations sometimes seek to disguise their real motives and purposes and to see in all their nakedness the true and real objects at which ambitious dynasties and nations aim. After all, the elemental passions of greed and avarice which drove the Persian to his ruin at Thermopylae are identical with those which have influenced dynasties since that time. Taught to detect all these in the actions of men and nations in the past, observant of the inexorable rules of cause and effect which have always heretofore and will always in the hereafter operate while man is man, he should have no illusions as to the great forces which have plunged and are holding the world in their terrific grip.

But this is not all. The college man is fresh from his studies of the great principles of ethics and philosophy which thus far have guided the world in its march toward a perfect civilization. As he knows the mainspring of human greed and avarice, so is he familiar with the sources of human right, justice and liberty which have preserved and protected mankind. He should understand and recognize the forces which make for the destruction of these principles, however they may be disguised. To him the alleged beneficent elements of Prussianism are the thinnest veneer over hideous principles destructive of all the good that man has during the centuries wrung from the hands of cruelty and oppression.

Possessed of this knowledge and of the intuition and inspiration of youth which gives him the right and the power to see the truth as it is, the college man has a large part of the responsibility of seeing that truth prevails. He will do but half his duty, will meet but half his responsibility, if he merely offers his own life for his country. He must, in addition to and beyond this, see to it that those of us whose vision has been dimmed by contact with rough realities of life, share with him his wisdom, his intuition and his inspiration, that we, also, where necessary, shall be likewise willing to give our lives for truth, liberty and justice, to the end that the world shall be saved for a free humanity.

(From the patriotic news service, national committee of patriotic societies, Washington, D. C.)

The Honor System in elective subjects is now the issue before the student body of the City College of New York. A referendum is being submitted to the members of the upper classes.. . .

CAP AND DAGGER PLAY IS WELL RECEIVED

"THE WORLD AND HIS WIFE" PROVES SUCCESS. ORPHEUM CROWDED.

The presentation of "The World and His Wife" Thursday evening under the management of Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society was a complete success and the general consensus of opinion is that the production was probably the best given by the Society in the past few years.

The cast was perfectly balanced and each character depicted his or her part in a manner which showed much careful training and in most cases dramatic ability far beyond the ordinary.

Louis Sipley, the leading man, playing as Don Julian, a wealthy Spanish gentleman, interpreted his part in an excellent manner and received favorable comment for his work. Miss Grace Good, as Don Teodora, the leading lady, pleased the audience by her clever work. Chester Leaber, as Don Ernesto is, deserving of much praise for the dramatic ability which he displayed in rendering his part. His work was of the highest order.

The Orephum was crowded to capacity on the occasion. The S. A. E. orchestra furnished music between the acts.

Here Comes the First Sprinkling of New Spring Millinery

While the Spring styles are all set, and most the shapes are now made up for this Spring's season, you are safe in considering your new Spring hat early, and there are a number of good reasons why you should.

First. Our early prices are always considerably lower than when it is in the rush of the season.

Second. We are trying to educate those who can, to buy their hat early and avoid the Easter rush.

Third. This Spring, by the time the millinery season is in full sway, all stores may have a very hard time to get the goods.

Fourth. If you buy your hat early, you will get your choice of the cream. You will get better materials, and you will get more wear from your hat.

Come and choose at your earliest convenience.

VARSITY LANDS TWO MORE VICTORIES

INDIANS LOSE TO ORANGE AND BLUE FIVE 39-29.

JUNIATA QUINTET IS EASILY DEFEATED

Varsity Raises Its Total Number of Victories to Eight.—Team Has Won All Games Played on Home Floor.

The Orange and Blue quintet added two more victories to its list last week by defeating Juniata on the home floor Wednesday evening by a score of 54-37. On Friday the fast Indian team was defeated at Carlisle by a 39-29 score. The team has not lost a game on the home floor this season and with only one more game remaining to be played here the prospects are bright for a clean record of home games.

Juniata Game.

The game on Wednesday evening was rather loosely played yet at different times Juniata showed a bit of real basketball. The Orange and Blue five, however, kept right with them and at no time was the game in doubt. After the first few minutes of play Bucknell took the lead and at the end of the first half led by eight points.

The second half was a repetition of the first with spurts of real play by each team. In the last few minutes of the game an entire scrub team was sent in for the Varsity and they were able to keep a safe lead on the visiting team.

For Bucknell Townsend and Mathieson did the best scoring, having little trouble in locating the basket. Gerhart played a good game at center and Bell and Elliott at guard kept the visitors' forwards well under control.

For the visitors Oller was the best scorer, getting four goals and seventeen out of twenty-one tries from the foul line.

The game was not uninteresting and was a bit amusing at times.

The final score was 54-37. The summary:

Juniata		Bucknell
Fowler	forward	Townsend
Oller	forward	Mathieson
Griffith	center	Gerhart
Howe	guard	Bell
Wright	guard	Elliott

Goals—Bucknell: Townsend 10, Matheison 6, Gerhart 3, Bell 2, Dorris 1, Juniata: Fowler 3, Aller 4, Griffith 2. Wright 1. Fouls—Bucknell Townsend 10 out of 15. Dorris 0 out of 2. Juniata Oller 17 out of 21 Substitutions, Bucknell Dorris for Gerhart, Hollern for Mathieson, Lees for Bell, Lewis for Townsend, Nogel for Elliott. Referee Jackson.

Indian Game.

On Friday evening the Varsity met the fast Indian team at Carlisle and carried off a 39-29 victory. The game was warmly contestet and very exciting; so exciting in fact that at times it was impossible for the players to hear the referee's whistle on account of the cheering of the big crowd.

In the first half the Indians took the lead for a short time but a lively spurt by the Orange and Blue boys near the close of the period gave them a 20-13 advantage when the first half was over.

At the beginning of the second half the Indians came back strong and almost recovered the lead, but again near the middle of this period the Varsity started working in machine-like order and established a safe lead.

All through the game the Orange and Blue team work was of the highest order and the passing was almost pefect. The excellent guarding of Bell and Elliott was to a great extent responsible for the victory. The summary:

Bucknell		Indians
Mathieson	forward	Metoxin
Townsend	forward	Large
Gerhart	center	Leroy
Bell	guard	Herman
Elliott	guard	Vigil

EXAMINATIONS TO BE HELD MARCH 18 AND 19

JUNE 4 IS THE DAY SET FOR THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

It was announced this morning by President Harris that the examinations for the winter term will take place on March 18 and 19. Each examination will last about one hour and a half. The classes reciting at 8.15, 10.15, 1.15 and 3.15 will have their examination at the regular hour on March 18. The classes reciting at 9.15, 11.15, and 2.15 will have their examinations at 8.15, 10.15 and 1.15 respectively on March 19. By this method of extending the examinations over a period of two days, a day and a half is saved.

March 21 is the date set for the opening of the spring term. Examinations for the spring term will be held on May 30 and 31. Commencemet day will come on June 4.

This plan will shorten the term two weeks and one day and not three weeks as was formerly announced. however, it will make no change in the amount of time spent in class. The shortening of the term will in no way detract from the regular commencement week exercises. According to Dr. Harris the commencement exercises will be emphasized just as much this year as in former years.

CAP AND DAGGER

All men who handed in their names for admision to Cap and Dagger should report to Eupia at 7 o'clock Wednesday night. It is very important that every man should be present because an outline of the work which will be necessary for the tryouts will be given.

MISSION STUDENTS MEET AT BETHLEHEM

MISS AGNES GILMORE NAMED PRESIDENT AT A CONFERENCE

The twelfth annual students missionary conference was held last week at Bethlehem, Pa. At this conference Miss Agnes Gilmore, '19, was elected president. There were representatives from all the colleges of the east at the conference. They were the guests of the Moravian College and Theological Seminary. There were more than 250 delegates there for a three-day session.

There were many prominent speakers at the meetings including Dr. J. L. Murray, secretary of the student volunteer movement; W. B. Anderson, secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the United Presbyterian church; James Yek, a Chinese student of Princeton; Rev. Kedemar, of Lancaster, Robert P. Wilder, of the National War Work Council; Rev. Geo. T. Scott, of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions; S. G. Inman, secretary of the committee in co-operation in Latin America and Dr. H. L. Kumm, an African explorer.

LYCEUM COURSE GIVES LAST NUMBER

FINAL ENTERTAINMENT TO BE GIVEN IN LUTHERAN CHURCH

FREDERICK POOLE TO BE HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

Will Present "Scenes from the First Act of the Yellow Jacket."—Entertainment Begins at Eight O'clock.

On Thursday evening, February 28, at eight o'clock the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum Course presents its last number of the year when Frederick Poole will be here. The entertainmnt will take place in the Lutheran church.

FREDERICK POOLE.

The Chinese ambassador to Great Britain after witnessing the production of "The Yellow Jacket" in London was asked by an incredulous critic whether the play was true to Chinese ideals. "So true," he replied, "that it made me homesick" "The Yellow Jacket" vividly illustrates the fact that human nature is the same the wide world over. Its powerful appeal to the human emotions, its tense and novel dramatic situations, the exquisite drollery of its dialogue, its easy humor, tender pathos and deep tragedy made an instantaneous impression in the leading metropolitan centers.

Mr. Frederick Poole presents "Scenes from the first act of 'The Yellow Jacket,'" by the kindly courtesy of Mr.

FREDERICK POOLE.

George C. Hazelton and Benrimo, the authors, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Coburn, sole owners of the dramatic rights.

For a dramatic reading of "Scenes from the first act of 'The Yellow Jacket'" Frederick Poole is unusually well equipped. By reason of his many years of travel in and close study of the "flowery land" he is enabled to invest this epic making modern classic with the true Chinese atmosphere.

Mr. Poole's is the extraordinarily rare power of making popular a classical recitnl. His descriptions of Chinese characteristics, Chinese manners, Chinese morals, the Chinese mind, are both highly humorous and deeply pathetic. A lengthy experience before the public has given him perfect control of his powerful voice, and even in the more quiet moments of the play he can be readily understood in the largest auditoriums.

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

Monday, March 18.

8.15 classes reciting at 8.15.
10.15 classes reciting at 10.15.
1.15 classes reciting at 1.15.
3.15 classes reciting at 3.15.

Tuesday, March 19.

8.15 classes reciting at 9.15.
10.15 classes reciting at 11.15.
1.15 classes reciting at 2.15.
Minors at 8.15 March 11.

After a lay off of seven years Carlisle will resume baseball this Spring. The Indians will be coached by Eugene Hanks.

VARSITY PLAYS TWO GAMES THIS WEEK—BOTH ON FOREIGN FLOORS

The Orange and Blue basketball team has two games on its schedule for the coming week. Both games will be played on foreign floors, one with Mt. St. Mary's on Wednesday evening and the other with Gettysburg on Thursday evening. The team is in the best of condition for these two hard games and it is very likely that a victory will result from both contests. After the games of this week only one more game remains on the varsity schedule. This will be played with the Indians sometime next week on the home floor. With this contest the team will in all probability wind up a clean record of home games.

FLORENCE M. HESLET MEETS UNTIMELY DEATH

DIED AT MILTON LAST WEEK. WAS A STUDENT HERE LAST TERM.

The news that Miss Florence Mae Heslet had died Wednesday, Feb. 20, reached Bucknell as a sprprise and a shock. To many she was much of a stranger, for she was enrolled in the University for but one term. Living in Milton and being a day student, she did not come into contact with many of the resident students during her enrollment last term. Those with whom she was acquainted, she impressed as an earnest student of refinement. Quiet and inoffensive, she won the esteem of her friends by her air of earnest efficiency.

Miss Heslet was graduated from the Milton High School with the class of 1917. She lived with her guardian, Mr. H. J. Walker, on Lower Market street, Milton. During the Fall Term of 1917-18, she attended Bucknell enrolled in the Latin Philosophical Course. In her out-of-school hours she was employed as a telephone operator at Watsontown. During this time, a weak throat became infected by tuberculosis. The disease strenghtened its hold upon her, until she, weakened by her long hours of nerve-racking work, was unable to withstand the strain. This term, instead of returning to Bucknell, she decided to devote her energies to overcoming her deadly affliction. Unable to obtain other adequate assistance she went to White Haven. Even there it was found that the germs had too thoroughly entrenched themselves to be easily removed and despite her heroic efforts at self-preservation, she succumbed at the age of nineteen years.

In her three months of attendance at Bucknell, she had gained a reputation as an exceptional student. Her literary ability attracted attention. The finished style of her writing led to the information that she had been a contributor to current magazines. The last issue of "The Bucknell Women's Journal" contained some rarely beautiful verse which was the product of her pen. In all, she was a student from whom much was expected. This makes her early death the more sad and it is the decease of one of this nature that the sense of loss is the more acutely felt.

SOPH. BANQUET TICKETS PLACED ON SALE

The final arrangements for the Sophomore banquet have been made. Hotel Graemar, Shamokin, will be the scene of the biggest event in the Sophomore year. Twelve persons have been selected to speak on topics as interesting as they are varied. Wm. H. Morrison will act as toastmaster. The banquet will start at nine sharply. Through the courtesy of the hotel management, the fellows may remain in the hotel until the early morning train. Tickets may be secured from any of the following: Kitlowski, Smith, Kolb, Gibbs, Freeble, Shea, Hooven, Wagner, Nancarrow and Sherk.

THIRD OF SERIES OF ADDRESSES GIVEN

DR. PHILLIPS TAKES ANOTHER PHASE OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRACY.

DEMOCRACY AND INSTITUTIONS TOPIC DISCUSSED

Scripture Lessons: Mark 2:18-22; Matthew 6: 16-18.

Yesterday morning Dr. Phillips gave at the College Religious Service the third of the series of addresses on Democracy And the Teachings of Jesus. He discussed "Democracy and Institutions." The substance of the address follows:

Three forms of government are before us; Bolshevism which annuls all institutions, turning courts of law into town-meetings; autocracy which controls and systematizes all activity by institutions determined by one class and submitted to by another; democracy which subordinates institutions to the free movement of men.

The Jews politically were a subject people and hence as long as they remained submissive and paid the Roman taxes they had no distinctly political questions. But being a kind of theocracy they had religious questions which in principle were political. As soon, therefore, as Jesus began to form his disciples into a group he was faced by the question of what attitude he and his disciples should assume toward existing institutions.

This question was raised first concerning the institution of fasting. In the problem before Jesus and his disciples there are five considerations: First. fasting as an institution was maintained and developed by a religious autocracy to which the people complacently submitted. Second, the institution like all the institutions of the Pharisees was efficient; it accomplished its purpose so well that the Pharisee became self-satisfied and distinguished from all the rest of men. Third, Jesus does not annul the institution nor forbid his disciples from observing it. Fourth, he insists that the institution shall not be an end in itself, but that it shall be a spontaneous expression of the disposition, the mood of man. Fifth, if an attempt is made to impose on man an institution incompatible with man's nature, the result will be disastrous to man and the institution.

This attitude of Jesus, not annuling an institution but demanding that it yield to man, is the attitude of democracy. For example. The Brooks' High License Law aims to regulate the liquor traffic. When then, to regulate according to the best knowledge requires withholding the license the spirit of democracy directs the judge to withold the license. Again, when combinations of trade established by law grew inimical to man the Supreme Court did not rule against all combinations, but ordered that they be "reasonable."

The issue in this war between autocracy and democracy is whether this care for human values which we demand of our own institutions shall prevail internationally. For hefore the war Germany's methods of competition, subsidized by the German government were in international trade "the same sorts we have tried to prevent within our own border" (President Wilson's address to the Federation of Labor.)

Yet we do not seek to impose our institutions on Germany. Rather since an absolute sovereignity, such as Germany has established, is incapable of acting internationally in such a way as to permit the free movement of great or small nations, we fight that Germany may so adjust her institutions as to allow each nation to work out its own destiny or in other words that Germany may furnish fresh wine-skins for the new wine of humanity.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1918.

It is with deep regret that we announce the departure of Hayes L. Person, assistant editor of The Bucknellian, for Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va. He has been called in the drafted army and will leave for camp next Wednesday.

Mr. Person has been officially connected with The Bucknellian since his first year in college and had he been allowed to complete his course here he would undoubtedly have rendered much more valuable service to the paper.

Through his connection with The Grit, of Williamsport, during summer vacations and before coming to college he had obtained considerable ability and with The Bucknellian proved himself a capable man whenever called upon.

We feel assured that he will prove himself as valuable a man in the army of Uncle Sam as he has proved to be with the Bucknellian.

COMMUNICATION

From time to time there is called to our attention, thru these columns and otherwise, the lamentable fact that articles of personal property frequently take "French leave" from the college dormitories.

In the hope that it may help to solve the problem, we would suggest that the number of masterkeys be reduced to those held by the university authorities. Masterkeys, when honestly used, have a large utility, but when employed by students to gain access to fellow students' rooms, their utility conflicts with an honest man's code of ethics. If you desire to borrow another man's "boiled" shirt or some of his cigarettes and luckily discover that he is out of his room, all you need do is to make your desire known to one of the keepers of the "key to all things great and small" and by a simple twist of the wrist you have everything coming your way. Enough said! Let's get rid of the masterkeys. Senior Council, do your duty!

A LETTER FROM FRANCE

Somewhere in France.
January 16, 1918.

I was pleased to get your letter containing the news of Bucknell. You cannot imagine how we prize a letter over here. Our mail, as I regret to say, is very long in coming but when it arrives it is worth very much to us.

We are very busy now but happy through it all. We thought it was hard back in camp drilling under the hot sun or hiking in the rain, but it was a picnic compared to this. We have been working under shell fire for some time now and the sooner it is over the better we will be pleased.

I often heard back there of the horrors of gas and now I believe every word of it. We come in contact with many gas attacks here. The other day while I was putting some wounded in my car at (censored) three shells broke just above us and there was a shower of shrapnel all around. In a few seconds we were in the midst of a cloud of gas. It was what we call "mustard gas;" it burns the eyes and nose and makes us sneeze terribly. I put on my gas mask and placed them on the five patients that I had in charge. We arrived at the hospital O. K.

Of course we do most of our work at night and without lights, as part of the road we travel is in sight of the German trenches. Some nights are very dark and we have to drive along and just feel our way. There is only one man, the driver, on each car and the nights are rather long and lonely when we are out.

I had an interesting conversation with a young French Corporal the other day. He told me of an attack that he had taken part in. He said they were standing in the trench while the artillery was sending out the barrage fire. When it was almost time for them to make the attack the band in one of the aubri's of the trench began to play La Marseilles, he said you should have seen the boys go "over the top" thrilled, crying and with a determination that nothing could stop they brought back victory. That shows what a man can do when he really realizes what is at stake.

All such little victories bring us joy but then we have the bad things to see, too. We see men with their limbs shot off, men on the verge of death and those who have given up their lives to the great cause.

We read the speech of President Wilson a few days ago and you can't imagine how proud we are to be able to say that we are Americans. His speech includes all that we are over here risking our lives for.

We hope to be back to tell you all about it in a short time. If anyone asks you what they can do for the boys over here, tell them to send tobacco or candy, as it is impossible to get it here.

FORMAL DANCE AT THE LEWISBURG CLUB

On Thursday evening a formal dance held by several of the fraternities took place in the Lewisburg Club. The dance proved to be one of the most pleasing affairs that has been held at Bucknell this season. Over fifty couples attended the dance. There were young ladies present from Philadelphia, Johnstown, Williamsport, Chambersburg and various parts of the state. The grand march started at 9 P. M., and dancing lasted until 5 A. M. Wright's Saxaphone Orchestra, of Columbus, O., furnished the dancers with music. War-time refreshments were served in the form of a buffet lunch. Part of the proceeds of the dance went to the Red Cross. The following acted as patronesses: Mrs. Lindemann, Mrs. Collins, Miss Blue, Mrs. Roy Butler and Mrs. H. E. Spyker.

DRILL NOTES

Ohlson's Army is fast developing into a bunch of husky young recruits that would discourgae the Kaiser at first glance. Calisthenics for a half hour or more, three times a week, is giving the militants a warlike build and shoulders, instead of slouching down, are assuming their intended positions of erectness. When a man walks along the street, with his chest thrown well forward and his shoulders drawn back, his head in perpendicular to the line of his body and a steady measured swing to his gait, people are attracted and he himself feels like a real young American instead of a blueblooded hunch-back. The regular and vigorous exercise which the volunteers are receiving in the Gym on Monday, and Thursday and Friday afternoons is responsible for this much desired change. If more would report for this drill, the improvement in appearance of the student body would at once be noticeable.

It is not only calisthenics but infantry drills, which complete the hour of training, are greatly contributing to the snap of movement which is characterizing the movement of the company. The regulation manual of arms has effectively taught the men how to handle the guns with ease and precision. The company can now execute the regulation maunal almost as well as a company of regulars.

Altho hampered by the cramped quarters of the Gym, the movements, preparatory to extended order drill are being given. As soon as the weather conditions permit, extended order drills will be staged on the Athletic Field. This kind of drill is by far, more interesting than the close order movements. It is expected that the drill in the open air will attract more students, than are now drilling. If a sufficient number of students report for the open air drills, and guns can be secured there is a possibility that an exhibition will be held on the Athletic Field during the latter part of the Spring Term. Plans for such an exhibition are by no means definite, nor can they be until the number of students in training next term will be kown. If the turnout is as large as expected, the only obstacle to such an exhibition will be the inability to get guns. These problems will work out by themselves, and as soon as definite plans can be laid, they will be announced.

PENN RELAYS APRIL 26 AND 27

Dr. George W. Orton, of Pennsylvania has isued his annual announcement which states that the twenty-fourth Interscholastic and Intercollegiate Relay Carnival of the University of Pensylvania, will be held on Friday and Saturday, April 26 and 27. The usual sectional championships, special events and relay races are found on the program. Pennsylvania, like all the other colleges, and universities, is strong for athletics, regardless of the war, and although the past star performers and specialists may have been taken away, the opportunity for athletic exercise for all, will no doubt bring to light new champions.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Dr. Katherine Mabie, a medical missionary from Africa, took us last week on a travelogue to the African jungle. She showed us the native people, their manner of life, their slavery to fetish and evil spirits. Two especially interesting features were the story of an old chief who thru a painful experience lost faith in his fetish and gained faith in the medical missionary, and the account of the fight against malaria by educating the native as to its real cause and securing his help in fighting the mosquito. Tomorrow the election of officers will be held.

D. T. U. PLEDGES ENTERTAIN

On Friday evening the pledges of Delta Theta Upsilon entertained the active chapter at an informal dance. The decoratios were of a patriotic nature and a clever red, white and blue lighting effect was carried out. The S. A. E. orchestra furnished the dancers with music. Mrs. R. M. Felton, Mrs. Collins and Miss Blue acted as patronesses.

GLEE CLUB ABANDONS TRIP

The long trip that had been planned by the Glee Club to be taken next term through the western part of the state and Ohio has been given up. The action was taken because of the shortening of the term. The trip also to State College will be called off.

Here Comes the First Sprinkling of New Spring Millinery

While the Spring styles are all set, and most the shapes are now made up for this Spring's season, you are safe in considering your new Spring hat early, and there are a number of good reasons why you should.

First. Our early prices are always considerably lower than when it is in the rush of the season.

Second. We are trying to educate those who can, to buy their hat early and avoid the Easter rush.

Third. This Spring, by the time the millinery season is in full sway, all stores may have a very hard time to get the goods.

Fourth. If you buy your hat early, you will get your choice of the cream. You will get better materials, and you will get more wear from your hat.

Come and choose at your earliest convenience.

Special Sale of Woolen Cap and Scarf Sets, Separate Caps and Shoulder Throws

The very low prices mentioned here below are unusual, and especially at this time of the year when goods of this kinds are so much in demand.

Musser's Missers Win From Gettysburg and Mt. St. Mary's

TEAM PUTS UP STIFF FIGHT IN BOTH CONTESTS

WIN FIVE OUT OF EIGHT GAMES ON FOREIGN FLOORS

Mt. St. Mary's Downed 31-23.—Defeat Gettysburg 44-37 in Extra Period.—Team Has Ten Victories To Its Credit.

On Wednesday and Thursday of last week the Orange and Blue basketball quintet played the last of its games on foreign floors. Both games resulted in Bucknell victories: Mt. St. Mary's being defeated 21-23 and Gettysburg losing by a 44-37 score. These are perhaps the best teams that the Varsity has met and defeated on any trip this season and the news of the victories was hailed by the Bucknell followers of basketball with great joy.

These two victories bring Bucknell's total of victories for the season up to ten.. The team has won five out of the eight games that it has played abroad, a record that has seldom been exceled by a Bucknell team. Of their home games the Varsity has a clean record. There is but one more game on the schedule which will be played here on Friday night with the Indians.

Mt. St. Mary's Game.

The game with Mt. St. Mary's on Wednesday evening was well played and fast and one of the cleanest exhibitions of basketball that the Varsity has engaged in this season. The game was played on a good floor but there were two points that gave the team a little trouble at first, these were out-of-bounds lines and the baskets were a foot higher than on the home floor.

What gave the Bucknell men more trouble at first, however, was the bounce pass so cleverly employed by the Mt. St. Mary's men. At first this pass was hard for our men to fathem as the opponents in their triangular formation could use it with more accuracy and speed than the straight pass. After the Orange and Blue boys got on to this pass they led the Maryland five a merry chase.

At the end of the first half Bucknell led by a 20-13 score. In the second period the home team began to cut this lead down until only a small margin remained. As the game drew to a close Bucknell rallied and came out the winner by an eight point margin. This was the first time that Mt. St. Mary's was defeated on their home floor this season.

Bell and Elliott did their usual good work at the guard position and Gerhart played a good floor game. Mathieson and Townsend got 12 baskets evenly divided.

The summary:

Mt. St. Mary's		Bucknell
Boyle	forward	Mathieson
Gallager	forward	Townsend
Hegarty	center	Gerhart
Chapman	guard	Elliott
Carney	guard	Bell

Field goals: Mathieson 6, Townsend 6, Gerhart 1, Boyle 2, Gallager 2, Hegarty 1, Chapman 1, Carney 2. Foul goals: Townsend 5 out of 12. Carney 9 out of 17.

Gettysburg Game.

On Thursday evening the Varsity achieved a glorious victory over the bitter rivals, the Gettysburg team. This game from every standpoint was the best that the team had engaged in this season and the Gettysburg team was handed a clean-cut defeat. The game ended in a tie and it took an extra five-minute period to decide the winner in which the Orange and Blue registered eight points to the opponents one.

This was the first time that Gettysburg has been defeated on their home floor this season and the first time that a Bucknell team has been able to come out victorious with the battlefield boys both at home and abroad.

TRACK MEN OUT!

Candidates for Bucknell's 1918 track team are beginning to train in the gymnasium. Bucknell will be represented in the Penn classic and as there are only a few men from last year's team in school this year an urgent call is made for candidates to try out for the vacant positions. All candidates for the track team are requested to hand their names to acting Captain Mathieson this week.

APRIL 12 IS DATE SET FOR JUNIOR PROM

EFFORT BEING MADE TO SECURE WRIGHT'S SAXAPHONE ORCHESTRA.

Arrangements for the Annual Junior Prom. are well under way and the date has been set by the committee in charge for Apr. 12. An effort is being made to secure Wright's Saxophone Orchestra of Columbus, Ohio, whose work in its recent appearance here speaks for itself. If this attempt is unsuccessful Guy Hall's Banjo Orchestra of Wilkes-Barre will be engaged so that music of the best quality is guaranteed.

The event will be formal as usual although flowers and cabs will be conspicuous by their absence.

Since the Prom will be held this year in the Lewisburg Club rooms, only a limited number of couples can be accomodated. As a result, some system will be arranged for the apportionment of tickets, Juniors, of course, being given the preference. Tickets may be obtained in a short time from any member of the committee.

DELTA SIGMA ENTERTAINS

Saturday evening the Demosthenians entertained a number of Seminary girls at their home on St. George street. The prize for a guessing contest was won by Miss Lucille Evans. Miss Coper and Miss Hamler were the chaperones.

VARSITY WILL MEET THE INDIANS FRIDAY NIGHT

WILL BE THE LAST GAME OF THE SEASON. FAST GAME EXPECTED.

On Friday night the followers of basketball will have the opportunity to see one of the fastest floor teams that has ever represented the Orange and Blue play its last game. The Indians will be here and a fast game and an exciting one is expected. Although the Varsity has once triumphed over this team this season the Red Skins have since defeated Gettysburg 26-20, which fact gives assurance that they will make the local quintet put up a stiff fight to win. If the Indians are defeated it will be a fitting close for a highly successful season and it will also mean a clean record of home games for the Bucknell five.

MEDICAL MEETING

An interesting meeting of the medical society will be held this evening in the Biology Lab. The meeting will begin at 7 o'clock. Two papers have been prepared by Weigand and Weber. The subjects are well chosen and will be of interest to everyone. Following the custom of last year "eats" will be served after the papers. Discussions will be invited, and a good time in general is planned. Any person interested and not a member of the society is invited to attend the meeting.

MU PHI EPSILON INITIATION

Last Thurrday evening Mu Phi Epsilon held their initiation. Miss Helen Hoffa, Miss Louise Hahn and Mrs. Ethel Clush Bright were initiated into active membership.

Dr. Phillips Gives Fourth Address on Christian Democracy

Scripture Lessons: Mark 2:23-3:5.

The two controversies arising out of the plucking of the grain and the healing of the withered hand continue the question of the relation of Democracy to established institutions. But because the Sabbath was cherished by the Jews more than was any other institution, the controversy grows in severity and depth.

The Sabbath was established by the Hebrews especially to give the laborers in the field a day of rest; its original purpose was social and humane. The Pharisees, however, seized upon it and by legalism transformed it so as to give them power. Through this institution they gained power over the masses of the people from whom they separated themselves. Besides through this institution and other requirements they became possessors of wealth.

Jesus in his defense did not set aside the Sabbath, but restored its original purpose by insisting on the humane element. The Sabbath was made for man.

Jesus' attitude requires us to ask which of the forms of government, autocracy or democracy, is made for man. This question may be answered by studying the origin of German autocracy and of Anglo-Saxon democracy. Both of these are creations of philosophy. At the beginning of the nineteenth century Hegel was the dictator of the German philosophical world. Historically he revolted against the claims of the individual that had upset institutions at the close of the eighteenth century. He praised antiquity because in it the individual was within the whole, he believed that the individual concern of Christianity was a weakness; he had no time for the will of the people. In his State the ultimate power in the power of the Prince. This teaching the rising Prussianism seized upon and embodied in the German autocracy in which the individual is lost and the Kaiser is the ultimate authority.

Anglo-Saxon Democracy on the other hand is founded on the Declaration of Rights. This historical document which rid the Anglo-Saxon world of the divine right of kings was the result of the teachings of Locke. He taught: "In the people lies the supreme power to remove or alter the government. If the government proves unfaithful to its trust, the people have the right to overthrow it and erect a new form of government."

The principle of Jesus' refusal to allow an institution to function for the advantage of a class which is the principle of Anglo-Saxon Democracy, is expressed in President Wilson's remonstrance to the Pope: "This power is not the German people. It is the ruthless master of the German people. It is no business of ours how that great people came under its control or submitted with zest to the domination of its purpose; but it is our business to see to it that the history of the rest of the world is not left to its handling."

Baseball Is Cancelled From Spring Sports

OFFICIALLY DECIDED BY ADVISORY BOARD.

PLANS BEING FORMED FOR A TRACK TEAM

Scarcity of Material Spoils Chances for a Good Baseball Team.—Penn Relays Scheduled for April 26 and 27.

Bucknell will not be represented on the diamond this season. At a recent meeting of the Advisory Athletic Board it was decided that in view of the scarcity of baseball material it would be better to give up the national sport altogether for a time, rather than run the risk of lowering Bucknell's good reputation by putting out an inferior team. As in every other branch of athletics, the trouble across the water has robbed the institution of nearly all of its last year's players. "Buck" Elliott is the only B man back this year, and at the recent call for candidates a discouragingly small number of men reported.

It is not thru lack of financial resources that the baseball schedule has been given up, as Assistant Comptroller Boyer is authority for the statement that the Athletic Association is in better financial condition at present than it has been for some time, despite the lack of support of the budget by the student body, and could easily stand the expense of a good baseball schedule.

A fraternity league or some similar arrangement will probably take the place of the Varsity baseball.

Will Have Track Team.

In preparation for the Penn relays, the track management has called out all prospective runners and training will start immediately. Bucknell has always sent a team in the past years and there is no reason why one shall not go this year. It is the duty of every man who has done any running at all to come out and try to make the team. Two or three of the men on the team last year are again in school, and with that to start on and with plenty of available material, Bucknell should be well represented this year.

The committee sends out the following:

"Pennsylvania's 24th Annual Relay Race Carnival will be held on April 26th and 27th. Already assurances have been received from Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Chicago, and many other colleges that they will be represented. The meeting will be especially interesting this year because of the fact that the coaches of the different colleges find themselves stripped practically of all their star athletes. Already we hear of new phenomenons that the coaches are unearthing and as they will all work especially hard, there is no doubt that the team for the championship events will be nearly if not quite up to the standard set in prewar times.

The games will be held on Friday and Saturday as usual. Last year, in spite of the fact that war had been declared only a short time previously, there were over 300 teams in attendance. At that time, many of the colleges with a mistaken idea of the importance of college athletics in war times, gave up all their sports abruptly but even with this handicap, there were close to one hundred college teams at the Carnival. Since, then, most of the colleges that gave up athletics have resumed Intercollegiate sport. For this reason and because the coaches know that the athletes must have some special incentive this year, there should be an even larger number of colleges on hand. The Friday program will have as its special attractions, the sprint distance and distance medley relays and the Pentathlon of Allround college championship.

Enlistment has cut down the track squads greatly and through the colleges may find it difficult to get out strong teams for the one, two or four mile relay championship, they will In addition, there will be the various teams as in these races, they can use their fastest men on the same team whether they be sprinters or distance men. On Saturday, the one, two and four mile college relay championships of America, the Freshman one mile relay championship, the high school and preparatory school relay championship and the special events will be the main features. Pennsylvania's management also plan to put on various Service relays between the Army and Navy camps that should prove most interesting. In addition, there will be the various sectional championship relay races for colleges and schools and literally scores of scholastic and collegiate relay class races. The relay Management are counting on the colleges and schools to come forward and prove that they can make just as good a showing in their favorite sport as they did in football last fall or are doing in basketball and other sports now."

As in former years Bucknell is placed in the same class as Franklin and Marshall. Gettysburg, Mulenburg, Washington and Jefferson. Western Maryland, University of Maryland, The Catholic University, Brooklyn, Manhattan and St. John's. If several good men can be found in the freshmen class Bucknell is sure to make a good showing in the Relays.

SOPHOMORES HOLD THEIR ANNUAL BANQUET

TOOK PLACE AT HOTEL GRAEMAR, SHAMOKIN, FRIDAY NIGHT

Shamokin and Friday night, Mar. 1, 1918, will always be synonymous in the minds of the men of the Class of 1920, for then and there was the occasion of the Sophomore Banquet. Good spirits and general good fellowship characterized the gathering; quaint stories and a new supply of anecdotes were added to the memory of the banqueters. Toasts, verbal, not the milk kind, were digested and thoroughly enjoyed.

With President Morrison as toastmaster, the banquet began promptly at 9 P. M. Because of the unusual good feeling displayed, the number of toasts were doubled, and twenty of the best toasts ever offered in the Banquet Hall of Hotel Graemar floated out upon the still night air. The subjects were as varied as the number and size of the speakers, and Ohlson and Amerise both were there. Boyer, '18, the only upperclassman present, also responded with a toast.

The group was representative of all the men loyal to and interested in the class. Ministerials, engineers, future lawyers and doctors, all were there and enjoyed the banquet to the full. In its every phase, it was enjoyable and all who were there will never regret the pleasant time they spent in the famous banquet city. Shamokin.

MONDAY, MARCH 4, 1918.

Time after time we hear of some article being stolen from some room in East College. The great majority of the thefts appear to take place upon the fourth floor of that building. Within the writer's knowledge, upon that floor, one man has been the loser of two mileage books, another man, from the same room, has suffered the theft of two pairs of silk socks, a clock. toliet articles and drawing materials, including triangles, lettering pens, T-squares and India inks. From the other end of the hall comes the report that one man has had a scarf pin and pair of cuff links stolen; his room-mate is the poorer by a sweater, scarf pin and a Hamilton watch, the latter a commencement gift. Minor thefts of toilet articles are almost daily in their occurrence.

The students themselves should do their utmost to capture the culprits and bring them to justice, but this they are loath to do because they feel squeamish about exposing a fellow student. This is illustrated by the fact that one man, after he had lost a number of scarf pins, started an investigation and discovered every one of them in another man's trunk. Instead of bringing this matter to the attention of someone empowered to act, he quietly warned the man to be careful in the future. This action will permit the second student to continue his dishonest operations upon other men. If each man would report all evidence as soon as it was discovered, a workig basis would be established from which the thief could be cornered.

It is an open question as to who has authority to act in a matter of this kind. Last year, be it remembered, Senior Council pursued a similar misfortune to the finish, caught the man red-handed, and succeeded in having the thief removed from the company of decent men. This year, it would seem that Senior Council either has not the power to act upon such a question, or else is disinclined so to do. Added to this dilemma is the disorganization of that body at the present time. This combination of unfortunate circumstances leaves but one agency to whom to look for help in such an exigency. This source is the office of the Registrar. But when the theft of the watch was reported at the office, all the consolation given was that it surely was bad, but that there could not be much done about it unless merely keeping a lookout hereafter for possible evidence.

This is an attitude which, we believe, few students approve of. Last week's Bucknellian contained a communication complaining of the loss of personal property, and from th tone of that article, strenuous means of delivering justice are advocated by many of the students.

The Registrar would be fully justified in securing a search warrant and examining other students' rooms until traces of the stolen property were found. Swift action should follow any discoveries of this uature. The student body is aroused and demand that something be done. The management of the school should be of sufficient strength to protect the property of the students in their charge. If the students must themselves quit other work to play detective in order to guard their personal property, college will not do them a great deal of good. It is the management that should take the responsibility of ferreting out the matter, and that quickly, too. The longer the delay, the greater the opportunity for the thief to dispose of the articles. Why does not the office take the matter in hand, gather information and throw the men responsible for these acts out of school? Bucknell is no place for a thief!

BASKETBALL TEAM WINS TWO

(concluded from first page.)

The passing of the Varsity was perfect and their teamwork like that of a machine. They were forced to play an uphill game throughout and clearly excelled the Gettysburgians in staying qualities at the finish. At the start the Bucknell boys were a little slow in getting accustomed to the floor and Gettysburg obtained a lead which they held until the last ten minutes of play. In these last ten minutes the Varsity showed a great exhibition of coming up from behind and making victory possible where defeat seemed almost sure. With but ten minutes to play Gettysburg led by a 33-24 score. Bucknell staged a strong finish and with one minute to play led by a 36-35 score. In the remaining one minute Gettysburg secured a foul goal tieing the score, and the game ended in a 36-36 tie.

An extra five minute period was played in which Bucknell ran away from their opponents, scoring eight points to Gettysburg's one.

The sumary:

Gettysburg		Bucknell
Scheffer	forward	Mathieson
Campbell	forward	Townsend
Widman	center	Gerhart
Wells	guard	Elliott
Baker	guard	Bell

Field goals: Mathieson 8, Townsend 5, Gerhart 4, Scheffer 5, Campbell 7, Widman 2. Foul goals: Townsend 10 out of 15, Baker 9 out of 23.

STUDENTS' RECITAL

The third students' music recital of the winter term will be given in Bucknell Hall Tuesday afternon at 3.15 o'clock. The program consists of vocal and instrumental solos, duets and quartette numbers. The recital Tuesday will be given entirely by male voices and will consist of selections from the operas. A large crowd is expected as it is seldom that two such excellent musicians are able to concentrate the time necessary for working up a program like the one that is to be given Thursday evening. Tickets for the concert are 25 cents and may be secured from any of the members of Mu Phi Epsilon sorority or from Prof. Stolz.

Since last spring, before the outbreak of the war, there has been maintained at Yale University a Military Intelligence Bureau which has been compiling information about the various undergraduates and graduates who might be useful to the government in time of war.

EYES FOR THE NAVY

Requests have come to us from various sources asking that we help make known to college students the need of the Navy for field glasses and urge them to do their part in filling this need.

The Patriotic News Service sends the folowing:

The college men and women of the United States can be of great service in getting the members of their families and other friends to contribute to the Navy, binoculars, spy glasses and telescopes.

The number of glasses available is wholly insufficient and the need must be met quickly.

That non-used pair of field glasses in your home or the telescope on some college laboratory shelf, if given promptly to the government may mean the saving of a transport loaded with soldiers or the sinking of a sneaking submarine. Quick action in this matter means everything.

All articles should be securely tagged giving the name and address of the donor, and forwarded by mail or express to the Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, care of Naval Observatory, Washington, D. C., so that they may be acknowledged by him.

Articles not suitable for naval use will be returned to the sender. Those accepted will be keyed, so that the name and address of the donor, will be permanently recorded at the Navy Department, and every effort will be made to return them, with added historic interest at the termination of the war. It is, of course, impossible to guarantee them against damage or loss.

As the government cannot, under the law, accept services or material without making some payment therefor, one dollar will be paid for each article accepted, which sum will constitute the rental price, or, in the event of loss, the purchase price of such article.

MUSICAL CLUBS TO GIVE CONCERT AT WINFIELD

ALL CANDIDATES ARE REQUESTED TO REPORT AT PRACTICE THIS WEEK.

Next Saturday night the college Musical Clubs will give their first concert of the season at Winfield. A very excellent program has been worked out by Prof. Stolz consisting of selections by the Glee Club, Orchestra of 12 pieces, Male quartette, vocal and instrumental solos. In addition to this Prof. David Berlino will be heard on the program as concert pianist. This is but the first of a number of dates that have been arranged in nearby towns which the clubs can reach in one night.

TWO-PIANO CONCERT

Much enthusiasm is being manifested among the music patrons of the college and town over the approaching two-piano concert which will be given Thursday evening, March 7 in Bucknell Hall by Miss Jessie Cooper and Prof. David Berlino, both members of the music faculty. The concert is being given under the auspices of Mu Phi Epsilon and the proceeds will be devoted to the Red Cross.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Last Tuesday's meeting was the annual election of officers. Before the election took place the members of the cabinet gave a review of the past year's activities, each girl telling of the work accomplished in her own department.

The result of the election was as follows:

President: Naomi Lane.
Vice President: Elthera Corson.
Secretary: Eva Thayer.
Treasurer: Beatrice Fetterman.

Tomorrow is installation of officers.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONFERENCE

Enthusiasm, good fellowship and earnestness characterized the Student Volunteer Confernce which met at Moravian College, Bethlehem, Feb. 22-24, to which the colleges, Princeton, Lafayette, Gettysburg, State, Juniata, Franklin and Marshall, Swathmore, Bucknell and many others sent representatives.

Among the speakers was a Bucknell man, Dr. C. B. Lesher, of South China, who told us of the work he is doing as a medical missionary. We hope to have Dr. Lesher at Bucknell sometime in April.

Mr. S. G. Inman, executive secretary of the committee on co-operation with Latin America, showed us that although South America was rapidly developing commercially, most of her people are atheists. The need for workers in South America is as great as in any other country.

We were especially fortunate in having Dr. H. K. Kumor, an African explorer, at the conference. He represented the need of that Dark Continent most convincingly. The next 40 years, he said, would determine whether Africa would be Mohammedan or Christian.

The Bucknell delegation wishes that more students could have had the privilege of attending this wonderful confernce for it gave everyone a broader view of the world task which American students must soon take up.

The opportunity of attending this conference will be granted every student at Bucknell next year for we are expecting to hold the conference in Lewisburg. Agnes Gilmour, '19, has been elected President of that conference. This is a great thing for Bucknell and we hope everyone will take advantage of the opportunity.

Here Comes the First Sprinkling of New Spring Millinery

While the Spring styles are all set, and most the shapes are now made up for this Spring's season, you are safe in considering your new Spring hat early, and there are a number of good reasons why you should.

First. Our early prices are always considerably lower than when it is in the rush of the season.

Second. We are trying to educate those who can, to buy their hat early and avoid the Easter rush.

Third. This Spring, by the time the millinery season is in full sway, all stores may have a very hard time to get the goods.

Fourth. If you buy your hat early, you will get your choice of the cream. You will get better materials, and you will get more wear from your hat.

Come and choose at your earliest convenience.

Special Sale of Woolen Cap and Scarf Sets, Separate Caps and Shoulder Throws

The very low prices mentioned here below are unusual, and especially at this time of the year when goods of this kinds are so much in demand.

SEASON'S LAST GAME IS EASY VICTORY

ORANGE AND BLUE TEAM SHOWS GREAT FORM.

INDIANS DEFEATED BY A 55-27 SCORE

Find Little Trouble In Running Up High Score On Red Skins. Varsity Remains Unbeaten on Home Floor

Last Friday night the Orange and Blue played its last game of basketball for this season. The game was played on the home floor with the Carlisle Indians who were defeated by a 55-27 score. By defeating the Indian quintet the Varsity maintained a clean record of home games.

The Indians by no means had a poor team but they were slightly disenheartened at the start when the Varsity opened up with wicked passing and a display of teamwork, the parallel of which has not been seen at Bucknell for a long time. After the smoke of this first volley of baskets had cleared away the Varsity led by over 25 points. All thru the first half the Varsity continued the fast play and rarely did the ball go into the Indians' hands. The score at the end of the first half stood 40 to 8 against the Red Skins.

In the second Period the Varsity had things easy and found no difficulty in running the score up to 55 points. The Indians seemed to work slightly better in this half and secured 19 points.

Townsend. Mathiesona and Gerhart were the chief scorers for the Orange and Blue five, Mathieson getting seven baskets and Townend and Gerhart six each. Several of Mathieson's were of the long, spectacular type one being shot from past the center of the floor. Bell and Elliott did exceptionally good work at the guard positions, allowing their men only a few scattered shots at the basket.

Metoxin, as in the game played at Carlisle, was the main point getter for the Indians, being credited with 15 of the visitors 27 points.

The summary:

Indians	Position	Bucknell
Metoxin	Forward	Townsend
Large	Forward	Mathieson
Herman	Center	Gerhart
Hill	Guard	Bell
Vigil	Guard	Elliott

Field Goals: Mathieson 7, Townsend 6, Gerhart 6, Metoxin 4, Herman 4, Elliott 2, Large 2, Bell 1. Foul goals: Townsend 11 out of 16, Metoxin 7 out of 21. Referee, Jackson.

ALUMNUS RECEIVES RESPONSIBLE POSITION

APPOINTED TO FACULTY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

News has reached here of the recent appointment of Rev. George Frederich Mitch to the faculty of the University of California. He received the position of Assistant in Social Economics.

Rev. Mitch is a graduate of Bucknell in the class of 1909. He received the degree of A. B. upon graduating here and also received the degree of B. D. from Crozer Theological Seminary and A. M. from the University of Pennsylvania.

For some time he was principal of the faculty of Western Pennsylvania Institute at Mount Pleasant. Pa. When the project at this place was somewhat interfered with by the war he entered the field of social service and soon was appointed to the responsible position which he now holds.

Democracy, Efficiency and Reason Discussed by Dr. Phillips

Scripture lesson: Mark 7: 1—22.

In the further conflict with religious autocracy Jesus has given us two more characteristics of Democracy: preference for moral principle rather than for tradition and appeal to common sense rather than to authority.

The Pharisees found fault with the disciples because they did not wash their hands before eating. The basis of their complaint was that the disciples had violated a tradition of theirs. Jesus ignoring the particular tradition and its violation passed to show how they had set tradition above the moral law of Moses. By their tradition a son who owed money to his parents could get rid of his obligation by consecrating his money to religion.

In pointing out the error Jesus insisted that things, mere forms, can not have any moral value except that value which a man gives to them by his own moral attitude. Not that which goes into a man but that which comes out decides the moral character. In a religious group the measure of a man was made religiously; in an industrial group like ours a man's measure is made by his industrial product. Consequently industrialism is our tradition. Therefore since the war we have been chided by many for the lack of German efficiency; we have been urged to adopt Germany's methods. But we should bear in mind that that efficiency has been created by and for autocracy; it is lockstep efficiency; it is measurement of man by his product rather than by his social value; it is preference for national tradition rather than for moral principles.

The rejection of authority resident in institutiins is a serious matter. Russia ies a striking example of the danger accompanying euch a revolution. Yet the risk must be taken. On what did Jesus rely in his appeals for man against institutions? On the common-sense of the multitude and of his diciples. To the multitude as he turns them from the authority of tradition to the free authority of moral principal he says: "Hear and understand." To his diciples who seem slow to comprehend his position he says with surprise: "Are you so unintelligent? Do you not "perceive?"

This appeal to the common Intelligence is the fear of the autocrat. Recently in Prussia a bill aiming to raise the average intelligence of the people was defeated by the Prussianism that is threatening the world (Report of U. S. Commissioner of Education June 1917.) But this common intelligence is the bulwark and glory of Democracy. Locke, the exponent of social, political, and religious democracy wrote: "Every man carries about him a touchstone, if he will make use of it, to distinguish truth from appearances." James Bryce the modern exponent of Democracy wrote in his American Commonwalth: "The conscience and common sense of the nation as a whole keep down the evils which have crept into the working of the Constitution and may in time extinguish them." President Wilson in his War Aims address said: " The thought of the plain people here and everywhere throughout the world, the people who enjoy no privilege and have very simple and unsophisticated standards of right and wrong, is the air all Governments must henceforth breathe if they would live."

SIGMA CHI AND D. T. U. AMALGAMATE

UNION OF TWO TOOK PLACE LAST WEEK.

FORMER D. T. U. HOUSE IS NEW HOME OF SIGMA CHI

Initiation of the Active Members of Delta Theta Upsilon Was Held Last Tuesday and Wednesday.

The number of fraternities at Bucknell was lessened by one last week when Sigma Chi and Delta Theta Upsilon became amalgamated. The initiation into Sigma Chi of the twenty- one active members of the local together with five of the alumni took place last Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The five alumni who took the initiation into Sigma Chi are:Dr. Nelson F. Davis, of the faculty; Dr. Lee Ranck, of Milton; Prof. Carl D. Millward. of Milton; Sterling T. Post, of Northumberland; and Raleigh M. Felton, of Lewisburg.

The two fraternities thus merged will live at what was formerly the Delta Theta Upsilon house. The new Sigma Chi house, situated on Walker Street just off the campus, was built by Delta Theta Upsilon in the summer of 1914. The house on the Hill, former home of the Sigma Chi fraternity has been closed.

The Sigma Chi fraternity was founded in 1855. Kappa Chapter was established at Bucknell in 1861. In 1912 the fraternity moved into their house on the Hill where they remained until the amalgamation when the former D. T. U. house becametheir new home. It was one of the first national fraternities to be established at Bucknell.

The Delta Theta Upsilon fraternity was founded at Bucknell in 1903. In 1910 it moved into a house on St. George Street, which was its home until 1914 when it built its own house, being the first fraternity at Bucknell to attempt such an action. With the merger with Sigma Chi, Delta Theta Upsilon discontinued its local existence with fifteen years of history behind it. The advantages accruing from the coalition are numerous.

"WIN THE WAR DAY" IN THE COLLEGES

DAY SET FOR APRIL 6, ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICA'S ENTRY INTO THE WAR.

(By William Mather Lewis.)

A plan to observe April 6th, the first anniversary of America's entry into the war as "National Win the War Day" has been worked out by the National Committee of Patriotic Societies.

A tatement sent out to the presidents of fifty National Patriotic Organizations, to Cabinet members and other government officials and to college presidents, says:—"At the beginning of our second year in the great war it is fitting that we have a National consecration to the task remaining before us. Because of numerous workless days during the past winter it is not advisable that the occasion should be made a holiday, but in every factory, store, mine, school and on every farm there should be a brief period during the day where everyone who is loyal to the flag should stand up and be counted. Flags should everywhere be unfurled. At twelve o'clock noon factory whistles and church bells should send forth a volume of sound that will reach Berlin. Every band in the country will then play the "Star Spangled Banner," while people will stand at attention. In the evening in the churches, halls and theatres the

LAMBA CHI ALPHA HOLDS INFORMAL DANCE

The members of the Lamba Chi Alpha fraternity entertained a number of girls from Lewisburg and vicinity at an informal dance in their home Friday night. About thirty-five copules were present. Prof. and Mrs. F. E. Burpee and Prof. and Mrs. C. A. Lindeman were chaperons. Music for dancing was furnished by Abrams, '19, Keefer, '18 and Gruban.

S. A. E. FOUNDERS' DAY

Sigma Alpha Epsilon celebrated the sixty-second anniversity of the founding of the fraternity on Saturday, March 9. A Hooverized banquet followed by a smoker characterized the occassion. A number of Alumni from various points returned for the event.

COMBINED MUSICAL CLUBS MAKE FIRST APPEARANCE

WINFIELD AUDIENCE PLEASED WITH CONCERT GIVEN SATURDAY NIGHT.

The first concert of the Bucknell Musicall Clubs was given Saturday night in the Baptist church at Winfield. The concert was given for the benefit if the Red Cross at that place, and consisted of a very interesting and varied program. A large audience greeted the boys and the concert was very much appreciated. The clubs this year are under the direction of Prof. Paul Stolz, head of the music department.

The program was as follows:

B. U. CIVIL ENGINEER WINS A PRIZE.

The First Prize in the Cash Prize Contest held by the Association of Natural Gas Supply Men has been awarded to Charles W. Kramer, a Bucknell Civil Engineer of the class of 1911, who is the chief engineer of the Arkansas Natural Gas Company.

SENIORS, NOTICE.

The Senior Committee on invitations and programs has selected the sample and will visit each Senior sometime this week. Each Senior is requested to be ready to state the number of invitations desired.

ISSUE NEXT WEEK.

Altho it has been the custom heretofore to suspend publication of The Bucknellian during examination week, because of the shortened term there will be an issue next week.

Helge G. Florin who graduated here in 1909 with a degree of Sc. B., was recently admitted to the bar. He took advantage of a furlough and returned to Camp Lee with his new honors. He is Corporal with the Headquarters Regiment 319.

FIVE BUCKNELLIANS GET CROSS OF HONOR

ALL MEMBERS OF AMBULANCE UNIT SEC. 525.

SECTIONS DISTINGUISHED FOR ACTS OF BRAVERY

Former Report That Two Were Honored Was Incomplete.—Information Comes from Allen F. Willson, '20.

There recently appeared in these columns an extract from a dispatch to The Pittsburgh Post, giving the names of two Bucknell men who had been honored with the War Cross. This report, however, was not fully confirmed. The extract of a letter printed below shows that the former report was incomplete. The information that five men in section 525 received the Croix de Guerre in authentic as it comes direct from Allen F. Willson, '20, one of the boys of that Section. The following is an extract from his letter:

"Yesterday (January 31) was a big day for old 25, believe me. Five of the boys and the Lieutenant were decorated with the Croix de Guerre for their bravery and good work under heavy shell fire. They all deserved it and there are more in the section who will get it if we keep up the good work.

"The boys who were honored with the War Cross are: Lees, '20, Vanderbilt, '20. Miller, '20, Stewart, '19, and Corporal Clarke, '18.

"Corporal Clark is one of my best friends and I was surely glad to see him get it for he did have real hard luck. He was gassed and lost his voice for over two weeks, but he is alright now, thank heaven.

"I certainly wish that you could see this Section. It is more like a big family than a military organization. All the petty ill felling has disappeared and we are all working toward the same end, the good of the Section and the Ambulance Service."

TWO-PIANO CONCERT PLEASES AUDIENCE

GIVEN LAST THURSDAY EVENING IN BUCKNELL HALL

Thursday evening Miss Jessie Cooper and Prof. David Berlins gave a delightful two-piano recital in Bucknell Hall.

The concert was arranged by Mu Phi Epsilon and the proceeds were turned over to the Red Cross Fund of Mu Phi Epsilon.

A large and appreciative audience filled Bucknell Hall and all were pleased by the talent displayed by the two pianoists.

The program consisted of four numbers; each number being divided into two parts. The way in which each number was interperted and rendered received much favorable comment and showed that Bucknell people appreciate concerts of this nature.

The selections were well chosen from the works of masters and each offered a pleasing diversion from the other numbers. The program:—

1. (a) Andante, Valse—Arensky.
   (b) Polonaise—Lhervinne
2. (a) Invitation to The Dance—Weber.
   (b) Rondo Brilliant—Weber.
3. (a) Valse Carnavalesque—Chaminade.
   (b) Andante Et Scherzettino—Chaminade
   (c) "Espana" *—Chabrier
4. (a) Dance Macabre —Saint-Saens.
   (b) Marche Heroique—Saint-Saens.

*Spanish.
Dance of Death.

MONDAY, MARCH 11, 1918.

We have watched with interest the developement of the discussion group plan, and we feel that this phase of University life demands an expression of opinion. A few weeks ago when the present plan was begun it was received with considerable doubt. College men seem prone to be suspicious of any innovation that is designed solely for improvement and invariably seek the proverbial dark inhabitant of the woodpile.

But since the weekly discussion groups have become an institution, the attitude has completely changed. Altho it was not formally a part of the plan as it was first begun to have a Faculty member or some other leader visit the groups for the informal discussion, many of the discussion groups have adopted this method. There is in this part of the plan untold advantages. Men have learned that the formidable sovereign of the classroom is built very much like themselves, that he has his relaxation and his dreams just a they themselves. In their turn the group leaders have discovered that the carefree, thoughtless youths, whose aim in classes seems tobe getting bywith as little knowledge as possible, have their ownseriousmoments, their own philosophy and theology and their own private ideals and ambitions. Such a relation between student and teacher is certainly most wholesome.

The excellent discussions, the comparison of ideas, the argument of hitherto neglected questions have given broader views to many of the men and an added stimulus of serious thought.

The Y. M. C. A. is to be complimented on the part it has played in bringing the prerent series or discussions before the groups. A debt of gratitude is also owed the men who are giving their valuable time to the work. It is our hope that with the passing of the present series of lessons on Democracy and The Teaching of Jesus the discussion groups may go on and grow in popularity.

Since the last issue of The Bucknellian facts have come to light which have demonstrated that the editorial appearing in last week's issue left the public under an erroneous impression. The college office has taken the matter of petty thefts in hand and has been working on the cases reported, but had not given this information to the public. thinking it could the better operate while the general public supposed it to be inactive. The chief difficulty with which the office has had to contend has been the delay in reporting thefts or the utter failure to report those known or suspected to be guilty. Handicapped in this way, tracing the miscreant is the more difficult.

It might well be added that Bucknell is no more infested with kleptomaniacs than are the other colleges. It was brought out at the recent Registrar's Convention, that pilfering is a petty crime common to all colleges, and the figures stated indirectly that Bucknell was below rather than above the average percentage of the schools represented.

Everything possible is being done to wipe out this unfortunate habit, and with the co-operation of the studenst in reporting promptly all cases, the office may succeed in its endeavors. There is no one here who is anxious to see this practice continue.

The Senior Council also is willing to do all in its power to put an end to this practice, but it is first necessary for those effected to bring their grievinces before that body. To expect the Senior Council to find a solution to a problem concerning which is knows none of the facts is hardly fair.

HOW PATRIOTIC ARE YOU.

"It is more important that this America shall live than that we Americans should live."—Franklin Lane.

We wonder how many Bucknellians realize the full import of this slogan. Have you made any sacrifice for our fighters? Have you committed any acts of waste? Food and fuel, that is what you here at college can render to our soldiers. Every time you waste food or fuel you are striking blows for Germany. Perhaps you are not awake to the treason of your waste. Every time you commit an act of waste or engage in an unnecessary luxury you are stabbing an American soldier in the back. Conservation and sacrifice is the slogan of the times.

How patriotic are you?

"I wish that I had paid more attention to drill," writes a Bucknell man at Camp Dix, and we stop to wonder why it is that such an exclamation finds expression. Perhaps it is hard to realize that snap and precision are necessary; no doubt it is much more easy merely to pass rather than to excell. But we can try, and we can try much harder, to make ourselves and our squads a real example of perfection in military tactics.

"WIN THE WAR DAY"

people can gather for meetings of inspiration. Regiments of the National Army may parade in cities near the cantonments.

The "winter of our discontent" with its coalless days and congested railroad and other minor annoyances is past. The spring with its promise of abundant crops and increased industrial production is here. Now is the time for America's Home Army to mobolize and thus bring courage to our boys in the trenches and cantonments, and depression to our enemies. Let Germany feel that this is a popular war in America. The effect of having the nation a unit in Patriotic thought on this day cannot be over estimated. It will bring renewed courage and hope to our brave Allies.

In every college there should be special patriotic exercises at which messages from students and alumni in the nation's service may be read, instructions as to hew every college student can do his part to win the war can be given and a pledge of allegiance to the flag and to the cause of the war be repeated by all. The colleges of America have responded nobly to the call to Arms. On April 6th faculties and students should let their brothers in the field know that they are with them in spirit and in effort.

COMMUNICATION.

The following letter was received last week by a Bucknell student. Fisher was a senior here last year and was one of the first Bucknell men to go to the colors.

Camp Fremont. Cal.
Feb. 25, 1918.

Dear Friend:

"See America First." What a fine thing this advertising is! We had one of the best trips I ever enjoyed and we were in the right frame of mind for the trip. Think of it, we were broken and practically out of the army when the order reached us. You don't believe how you feel when you are a soldier but not in the army. Several very disagreeable things stared us in the face. To remain with the engineers, to be broken up and some go here and some there throughout the 28th Division as musicians and to remain unassigned were some of the orders we feared. You can imagine the joy when we received the order making us a part of the 302 Cavalry, the branch of service we have learned to love. And the trip to California was not disliked by anyone. This will keep us from getting over for some time but by this morning's paper it looks as if we would surely get there. If Russia quits us there will be fighting for some time, I think.

We took what is known as the "Sunset Route" from Ga. The scenery we passed through cannot be properly described by an ordinary scholar, so I won't attempt it.

We made stops at Atlanta, Ga., Montgomery, Ala., New Orleans, Houston, San Antonio. Marathon and El Paso, Texas, Tuscon, Ariz., Los Angeles, San Loui Obispo and San Jose, Cal.

We are now located in what is known as Menlo Park. We are one mile from Redwood and Palo Alto, and 29 miles from 'Frisco. San Jose is 16 miles from here. We are in quarantine for 10 days. We get a medical examination each day. You may tell Prof. Lindemann that each time we line up for an examination I think of the ten examinations at the end of each term. Today we were vaccinated for small pox, no consideration being given to the fact that we were successfully vaccinated only a few months ago. The lieutenant who vaccinated us was named Blood. He cut our arms twice but only one cut was used, the other being for practice I think.

We have very little to do while in quarantine and all are anxious to get busy. We played in the Y. M. C. A. yesterday. They voted us to be a good band. We drill about two hours a day and the rest we "loaf," unless we have a rehearsal.

The weather here is about the same as that at home about May 30. Gardens are growing, flowers blooming and there is lots of green grass and leaves. The scenery about camp is most beautiful. If any state can be any better than Pennsylvania it is California.

Remember me to all the Bucknell men and give my regards to the professors.

302 Cavalry Band,

GERMAN "EFFICIENCY."

The searchlight of war has brought out many interesting facts, and one of these is that the vaunted German efficiency will not always stand the test of comparison with American efficiency.

The Germans boasted of being the greatest farmers on earth. Investigation shows that in efficiency in agriculture, measured by the produce per acre, America being graded 100 Belgium leads the world, at 205; Great Britian comes second, at 164; and Germany third, at155; America comes fourth.

But the better test in the man test rather than the acre test, and here America leads the world by over 2 to 1. Again, grading America at 100 per farm worker, Great Britain produces 43 and Germany 41. The American farmer cultivates 27 acres, the German farmer but 7. With the aid of vast quantities of fertilizer the German produces more per acre, but he produces at a much greater cost per bushel and he produces much less than half as much per man.

Here Comes the First Sprinkling of New Spring Millinery

While the Spring styles are all set, and most the shapes are now made up for this Spring's season, you are safe in considering your new Spring hat early, and there are a number of good reasons why you should.

First. Our early prices are always considerably lower than when it is in the rush of the season.

Second. We are trying to educate those who can, to buy their hat early and avoid the Easter rush.

Third. This Spring, by the time the millinery season is in full sway, all stores may have a very hard time to get the goods.

Fourth. If you buy your hat early, you will get your choice of the cream. You will get better materials, and you will get more wear from your hat.

Come and choose at your earliest convenience.

Special Sale of Woolen Cap and Scarf Sets, Separate Caps and Shoulder Throws

SOPHS DOWN FRESH. IN ANNUAL CLASH

EXCITING INTERCLASS GAME STAGED THURSDAY NIGHT

SECOND YEAR MEN WIN BY A 40-31 SCORE

Freshmen Put Up Stiff Fight in First Half, Lose Out in Second.—Sophs Keep Interclass Record Clean.

The much-heralded Freshman-Sophomore basketball contest, after several postponments, took place Thursday evening on the varsity floor. The second year men won handily by the score of 40-31, giving them a clean sweep up to this time in the interclass contests. If the last year's wearers of the green can keep up the good work in the spring drive on the diamond they will have a war record to be proud of. As it is, the proper thing for the rookies to do is to keep mum when the subject of inter-class athletics is mentioned.

The game was scrappy and well-played and close enough to be interesting all through. The Dorris brothers bucked each other at center and both of them played a fast and peppy game. Ray shot fouls for the frosh and succeeded in caging 21 out of 33 baskets, but was held by his husky brother to two baskets, both of which were pretty ones from the center of the floor. Brother Jawn honored the occasion by speeding up a little and in addition to keeping a watchful eye on the kid brother kept things moving on the floor and caged a couple of neat ones. The 1920 men had a clever pair of forwards in Waddell and LaClair. Waddell was a Varsity man last year but on account of a broken arm received in the late Gettysburg gridiron fracas did not come out for the team this year. However, by this time the injured member has recovered and didn't prevent Bobbie from shooting 18 out of the 26 fouls called on the freshmen. "Red" LaClair played a bang-up game from the first toss of the ball until the final blowing of the whistle and was the Sophs' most persistent basket-getter.

Lees captained the second year men and shut out the freshmen captain and star forward Smith without a basket. Jack Hall played opposite McGann, the freshmen right forward and was succeeded in the middle of the first half by Heinie Kitlowski, who kept close watch on his opponent and held him to two baskets.

During the first half the contest was anybody's game, with the freshmen in the lead at 20-18 at the end of the first half. At the beginning Waddell and Ray Dorris each shot three fouls when Captain Lees started the ball a rolling with the first basket of the game. Dorris tied the score on fouls and McGann, the scrappy 1921 forward, raised him two with a neat basket and shortly afterward caged another. Both sides were neck and neck until just before the end of the half, with the score at 18-all, Dorris flipped a nice two-pointer through the net and gave the jubilant wearers of the green a two-point lead.

In the second half the sophomores came back strong and for the remainder of the game kept things their own way. LaClair led in the scoring, in which all the 1920 men took part. Dorris for the freshmen found difficulty in locating the basket from the foul line while Waddell shot in his best form, missing but one attempt during the entire half. The underclassmen tried various changes in line-up but failed to find a winning combination and the game ended in a sophomore victory.

ANOTHER BUCKNELL SOLDIER IS KILLED

MARMADUKE EARLE THIRD B. U. MAN TO LOSE LIFE

ACCIDENT WHILE MAKING FLIGHT PROVES FATAL

Airplane Drops Killing Him Instantly.—Fatality Took Place Thursday Afternoon at Ellington Field, near Houston, Texas.—Was Formerly a Popular Member of the Class of 1918.

The students of Bucknell received a severe shock last Friday when news reached here of the death of Marmaduke Earle. He was killed late Thursday afternoon at Ellington Field, Houston, Texas, while making a flight. Details of the accident were meagre, stating merely that while Earle was making a tail-end spin the airplane dropped killing him instantly.

Earle first enlisted in Troop M. 1st Pennsylvania Cavalry. He was next at the second officers' training camp at Fort Niagara, but he waived a commission of Second Lieutenancy in the army to take an enlistment in the avintion branch, for which he had made application prior to being chosen to go to the officers' training camp. He was just last week promoted to Second Lieutenant in the aviation service and expected to sail for France soon.

Earle entered Bucknell with the class of 1918 and after completing a little over half the course he entered the service. He was a very popular member of his class and during his two years at Bucknell found a warm place in the hearts of his fellow students. The report of his accidental death was received with the deepest sorrow, especially by the Senior and Junior classes to whom he was best known. He was a member of the Forum fraternity.

He was a son of Rev. and Mrs. I. N. Earle, of Lewisburg. A brother, G. Wade Earle, is in France serving with the Bucknell Ambulance Unit, Section 525. He was aged twenty-two years. The body arrived in Lewisburg this morning, accompanied by Lieut. John M. Thompson. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning in the Baptist church at ten o'clock.

CHANGE IN EXAM. SCHEDULE

The folowng change has been made in the regular schedule of examinations: classes reciting at 11.15 having examination at 10.15 Tuesday are transferred to 3.15 Tuesday afternoon. This change was made on account of the funeral of Marmaduke Earle.

THETA DELTA TAU HOLDS ITS INITIATION

EIGHT SOPHOMORES INTIATED INTO HONORARY FRATERNITY LAST MONDAY.

Theta Delta Tau, the Sophomore Honoroary Fraternity, held it annual banquet and initiation at the Cameron House last Monday evening, Mar. 11,1918.

The initiates were as follows: LeRoy Snyder, Henry Weber, Lavern Shea, Ed. Nancarrow, Wm. Speare, H. R. Bair, Andrew Mathieson and Wm. H. Morrison.

The banquet was served promptly at nine o'clock, after which toasts were made and officers elected for the following year. A safe and sane evening was enjoyed by all members and at 11.30 immediately following the initiation the members disbanded to their various homes.

The active members who conducted the initiation were: M. M. Musser, M. C. Lewisson, S. D. Spotts, Frank Rohrback and Charles B. Moore.

KAPPA SIGMA DANCE

The Kappa Sigma House presented a gay scene on Friday night, for a novel little Saint Patrick's Day Dance was held there at that time. Decorations and programs were in keeping with the great Irish holiday which was celebrated. The S. A. E. orchestra strumed the music for the dancers. The fraternity entertained as patrons and patronesses, Mrs. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blair.

MILITARY DIILL

Military drill during the Spring Term will be held out of doors as soon as the weather permits. The candidates for the Engineer's Reserve will be welcomed to drill as a means of promotion when entering the service. Special provisions will be made for the "rookies." Rifle practice will be begun as quickly as the range can be secured. Membership in the Rifle Club privileges the use of rifles and ammunition.

FRILL AND FROWN GIVES ANNUAL PRODUCTION

"EVERYWOMAN" IMPRESSES A LARGE AUDIENCE. CHARACTERS ARE CLEVER.

Frill and Frown gave its annual play in Bucknell Hall Thursday evening. The play, which differed somewhat from the type of play usually staged was Walter Brown's modern morality play, "Everywoman." The play was a success from every standpoint and the clever acting of the cast and action which ran thru the entire play held the closest attention of the large audience that was present to witness the performance.

The cast had worked hard under the instruction of Miss Edith Schillinger, as the work Thursday night clearly demonstrated. Many of the cast were known to Bucknell audiences by reason of previous appearances on the stage and all the new members demonstrated that no mistake had been made in selecting the cast.

The quest of "Everywoman" for King Love was the theme of the play. First we see her tempted and led by Flattery into a new and strange world—a theatre stage. From here she follows her guest; being led downward by degrees into the depths of utter failure. From these depths she is raised by Truth and Charity and is returned to her home where Love is finally found.

So well did each character play her part that the production left a very vivid impression on the minds of the audience and at no time was forced action in evidence.

"Democracy and Service" Topic at College Religious Service

Mark 10:32-45. Romans 12:1-8.

The principles presented so far issued from the conflict of Jesus with the Pharisees. When this conflict threatened His life, He withdrew to northern Palestine and began to tell His disciples that He would be put to death. The disciples inferring from His announcement that He was about to establish His kingdom and sharing the autocratic view of government of the day expected to be put into offices by His authority. Since they did not think that each would be given the place for which he was fitted, they wrangled about who should hold the chief offices.

James and John finally took their own cases in their hands and requested Jesus to give them the chief offices. In reply He expounded the place of the individual in society.

The words of Jesus are "Whosoever wills to become first shall be the servant of all." The background of these words is the idea of His age: the great are those who lord it over others. In other words the great are those who can so dictate to others or so maneuver them as to control them. In contrast with this view is the one based on "servant of all." To be the servant of all, however, is not negative. It means a man chooses to refer the use of his powers to others, to allow them to give direction to his actions, in short to seek the common rather than the isolated good. Paul has developed and applied this thought in the words in Romans 12: 1-8. Paul urges that each one shall take a sane view of himself and then do what he sees his powers fit him to do and that each one shall give others this privilege.

Autocracy moves away from this ideal; Democracy moves toward it. "The German educational system subordinates everything to the State and emphasizes intellectual training; the English is founded on due regard for the individual and emphasizes the formation of character." The education of ninety per cent. of the Germans is determined by the remaining ten per cent. Victor Huber in the nineteenth century having come into touch with Frederick Denison Maurice and his co-workers, who founded "Christian Socialism," tried to establish the movement in Germany. But he failed because he relied not on the government nor on revolutionary social democracy, but on individual initiative and free Christian feeling.

Democracy moves toward perfection according as it opens the way for each member to be the servant of all. Two ancient criticisms of Democracy are its glory. The criticism that Democracy cannot pursue a consistent policy because of frequent changes in rulers fails to see that each one cannot be the servant of all if one set of men, poor or wealthy, learned or unlearned, fix the policy of the government. The other criticism that Democracy's rulers are its servants we answer in Lowell's words concerning Lincoln:

"How beautiful to see
Once more a shepherd of mankind, indeed,
Who loved his charge, but never loved to lead."

'VARSITY FIVE MAKES ENVIABLE RECORD

COACH MUSSER DEVELOPS A FORMIDABLE QUINTET.

WIN ELEVEN OUT OF FOURTEEN GAMES

Undefeated on Home Floor.—Win 5 out of 8 Games on Foreign Floors. —Five Men Are Awarded the "B."

The game with the Carlisle Indians, played here a week ago last Friday, marked the passing of one of the most successful basketball season's that Bucknell has ever had. The victories won far outnumbered the expectations of the most optimistic Bucknell followers at the beginning of the season.

From the Varsity of last year there remained but two men, Musser center, and Waddell, forward. Waddell, when the season opened, had scarcely recovered from a fractured arm sustained in football and was unable to compete for a Varsity position. The services of Musser were lost to the team when he was chosen for the coaching job. But in this capacity he was able to render even more valuable service than had he been on the team. Most of the season's success is due to his efforts as coach. Although it was his first attempt at coaching he succeeded in developing, from all green men, a team that was hard to beat as the record of the season will show. He made his success possible by seeing to it that the men on the team observed the proper training rules and the stiff practices that he put them thru did not go unrewarded as it will be remembered that several of the games were won in the last few minutes of play.

Stanley Harris, noted for his work on class team, was with the team for a short time at the beginning of the season and rendered valuable service at the forward position. He was unable to continue on account of his school work.

Mathieson was the biggest asset to the team, participating in almost every game and scoring 75 baskets. His floor work was on a par with his ability to locate the basket. Townsend, forward, as well as playing a star game at that position was the foul shooter for the team and always succeeded in coming thru with a high percentage of single pointers. Gerhart occupied the center position and his work on the floor and in locating the basket was a big factor in the team's success. At the guard positions Bell and aCpt. Elliott were a combination that gave more than a little trouble to opposing forwards. They not only did much in keeping the scores of opposing teams down but their work on the floor closely resembled that of Boyles, the star of last year's Varsity.

The Orange and Blue team played thru a schedule of fourteen games winning all but three. Some of the best teams in the country were included in the fourteen. In fact the Usaacs team, of Allentown, is now generally conceeded to be the best team in the east. The three defeats are easily accounted for. In the ones handed out by the Usaacs and the Lafayette teams the Orange and Blue team was outclassed, but it is by no means a disgrace to be beaten by teams like these; to have made a good showing against them satisfied the Bucknell fans. The defeat early in the season at the hands of Lehanon Valley was due principally to a cramped floor on which the Bucknell team could not play up to its standard. On the home floor the Lebanon Valley team was an easy opponent to overpower.

MONDAY, MARCH 18, 1918.

How long would an American-German thinking and talking pro-Americanism, be tolerated in Berlin? How long would a German, thinking and talking anti-Austrianism, be tolerated in Munich? If you who read this were in Germany today, would you expect to be allowed to talk against Germany simply because you were an American? Would you not be profoundedly grateful to be permitted to remain alive and keep your mouth shut? If America is not united for war, it is, at least, to be hoped that from now on no human being in the country will talk sedition. There are two possible sorts of human beings in America today—foreigners and citizens. Of these it is the duty of citizens to be loyal; foreigners will be taken care of as they deserve, according to their actions. There is a third variety of human being in America—an impossible sort—citizen and disloyal. In time of war such a creature is as unimaginable as an atheistic Christian. It is hard to imagine, in time of war, how any being can be at once citizen and disloyal. Any German in Germany, talking disloyalty to Germany, would be placed against a wall and shot. If you can't talk for America, keep your mouth shut.

"The Bucknellian."

In the issue of "The Bucknellian" for the week of February 17 you stated that the first baseball practice had been held the previous Saturday with thirty-five men reporting, and that there were many other men in school of baseball reputation who would greatly strengthen the squad; consequently you held out high hopes for a successful season. Then in your issue of March 4 you announce that the baseball schedule has been cancelled due to a lack of material and that a discouragingly small number of men had reported at the call for candidates. Now it seems to me that these statements are not very harmonious in the information they seek to impart, and, accordingly, I came to the conclusion that there must have been some mistake in your columns that led to the incongruity. Thirty-five men plus others seems to me reasonable material for a team in a college of the size of Bucknell, in wartime, and because of this my curiosity commanded me to write to find out if possible wherein the misunderstanding lies.

I hope you will pardon me for thus thrusting myself upon you, but I would like to have this matter made clear to me.

Most truly yours,
E. K. STOCK,
Sporting Editor "The Gettysburgian"

Gettysburg, Pa.

We publish the above letter because it is a typical example of the many inquiries that we have received in regard to this seeming inconsistency. We trust that we can offer to this a satisfactory explanation.

It is true that it was stated in the issue of February 18 that thirty-six men had responded to the first call for baseball candidates, and that there were others who did not report at this time who are known to have considerable ability. Unquestionably this seems to be sufficient material from which to choose a wartime squad. There was, however, no mention made of entertaining high hopes for a good team. What really was stated was that there was no estimate made of this material and it was yet to be decided by the Athletic Advisory Board whether or not the material was of the calibre to make the playing out of a schedule worth while.

In the light of this it does not seem to us incongruous that in the issue of March 4, the announcement came that the Athletic Board had cancelled baseball from the spring sports because of lack of material. Of the thirty-six that reported there were only four who have played college or semi-professional baseball. The others were only of high school or prep school fame and in choosing a team from these there was a danger of lowering the high reputation Bucknell has attained in the baseball world. Rather than do this it was decided to have no schedule.

COMMUNICATION

In our Y. M. C. A. hankbook the assertion is made that our Bucknell spirit is best expressed by the Latin noun humanitas, which in English includes good scholarship, clean sportsmanship and the honor or a gentleman.

To the innocent bystander, the Sophomore-Freshman game Thursday night seemed to lack the element of good sportsmanship. We observed at least three very distinct instances of poor sportsmanship. In one case a player deliberately presented to his opponent a vicious blow because the latter was holding him with a sort of "half-Nelson." In another, one man knocked his adversary down and tried to rub his head thru the floor. This must have been a very uncomfortable and most embarrassing position for the poor chap underneath. In addition to these there was much evidence of "roughing things up."

Men, such a spirit is certainly not representative of Bucknell athletics. The Varsity five has a reputation for clean playing, why shoudn't it characterize other teams in the institution? Something was said in these columns recently about training the Freshmen in the way he should go, but the example set in this game was a mighty miserable one. Let's make up our minds to eliminate this rowdyism for all time, for the good name of Bucknell is at stake.

—PENN.

BUCKNELL'S ROLL OF HONOR

There appears three names on Bucknell's Roll of Honor. Since the thirty-first of December, 1917, three Bucknell men have lost their lives in the training camps. They are Oscar D. Berwick, B. A., ex-'17, who met death at Camp Beauregard, December 31, 1917; Reginald S. Newberry, ex-'17, died of pneumonia at the Allentown Ambulance Camp, January 13, 1918; Marmaduke Earle, ex-'18, met death in an aviation accident near Houston, Texas, March 14.

It has been wisely suggested that the term Honor Roll be applied only to lists of men who have lost their lives in the service of the country and the term Service Roll be used for keeping a record of those doing service in the nation's fighting forces. This distinction is made so that after the war is over there will be a way by which to distinguish those who have lost their lives in the war from those who have served and survived.

went through the season without a single defeat. Perhaps even more formidable teams than those that visited Lewisburg were defeated by the Orange and Blue on foreign floors. Hassett School, Gettysburg, Mt. St. Mary's and Juniata were some of the strong teams that the Varsity defeated on their own floor.

The scores of the season are as follows:

Bucknell 35, Bloomsburg 22; Bucknell 34, Lebanon Valley 43; Bucknell 40, Gettysburg 32; Bucknell 28, Hassett 24; Bucknell 40, Juniata 29; Bucknell 59, Lebanon Valley 37; Bucknell 24, Usanes 40; Bucknell 31, Lafayette 49; Bucknell 45, Carnegie Tech 32; Bucknell 54, Juniata 37; Bucknell 39, Indians 29; Bucknell 31, Mt. St. Mary's 23; Bucknell 44, Gettysburg 23; Bucknell 55, Indians 27.

The basketball "B" was awarded to only five men—Mathieson, Townsend, Gerhart, Elliott and Bell. Harris, had he been able to stay with the team, would have had no trouble in winning his letter. Ray Dorris was the most capable man of the second string squad but he did not participate in enough halves to entitle him to the "B."

One point which does credit to this year's five is the fact that they defeated the rival Gettysburg team both at home and abroad. The team that represented Gettysburg this year was practically the same as that of last year when the two teams split even.

Providing that the draft does not interfere Bucknell is due for a strong team next season, as only one of the present Varsity, Elliott, will not be in school next year. The remaining four will be better by a year's experience and should be one of the strongest teams in the country.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Clair and Eaton played a nice game at guard for the first year men.

The sophs had the advantage in securing the services of "Mal" Musser, Varsity coach.

Sophomore Cheerleader Mathieson kept their respective cheering sections in a continual state of uproar, and Klingelhoeffer of the freshmen

Underclassmen who donned old clothes and expected somebody to start a row were pleasantly disappointed. The crowd dispersed without shedding blood or kicking in any drumheads.

The brand of basketball played was considerably below what Bucknell fans have been accustomed to witnessing but nevertheless the game was interesting throughout and at times even amusing.

The Kappa Sigs are rejoicing that their spring housecleaning is finished. "George" Gray, an "aimless tourist" recently meandered up to their hospitable door and requested a donation of pensioned coverings. When they had togged him out in the latest styles, he demonstrated his gratitude by insisting upon thoroughly cleaning the house. George is at present a guest at the Kappa Sigma House, enjoying the fire-place and pool-room and entertaining the boys with the best stock of assorted stories heard around Bucknell since the last minstrel show.

Funds for a Senior Memorial at Cornell are being raised by a special campaign in which every member of the class of 1918, whether now in college or out, will be approached for subscriptions.

Here Comes the First Sprinkling of New Spring Millinery

While the Spring styles are all set, and most the shapes are now made up for this Spring's season, you are safe in considering your new Spring hat early, and there are a number of good reasons why you should.

First. Our early prices are always considerably lower than when it is in the rush of the season.

Second. We are trying to educate those who can, to buy their hat early and avoid the Easter rush.

Third. This Spring, by the time the millinery season is in full sway, all stores may have a very hard time to get the goods.

Fourth. If you buy your hat early, you will get your choice of the cream. You will get better materials, and you will get more wear from your hat.

Come and choose at your earliest convenience.

Special Sale of Woolen Cap and Scarf Sets, Separate Caps and Shoulder Throws

The very low prices mentioned here below are unusual, and especially at this time of the year when goods of this kinds are so much in demand.

Separate all-wool caps, worth up to 75c each now 25c.

Cap and scarf sets, worth up to $2.50, choice 98c.

Cap and scarf sets, worth up to $3.98, choice $1.98.

Cap and scarf sets, worth up to $3.50, choice $1.50.

Cap and scarf sets, worth up to $8.50, choice $4.95.

All-wool misses' hose, for girls and boys; black only; extra heavy. Worth $1.25 a pair, now 50 and 75c a pair.

High-Grade Winter Underwear

Do yo know the conditions of the market as to underwear? We do, and our advice is that if you can afford it, or even if you would have to deny yourself of something else.

5000 COLLEGE MEN NOW IN FRANCE

BUCKNELL REPRESENTED IN UNIVERSITY UNION

MORE THAN 90 COLLEGES IN UNIVERSITY UNION

Princeton, Harvard and Yale represented by 25 per cent. of their total rosters.—Bucknell has nearly 100 men in France.

More than 5,000 graduates and undergraduates of American universities are actually serving their country in France in some capacity. Some are engaged in Red Cross work, others are officials of the Young Men's Christian Association, but the majority of them are soldiers and officers in Uncle Sam's Army.

The number of university men who register daily at the American University Union in Europe averages between 40 and 50. Early in October this Union in Europe was organized. It had for its object the cultivation of more intimate relations between university men enlisted in the service of the United States by bringing them into closer contact, to provide for them adequate quarters during their stay in Paris, and generally to meet the needs of American university and college men and their friends who are in Europe for military and other service in the cause of the Allies. More than ninety colleges and universities have joined the union.

The Royal Palace Hotel 8 Rue de Richelieu, was practially "requisitioned," and since October 20, 1917, date of its formal opening, it has accommodated one hundred college men each day, and has often had to turn away prospective boarders owing to lack of rooms.

Professor George H. Nettleton, of Yale University, was elected chairman, while Dr. Paul Van Dyke, of Princeton, was prevailed upon to accept the duties of secretary.

Princeton has at present 742 men in France, about 25 per cent. of its total roster. The proportion is believed practically to be the same with Harvard and Yale. The remainder of the 5,000 men is made up of graduates from smaller universities.

Asked as to the relations between officers and privates in the American Army, who in their college days belonged to the same class, were members of the same fraternities, and in some cases even roommates, some of whom had commissions in the service while others were privates, Dr. Paul Van Dyke said:

"The relations are very cordial the officers speak with pride of their men, they seem to have genuine affection for them, and it is not an uncommon sight here in the Union to see captains, majors or even colonels conversing freely with privates who in college days were their intimate friends and fellowmembers of the same fraternity."

Concerning this elimination of distinction between officers and privates in Paris, he said:

"Don't you believe that because you see in the rare cases officers and soldiers chatting together as human beings that the discipline is less rigid than that of the German army, and that the boys are not willing to fight for their officers. It is the discipline of affection and confidence in one another rather than the whip cringing fear that is held over the head of the German automaton. There is no chance of an American officer getting a bullet in the back from one of his men, while I understand that such cases have been known to occur among our enemies."

Commenting on the clear-cut character of the American soldier in France as seen in the reading room of the American University Union, engaged in reading American magazines and other publications or playing chess or other games, Dr. Van Dyke said:

"For every one of the boys who might occasionally have imbibed too much and behaved in an undignified manner there are hundreds such as these but of course a black sheep in a white flock is more visible than the others.

"This war is not going to be won only by material and men, not only by the armies in presence," he continued, "but it is a war of peoples, and everything must be done to keep up the morale of the civilians as well as that of the military. It is up to us to be modest. We are only amateurs in the war, we have not proved ourselves as yet, and it is not time for us to talk. We must await until we have accomplished something, and then we may talk about it. This is the spirit that we try to instill into the boys, and I must say that all of the former university men now officers in the Army with which I have come in contact feel the same."

FORUM FRATERNITY OCCUPIES A NEW HOME

ENTERED FORMER HOME OF SIGMA CHI FRATERNITY ON LAST SATURDAY.

Last Saturday the Forum fraternity entered a new home. They have taken as their new abode the former home of the Sigma Chi Fraternity situated on the bluff at the south eastern corner of the campus. The Forum formerly occupied rooms on Market Street, above Hill's drug store.

The Forum was founded as a local fraternity at Bucknell in 1910, and because of their steady growth they have come to the position where they may enjoy the comforts of a fraternity house. During the past three years five of the fraternities at Bucknell have moved from smaller quarters into a house. Every fraternity at Bucknell is now situated in a house.

COMPETITION FOR STAFF BEGINS THIS WEEK

ALL COMPETITORS SHOULD HAND THEIR NAMES TO EDITOR THIS WEEK.

The competition for the positions on the Bucknellian Staff will begin this week. Notice will be placed on the Bulletin Board sometime this week setting a time limit and unless you have your name in to the editor, Reamer, 20, before this time you will not be considered in the competition. If you have literary talent hand your name in and enter the competition for a place on the staff. Members of the Freshman Class are allowed to enter the competition.

Lester E. Lighton, a member of the Bucknell Ambulance Unit, Section 525, in service on the French front, is recovering from an operation for appendicitis in the Red Cross Hospital in Paris. He was operated on early in February. It was a peculiar coincidence that Lighton's nurses were both Pennsylvania girls. One was Miss Mary Barr, of Milton, and the other was a nurse whose home is in Camp Hill. According to a letter received by his mother who lives in Williamsport, Pa., Lighton is getting along nicely and soon expects to depart from the hospital for a short sojourn in France before returning to duty.

LAST OF SERIES OF ADDRESSES GIVEN

DR. PHILLIPS TAKES UP "DEMOCRACY AND SACRIFICE."

SUNDAY MEETINGS TO BE CONTINUED

Topic Next Sunday Will be on Some Phase of the Resurrection.—Effort Being Made to Bring Prominent Speakers Here.

Yesterday morning Dr. Phillips gave the last of the series of addresses on Democracy and the Teachings of Jesus. He took as his topic, "Democracy and Sacrifice." Altho this is the last of this series the Sunday Morning meetings will be continued until about a month before the close of the term. An effort is being made to have one or two prominent speakers here before the meetings are discontinued for the year.

The substance of Dr. Phillips address was as follows:

Mark 8:31-37; 14: 1-2; 14:32-42.

The last topic in the series, Democracy and Jesus, is Democracy and Sacrifice. We have seen that Democracy is not only a form of government; it is also a form of association. Its principle -is what we call the Golden Rule, which means justice to self as well as to others, a balance of interest that will allow no member to suffer, an attitude in which each member refers his conduct to every other member, in which each is the servant of all.

To the realization of this kind of society, Jesus dedicated his life. In the autocratic society in which he lived he came to know that devotion to his ideal meant his death. He was convinced, however, that death for this principle would bring life. "Whosoever shall lose his physical for my sake and the gosel's sake shall save the larger life of good." His insight had taught him that sometimes life must be sacrificed for the good that gives life value.

The sacrifice of Jesus like all suffering has its mystery. The mytery in his own life and in the life of others he did not attempt to explain nor did he minimize its awfulness. The reason for his death he expressed in these words: "Not what I will but what Thou wilt." Jesus died because he chose to die. Had he preferred to set aside the best in the society in which he was, he could have escaped death, not illegally as Crito suggested Socrates should do, but legally by relieving the Pharisees of his presence through moving to a foreign country. To escape this would have meant to choose not to do the will of God. For the perpetuation of the best in his society, the life of servant of all among the Jews, the life that is shared with each one who comes within its reach, the life that is the root of all good everywhere, required in his age such a sacrifice as he made.

Such a sacrifice cannot be made except on the basis of the democratic principle. For only as a man refers his acts to the interest of the whole world can he make such a sacrifice. The classic interpretation of Jesus's sacrifice is John 3:16. . .

Sometimes to save the good, the interests of all, the supreme sacrifice of life must be made. What form the sacrifice shall take Christianity does not dictate; it leaves the form for the intelligence of the age to decide. Two forces have operated in the evolution of the race: the survival of the strongest and mutual aid. To preserve the latter against the aggressiveness of the former those who stand for latter have often been compelled to lay down their lives. In this struggle Germany represents might; the Allies, mutual aid. The form of our service at first was to remain outside of the maelstrom. But when mutual aid in the whole world was in danger, then President Wilson announced our duty as sacrifice when he said: "The day has come when America is privileged to spend her blood and her might for the principles that gave her birth and happiness and peace which she has treasured.

God helping her she can do no other."

BUCKNELLIAN APPOINTMENTS.

It is customary for the man who has served as the Assitant Editor of The Bucknellian one year to become the Editor the following year. This year however because Hayes L. Person, 19, the Assistant Editor for the past year, has left the college to enter the service of the United States Army, it has become necessary to select not only an Assistant Editor but an Editor as well. The basis upon which all such appointments are made is excellence in English Composition. On this basis F. F. Reamer, '20, has been appointed Editor for the coming year and H. C. Reed, '20, Assistant Editor. The Assistant Editor will become Editor for the year of 1919 and 1920, should his work prove satisfactory.

Dr. Llewellyn Phillips.

NAVAL RESERVES NOW OPEN FOR STUDENT ENLISTMENT

THOSE WHO ENLIST GIVEN DEFERRED CLASSIFICATION TO COMPLETE COURSES.

Attention of students at Bucknell University is called to the following copy of letter from the Bureau of Navigation of the Navy Department to the Commandant of the Fourth Naval District.

Navy Dept. Bureau of Navigation,
Washington, D. C

To: Commandant, Fourth Naval District:

Subject: Enrollment of undergraduate students of technical universities.

Encl.: 1.

1. In order to insure the future engineering men of the Navy, the Bureau desires to enroll undergraduate students of technical universities in the Naval Reserve Force.

2. The Bureau therefore directs that any undergraduate between 18 and 21 years of age who is actually taking a technical course at a technical university, and physically qualified may be enrolled in the Naval Reserve, class 4 for general service, as seaman, second class.

3. These undergraduates will not be called to active duty until they have graduated, except in case of a the Bureau at present does not foresee.

4. No promise of commission will be given these undergraduates, and when graduated and called to active service they will be examined and rerated according to their ability and requirements of the service.

5. This includes pre-medical men of the University.

6. Those who are already in the draft and desire to enlist are required to get a letter from the local board showing their release.

Any further information may be obtained from Wm. H. Morrison, '20, who has enlisted in this branch, or from the college office.

ORCHESTRA REHERSAL.

Orchestra rehersal tonight at 7 o'clock in Bucknell Hall.

The student body of Gettysburg College has petitioned the Faculty to shorten the college year by the elimination of the Easter and all other vacations in order that the students may be free for industrial service the latter part of April.

B. U. MEN IN FRANCE RECEIVE HIGH PRAISE

MINISTER TRAVELING ABROAD VISITS SECTION 525.

DOING NOBLE WORK SAYS REV. WOODFIN

Men are in fine spirits and living up to their college ideals.—Willing to "go right into danger."

The following letter was received by The Bucknellian last week. It was written by Rev. William M. Woodfin, who visited the camp of the B. U. Ambulance Unit, Sect. 525, in France, and was entertained for a short time by the Bucknell boys. The following letter shows that the Bucknell boys are doing a good work over there and are winning honor for their Alma Mater.

"I am a stranger to you but I am sure my message will be of interest to you and your college and to the friends of the boys who are doing their bit in the American Ambulance Unit in France with the French Army.

"I had gone to Bar La Duc to visit an American camp somewhere near there and was waiting uutil morning to go. I had started to my hotel where I saw a familiar uniform in a store and walked in and asked the boys if they were not Americans. "You bet we are and it looks mighty good to see some one from home in civilian clothes," was the rely. I traveled six weeks in civilian clothes, spent some time with Americans, four days at the French front and five days at the British front and never put on a uniform. It was very interesting to the fellows to see a sure enough civilian.

"I asked these three boys where they were from and the said 'Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa.' 'Oh yes,' I replied. 'I knew your school for you played at Swarthmore when I was there as pastor of the Presbyterian church.' Since they had a fellow from home, they asked me to go to their camp where they were in repose. They had not had religious services in some time so I gave them a little sermon and we sang the dear sweet songs with enthuiasm. This lieutenant arranged for me to sleep in his quarters, which I did with comfort. He is a delightful man and the mothers of these boys will be glad to know their boys are under such a fine Christian gentleman. He is working to keep the men happy and wholesome.

"The boys are doing a great work in evacuating the wounded men from the front. They have been around Verdun and one gave me a Boche steel helmet, but it was so heavy I could not bring it with me. They are constantly on the change.

"The fellows were in fine spirits and were living up to their college ideals. I was proud to know that Bucknell had such a fine class of men in France doing such noble work. One or two of the boys received the Croix-de-Gerre for heroic work. One of them was gassed, but is over it now. They are a brave set of men, and go right into danger after the wounded men. I hope the college paper will send copies of this letter to the parents and to friends opposite their names—and you may publish the names too, if you like.

Cordially yours,
WM. M. WOODFIN.

The letter was accompanied by the following signatures of the Bucknell men with whom Rev. Woodfin came in contact. R. N. Cragg, J. B. Vanderbilt, John P. Williams, Max A. Straub, F. M. Gregg, H. V. Fisher, Spurgeon Cross, T. W. Agnew, Lester E. Lighton, G. W. Earle, Chas. M.

OUR SWAN SONG.

With this issue the present Bucknellian Staff heaves a deep sigh, hands in its last contribution of "copy" and goes to bed for a good night's sleep at last. Farewell editorials are very much the same every year, and no doubt the sentiment of each retiring board has been about the same since the beginning. Truly there is nothing new under the sun.

The past year has marked a decidedly unusual page in the history of Bucknell. We have seen the thinning of our ranks by the call of the country, the ready response of the University, the shortening of the college year and the wholesome attitude of our student body in adjusting itself to meet conditions.

In atheletics we have seen a tank-like football team plow thru a hard schedule. We have watched all green material whipped, by good coaching, into one of the fastest basketball fives in the east. At times there seemed to be a lack of support, but always the old Bucknell spirit has met the emergency and upheld her dignity and traditions.

As this time marks the time of a change in this paper we beg leave to present the progress of The Bucknellian. Economy and other conditions necessitated the insertion of a little more advertising material. By making the articles a little more condensed and by trying to hold closely to journalistic principles we feel that nothing has been lost by the change. Whether the standard of the publication has been kept up or raised is for our readers, not ourselves, to say.

And now we are about to turn the management over to our successors. We are sure that there will be improvements under their able supervision. And yet, there is a mingled feeling of relief and regret in stepping aside for the new staff. Relief, because the responsibility that has rested on us is now to be placed on the shoulders of others. Regret, that we no longer have to feel responsible for it, for after all there is no greater pleasure than in working and sacrificing for a cause dear to us, for the good of our Alma Mater.

If feelings have been hurt in these columns, we tender our regrets. The position of the college publication is well defined. There must be no indecision; it must be ready to give credit where credit is due, it must be a supporter of every proper reform and the general sentiment of the student body must be moulded and interpreted in one definite direction with the welfare of the University by always the guiding light.

Our race is run. A fresh runner awaits the touch that will start him on the round of another year. May the track be smooth, the support from the stands hearty, and future issues will recall with pride the days when we were on the job, and The Bucknuellian will do credit to the institution that it represents.

MUSICAL CLUBS TO GIVE CONCERT AT WEST MILTON

TRIP SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY NIGHT. OTHER SHORT TRIPS PLANNED.

The Bucknell Musical Clubs will take a trip to West Milton next Saturday night to give a concert in the Lutheran church. The trip will be made in automobiles and thus assuring the reutrn the same night. The club has several other engagements for the next month and will afford a good time for the fellows in spite of the fact that the big trip has been called off. Among the places that have definite dates are West Milton, Milton, New Columbia, Mazeppa, and a sure trip to Williamsport the first week in May.

Prof. Stolz announces rehersal tonight and it is essential that every fellow who expects to make the trip come out at 9 o'clock at Bucknell Hall.

SUMMER ORDERS FOR ENLISTED ENGINEERING STUD.

Many of the engineering students who enlisted in the Engineers' Reserve Corps have made inquiries concerning what is to be expected of them during the summer period. The administration has taken up the matter with the Office of the Chief of Engineers, War Department, and has been informed that students enlisted in the Engineer Enlisted Reserve Corps are required to submit a monthly report during the summer months, that this is the only thing that is required of them by the Office of the Chief of Engineers.

GLEE CLUB

The home concert by the Glee Club will not be given until the latter part of this term. The Club gave a very delightful concert at Winfield a short time ago and its reputation has been such that the various churches in West Milton, Milton, New Columbia, Allenwood and other nearby towns have written to the management for engagements. All the concerts are given for the benefit of the Red Cross Society, the Club merely making expenses out of trips. In order that expenses may be as low as possible, automobiles will be employed to transort the fellows.

Prof. Stolz will adopt a new plan this season. The big concert number for next year will be started in a few weeks, so that the fellows will be able to start in on it and be able to render it within five or six weeks after the fall term opens. In this way the club will be able to round out two complete programs, and will be in a position to take advantage of every engagement offered.

D. C. Munro, Professor of Mediaeval History at Princeton, is the editor of a Government pamphlet entitled "German War Practices," which has recently appeared. The pamphlet is the first of a number of publications which will be published by the United States Government exposing German barbarities in warfare.

The 1919 Bric-a-Brac, the class year book of the University, has this year been dedicated to the men in the service.

TRACK MEN TO BEGIN OUTSIDE TRAINING THIS WEEK

CALL ISSUED FOR ALL TRACK CANDIDATES TO REPORT FOR PRACTICE.

The carddidates for the track team will begin outside training this week. The track has been worked into good condition and the weather has become mild enough for outside training. A. R. Mathieson, one of the members of last year's varsity team, has been appointed to take charge of the track affairs and issues an urgent call to all track aspirants to be out for practice this week. A team of about five men will be chosen to represent Bucknell at the Penn relay races. There are only two men in school this year from lass year's varsity and keen competition is expected for the open positions.

WITH THE OTHER COLLEGES

A frisky gale at Valparaiso University last week carried away a side of the chapel roof. Black omen prophets attributed it to the wonderful display of Aurora Borealis that occurred shortly before.

A bumper baseball season is anticipated by the "experts" at Valparaiso. Outside practice will begin this week.

No student will be allowed to graduate from the University of Pittsburgh who has not secured a sufficient number of military credits.

Because of their inability to secure the required finances, the class of 1919 at Lafayette, will be unable to publish the class annual.

A fee of two dollars is required of every individual at Swarthmore who takes a make-up examination; no exam may be taken "in absentia."

At the close of the year, the records of Princeton University show that a total of 2,539 Princeton men are in the service of the government. Of this number 675 are now on duty in Europe, and 1,364 are in this country.

By action of the faculty, it has been decided to close Ursinus College a month in advance of the usual time in order to release students for war work. The Commencement exercises will be held on May 14.

The senior class of Cornell University, in accordance with a decision of the Student Council, will not wear the accustomed cap and gown this year at Commencement.

From 500 to 700 service students from the various naval and military camps of the country will be trained at New Hampshire State College after the Commencement, May 1.

Fifteen girls have entered the radio course at Pitt.

A war-time schedule of eight football contests has been officialy adopted by the athletic council of the University of Pennsylvania. This is a considerable decrease, the 'varsity having heretofore engaged in ten or eleven battles. Michigan and Carlisle are the two most important contests whose contracts have not been renewed; the former because of the return of the Wolverines to the Western Conference, necessitating fewer games.

The Williams Record, quoting a Boston paper, gives these figures, which show the great influence of the war on the college: Last year, 123,327 men and women attended college, while this year there are 192,353. A comparison of entering classes show a decrease of 3,359 from last year. The attendance at women's colleges has slightly increased. Athletics have been affected to the extent that 26 collges have discontinud them entirely; 22 out of 26 have eliminated pre-season coaching and 23 out of 26 have no training tables.

Cambridge University has made special arrangements to accomodate American college men who are serving with the men in France and wish to spend their short leave in England Cambridge hopes by this to promote closer relations with the colleges and universities of the United States.

Prof. J. F. Klein, dean of the faculty of Lehigh, died recently.

With only one letter man left from last year s team Lehigh has voted to continue baseball this year and play out a schedule as usual.

GENERAL REVIEW OF COL. ATHLETIC POLICIES

MANY COLLEGES RETURN TO ATHLETICS ON NORMAL BASIS.

A general tendency among colleges to return to athletics on a normal basis is revealed in a comprehensive survey of the leading institutions printed by The Yale Daily News. The New Haven university's publication summarizes the situation as follows:

"College athletics for the coming season throughout the country will be modeled according to the following demands; First, the demands of the Government; second, the demands of the curriculum, and third, the demands for physical training at the present time.

"The general consensus of opinion of the colleges and universities of the United States seems to prove that the above demands call for the return to the more or less formal pre-war form of athletics, and consequently the formation of university teams, with the curtailment of expenses wherever possible, to meet the demands of the Government; the shortening of schedules where necessary because of early closing or military work to meet the demands of the curriculum, and a more widespread participation in athletics to meet the demands of physical training at the present time.

PRINCETON plans to resume university maseball this spring, but the schedule will not include the extensive trips of former years nor interfere with the military work of the undergraduates. Boxing, bomb-throwing, bayonet fighting, wall scaling, hurdling, relay racing, and other forms of military athletics are being introduced into this year's program of sports and are arousing much enthusiasm and rivalry among the undergraduates.

CORNELL plans to carry a schedule for baseball, track and crew in every case where it does not interfere with the plans of the univessity R. O. T. C.

DARTMOUTH will have a university baseball team playing a schedule of twelve or thirteen games, the track team will participate in the usual meets and the tennis team will carry thru its schedule as usual.

PENNSYLVANIA. The Athletic Council of the University of Pennsylvania has decided to go ahead with all Spring sports.

BROWN. On account of finances Brown has discontinued its gymnastics, wrestling and tennis teams. Track and baseball will be continued.

HARVARD. At Harvard baseball is the only spring sport that has an auspicious start. A schedule will be arranged. Track and other minor sports will be carried on in a modified way.

YALE will continue allathletics as usual.

SYRACUSE plans to go ahead with all branches of Spring athletics, but because of financial conditions the schedules are considerably lighter than in former years.

WILLIAMS Baseball and track will have their usual places during the Spring months at Williams, modified in schedule as the war situation demands.

W. AND J. Due principally to the fact that W. & J. is closing in the middle of May, the college authorities have decided to omit baseball this Spring. Athletic activities are greatly handicapped at W. & J., the college attendance being cut down about 40 per cent. due to the war.

Among the smaller colleges the tendency to continue athletics on a normal basis is much the same as in the larger schools. Swarthmore, Lehigh, Rutgers, Valparaiso, Dickinson, Carlisle Indians, Albright, Gettysburg and Lafayette are some of the smaller colleges that are continuing spring athletics with slight modification in schedules.

Here Comes the First Sprinkling of New Spring Millinery

While the Spring styles are all set, and most the shapes are now made up for this Spring's season, you are safe in considering your new Spring hat early, and there are a number of good reasons why you should.

First. Our early prices are always considerably lower than when it is in the rush of the season.

Second. We are trying to educate those who can, to buy their hat early and avoid the Easter rush.

Third. This Spring, by the time the millinery season is in full sway, all stores may have a very hard time to get the goods.

Fourth. If you buy your hat early, you will get your choice of the cream. You will get better materials, and you will get more wear from your hat.

Come and choose at your earliest convenience.

Special Sale of Woolen Cap and Scarf Sets, Separate Caps and Shoulder Throws

The very low prices mentioned here below are unusual, and especially at this time of the year when goods of this kinds are so much in demand.

CHAPEL RUSH DAY TO BE HELD SATURDAY

EXERCISES TO COMMEMORATE ENTRANCE INTO WAR.

ALL STUDENTS ARE URGED TO ATTEND THAT DAY

The Aim of the Idea Is To, in Some Way, Take a Part in the Nation-wide Celebrations of That Day.

Next Saturday, April 6, 1918, the first anniversary of the entrance of the United States into the present war, will be observed as chapel day, at Bucknell. Special music will be a feature of the exercises on that morning and it is desired that every fellow on the hill and every girl in the "Sem" turn out and in this small way do honor to the loyal band of Bucknell men who are in the service of their country and to the three who have already given up their lives in the cause of democracy.

The ambulance units which are in active service at the front and the two hundred and more other Bucknell men across the water and in training on this side are reflecting great credit upon their alma mater and it is as little as we can do who remain behind in showing our appreciation of their efforts the best we can.

A special chapel day has been selected as the best means of carrying out this idea, and it is hoped that every loyal and patriotic Bucknell student will be present at Bucknell Hall Saturday morning.

ELECTRICAL MEETING.

The electrical meeting of last week was taken up with the subject of summer employment. Each member of the society is preparing to do his bit for Uncle Sam this summer. The Westinghouse Co. will probably employ quite a number of our electricals.

STUDENTS TO HEAR NATIVE OF INDIA SPEAK

WILL BE AT BUCKNELL HALL ON NEXT SUNDAY MORNING.

Mr. Theodore Fieldbrave will address the College Religious Services Sunday morning, April 7, and at the Baptist church morning and evening. Mr. Fieldbrave is of the Aryan stock of India. He is a graduate Colby College and will receive B. D. at Crozer Theological Seminary and M. A. at University of Pennsylvania this spring. Dr. Milton G. Evans says that he is a man of more than ordinary culture.

The choir of Women's College will sing at the services in Bucknell Hall at 9.45.

CHEMICALS MEET

The last meeting of the Chemicals of the present school year was addressed by Mark Everett, '20, The subject of the talk was "Zinc Products." Personal experience obtained in the service of the "New Jersey Zinc Company," formed the basis of the talk. This closes a series of most interesting talks.

SAILOR SCOTTY ENTERTAINS IN CHEMICAL LABORATORY

PLEASES WITH EXHIBITION OF CONTROL OF MUSCLES AND NAUTICAL TALK.

On Tuesday afternoon in the Chemical Laboratory, Sailor Scotty, U. S. N., gave an exhibition showing the control that a man can have over his muscles. His coming was not known until near three o'clock in the afternoon, because of the shortening of his furlough from thirty to eight days. This makes the time of his trips uncertain. Consequently there were but few present at 4.15. After a second invitation the students in the other parts of the laboratory came in and those that were passing outside were given a chance to view the exhibition. Finally, therfore, he was greeted by a full house.

During the time that the boys took to come in he kept those already present constantly entertained. "D'ye think there'll be any more from the top 'o the mountain?" and other Scotch expressions were a source of amusement. In addition to this his boyishness and nautical slang pleased the spectators. Baird, '20, was drafted into service as "Kid Reil" to assist.

In the course of demonstrations he increased at will the length of his arms, his neck and his leg. At one time he raised his height to the extent of six and a half inches. If a formula could be devised for this work we might call it "the Quickest Way to Grow." To conclude the program he had his hands tied with rope and then proceeded to make the one who had done him up look foolish, for he freed himself in two minutes. To defray the expenses a collection was taken.

NOTICE TO TRACK MEN

There will be practice every day this week at 4.15. In order to make a good showing at the Penn relays hard work will be necessary. Mathieson, '20, and Lewis, '19, are the only men from last year's team. There is a good chance for a place on the one mile relay team.

JUNIOR PROM COMMITTEE

There will be a meeting of the Junior Prom committee at 6.30 tonight in the Kapa Sigma House. Important!

EASTER TOPIC AT RELIGIOUS SERVICE

THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS AND IMMORTALITY.

APPROPRIATE ADDRESS GIVEN BY DR. PHILLIPS

Sources of Our Belief in Immortality Are Three.—The Supremacy of the Personality of Jesus Christ.

The address of Professor Phillips yesterday was in the form of a statement of belief. The summary was as follows: I believe in the resurrection of Jesus Christ; I believe in the resurrection of Jesus Christ because I believe in the supremacy of Jesus Christ in this world.

The sources of our belief in immortality are three: the Greek, the Hebrew, the Christian. The Greek based its hope on rational grounds; the Hebrew on faith in God, the Christian on faith in Christ as the expression of God. Since the advent of Christianity and its mingling with Greek thought, philosophy has aimed to brive into one the Greek and the Christian.

The conclusion of Christian thought is that immortality is not a continuation of existence in the race but a continuation of personal identity. For as the race advaced in thought the individual, not as a part of the whole but as a unit within the whole, has grown in value. Therefore, to have the individual lost in his contribution to race advancement is to reverse the trend of the highest thinking.

The resurrection story has in it many difficulties. Its physical characteristics caused Paul much trouble when he tried to persuade the Greeks to believe in it because the Greeks associated with life hereafter not the physical, but the spiritual. Notwithstanding the difficulties there is in the stories a fact. If there is not in the stories a fact, the Christian movemen began in an illusion.

That which guarantees the fact is the supremacy of the personality of Jesus. Jesus Christ is an expression of God could not be conquered even by death. Measured by the progress of thought, Jesus Christ is the highest value the human mind has conceived. For example today the supreme desideratiion of all nations is a power that will create unity out of the national differences. The need is not to absorb the differences, but to make one out of many. This power resides only in the personality of Jesus Christ in whom "there is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, thoir is neither male nor female." For all are one in him.

DR. J. G. BECHT TO ADDRESS THE UNIVERSITY CLUB.

One next Tuesday evening under the auspices of the University Club Dr. J. G. Becht, of Harrisburg, the secretary of the state board of education, will speak in the parlors of the Presbyterian church upon the topic: "Education in War Time." All are cordially invited to be present.

SON BORN TO BOOTH, '08

Announcement has been made of the birth of a son to the Rev. and Mrs. Winfield Scott Booth, of Collingwood, N. J. The Rev. Mr. Booth, Bucknell 1908, is pastor of the Collingwood, Baptist Church. The son has been named Winfield Robin Booth.

MEETING OF MUSICAL CLUBS

A full rehearsal of the Musical Clubs will be held tonight in Bucknell Hall at 9 o'clock. The schedule for rehearsals is as follows: Orchestra, 7 P. M.; Oratorio, 8 P. M.; Glee Club 9 P. M. All out!

THEODORE FIELDBRAVE
who will speak at college religious service next Sunday.

EVENING OF FUN.

A Dramatic evening is scheduled by the Y. W. C. A. for next Friday night. The plays now undergoing coaching by Miss Schillinger are to be given for the benefit of the Conference Fund which helps to send delegates to the annual Y. W. C. A. conference at Eagls Mere. This year the programme will be given in the Living Room of Woman's College. The admittance fee is only twenty-five cents.

OPERATIC SOCIETY PLANS FJR SPRING PROGRAM

PROCEEDS TO GO TOWARDS BUYING A VICTROLA FOR SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

The fact that the Operatic Society has not been out making a racket with fife and drum this term does not prove that the society is a back number. On the contrary, an organization with a more finely determined aim can not be found around the institution.

Last term the members of this energetic society decided that all its profits should be devoted to the purchase of a Victrola and records for the Bucknell School of Music to realize which approximately $250 is needed. In order to obtain part of the necessary sum a spring term concert is scheduled. On the program will be fiund selections from various well known operas. The date has not yet been decided, but all who have heard the Operatic Society in the past will anxiously await the announcement of the time and will arrange to attend, not to add to their own personal enjoyment merely, but to aid in furthering a good cause.

Along the social line there is "something doing." Sometime during the present school year a picnic will be held, members only, eligible to participate in the festivities. Arrangements are being perfected by Miss Brown and her co-workers on the committee.

All work done is carried out under the personal directorship of Prof. Stolz, head of the Music Faculty, who is ably assisted by "Romeo" Davis, president if the organization, and Miss Dorothy Villinger, secretary.

JUNIOR PROM COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES ITS PLANS

AFFAIR WILL BE FORMAL. TO BE HELD AT CLUB. GOOD ORCHESTRA.

Junior week this year which commences April 8 and ends April 12, will be terminated as is customary by the annual Junior Prom.

The dance this year will be held in the Lewisburg Club. It will be formal but in keeping with the times, flowers and cabs will be omitted. Dancing will be from nine until two and the music will be furnished by the famous "Hall's Banjo Orchestra," of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. This fact alone should insure a record crowd. As the tickets this year will be limited it would be advisable for all those who wish to secure tickets to see some member of the committee at the earlist possible time, in order not to be disappointed.

Chairman Williams and the committee are sparing no efforts to make this year's Prom the most succesful ever held and if the student body supports them in the proper way, their ambitions should be fully realized.

Keep in mind the Cap and Dagger's Spring play, which will be persented soon.

STAFF COMPETITION IN FULL SWAY

AFTER THREE WEEK'S TRY-OUT STAFF TO BE CHOSEN.

COMPETITION OPEN TO ALL STUDENTS

Choice of Staff to Be Made by Editor with the Sanction of Heads of Rhetoric Department.

In order that the competition for the staff of "The Bucknellian" may be fair, and that the staff may be chosen on an unbiased and uninfluenced basis, the folliwng method will be pursued:

1. The staff is open to all Bucknell students. In order to give a fair chance to everyone the date for closing of application for try-outs has been extended to Tuesday noon. April 2. All names must be handed to the editor.

2. An entire new staff will be chosen, with the exception of the manager, assistant manager and assistant editor, which positions have been previously filled by appointment of the faculty advisory board. The staff of last year competes also, but continues in office until a new staff is chosen.

3. All article handed in will be reviewed by the editor and put on file, just as they were written by the competitor, although in publication they may appear revised.

4. The competitin will last three weeks, ending in the issue of April 15. The purpose of a three weeks' competition is to give every one a chance to write at least ine large article.

5. The editor will review the work of each competitor and choose his staff. Then he shall submit his choice and the article of each competitor to the rhetoric department heads, who will render a final decision as to the staff.

6. In the issue of April 22, the new staff will be announced. The publication of that week, will be the first of the new staff.

MUSICAL CLUB CONCERT

Upon the invitation of the White Deer Church, about three miles from Milton, the combined musical clubs gave a concert last Saturday night. The trip from Lewisburg was made by automobile. Although the auditorium of the church was not large, it was comfortably filled by an audience that was appreciative, as was evidenced from the many complimenting remarks made after the program was concluded.

The program, as usual was varied, ranging from the orchestra and glee club numbers to the many solos and quaraette numbers. The program given was practically the same that was given in Winfield two weeks ago.

The work of the clubs is rounding out very well, and by the time Williamsport and the home concerts come will be up to the highest standard.

Professor Stolz has made it very plain to the fellows that if they do not respond better to the practices during the remainder of this year there will be no organization next year. So it is now up to the men themselves if they desire to advertise the school by means of the Combined Muical Clubs.

The concert this week is in Milton and rehearsal for both organizations will be held this evening as usual.

SPECIAL MOVIES.

The management of the Orpheum gave the engineers a treat in the form of an educational picture. The reels were very interesting, showing the manufactures of motors and of steam turbines at the large electric plant in Cehenectady, New York.

MONDAY, APRIL 1, 1918.

OUR ENTRANCE.

"Charity begins at home" is a time honored precept. The criticism of a college paper is a milder form of Charity, Charity in reference to a publication consists of advice that has as its purpose and aim, the betterment of the paper. As much as we appreciate such offerings, yet, we beseech you not to lavish your criticism or to exercise your fault finding faculty to too great an extent. We, the new staff, beg of you your patience with our first publication.

We realize the task which lies before us. We are aware of the recognized position which "The Bucknellian" holds among college papers. Ours will be the task to produce the type of paper which has ever, been representative of Bucknell. To do this we shall be required to expend great care and effort. This we shall do with pleasure, happy in the knowledge that we, as a staff, can offer our service to our college. The reason for the feeling is the same as that expressed by the preceeding editor, "there is no greater pleasure than working and sacrificing for a cause dear to us, for the good of our Alma Mater."

We shall strive always to bear in mind the ideal which "The Bucknellian" has held as its own, and which has served as the inspiration of former staffs, "A square deal for everybody." What better politics can our paper practice?

To practice what we preach, to live up to our ideal, requires nothing short of a realization that our fellow student expects no more of us than we expect of him, namely, —an appreciation of his position and a regard for his feelings and interests. A regard for the common concern of the student body is essential to a real expression of our policy. To place before the public the interests, activities, and attainments of the student body in a fair minded and impartial manner shall be our aim.

Y. M. C. A. CLOSES THE YEAR

Summary of the Year's Work and Final Report Given at Cabinet Meeting

The fiscal year of the Y. M. C. A. closes March 31. The final business meeting of the year was held in the Y. M. C. A. office March25. Reports were read covering the work of the past year.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $52.40 on hand at time of report. The membership committee reports 112 members, which is a larger percentage than last year, considering the number of students. A total of 12 religious services were reported with an average attendance of 22.

The manager of the hand-book report 465 books issued at a total cost of $150.08. This year the hand-book was quite successfully conducted from the business end, thanks to the advertisers.

The Lyceum report is a most interesting one. The report shows total receipts of $368.50. Total expenses $500.76. This leaves a deficit of $132.26 to be made up by the Y. M. C. A.

Bible study groups were reported to have have been conducted in most of the groups at the University. The Social committee reported having held a very successful reception for new men last fall.

When we remember the chaotic condition of the Cabinet and Y. M. C. A. affairs in the early part of the school year and look back upon what has been accomplished in the past year we think the year has been highly successful.

Secretary Heim has organized a Junior cabinet, composed of Freshmen in order that men might be trained for the work in the future. He engineered the drive made to secure money for the Students Friendship Fund with great success. Also the campaign for Democracy and Religion which just closed, was strongly urged by Heim and the Cabinet.

BASKET-BALL B's AWARDED
Five Men Receive Letters

The Athletic Advisory Board at its last meeting, awarded the varsity basketball "B" to the following: Townsend, '21; Mathison, '20; Gerhart, '19; Bell, '20; and Captain Elliot, '18.

In reviewing the work of the year, too much credit can not be given to Coach "Mal" Musser whose tireless efforts brought forth a very successful season.

Editors Note:—A previous publication of "The Bucknellian" stated that the basket-ball letters had been awarded at that time. This was some what previous. Therefore, we wish to correct that statement in this issue.

URGE BOYS TO COLLEGE

The University Club, of Harrisburg, of which John C. Johnson, '04, is a director, arranged a luncheon there on April 19 for the purpose of influencing seniors in the Harrisburg schools to go to college next fall. It might be well for our alumni and our present student body to follow Mr. Johnson's example and start to urge young men. Very often a few words in person can do far more than a hundred catalogs.

ATHLETIC ADVISORY BOARD PLANS FOR BASEBALL

The Athletic Advisory Board has been busy considering the problem of baseball for this Spring. A decision will be rendered very soon as to what kind of baseball we shall have. Whether it shall be a Fraternity League, an Inter-Class League, or some other form, is un-decided. Yet this much can be said: "We are going to have baseball of some kind."

A TRULY NATIONAL SPIRIT.

Confident in the righteousness of our cause, everyone earnestly and actively concerned in making their own part in the life of the Nation of the greatest possible value to the Public Good; a great, patriotic, potential push that will put us over seems to be to be the practical expression of true patriotism.

PARK TRAMMELL,
U. S. Senator from Florida.

By the rotation of events an the irresistible logic of righteousness which summons every brave man to the right side of the cause, the United States has entered this war. And it will never turn back until it has given the world peace; not merely a cessation of conflict but a peace based on righteousness.

THE JUNIOR PLATTSBURG FOR COLLEGE MEN
MILITARY PROGRAM TO BE DIRECTED BY UNIVERSITY HEADS.

Plattsburg, New York, will again be the scene of great military activities in the summer of 1918. Although the government summer training camps have all been abandoned since the declaration of war, private initiatives acting upon the suggestion of Major-General Leonard Wood led to the establishment last year of the Junior Plattsburg. This has now assumed national proportions and has definitely aligned itself in its program with the military efforts of the colleges and universities of the country. The Honorary President is President Edmund J. James, of the University of Illinois; the Advisory Board consists of twenty-five college and university presidents, representing leading institutions in all parts of the country, headed by representatives of the Army and Navy in the persons of Colonel Tillman, Superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, and Rear Admiral George B. Ransom.

The training is assimilated as far as possible to that of the regular U. S. Military and Naval camps, combined with practical special features which have come into prominence in connection with modern warfare, such as aeroplane griund work, hydroplane, motor boats, topography, military application of civil, mechanical and sanitary engineering; as well as the study of the science of farming and food conservation. All the technical instruction in military and naval science is under the direction of officers of the regular U. S. Army and Navy, recommended by the Departments in Washington. The Commandant will be a regular Army officer of high rank, and West Point and Annapolis discipline and ideals will prevail.

Since the Junior Plattsburg is established for young men under draft age, the training will not be intensive, as in the old Plattsburg. Special attention will be given to organized athletics for the periods of recreation, under the direction of Mr. Fred T. Dawson, of the Athletic Department of Princeton. The general entertainments, as well as the informal life of the camp will be under the direction of Rev. Ralph B. Pomeroy of the General Theological Seminary of New York. The Musical Director is Mr. Fleix Lamond of the Trinity church, New York. Provision has been made for six hundred (600) cadets.

BAND PRACTICE.

The Bucknell Band has played an important part in the school life so far this year, displaying prominence at the mass meetings and at the leading football and basketball contests. Bucknell usually enjoys the privilege of having a good band and this year marks no exception.

In former years the band always observed a custom which consisted of playing several out-door concerts at commencement time, and it expects to follow out the custom this year.

Bostian, '19, the leader, wishes to announce that he needs some new men in the organization. If you can play band instruments, show interest to come out and join. The next meeting will be held on Thursday evening in Euepia and all new men as well as regular men are expected to be on hand.

Community Dance.

A Community Dance will be given on Friday evening April 5th, at eight o'clock at the Lewisburg Club. No invitations. The public is urged to attend. All proceeds to go toward War Relief work in town or county. The Phi Gamma Delta orchestra will furnish music. Tickets, which are 75 cents, are on sale at the University Book store or can be had from the committee, John W. Bucher, J. F. Kurtz, John D. Musser, Lewis Rothermel and Leroy T. Butler.

Timely Suggestions From Seidel & Spangler's

SUITS ARE PARTICULARLY SMART THIS SEASON

The most popular suit today is the mannish, snug-fitting suit, which is plain tailored, while many novelty and exclusive styles are on display. Of serge, poplin, gabardine, etc., in blue, grays, tans, etc.

DISTINCTIVE SPRING COATS

All made in styles, adapted to soft materials—loose, with belts in crosswise effects, sometimes in back as well as in front; deep collars, touched with gay collar of silk, and pockets in novel styles. All are so fashionable and so reasonably priced that any woman or miss can afford one.

BOYS' WASH SUITS AND TOP COATS PRACTICAL STYLES AND ATTRACTIVE PRICES

Bring the boy here this week who is from 2½ to 8 years of age and select his new Spring clothes. We have a fine assortment of boys' wash suits and top coats, and we wish to emphasize the fact that we believe that there is none in his section equal to it.

BEAUTIFUL SPRING SILKS ON DISPLAY

These days can be well called the silk days, because there are many more silks worn than ever before, and silks today are lower in price than almost any other fabric. They have advanced less than anything else.

You should choose your new Spring dress from our wonderful line of new shades, new weaves, etc., such as poplins, foulards, taffetas, Georgettes and pussywillow weaves.

L'AGENDA TO APPEAR THIS WEEK

NOVEL CHANGES TO FEATURE THE YEAR BOOK.

COPIES NOT ORDERED IN ADVANCE LIMITED

Snap Shots of Faculty in "Real Life" to Displace Old Cuts. Class Rolls with Personal Quotations. —Pictures of Men in Service.

"The 1919 L'Agenda has been shipped from the binders and will be placed in circulation this week." This is the statement made by the Editor, Herman, '19. The publication of the Bucknell Annual is the event of the Spring Term and looked forward to for many long weeks prior to actual presentation. Wonder as to what the new features will be and what changes have been made in the general getup of the magazine forms a chief topic of conversation from the time that active work on the magazine begins until the books is in the hands of the students.

Many rumors of a newer and greater L'Agenda have persistently hovered in the background of all L'Agenda discussions. Many new features were rumored from the start, but how many of these rumors had grounds sufficient for belief was a matter of conjecture until Editor Herman saw fit to enlighten the public. The first main change was and including a personal quotation for each member. This is an innovation which will greatly add to the interest of these departments, as it will give every member of the University a personal interest in the book. In the Junior Department, the pictures of the members of the class will appear as usual, with the added feature of the autograph of each member below the picture. This would largely elimanate any desire for a special autograph section of the book. An interesting Alumni Department has been featured by sketches of some of our most noted alumni, which department alone is of great value, especially to members of past classes. Four pages of miscellaneous snap-shots of interesting places and happenings about the college have been inserted to give the book a more pronounced flavor of the college life we enjoy here.

The Class has dedicated the book as its memorial to members of the Class in service. There is a special Service Department for the members. In the fourteen pages of this department appears pictures of each man of the class in service, the endeavor to change the catalog effect which for many years has characterized the book. To avoid this, the cuts of the members of the faculty which have been used of late have been displaced by snaphots of the faculty in "real life." Instead of listing the names of the members of the Senior, Sophomore and Freshman classes as in past issues, there will be class rolls for each class, denoting the fraternity of the men

MANAGER

CAP AND DAGGER TO WORK ON THE SPRING PLAY

CAST WILL START PRACTICE THIS WEEK FOR PRESENTATION OF FARCE COMEDY.

On Wednesday evening, April 24, Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society will stage its annual Spring play at the Orpheum Theatre.

It has been the custom of the Society to present the Spring play in Commencement Hall, but this year, because of the excellent support given plays at the Orpheum, it has been decided to put the play on at the town show house.

The play this year will be a rollicking farce comedy; "When Katharine Arrives," or "The Arrival of Kitty."

There is not a dull line in the entire play and during the course of the performance wit and humor promises to flow to the audience in a seemingly ceasless stream. An interesting feature of the play will be the carrying of women's lines by men and it will no doubt be well worth while to attend, if only to see a man "trip" across the stage in a regular girlish fashion.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTION.

The annual election of the Y. M. C. A. officers will take place next Thursday, April 12 in the Reading room of Main Building. All budget holders are entitled to vote. These men will assume office at the close of the Spring term. Following are the candidates as recommended by the Y. M. C. A. cabinet. For the President, Harry C. Fries and Russel Stout. For Vice President, Evan Ingram and Elton P. Richards. For recorder, Geo. Starkweather and R. A. Witchey. For treasure, Franklin Jones and George Lowry. The hours of election 10.15 to 12.15 a. m., and 1.15 to 2.15 p. m.

ZAUBRE BROTHERS.

On Tuesday evening, April 16th, there will be presented in the Orpheum the Zaubre Brothers, exponents of the magic art of slight of hand and spirtualism. They will present many new and startling exhibitions of their own composition.

The admission will be 25 cents, and reserved seats will be on sale a week in advance at the Orpheum.

"Fussing" of college girls will be allowed according to the prescribed rules for such affairs.

There will be a meeting of the Students Volunter Band on Wednesday evening, at 8 p. m.

NATIVE OF INDIA ADDRESSES STUDENTS

FIELDBRAVE IS GRADUATE OF COLBY COLLEGE.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE CHOIR FAVORS WITH SONG

Speaker Tells of India and Its People.—Hindu Explanation of the Creation.—The Position of the Women in India.

On Sunday morning Theodore Fieldbrave, a native of India and a graduate of Colby College and of Crozer Theological Seminary addressed the College Religious Service. Before his address Mr. Fieldbrave sang in his native tongue the well known hymn "I Need Thee Every Hour," which was translated into the Hindu language by his father who has composed several hymns.

Mr. Fieldbrave gave a very interesting talk on India and its people. This wonderful and very unique country, although it is considered far behind other countries in many things, yet is is a thousand of years ahead in thinking. The people of this country often sit and ponder for hours at a time about God, life after death, and of other such things. As a result of this we find in India some of the most profound philosphers, and a people who are by nature very religious. Everything to them has a religious significance back of it. They can see God in everything.

In India there are four leading religions. The first is Hinduism, which has about two million followers. Next to Hinduism comes Mohammedanism which has about eighty millions of followers. Thirdly comes Buddihism with ten millions of followers, and last comes Christianity with about three million of followers. Although the latter has the least number of followers, yet it is gaining the most rapidly and will some day outgrow undoubtedly all the others.

One of the most interesting things about the religion of India is the story of the creation of man and of woman. God first created a man out of nothing, they say, and in doing this, he spent all his powers, and engergies. He was exhausted when he had finished his task, and was unable to create anything else. However God saw that man was not happy alone, and needed a mate but he was unable to create a mate for him. Finally one day, God while sleeping had a vision of how he might secure a mate for man. He mixed together in equal proportions the roundness of the moon, the undulating curve of the serpent, the graceful twist of the creeping plant, the slenderness of the willow, the velvet of the flower, the lightness of the feather, the gentle gaze of the doe, the frolicsomesss of the dancing sunbeam, the tears of the cloud, the timidity of the rabit, the vanity of the peacock the hardness of the diamond, the cruelty of the tiger, the chill of the snow, and the cackling of the parrot. All these he mixed together and produced woman as a mate for man.

In India every girl is extremely fortunate as compared with girls of other countries, in that they all have a man. There is a rule that every girl must be married at the age of fourteen, although the girl never sees her husband until they are married, the parents doing the choosing. After marriage, although the husband is always devoted and very kind to his wife, she is never allowed to walk beside him, but must follaw about a yard behind him If the husband were to die the girl is not allowed to marry again.

GLEE CLUB ELECTION

The Glee Club held its election of officers last Monday, at which time the following were elected: President, DeWitt K. Botts; vice president, Raymond P. Lewis; treasurer, Professor Stolz; manager, Thos. J. S. Heim; secretary, Homer T. Eaton; assistant manager, Harry R. Warfel. At the close of the meeting the club gave the insructor, Professor Stolz, a rising vote of thanks as a slight token of their appreciation for the work and time he has spent in making the club the success it is today.

FIVE NEW MEMBERS TO CAP AND DAGGER

FIRST COMPETIVE TRIALS FOR MEMBERSHIP BRINGS KEEN COMPETITION.

On Saturday morning "Cap and Dagger," the men's dramatic society, held its first competitive trials for the admission of new members to the society.

Formerly, admission to "Cap and Dagger" was gained by simply participating in some play. Last year, however the Society was reorganized and entirely new system adopted which is based entirely upon competition.

Under the new system any student of the institution is eligible for membership. Any one wishing to compete for admission fills an application blank which handed to Miss Edith Schillinger, who is an honarary life member and coach of the society.

They are then assigned a part in one play and advised by Miss Schillinger as to how the part should be interperted.

They must then work up the part and present it before the society who act as critics.

Members criticize on the following basis Vocal expression 20 per cent., Gesture, Face and body, 20 per cent., Stage manner and bearing, diligence ability, memory, 25 per cent., and impression 25 per cent. The markings of the society are then averaged and the men receiving the highest marks are chosen as new members.

This year there were seven candidates from which five men were chosen. The work done loyally the applicants was of the highest quality and the competition keen.

As a result of the competition the society takes pleasure in announcing the election of the following as new members of Cap and Dagger: H. LeRoy Hellar, '21; Francis F. Reamer, '20; Nelson M. Chance, '20; David Warfel, '20; Russel Stout, '19.

The quality of the work done by these men was of the highest and Cap and Dagger feels sure they have secured a valuable addition to their organization in the persons of these men.

INTER-CLASS BASEBALL

The Athletic Association, after due consideration, has decided upon class baseball for this spring. On account of the number of fraternities here, the few remaining weeks did not seem to afford the necessary time for playing a satisfactory inter-fraternity schedule. Class baseball should be very keenly contested and seems to meet the approval of the fellows.

In regard to equipment, the association will furnish bats, balls and the catching apparatus. However, the players must supply their own uniforms and gloves. Each class should elect its manager immediately, for there will be a meeting of the four managers as soon as they are chosen. Let's get started soon; for the term is short!

PRES. HARRIS ADDRESSES CHAPEL

STUDENTS RESPOND LOYALLY TO PATRIOTIC CALL.

ANNIVERSARY OF ENTRANCE OF U. S. INTO WAR

President States That the Germans Have Committed Two Great Follies—Submarines and Zeppelin Warfare.

On the sixth day of April, 1917 bells and whistles about Lewisburg announced the entrance of our nation into the conflict raging in Europe. One year later, as the clock on the hill struck eight, the greater part of the student body of Bucknell assembled in the chapel to commemorate that occasion. After the singing of "America" the President read the scripture from the eleventh chapter of Paul's epistle to the Hebrews.

Following the singing of "Gloria," Mr. Harris prayed for the World in the general good will and the brotherhood of men and the suffering ones in all parts of the land. The Lord's Prayer was chanted. The faculty and student body then arose and sang the Star Spangled Banner.

After these opening exercises, the students listened to a most stirring and impressive address by President Harris. He opened by saying that when the U. S. entered into the war there was opened a new chapter in the history of the world. Troops poured into the battlefields of France from all sides of the globe—Canada, India, Africa, United States and smaller countries. It seems that the blindness of the German oligarchs can be likened unto the blindness of the slave oligarchy in this country before the Civil war. They can see nothing but their own greed and lust.

In February of 1917 came the collapse of Russia and had the United States not interfered when it did, there might have been a different story to tell today. It has been said of old, "Whom the gods would destroy, them they first make mad." The speaker said that this might be applied to Germany today. The New Testament tells us in one place that they who are under a delusion and believe a lie shall perish. Is Germany today under a delusion? Napoleon said that there were four things that were necessary to give victory. They are: numbers, equipment, drill and morale. He also said that morale is three-fourths of that which is necessary for victory.

Our President then said that the curse of sin is blindness. The Germans, he stated, are, or were, under two delusions. The first was that of submarine warfare. Germany took the chance of drawing us into the war by starting her ruthless warfare in this way. It was contrary to International Law and Humanity. She figured that in six months they could starve England. Germany knew how we were fixed at that time. Then came the biggest folly of all. That was the sinking of the Lusitania. A thousand women and children perished. It is said that the kaiser remarked that he would not have had this done, had he known, the result, because it was not the act of gentlemen. However, they must suffer for this example of moral blindness.

The second delusion was the one concerning the Zeppelin warfare. Germany thought that the people would be terrified and accept whatever the enemy proposed. Instead it aroused the people and led to the passing of the Conscription Act. Here the Germans wanted to shell the parts of the city that were unfortified. An attacking

MONDAY APRIL 8. 1918.

AVE ATQUE VALE

Of a morning, we enter a classroom, greet our classmates, and begin the hour's work. At the rollcall, one is found absent. From the chair comes the words. "He has entered the service." Then, we realize that he has answered to the greater roll-call of his country.

The men who now leave are making no less sacrifice than those who previously heard their country's voice. They have remained at college until now, because they saw before them a duty—their duty—to continue their college work, that they might better be able to do their part, when the time for reconstruction comes.

When, last spring, our ambulance unit, which has been such a great credit to our school, and has so nobly covered itself with glory, departed, we sent them off with a farewell that none will forget. When others left for other branches of the service, we, as a student body, expressed our well wishes and our "God speed." What farewells have we, as a university extended to those who have recently departed? True, individuals have done their part. Yet, we as a student body, could not well have proffered a farewell to each as he left. Inasmuch as this is so, "The Bucknellian" as the organ of expression of the will of the student body, takes upon itself gladly, the honor of bidding farewel l to our fellow students.

To each and every one who has left, and to those who will leave in the near future, we send our best wishes for success and our earnest desire for a safe return (and that a speedy one, a safe return when duty's call has been answered.

The other day, in speaking of the attitude of the relatives and friends of the city's quota which was leaving for camp, a city paper stated that the customary sad faces and tearful eyes were less numerous than hitherto. So are our demonstrations less visible. And why? Is it because we are more hardened to sacrifice? Perhaps. Yet, the spirit of sacrifice has impressed itself more deeply upon our hearts. It has reduced us to the state in which we feel happy and proud that we can sacrifice to so great a cause. Besides, we have become more and more determined to be faithful and true to our cause, be the cost what it will.

Like shadows in the night, so have they vanished from our midst. Yet, unlike shadows, they have left their mark unlike that upon wood, which vots, or upon iron, which the rains rust, or upon paper, which age hardens and cracks but their mark is an impress upon the would of the student body, a stamp which neither weather nor time can efface, but which is eternal.

"Hail and Farewell"! This we say, and what have we to do? We have a futrher duty to perform towards those who have left. Each individual can perform it if he will. It is a simple one: Oftentimes we do not find an opportunity to correspond regularly with these boys, but we can send them our copy of "The Bucknellian" when we have finished reading it. A minute spent in wrapping and stamping and was strengthened bond between the boys and then the bond between the boys and their Alma Mater.

country usually only attacks the forts and harbors. Again we can say that it was moral blindness. It was a good while before England decided to retaliate with the same methods that had been used against her.

Dr. Harris then said that the oligarchy is not the biggest part of the German people. Where they failed to understand the English Empire was in the fact that they cannot conceive of moral and social bonds. The British yoke as it is called is not put on her subjects by force. There is no force used on the Canadians, Indians or South Africans. Germany thought that she could get control of India with its 300,000,000 people, but instead of this she found that they were ready to aid England with 10,000000 troops if necessary. Germany also thought that South Africa would get away from the "English Yoke." Again, this was not the case. The enemy considered the English Empire to be a house of cards but found it to be unshakable.

Next, pride comes befire destruction. England foresaw what was coming. The military spirit always craves; they are never satisfied. There will be no safety in the world while there is a military power like Germany. The people of Germany may go through the form of a constitutional government and elect delegates and vote but they really have no power at all. The oligarchy controls the industries and all the power, and back of it all is the army.

President Harris then said that we should always keep on good terms with England. The wars that we have had with her are unfortunate. In 1776 Blackstone, Mansfield and the King said that the will of the conquering nation was supreme and that they had a right to dictate to the Colonies. Chatham, Burke and others sided with the Colonies and claimed that they had a right of any English subject. We won the war because there were so many on our side in the Mother Country. In 1812 the trouble was over the fact that England claimed that men who were born English were always English and the United States said that after five years they could be Americans and citizens of the U. S. In 1861-65 the English people would not break up the nation here and therefore, kept their hands off and did not interfere with our affairs. They are willing to do what is right, and, therefore, it is unfortunate that we had the previous wars with them.

The people of all the nations today are back of their armies the same of the Bucknell students stand back of their teams. There was one thing, though, in which our enemy was disappointed, and that was in the fact that she thought that many people would back here up, those of German birth, and cause internal troubles. The chancellor told Gerard that there were 2,500,000 German born people here, but very few of them have done anything for their former country. The President admonishes us not to suspicion the "Pennsylvania Dutch" and everybody that has a German name. If we look at the list of volunteers we will find a great many names that are not American. Many, many foreigners are loyal to the U. S.

Concluded from 2nd page.

Dr. Harris said in colclusion that it is for the reasons that he stated that we can see that they are afflicted with moral blindness. They underestimate and disregard the morale. It will be a long time before Belgium is forgotten, even if we only consider the atrocities that they confess. If there are two products that are equal in quality, one French and one German, the German article will be turned down by four-fifths of the people of other nations after the war. It will be a sad state of affairs that Germany will be in. In about forty years we will have about 200,000,000 people here, and with England on our side, no one will dare make war. If in 1914 U. S. had stood with England and said that there should be no war without us, Germany would not have dared to start in. We did not realize then our power in the great family of nations and that there could not be war without it affecting us.

After the singing of the Battle Hymn of the Republic the impressive service was closed with the benediction by the President.

L'AGENDA TO APPEAR THIS WEEK

many in uniform.

Altho the book contains fewer pages than the L'Agenda of 1918, there is no less material, for the material is more compressed. An instance of this is the manner in which the organizations are presented. Instead of using two pages for each organization as was the method used last year, each organization is entitled to one page bearing both the cut of the members and the roster of members. Despite the decrease in size of the book, there is an extra large literary department with many clever contributions in both verse and prose.

The Art Department should receive a special word of praise. Weber, the Art Editor, assisted by Boyer, Bortz and Kostos, have filled the book with many novel illustrations. "Unique" is the word that has been used to describe the distinctive work of the artist group.

The book is handsomely bound in a black and gold color scheme. The covers are of two qualities, a leather cover which sells at $3 and a cloth cover selling for $2.50. A big change for the better was made in the leather covers in eliminating the flappy edges of the cover; the book is bound in a flexible leather, of a semi-stiff variety, which will cause the edges of the cover to hold their shape.

Manager "Tommy" Orchard has announced that there will be but a limited supply of the books, as not many copies have been printed that have not been ordered in advance. For this reason it is highly essential for all those desiring a copy of the book to see the manager quickly so as not to be disappointed.

MUSICAL CLUBS ENJOYED BY MILTON AUDIENCE

THIRD CONCERT OF YEAR. ENCORES FREQUENT. TWO CONCERTS TO FOLLOW.

The third concert by the Musical Clubs was given in Milton last Friday night in the First Baptist church. Both the auditorium and the Sunday School room of the church were crowded to capacity and several people were forced to stand during the entire performance. The audience was very appreciative, as shown by the fact that every number was encored. The Clubs have never appeared more to advantage, and by the time the home and the Williamsport concerts come, they will be trained to fullest requirement Practices will be held this week, and those who do not attend will not be allowed to appear at either of the two remaining concerts.

JUNIOR WEEK.

Those Juniors who all the year have longingly wished that Junior week were here, a week that they might call exclusively their own, are having their wishes fulfilled. Beginning on Wednesday, three days—nights rather of unalloyed pleasure are in store for them, nor are they selfish in their joys either, for the Seniors are to share Wednesday night's festivities with them, while on Friday night anyone who has the time, the money and the girl can dance to his heart's conten.

Following the usual custom the smoker holds first place; so then, on Wednesday night at 8.3 all loyal Juniors and Seniors that is loyal males—will wend their way to the gymnasium where they will spend a few hours in continious passing of the ash trays.

Bucknell Hall is the place; 8.30 is the time and the Junior girls are the girls for Thursday's night of fun, when the annual Junior's reception is scheduled to be held.

If indications are realized, the Junior Prom for this year will be a great success. The commitee, knowing that the success of any dance, is largely due to the orchestra, has secured the service of the Hall's Banjo Orchestra from Wilkes-Barre. The whole orchestra has promised to be present, so those who attend will be assured the best possible dance music.

Following out the war custom, flowers and cabs will be conspicious by their absence. This will not, in any way, detract from the success of the dance. Do your part in making this event one of the chief successes of the year's college activities.

April 12th, this Friday is not very far away. As the number of couples who can be comfortably accomodated in the Lewisburg Club is limited, secure your tickets now. Chairman Williams, or any other member of the committee will be more than glad to receive requests

Y. M. C. A. CABINET PLANS ENTERTAINMENT

PROCEEDS OF DRAMATIC EVENING TO HELP MAKE UP DEFICIT.

In last weeks Bucknellian appeared the financial statement of the Y. M. C. A. for the year ending March 31, 1918. It will be seen from the report that the Y. M. C. A. has a deficit of approximately $100.

As a means toward decreasing this debt, the Cabinet, avails itself of an opportunity which presented itself and will give a Dramatice evening, April 19, in Commencement Hall.

The program will consist of short one act plays and cutings from prominent authors. Likewise the young ladies in the Physical classes will drill and many other interesting features may be expected.

Show your appreciation for the work of the Y. M. C. A. and try to help it to kept on a firm foundation. It cannot exist if the students support everything else and neglect it. The Y. M. C. A. is here for your good and that of the College. Therefore, get behind this movement.

The tickets may be obtained from any Cabinet member, or at Heiser's Drug store after Monday, April 8, 1918. Price 25 cents.

Timely Suggestions From Seidel & Spangler's

SUITS ARE PARTICULARLY SMART THIS SEASON

The most popular suit today is the mannish, snug-fitting suit, which is plain tailored, while many novelty and exclusive styles are on display. Of serge, poplin, gabardine, etc., in blue, grays, tans, etc.

DISTINCTIVE SPRING COATS

All made in styles, adapted to soft materials—loose, with belts in crosswise effects, sometimes in back as well as in front; deep collars, touched with gay collar of silk, and pockets in novel styles. All are so fashionable and so reasonably priced that any woman or miss can afford one.

BOYS' WASH SUITS AND TOP COATS PRACTICAL STYLES AND ATTRACTIVE PRICES

Bring the boy here this week who is from 2½ to 8 years of age and select his new Spring clothes. We have a fine assortment of boys' wash suits and top coats, and we wish to emphasize the fact that we believe that there is none in his section equal to it.

BEAUTIFUL SPRING SILKS ON DISPLAY

These days can be well called the silk days, because there are many more silks worn than ever before, and silks today are lower in price than almost any other fabric. They have advanced less than anything else.

You should choose your new Spring dress from our wonderful line of new shades, new weaves, etc., such as poplins, foulards, taffetas, Georgettes and pussywillow weaves.

1919 L'AGENDA BIG SUCCESS

ALMOST ENTIRE SUPPLY SOLD IN TWO DAYS.

YEAR BOOK TEEMS WITH ORIGINALITY

Consensus of Opinion Is That This Year's Publication Surpasses Those of Former Years in Thought and Taste for Art.

The long looked forward to, huch heralded presentation of the 1919 L'Agenda was made last week by Manager Orchard. Shortly after the books arrived, a few days ago, the distribution of them was begun by the management, and already several hundred of them have been placed in the hands of the students.

The book is attractive in its appearance; bound in black and gold color scheme. Concerning the make-up and general character of the book as a whole, only words of highest praise can be said. As was stated in last week's "Bucknellian," the book contains many new features, which make it somewhat "different" from previous L'Agendas. One of the particularly pleasing features of the annual is a special Service Department, devoted to the men of the class of 1919 who are in the service.

The 1919 L'Agenda can hardly be termed a war-time publication, for it is entirely up to the standard set by L'Agendas of other years. The publication is one that Bucknell men and women can well feel proud of; more particularly so when we consider that many of the colleges, under no more strained conditions than Bucknell is at the present time, have given up the publication of a year book. Thanks to the earnest efforts of the editor and manager, Bucknell can boast of one of the best L'Agendas that she has ever had.

To the editor, James R Herman, and the staff belongs a world of credit for the quality of the book. From cover to cover each page is an illustration of thought and a taste for art on the part of the staff, and as you leaf it through you find one interesting surprise after another. The best criterion hy which to pass judgement on the book is the numerous favorable comments that are heard about the "Hill."

Manager Orchard has a few of the cloth bound books priced $2.50, and anyone who desires one may get it from him. The volume was printed by the Grit Publishing Company, Williamsport, Pa.

MISS ARMSTRONG RESIGNS FROM SCHOOL OF MUSIC

HEAD OF VIOLIN DEPARTMENT LEAVES TO ACCEPT A POSITION IN NEW YORK.

Bucknell University School of Music will miss the effective work of Miss Charlotte I. Armstrong, head of the violin department, because of her resignation which will take effect at the end of this school year. For a number of years Miss Armstrong has given splendid service, and it has been through her untiring efforts that the violin department is now what it is. During her residence in this town she has always been very responsive to the requests for her playing and has delighted many audiences with her solo work.

Miss Armstrong has accepted a position in New York City, to begin in June, and her many friends wish her all the success possible in her new undertaking.

Though Ohio State University enrollment has decreased the past year the school of engineers shows an increase of 633 over last year.

LAST TWO CONCERTS IN ARTIST COURSE

The Bucknell School of Music announces as the the coming concerts, Joint Concert—Friday, April 26th, Miss Von Barentzen, pianist and Mary Fulton Gibbons, violinist. Vocal Concert—Beatrice MacCue, contralto, Friday, May 3rd.

SOPHOMORE ELECTION.

At a Sophomore class meeting George N. Benjamin was elected the manager and Voris A. Linker, captain pro tempore of the class baseball team. Plans were discussed for a Sophomore cotillon.

MUSICAL CLUBS TO GIVE HOME CONCERT THURSDAY

GLEE CLUB, ORCHESTRA, VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL SOLOISTS AND QUARTETTE

Thursday night, in the Luthern church at eight o'clock, the Combined Musical Clubs of Bucknell University will give their only home concert of the year. The clubs have been working on the program during the entire session of school, and have presented it in near by towns with remarkable success, so that those attending on Thursday night will be assured of a musical treat. The admission will be thirty-five cents and the "fussing" privileges usually accorded at down town college functions will be permitted.

The program will consist of Glee club, orchestra, quartette numbers and vocal and instrumental soloists. This year the Clubs have the good fortune of being able to present Prof. David Meyer Berlino, concert pianist. Prof Berlino is well known in Europe and this country as a concert pianist of excellent ability, and this year, being forced by the war to discontinue his study in Europe is teaching piano in the music school og Bucknell.

The Milton Standard gave the following write-up of the organization last week:

"The concert given by the Bucknell Musical Clubs in the Baptist church last Friday night was one of the most delightful musical events Milton has ever enjoyed. It is seldom that any organization offers the public such high class entertainment and the Roger Williams Brotherhood of the Baptist church deserves the appreciation and thanks of the community for this musical treat."

SOPHOMORE CATILLION

Plans are being made for the big annual of the Sophomore class. Despite the fact that these are war times, the class decided that one must live, and for a Sophomore to live with the Cotillion is what Sherman said—marching to the sea was—hard work. The following committee is working on the affair, which will be sometime in May at Milton Park: Mathieson chairman; Lees, Conley, Bob Smith, LaClair, Freidenburg, Warfel, Moore,and Amerise.

THE NEW STAFF

After three weeks of competition, the new staff of "The Bucknellian" has been chosen. Ten were picked out of fourteen who tried out. All the contestants showed ability at writing, and it was only after deep consideration of all the points which combine to make the basis of choice, that the staff was selected.

DR. PERRINE TALKS ON CITIZENSHIP

TEXT PHILIPPIANS 3:20 AND ACTS 22, 27,28.

FOUR REQUIREMENTS OF A PATRIOT

Patriot Should Be Intelligent, Just, Courageous and Religious.—Same Requirements to be a Christian.

On Sunday morning Dr. Perrine addressed the College Religious Service on the subject of Christian Citizenship. He used as his text two passages of scripture: Acts 22: 27, 28 and Philippians 3: 20. In the first passage, Paul boasts of being a Roman citizen and in the second he boasts that his citizenship is in Heaven.

It is strange that the same man should boast that he was a Roman citizen and then later on boast that his citizenship is in Heaven. Is there a confusion and inconsistency here? Could he be a citizen of both the Roman Empire and of Heaven at the same time? This is a vital question for us, for we, like Paul, follow Christ, and therefore our citizenship also is in Heaven. Can we then be good citizens of our country? Are we patriotic? Do we, as Christians, contribute our full share?

To answer this question we must know what patriotism is. We must know what our rulers would have us be and do as patriots. The first requirements of a patriot is that he be intelligent.

This is necessary for if a man is to be a patriotic citizen at all times, he must be intelligent enough to think for himself and to analyze the situation at the time of any crisis. To develop and spread intelligence the government has organized and maintains the public schools. So also do the Christian people aim to develop and spread intelligence, their agent being the church.

The second requirement of a patriot is that he be just. This is absolutely necessary if men are to be contented and live peacefully with one another. Everyone must be just in his actions with his fellowmen. To make this so our government has established courts of justice by which they force certain unjust people to be just. As our government exalts justice so does the teachings of Christianity. "Do justly" sounds throughout the entire Bible, from Genesis to Revelations.

The third requirement for a patriot is that he be courageous. There is no room for cowards, who in peace are afraid to express honest opinions based on reasonable investigations, or who in war are afraid to fly to the defense of their country. So also does Christianity teach men to be courageous. "Be strong and of good courage," says the apostle. We see examples of this virtue thruout the Bible. All the ancient Hebrew prophets were men of great courage. The apostles, their immediate followers, the martyrs and all the missionaries were also men of great courage.

The fourth and final requirement of a patriot is that he be religious. But what is it to re religious One is religious when he believes in a higher power, to whom he must give an account, and by whose precepts he squares his life. This very same requirement is made of us by our government. Washington, in his farewell address said, "of all dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports." "Republics," said Sidney Lancer "cannot be made out of muscles and prairies, and rocky mountains. Republics are made of the spirit." By this he meant that they are made of the spirit that dominates its people; and without that spirit, which is essentially religious, there is no true Republic. There must be an exaltation of the spiritual over the material, otherwise Republics cannot thrive. This is the doctrine of the Christian religion. It puts the world of spirit first, and hopes by the influence of the spirit to glorify the material. Alexander Blackburn has expressed this same thought in the following poem:

Not serried ranks with flags unfurled,
Not armored ships that girt the world,
Not hoarded wealth or busy mills,
Not cattle on a thousand hills,
Not sages wise or schools, or laws,
Not boasted deeds in freedom's cause—
All these may be and yet the state
In eye of God be far from great.
That land is great which knows the Lord
Whose sons are guided by His word,
Where justice rules, twixt man and man,
Where love controls in act and plan,
Where breathing in his native air,
Each soul finds joy in praise or prayer—
Thus may our country good and great
Be God's delight—man's best estate.

Therefore since the requirements of a patriotic citizen are the same as those of a Christian we see that Paul was in no sense unpatriotic, or inconsistent when he linked his Roman citizenship with his citizenship which was in Heaven, and that the Christian is not only a moderate patriot but the best of patriots.

EXCELLENT CONCERT GIVEN THURSDAY

PROGRAM ARRANGED BY H. S. KRAPE, ASSISTED BY PROF. STOLZ.

One of the most delightful and highest class entertainments of the year was given in Bucknell Hall on Thursday night by George Dostal, the American tenor; Lucille Orrell, violincellist and Emanuel Balaban, accompanist. The program was given under the management of H. S. Krape, of Williamsport, assisted by Prof. Paul Stolz. It was regretful that more students were unable to be present. Following is the program.

George Dostal, the American Tenor; Lucille Orrell. Violoncellist; Emanuel Balaban, Accompanist.

1. Aria—Bianca al par di Neve Al pino (Fairer than the Lily.)—From the first act of Meyerbeer's "Les Hugenots."—Mr. Dostal.

2. (a)—Berceuse, Goddard; (b)—Tarantelle, Popper—Miss Orrell..

3. (a)—I Wept Beloved, Hue; (b)—Crying Waters, Campbell Tipton; (c)—One Golden Day, Fay Foster—Mr. Dostal.

FRESHMAN ELECTION.

The Freshman class chose Myron B. Savidge as captain pro tempore and Martin K. Mohler, as manager of the class baseball team.

Verna Smith, '21, and Hannah Madison, '21, are home for the week-end.

CAP AND DAGGER PLAY PROGRESSING

GOOD CAST BUSILY ENGAGED IN SPRING PLAY.

MEN WILL FILL ROLES OF WOMEN CHARACTERS

Play to be Given in Orpheum. Is Funny From Beginning to End.—New Wigs and New Dresses Secured.

Wednesday evening April 24, will be the date of the annual spring play of "Cap and Dagger."

It will be held in the Orpheum Theatre admision prices being 50, 35 and 25. Tickets may be secured from any member of Cap and Dagger, reserved seats will be on sale at the Orpheum on Friday of this week.

Contrary to the general custom of the Society, this year's play will not be of the "low comedy" variety. Instead "The Arrival of Kitty," by Norman Lee Surtout, a broad farce comedy in three acts, will be presented.

As is customary, however, the feminine parts will be rendered by men.

The setting of the play is a small country hotel. The plot is based on the hero of the play impersonating an actress who is staying at the hotel; the result being that he becomes involved in many complex situations. His efforts in extricating himself from these being extremely ludicrous. The whole play is screamingly funny from start to finish.

Miss Schillinger is working hard schipping the cast into shape and she predicts that it will be one of the best plays given this year. She has secured entire new costumes for the girl parts so that it will be difficult to realize that the character are not genuine girls.

The leads are being taken care of by "Tommy" Heim, "Red" Jones, "Dutch" Reamer, "Dutch" Warfel and "Abie" Hellar. This is sufficient for any one who has seen the quality of work of these men to know that their parts will be thoroughly taken care of. The rest of the cast is excelent. With these qualities the play is bound to be a great success.

JUNIOR WEEK

THE RECEPTION

The Junior fellows observed Thursday night of Junior week by entertaining the Junior girls in the Gymnasium. Owing to the unfriendliness of the weather, the number of Juniors at the reception was small. By actual count there were no more than 35 men and women present. One unusual feature about this reception was that the ladies arrived at the Gym. before the fellows got there. After greetings were exchanged the party broke up into groups of four and Five Hundred became the pastime of the evening. The committee provided a bountiful supply of eats which were enjoyed by all present. Ten o'clock came all to soon and the girls had to beat a retreat back to the "Sem."

After the Reception the fellows held a short business meeting at which "Bing" Kline was elected manager of the class baseball team.

THE SMOKER

The Tustin Gymnasium was blue on Wednesday night, for Wednesday night was the Junior Smoker. As is the custom, the Smoker was held in the middle of the Junior Week of Celebration. The purpose of the committee mas to provide a general good time for the men of the upperclasses, and they succeeded admirably. From 8:30 to 10:30, good feeling reigned supreme. The card

INTERCLASS BASEBALL

With the arrival of Spring weather, will come interclass baseball, if plans which are at present formulated, materialize. With the entrance of interclass baseball, one thing is asked of the student-body,—support. The question of support is a problem of every student. Inasmuch as this is the case, there arises in the student's mind a surmise as to just how much these athletics will mean to him.

A splendid, will kept, advantageously situated athletic field lies at the foot of the "Hill." The students pass this field everyday and look upon it as though it were a battleground for heros. That is the trouble, we pass it, but do not stop. We devote all of our time to the mental and forget the physical.

The human body, with constant work, runs down, and there are worn tissues which need to be rebuilt. Athletics furnishes the means. It fulfills the demand for exercise, vacation, and amusement. Our national government has taken cognizance of this fact, in that every cantonment has some time devoted to athletics. Our army is striving to develope the efficient man and its heads realize the highly important part athletics play in this work. From the Bucknell ambulance men in France, we receive word that baseball is one of their main attractions. As sleep "knits up the ravelled sleeve of care" so athletics serves to help the various parts of the body to properly function.

The first essential to an interclass league is that there shall be teams. The responsibility for these teams falls upon every Bucknell man. It is our duty, let us not shirk it. There is a place for each of us on our class team. Our reward will be all the advantages gained from regular vigorous and enthusiastic sport. Let us put our shoulder to the wheel and take advantage of the opportunity which lies before us.

The support of the girls, of the faculty, and of those who are not given to baseball is earnestly solicited. Your presence at the games is urged. They are to take the place of varsity games and you are to support them as such. Judging from the interest shown in the annual class games of this and previous years, all will be insured a treat in keenly contested and well played games for class supremacy. The honor of your class is at stake! Tell your class mates!

tables were never deserted and many were the mock tournaments staged. Pinochle and so forth were the favorites, especially with many varieties of the "and so forth." From these little groups gathered about the tables, would burst hearty peals of laughter, an another "good one" was told. Stories galore and then a few more stories were told and then a reciprocity was declared on "new ones." The big feature of the evening was the dance on the Gym floor. The Bucknell Band furnished the music for the dancers.

But the crowning event of the Smoker came when the Eats were served. The committee, being composed of men, knew a men's chief desire and acted accordingly. The appreciation of the efforts of the committee was shown in the manner in which the sandwitches, cigars, cigarettes and punch disappeared before the onslaught of the hungry Juniors. Filled and happy, the upperclassmen left the Gym at 10:30 firm in the conviction that 1919 was the best class that had ever sojourned for a time within the halls of Old Bucknell.

JUNIOR PROM

The biggest and best event of Junior Week, the Junior Promenade, took place Friday evening of last week at the Lewisburg Club. Forty-five couples danced to the stirring music of Hall's Banjo Orchestra, of Wilkes-Barre, from 9.15 until 2. The Lewisburg Club does not allow any decorations to be put up on the dance floor, so in that one sense the "Prom" seemed to lack something, but this was made up by the antics of the orchestra. True to its reputation the orchestra dispensed and radiated joy as well as music. The pianist did all sorts of acrobatic stunts and kept perfect time in spite of his curious actions. While playing "Lil' Liza Jane" the whole aggregation seemed to go wild, and anyone not accustomed to the performance of modern orchestras would have thought them fit candidates for the "rest cure." Under their influence, one of the dancers lost his footing and precipitated himself on the floor, dragging his partner with him. Happily, no damage was done and the dance continued.

The dance started with a grand march, after which the programs were given out. There were only sixteen dances, but each of these was as long as two ordinary dances, some having as high as ten encores. The dance ended promptly at 2 A. M., to the disappointment of everyone.

The "Prom" was a success financially and otherwise. The following committee is to be congratulated on the result of its work: T. C. Williams, chairman, Samuel Abrams, Robert G. Carulla, Emerson C. Cupp, Alden E. Davis, David C. Hall, Jr., Franklin D. Jones, Raymond P. Lewis, Charles B. Moore, Franklin M. Rorabough and Samuel J. Smith.

Y. M. C. A. NIGHT

Next Friday evening, April 19 the students of Bucknell will have the opportunity and privilege of showing their appreciation for the college Y. M. C. A. This organization altho moving quietly, has accomplished a great deal this year and those who have been directly helped by it feel as if they cannot speak too well of its work. One of the features of the Y. M. C. A. this season has been the excellent lyceum course, one of the best series of entertainments that the Lyceum bureau has ever sent here. Unfortunately, however, the course did not receive the support desired, with the result that at present the Y. M. C. A. treasury presents a rather large deficit. The poor condition of the treasury is due in a measure also to the fact that several men who usually contribute to defray the expenses of the Lyceum course, have died thus shutting off that source of aid. So it is that the Y. M. C. A. not wishing to ask something for nothing, is conducting a high class entertainment on Friday evening to increase the funds in their treasury.

The program promises to be interesting and varied, including some of the very best dramatic talent in the school. Following are among the different numbers:

Messers Leaber and Shirk with Miss Grace Good in a Rusian Comedy skit of high literary value. Messers Herman, Heim and Heller with Misses Hahn and Gay in a rollicking farce camedy entitled "Too Much Married." This sketch happens to be exceddingly funny from beginning to end.

The Climax of "The Lion and the Mouse" will be given by Messers Chance and Heller with Miss potts; Warfel and Stought will present a cutting from "Poor Pillicoddy" entitled "A Slight Mistake:" while the dual scene from "The Rivals" is to be presented by Witchy and Reamer. In addition to these, an added feature will be a novel Greek dance named "Maid of the Mist."

This announcement reveals the splendid character of the entertainment and merits an exceptionally large audience. The program will last for an hour and a quarter, starting at eight o'clock and is to take place in Commencement Hall.

The price of admission is only twenty-five cents, tickets being on sale at Heiser's drug store and by members of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet.

ZAUBRE BROTHERS

All ye who doubt and scoff at magic and its wonders should come to the exhibition to be given Tuesday evening at the Orpheum and be convinced. The Zaubre Brothers, known to the initiated as "Wit" Sipley and "Chet" Leaber, will produce at the whim of their audience the most unusual and astounding phenomena of the Black Art, and will even plunge into the realms of spiritualism. The first part of the entertainment will consist mainly of card and coin tricks, with other bits of legerdemain scattered through. In this part you will see innocent and self-respecting playing cards perform the most unusual antics. Monsieur Wit Zaubre will do his famous "Ace of Hearts" trick. Half of your life will be wasted if you miss seeing this trick.

The second part of the program will consist of spiritualism, with a little mind reading on the side. At the present time it is impossible to tell which spirit will perform, but the Zaubre Brothers are trying to get Julius Caesar, or at least Napoleon. Think of hearing Caesar or Napoleon ring a bell! But this will actually happen, and if the most skeptical is not convinced, the bell will be shown to him. There will also be mind reading, so come with nothing on your mind, or else it will be read.

After this brief resume, with the added facts that the admission is only twenty-five cents and that the same "fussing" restrictions will be in force as in the Cap and Dagger plays, a large and enthusiastic audience is assured, so you had better get your seats early.

LETTER FROM FRANCE

Somewhere In France.
March 18, 1918.

Dear Bucknellian:—

It seems that since leaving the states I have been rather neglectful about keeping in touch with you as I was before we sailed. However, if everything goes well and conditions are favorable I will try to write in behalf of Section 524 as often as it is possible.

In regards to our trip across seas we had no thrilling experiences as our brother unit which came over early in the summer. Of course we were sea-sick, even if the sea was a little calmer than it generally is for most trips. We had a large convoy and the trip was made very slowly because all the ships were not as fast as ours. Not one of our ships even as much as sighted a submarine.

During the latter part of January we docked at one of the leading sea ports in England and from there we went to an English rest camp where we spent about a fortnight. We used the English ration and it was all prepared by English cooks. The meals never vary from one day to the next and we were served plenty of "jam and cheese," both of which are used very much by the English. While at this camp it was a common occurrence for us to see ten or eleven aeroplanes up in the air at the same time. It was a new and novel experience for us.

A little over a month now has been spent by us in our present location. We are far away from the roar and horror of the war but it will not be long before we leave for another camp not so far behind the trenches. Everybody is anxious to be on what we call "real active service." I think that just such a spirit among all the U. S. soldiers is the only weakness that can be found in them. In their eager desire to get at the Boche they become reckless and expose themslves to dangers which upon second thought they would not do. However great this weakness may be it is this Yankee daring which will eventually win the war.

We had what we consider a very great honor a few days ago when General Pershing and Secretary of War Baker in company with many other noted American and French officers inspected our camp. We have inspections (full dress, barracks, kitchen and otherwise) very regularly and it keeps the fellows very busy shining themselves up.

Section 524 has one of the best baseball teams in camp and we have easily defeated all of the best ambulance teams. In a few days we are to play one of the engineers teams which is supposed to be a crack organization. Bucknell men playing on the team are Banks and Steele in the outfield Murray, Managan, McDermott and Heckendorn, in the infield and Sipley in the pitcher's box.

We have had a couple of Bucknell men visit us and they were: Drake, '14, who is in the engineers and Cunningham, '20, who is with a base hospital. We have read in the papers where five men in our other unit have received the "Croix de Guerre." We use the Bucknellian as a medium of extending congratulations to them.

We certainly do appreciate the Bucknellian and everyone is glad to see it. It is passed around among the fellows as tho it were a rare thing. We thank anyone who has been instrumental in our receiving it. It is perhaps the only way that we are able to find out what is going on back at Bucknell.

I will try to write to the Bucknellian a little more regularly from now on and I will try to let you know just what part Bucknell men as a unit are taking in this world war. With best wishes for Bucknell from all the boys we remain loyal Bucknellians

Very sincerely,
CHARLES B. SIPLEY.

FINE WOOL MUNCY BLANKETS

We have made our next winter's purchases already, and have many of them in stock. We did this so as to buy them at the very lowest possible prices.

Now, any one buying a pair of thes blankets during the month of April will get them at a very low price—much below that of next winter.

WE SHOW YOU THE BEST IN READY-TO-WEAR

We show you greater varities, we show you styles that are becomining, qualities that are worth investing in, and we will sell you something that will become you.

We have a great line of tailored suits, coats, dresses of silk and wool, waists of silks and sheer materials, kirts of silk and fine woolens, aprons and dresses of fine ginghams, in fact, our Ready-to-Wear Departments is complete, and at all times you will find our prices moderate.

SURPRISING PRICES ON MILLINERY

Our forelady, Mrs. Rittnberg, is now on a trip to Philadelphia and New York to buy everything new in the millinery field.

She will be here Saturday with a new stock of all the very latest trimmed hats, shapes and fancies.

Besides these new things, we will show you there will be many hats thrown into assortments and marked for quick selling. The low prices on these lots will more than surprise you, because these are no old hats that we can't sell, but hats taken right from our regular stock.

Ladies' trimmed and tailored hats, worth up to $6.95, choice $3.50.

Special showing of children's hats at very low prices.

"ARRIVAL OF KITTY" THIS WEDNESDAY

CAP AND DAGGER SPRING PLAY TO BE IN ORPHEUM.

FARCE COMEDY PROMISES TO TEEM WITH FUN

The Women's Parts Will Be Taken by the Men Themselves. Tommy Heim as the Uncle Will Be a Scream.

On Wednesday night at eight p. m. in the Orpheum Theatre, Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society of Bucknell will present its annaul spring play. As in other years the play will be a farce comedy, and the ladies' parts will be taken by the men themselves. This in itself always produces a great amount of laughter on the part of the audience, and goes a great way in making the play a farce. The play given this year is "The Arrival of Kitty."

The usual fussing privileges allowed to seminary girls will be in force that night. Tickets may be obtained in advance at the Orpheum box office.

The cast of characters for the play is as follows:

William Winkler	Heim, '20
Aunt Jane, his sister	Stout, '20
Jane, his niece	Kitlowski, '20
Bobbie Baxter	Herman, '19
Benjamin Moore	Heller, '21
Ting, a bell hop	Reamer, '20
Sam, a colored porter	Warfel, '20
Kitty, an actress	Jones, '19

EVERETT STONE WRITES FROM FRANCE

To one who had never even seen the ocean, it's first sight was a revelation and then as we were marched onto a ferry and on board one of those "seafaring tubs" what a new and peculiar sensation it was. We were shown to our quarters in the hold and when as well located as could be, had come up on deck to see the final loading, when the Sergeant came up to inform me I was to go on guard for 3 hours in our quarters. The very thought of spending 3 hours in that hole next to the machine shops sort of struck me hard, to say the least, I felt I was "out of luck" for sure, but "cheer up boys" "we are in the army now and nit behind the plough" so like an obedient soldier I took my duty when the appointed time came. It seemed good to get on deck again after this stifled confinement and fortunately it was my lot to be here on deck when the gong sounded and the gang planks were drawn. The mammoth engines which had been slightly puffing were in trim, we were towed out of the harbor into the river and soon our own power was in evidence.

At night the wonderful electrical displays from some of the parks were evident, the dear old statue of Liberty had been left, we were leaving America, God's country to help do our bit in part of the old globe we had never seen. Suddenly a great boat passes us, "what's that," I ask a comrade. "That's the cruiser which will accompany iur convoy." Suddenly the water at the stern began to

CONCERNING "THE BUCKNELLIAN"

At a meeting of the faculty held on April 15, it was voted that a committee composed of members of the department of English Literature and Rhetoric shall have charge of the appointment of the Editor and Assistant Editor of "The Bucknellian;"

That said committee shall have charge of the appointment of the Manager and Assistant Manager of "The Bucknellian," said appointment to be made from a list of men consisting of one man from each Fraternity and two men from the non-Fraternity men of the University;

That said Manager shall give bonds in amount satisfactory to said committee and shall submit his accounts for audit to said Committee; and that the proceeds be divided equally between the Editor and the Manager.

Y. M. C. A. ENTERTAINMENT IN COMMENCEMENT HALL

STRONG PROGROM PRESENTED BY THE BEST COLLEGE DRAMATIC TALENT.

In order to increase the funds in the treasury of the Y. M. C. A., the Cabinet several weeks ago decided to accept an opportunity which presented itself, and give an entertainment, the proceeds of which should go to the treasury. Friday evening, April 19th, this entertainment was given in Comencement Hall with the result that about one-fourth of the Lyceum deficit can be canceled.

The program consisted of short one-act plays and proved to be one of the strongest and best miscellaneous programs presented this school year. The best talent in the school figured in making the entertainment successful. People were rewarded for their long climb up to the Hall by the following program: "Too Much Married," in which Margaret McLaughlin, James Herman, Hazel Gay, Thomas Heim and H. S. Heller acted; "The Boor," Grace Good, A. S. Sherk and Chester Leaber; "A Slight Mistake," Russel Stout and Harry Warfel; "A Quiet Chat," Helen Van Dine, Ruth Minnig and Beatrice Fetterman; Scene from the "Lion and the Mouse," Chester Leober, Nelson Chance, Jessie Potts. This last play was arranged by Mrs. Everett.

SOPHOMORE COTTILION.

Plans are being made for what promises to be one of the biggest events in the history of the Sophomore Class—namely the Sophomore Cotillion.

The committee has been hard at work and had decided to hold the big affair at Milton Park on May 10th. However officials of the park have delayed the opening of the park this year until May 15th, so a new date will have to be arranged. The new date will probably be May 17th, a week later than the original time set for the affair.

The class will follow the usual custom of having the dance informal. Ne Cals Orchestra will likely furnish the music. Definite announcement of the date will be made in a following issue of the Bucknellian.

MUSICAL CLUBS GIVE CONCERT

LARGE AUDIENCE DELIGHTED WITH ENTERTAINMENT.

CONCENSUS OF OPINION RATES WORK HIGHLY

Orchestra Appears to Great Advantage, Quartette and Vocal and Violon Solos Pleasing.—Prof. Berlino's Work of Highest Quality.

The annual concert of the Bucknell cimbined musical clubs was given last Thursday evening in the Luthern Church before a very appreciative audience. The program was of an unsually high quality and one that has never been surpassed in previous years. Besides the usual Glee Club and Orchestra numbers which are always well received, there were several other numbers on the program which added great variety to the evening's entertainment.

The orchestra opened up the program with the delightful "Overature" "Raymond" by Thomas. Never did the orchestra appear to better advantage, showing that Prof. Stolz has worked hard with the men during the past months. The "Nun of Nidarus" by Dudley Buck was the first number rendered by the Glee Club and showed not only the high standard of music given by this organization, but also the ability of the men, to give it in such a splendid manner. The College Male Quartet consisting of Messers Davis, Stout, Hutchison and Eaton has been heard before upon several occosions and as always, won much favor. They sang Dudley Buck's song "The Flow'rets Sleep," and as an encore "Good Night." Among the vocal soloists, Eaton and Hartz both were heard to great advantage and were compelled to respond a second time. Mr. A. E. Davis who is very well known, and has been heard in solo work many times in and about the college, sang in a pleasing manner "Celeste Aida" from Verdi. His beautiful tenor voice more than pleased his audience. He sang as a second number "The Sea hath its Pearls."

Equally as well were the violin solos given by Mr. Derby and Mr. Lewis. While it is the first year that either has appeared as a soloist, it is certain that they displayed great skill in the presentation of their selections. A new and added feature of this year's concert work is that of Prof. Berlino on the piano. It is with the greatest delight to his audiences that Prof. Berlino appears as a concert pianist and his playing was enthusiastically received by all. On Thursday night he played Listz's "Polonaise"—e major and was forced to respond three times.

In spite of the condition of our school and of the times in general, everyone agrees that this program was the best ever given. Prof. Paul Stolz, the head of the music department for his faithful work in training the boys, nor to the president, D. K. Botts, who presided at the piano from beginning to end. Manager Thomas Heim announces that the clubs will rehearse hard this week for the coming trips to Williamsport on May 2, when they will give a concert in the chapel room of the First Baptist church.

IMPORTANT!

All seats for the "Arrival of Kitty" will be reserved. Those who have already bought tickets must turn them in at the Orpheum and get reserve checks. There will be no extra charge, both 25 and 35 cent tickets being reserved. An order to have a seat, you must turn your ticket into the box office.

A GREAT LECTURER AND PREACHER APRIL 28

Dr. W. Quay Rosselle ,one of the most eminent preachers of the Baptist denomination and a popular lecturer of the chautauqua platform will preach at the Baptist church, Sunday, April 28, morning and evening. Dr. Rosselle has often spoken in Lewisburg and has always been well received. He was formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, of Williamsport. He is now pastor of the Memorial Baptist church, Philadelphia, Penna.

ARTICLE BY PROFESSOR SMITH APPEARS

IS PRINTED IN "QUARTERLY JOURNAL OF SPEECH OF EDUCATION."

"The Quarterly Journal of Speech Education," for March, 1918; the official organ of the National Association of Teachers of Speech contains and article entitled: "The Father of Debate; Protagoras of Abdera," the article displays keen research, quotations been drawn from Greek, Roman and modern rhetoricians, philosophers and logicians.

The author does not treat of Protagoras as the philosopher, but rather as the teacher of Rhetoric, a new angle. After showing that Protagoras deserves distinction as a legislator, philosopher and teacher, the contention that he was the Father of Debate is proved, in that taking Diogenes as authority, "Protagoras was the first person who asserted "in every question there are two sides to the argument ent opposite each other." This, the author states, is "the beginning of the pedagogy of argumentation and debate."

Professor Smith's article will not be of interest only to Greek and Latin students, and to those interested in debate, and to these it is a wealth of instruction, but through its liveliness and close connection with present day circumstances, it is well worth anyones's reading. Such passages as the following appear:

"Assume that your cause is the strong one; then must the opposition be immoral. Now immorality must be suppressed in the interest of public welfare; hence the subjugation of weaker; the dominance of force, the extinction of individuality in the state, the arrival of the superman, the acceptance of the divine right of Kings, the unquestioning submission to a brood of fallacilus religious political and economic—all leading eventually to the impalement of mankind. Admit, on the other hand, freedom of discussion, acknowledge that there may be a measure of truth in the opposition, then the mind is open to receive and digest evidence from any source. Such an attitude has made possible the contribution of orators to the cause of human liberty, it has made possible freedom of the press, of religious observance of speech. Has not a distinctive characteristic of Anglo-Saxon civilization been the liberty of the weaker cause to make itself heard?"

FRESHMAN DANCE

An innovation among the social activities of the Spring term will be introduced this year in the guise of the "Freshman Hop." As no action was taken by the Freshman class in regard to having a banquet, a dance has been gotten up to take its place. The committee has secured the famous Ne-cal orchestra, of Sunbury, of seven pieces, with "Doc" Evans to sing and act as a general radiator of joy. The dance will be held on May 2, at the Lewisburg Club, and everyone with an ear for Jazz music and a spare two dollar bill in his pocket is invited. Dancing from 9 till 2.

DR. PHILLIPS SPEAKS AT RELIGIOUS SERVICE

FUTURE OF MISSIONS DEPENDS ON OUTCOME OF WAR.

SURJECT. "SHALL WE TURN BACK CLOCKS OF MISSION"

Difference in Missionary Activity of Eighteenth and Twentieth Century.—Germany's Principles Would Turn Back Clock of Missions.

Shall We Turn Back the Clock of Missions?

Since the war is international and since the Christian missionary movement is one of the greatest of international enterprises, the future of missions depends on who will win the war. For though the principles of Christian missions is the principle of love and righteousness the form of this principle is relative and temporary. A form of missionary activity that would be considered Christian in the eighteenth century would not be so considered in the twentieth century. Then life was individualistic and isolated; now it is cosmopolitan and associate.

A century ago the Christian missionary looked on the world to which he went as lost, its customs in his estimation were all of the devil. Today the missionary seer in his fields an opportunity to fulfill the Great Commission, to disciple all nations. A century ago the missionary assumed the supremacy of Occidental culture. To day the missionary recognizes, to quote from the resolutions of the Edinburgh Conference: "Christian theology must be written afresh for every race to which it comes." A century ago the missionary was sectarian. To-day "he is Christian first with sectarianism in the remote background." A century ago he was divisive. Today he is cooperative.

As I have said since missions are an international enterprise they are dominated by the international spirit. In the international wirld they are like man in his environment; they are made by the environment and they make the environment. They make internationalism and are made by internationalism.

Should the principle of Germany work its way into internationalism, the clock of missions would be turned back a century. For the spirit of race superiority, of cultural superiority, and of national superiority the spirit that disregards the native and the local, that allows no free development in others would renew in missions the spirit of a century ago. President Wilson in summing up the internationalism of the German Chancellor said: "The method that the German Chancellor proposes is the method of the Congress of Vienna (1814) we cannot and will not return to that."

Should the principle of the Allies prevail in internationalism modern missions can progress in conserving and transforming native life, in enriching Christian thought by making room for the revelation which God has made in the non-Christian world in federating all the forces of the nations as represented in denominations, and divisions while still allowing the free play of the individual and of individual nations, large and small within a great international Christian federation.

OUR PATHS

"It isn't necessarily the right road because is is well beaten "can well be a daily thought of our student body, in reference to the path, on the quadrangle. When the idea becomes deeper impressed and its application understood, then and only then can a fault which now exists ve remedied.

We pride ourselve upon the beauty of our campus, and especially of our quadrangly. The open mart of green grass cut here and there by straight paths and dotted by a few chosen bitches and trees, is all that can be desired to make a scene delightful for the eye to look upon. But, a path leads from the library to the observatory and thence around the hedge to the College Inn. It is, we grant, much handier to apply the mathematical rule that "a straight line is the shortest distance between two points," and by so doing, to cut straight from the library path through the hedge to the College Inn; but to do so detracts from the beauty of the quadrangle. The foot path which is being used as a short route is, to say the least, ugly. It is an eyesore on our fair campus. It must remedied. But how?

Two methods offer themselves. A great many paths on the campus, have been the results of just such foot paths. The students have insisted on taking short cuts, and those in charge have converted those routes into paths. Now that work has begun in the paths, which is the cutom each spring, would it not be a good time to turn attention towards this matter. Should this be incomputable with the wishes of those in charge, one alternative, offers itself,—let the students keep off this path. Either a regular path must be made or signs must be put up to request that the students refrain from using the paths. What is to be done does not matter, but something must. Trifling as the matter may seem, if not remedied no one will deny that the quadrangle's appearance will suffer..

EVERITT STONE WRITES FROM FRANCE

bubble, we were moving out, out, out, into deep blue water of the Atlantic, farther and farther, away from home, friends and loved ones.

Well Dad "lets get our blankets and sleep on deck tonight." "Alright," said Dad and soon we were sound asleep on the open deck headed for that wonderful "Somewhere in France."

Thirteen long days and nights were spent on this "tub," eleven and one half nights did I spend out on this deck usually below the rear mast, fine bed of steel and a couple of army blankets made up my cot—so fierce we used to grumble at our quarters on the "Hill" but here—were we dreaming? had we come to this? Had we spent 3 or 4 years in college and had we spent nearly 8 weeks in training camp to live in the hold the steerage, we the "college bred cattle" of the Antillees. However, this maybe, here we were and here we would make the best of it.

But now "cheer up boys" says an eager comrade. "The Licut. says we will land today." "Hurrah" goes up a shout and soon we're busy in the hold packing barracks bags and shaving preparatory to landing.

"Say," can't you fellows hear that alarm? "get here on deck" "quick" Oh you're kidding us "Bang" goes a big gun from a sister ship of the convoy at a Z Boat and soon, quicker than it takes to write it we were on deck and the men in charge were throwing out life belts quickly in order, "Bang" comes another report from the Port side to the rear of our boat, "Did you see that cries one?" "No where?" We were now all "belted" the life boats were ready for use the officers on the boat were at their places all calm, quiet and observing their men and seeing that order was observed.

In the mean time the destroyers wese beating it around the convoy in great style and wonderful speed, trailing up a U boat and watching the whole game. "Witch that chaser over there boys" she's after a U boat see her tip, "oh, I believe she got him." "Good, hurrah." "What's that?" inquires another, "over our heads." "That's a hydroplane coming out to escort us in." "Good work, hurrah, Frenchie" but watch him, did you see that bomb he dropped?" Look at it splash."

All seemed to be quitting when all of a sudden such a crash, such a shaking of the boat, and bits of flying paper coming back into our face. "There I told you," "our gunmen on old Antilles are ther boys," "well they should be, with that size shell."

For over an hour this tense experience kept up and tho we knew not what moment one of those "devils of the deep" might land a bullet into our engine room, yet for all that our men kept their heads and no one was lost.

The faint outline of "terra firma" was now in sight! My but it looked good. Again all was quiet, many little fishers smacks were passed and they all greeted us with "Vive la Americque." The lower doors of the ships were opened and the garbage disposed of, we were sure we were safe now for they only did this at night while on the high sea.

At 4 o'clock that same afternoon we were towed in harbor, we were now getting our first impression of France and French people what greeted us? Hundreds of the natives were along the docks, the children throwing fresh fruit on board, the kiddies hollowing in glee and others merely watching. That was not it. Our first impression was a sad one, one that brought home to us at once the fact that here they had seen 3 years of terrible war, 3 years of anxious waiting, 3 years of noble fighting. No, what was it that impressed us most, the picture we shall not forget the picture that will hang pronounced when we think of France. Of all those hundreds watching us the thing that impressed us, the scores of black clad mothers, weeping and yet glad to welcome our aid. The scores of lovely sisters, sweethearts and wives. Those could realize what we had come to, what we would be obliged to contend with, and we so eager, so anxious to get "into it" know not what it all means.

We have had 6 months of it now and still that same American spirit is evident, to see it through. They tell us after 3½ years we too will be tired of it but it takes a whole train load of troubles to discourage the true Yankee spirit, that "stick-to-it-iveness" that never says quit until you've won.

GERMAN MILITARISM AND ITS GERMAN CRITICS

U. S. GOVERNMENT ISSUES WAR BOOKLET ABOUT GERMAN MILITARISM.

The naked brutality of Prussian militarism in every day garrison life is revealed by the testimony of German soldiers, press and public men. The German Government from the Kaiser down has supported German Army officers in their revolting brutality to German soldiers. This is the evidence contained in the United States Government's latest war booklet of the War Information Series, entitled "German Militarism and Its German Critics." This booklet is released through the Committee on Public Information, Washington, D. C., to the American public, and anyone may obtain a copy without cost by writing the Committee. The author this booklet is Chas. Altshul, a retired banker of New York City, who has made a very careful study of German newspaper criticism. It is a most powerful expose of German Militarism. Mr. Altshul states "beating and abuse have been in vogue in the Prussian army as long as it has existed, nearly 275 years, and every effort to eradicate the trouble has failed." There are five chapters in this interesting booklet, the first dealing with German militarism since 1914; the second on the brutalizing effect of militarism; the third shows the German militarism exaltation of the army above the civil authorities; the fourth chapter illustrates the "Zabern Incident" as an evidence of militarism over civil authority; and the fifth chapter deals with the hope for the future conduct of German military authorities. All material in this booklet is based upon verbatim quotations from German newspapers who stood aghast at the display of license and unbelievable brutality practiced by commissioned and non-commissioned officers in the German army barracks. The main source of information is the "Vorwarts," the official organ of the German Social Democratic party. At the trial of Rosa Luxemburg 922 men from all parts of Germany responded and were ready to testify to something like 30,000 separate instances of brutal treatment of German soldiers by their own officers, even at the risk of prosecution by the Military authorities. One chapter of this testimony reads, "He was struck in the face with the fist of Lieutenant Erler, so that a tooth bled and got loose. He was beaten till he was bleeding but report of the case was not sent higher up. Musketer Hempel shot and killed himself after drill because he had been grossly insulted by a corporal in front of the company. A reservist threw himself in front of a railroad train; another drowned himself, because they could no longer stand the abuse of non-commissioned officer Hoeber." So overwhelming was the evidence prepared by Attorney Rosa Luxemburg that German Military authorities never allowed the case to be brought to trial. In another paragraph of this booklet Mr. Altshul states, "If Americans had been familiar with the details of German Militarism during the stress of a campaign they would have expected worse and would have been less unprepared for the unheard of barbarities practiced by the Germans in Belgium and wherever they set foot. If officers, non-commissioned officers and professional regulars treat their own recruits in the fashion described, in times of peace, what could be expected of troops commanded by such ruffians in enemy country, under the terrific excitement of combat, and particularly when "frightfullness is the slogan. Summarizing the hope of the future Mr. Altshul says "when the German people awaken from the nightmare which now holds them in its grasp; when they realize it was the dream of world power that had blinded them; when, under the pressure of stern necessity, they recast their views of frightfulness and of its consequences;—then there will reawaken that conscience which the liberal press

ZAUBRE BROTHERS

The famous performance of the Zaubre Brothers took place, as advertised, last Tuesday evening at the Orpheum, before a small but enthusiastic audience of the "fussers." The first half of the evening's entertainment was taken up with clever card and coin tricks, showing the "Black Art" at its best. Coins were made to appear and disappear at will, and were later found in unusual places. Ordinary playing cards disported themselves in an unheard of fashion, and performed at the slightest suggestion. Of course, now and then one card would get more ambitious than the rest of the deck and try to carry on the entertainment by itself, but as a rule, the tricks went off smoothly.

The mystical and supernatural part of the entertainment came in the second half of the performance, when a spiritualistic meeting was held. As the spirit of Julius Caesar was busy in New York that evening, the audience had to be satisfied with that of Napoleon. However, Napoleon was in fine form and the spirit of Ceasar was never missed. Not content with ringing the bell, which was of the "genius bovum," he performed many other wonderful and awe-inspiring things behind a screen, ending by throwing a tambourine over the top. The entertainment was enjoyed by everyone present and it is to be regretted that more students did not take this opportunity of becoming better asquainted with the wonders of magic and the marvels of the realm of spirits.

SIGMA CHI DANCE

Friday evening Sigma Chi entertained at an informal dance at the house on Walker street. A lighting and decorating scheme of a patriotic nature was carried out. Mrs. A. W. Johnson, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. R. M. Felton and Miss Blue acted as patronesses. Alumni present were Earle B. West, William R. Hindman, Lieut. Karl G. Goerdel, W. O. Shaffer and Arch. M. Ripple. Music was furnished by the S. A. E. orchestra.

With Other Colleges

At Swarthmore, the Absence Committee of the faculty has passed a ruling whereby examinations missed, for any cause, can be made up after a payment of a two-dollar fine. The student body is carrying on a vigorous protest against the ruling.

At Vassar, a college woman's "Pittsburgh" has been established for this summer. It is to be known as the Training Camp for Nurses. The course will extend from late in June until the middle of September and will be under the auspices of the National Council of Defense and the Red Cross.

At Franklin and Marshal the faculty abolished the student government, because of the refusal of that body to recognize Delta Sigma Chi's chapter there.

A definite number of military credits are required from graduates from the University of Pittsburgh.

To earn money, many of the students of the University of Kansas catch frogs and turtles for the biological laboratories.

There will be a meeting of the Ministerial Association Wednesday at 4.15.

JUNIORS VICTORS OVER FRESHMEN

SCORE OF FIRST INTERCLASS GAMES IS 12 TO 5.

WITHINGTON GETS TWO TRIPLES AND A DOUBLE

Pitching of Stout and Hitting of Withington and Klein Too Much for Freshies.—Eaton and Evans Star for the Freshies.

Juniors 12, Freshmen 5. Thus ended the first of the series of class games. The result came as a sort of a surprise to most of the spectators for at 2.30 the Juniors were still scurrying around for material. All the time, the freshmen were giving a good exhibition in practice.

At 3.30 P. M. "Dieffie" called "play ball!"

As the result of the tossing of a coin, the Juniors were the ones to bat first, and they tok advantage of the chance for "first blood." After Lewis had fanned and Holleran had hit to the pitcher, Withington started trouble with a two-bagger. Klein's clean single brought him over the platter for tally No. 1. Mohler put on the brakes and averted more trouble.

The freshmen came to bat with fire in their eyes, but two strikeouts finished them and Wargo's hit went naught.

The game was practically settled in the second. Hann was hit by a pitched ball in the head—no damage done. After Smith grounded out Stout and Lewis singled. Holleran laced a deep one to left, but Moore pulled itdown. Who's up? A three bagger and Withington goes racing around the paths. Klein then doubled and when the smoke had cleared off four Juniors had scored.

Again, two Freshmen struck out and Eaton's hit was wasted. Stout semed to have '21 under his thumb. In the third, the first three Juniors singled but a fast double play saved Mohler. Now the freshmen tried their "comeback." Hits by Collins, Savidge and Davis netted two runs.

Not to be outdone, the Juniors put two over in the fourth. Holleran walked and Withington got to first on a misjudged fly. Wargo missed Klein's grounder and two tallies came in. Thus the game see-sawed; for a while the freshmen counted twice in their half of the fifth, the Juniors did likewise in the sixth. Eaton again singled in the last of the sixth, but no one could bring him home.

The game was just drawing to a close, as it had been previously agreed upon that but seven innings were to be played. An error by Peters, a fielder's choice, a tripple by Withington and a single by Klein, were responsible for three more runs. The case of the Freshmen, who had battled pluckily, was almost hopeless. Collins reached first on an error by Hann. Savidge went out on a grounder. Bortz reached first on an error by Holleran and Collins scored. Davis and Evans went out, thus ending the contest.

For the Juniors, the batting of Worthington and Klein and the pitching of Stout were great factors in the victory. Eaton and Evans played fine games for the freshmen. Collins, Wargo and Eaton got two hits each. The heavy artillery of the Juniors was too much for the freshmen. Next Saturday the Sophomores and Seniors will try conclusions.

SENIOR PLAY

The committee appointed for the selection of the Senior play, composed of L. W. Sipley, R. S. Moore, H. S. Northrop and A. S. Reddig has selected "Robina in Search of a Husband," to be given in Commencement Hall on June 3 at 2.30 in the afternoon. Work has been started already on the play and a finished production is assured. The following cast has been chosen: M. E. Musser, R. E. Boyer, F. R. Bauman, R. S. Moore, H. S. Northrop, L. W. Sipley, Misses Mattern, Potts, Hahn and Gay. Miss Edith Schillinger has charge of the play, so that the audience is sure to see better acting and expression than in the ordinary run of plays. The committee anounces that there will be special programs, containing twenty pages, as souvenirs of the class. As the whole aim of the committee is to make the play better than ever before, so also will the programs be far above the average. The prices of admission have been set at forty-five and sixty cents, covering both the war tax and the cost of the programs. Further news of the play will appear in these columns at a later issue.

BUCKNELLIAN APPOINTMENTS

A. Lincoln Sherk, the present assistant manager, was chosen by the faculty committee as manager of "The Bucknellian." Nominations for assistant manager, under the plan specified in last week's issue, must be in the hands of the faculty committee by Wednesday, May 8. Names may be given to Professor Fries to to Dr. Perrine or Dr. Phillips.

ARRIVAL OF KITTY PROVES SUCCESS

LARGE AUDIENCE ENJOYS CAP AND DAGGER PLAY

FARCE COMEDY BRINGS DOWN THE HOUSE

Work of Cast of Highest Calibre Men Acting in the Roles of Women Score Hit. Fun runs Rampant.

Kitty certainly arrived in the nick of time to help matters at the Halcyon house, Catskill mountains, become more and more entangled as those who saw the performance of the Cap and Dagger society, at the Orpheum last Wednesday night will testify. The dramatic society produced "The Arrival of Kitty," from the pen of Norman Lee Swartout and was designed as a "farce in three acts." Nothing can characterize it better.

From the time that the curtain went up, portraying Warfel, '20, as the colored porter and comedian and Reamer, '20, as Ting, a bell hop, and manager of the Halcyon house, during the absence of the proprietor, the audience was kept in a lively humor.

With Stout, '19, Kitlowski, 20, Jones '19, laying aside their masculine qualities for the night and attiring themselves in the Eltinge garb, and Herman, '19, playing a double role, that of man and woman, the society very successfully portrayed to the audience that they did not need the services of women in their productions. Heim, '20, Heller '21, rounded out the well balanced cast by carrying the parts of the matrimonial agent, (for his own benefit,) and the "willing to marry for money man," respectively.

Of the many plays of which it is said "It is funny from beginning to end," "The Arrival of Kitty" is certainly one. There was not a slow minute in the play; not a minute when there was not something "doin," to keep the large audience (for every seat was taken) in an uproar. The audience has nothing but praise for the cast and work. W. C. Lees, '20, manager, was ably assisted by L. S. Sherk. The S. A. E. Orchestra furnished the music.

ARTIST CONCERT

A very enjoyable concert was given on Friday, April 20th in Bucknell Hall, by Miss Mary Fuller Gibbons, a violinist and Prof. David Berlino, pianist. Because of the numerous activities of that evening the number who availed themselves of the opportunity to enjoy such a high class concert was small. It is hoped that more will attend the concert to be given by Miss Beatrice MacCue, contralto on Friday, May 3, which is the last concert of the artists' course. The program follows:

1. Adoration, Borowski; Sonata in A Major, G. F. Haendel, andante, Adagio, Allegretto.
3. Romance, Wieniawski.
4. Mazurka, Mlynarski.
1. Minuet, Beethoven.
2. Schoen Rosmarin, Kreisler
3. Canzonetta, d'Ambrosio.
4. Serenade, Drdla.
1. Vavatina, Raff.
2. Finale G. Minor, Bruch. (allegro energico.)

SOPHOMORE COTILLION

All arrangements have been made for the Sophomore Cotillion. The affair this year promises to be one of the most successful in recent years.

Friday evening May 17 is the date finally decided on by the committee and Milton Park the place. Ne Cals Orchestra will furnish music for the occassion. Tickets can be had from any member of the committee at $1.50.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WAR

During the past week, the English navy carried out a feat, which reminds us of Hobson at Santiago. The objectives of the raid were the submarine bases of Zeebrugge and Ostend. In spite of a hot fire, several old cruisers, laden with concrete, were sunk in the mouth of the Bruger Canal, thus greatly hindering submarine operations.

On land the Germans have renewed their drive, but the resistance encountered, has made progress very slow. In fact the only important loss to the allies is the neight of Kemmel, which guards Ypres. Allied counter attacks are being made at the present moment.

FORUM FRESHMEN HOSTS

On Tuesday evening last the Forum freshmen entertained the freshmen of the Sigma Chi and Kappa Sigma fraternities and the Forum upperclassmen in the Forum House on the Hill. The freshmen first gave a little play, a farce comedy, entitled "The Great Medical Dispensary" and then all indulged in cards, smoking and pool. Refreshments were next on the evening's program and then after a Bucknell-ell-ell the freshmen departed to their rooms in East college and the wing of Old Main.

PROF. BERLINO'S DEPARTURE

It is with a great amount of regret that the Bucknell School of Music announces the loss of Prof. David Moyer Berlino, of the piano department. Prof. Berlino has been called into the army service by the draft, and left last Friday for his home, after which he will go to a training camp.

This has been Prof. Berlino's first year at teaching in this institution, and while here has delighted many audiences with his work. He has also been concert pianist for the Musical Clubs.

FORUM ENTERTAINS GIRLS

Last Friday evening the Forum fraternity were the guests of the School of Music at the recital given by Mary Fuller Gibbons, violinist, and Prof. Berlino at the piano. After they adjourned to the house with the girls that they had escorted to Bucknell Hall. They were chaperoned by Miss Rainey, Miss Fowler and Prof. and Mrs. L. L. Rockwell. After an enjoyable evening the girls departed for the seminary as the fraternity gave a Bucknell-ell-ell for that division of the University.

SENIOR MUSIC RECITAL

The second Senior Music Recital will be given by Misses Larson, Rugg-les, Maher and Mackey on Wednesday, May 1 in Bucknell Hall with Miss Hagemann at the iano as accompanist for the vocal numbers. The public is cordially invited.

ESSAY CONTEST

The Essay Contest for college girls will be held Saturday morning, May 11, beginning at 9.30 A. M. Contestants will meet at Rhetoric office with blue bok, pen and ink and with no notes.

PROMOTION

W. C. Lotte, '14, has been promoted from First Lieutenant in the Quartermaster Department to Captain.

The active members of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity were entertained at their home, Friday night by the pledge men, at an informal dance. Dancing lasted from 8:30 to 12:30, and the music was furnished by the Phi Gamma Delta orchestra. The patrons and patronesses were Prof. and Mrs. H. S. Everitt, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Standish, of Williamsport.

MAY DAY EXERCISES TO OCCUR MAY 4

PAGEANT TO BE HELD ON CAMPUSS OF WOMAN'S COLLEGE

AN ORIGINAL PLAY WILL BE PRESENTED

"The Tarrying of Spring" Comes From the Dramatic Department. Unveiling of May Queen, Winding of May Pole, and dances to Feature.

This year Bucknell is again to observe May Day. This event was put aside last year and attentnion was devoted to the needs of the Red Cross. While the Red Cross and the Liberti Loan and other War work are more important than ever, it is becoming impossible for schools which are preparing women to enter the teaching profession, to dispense with a May Day. The principal reason is that all over the state, in small towns and in cities, the May Dey pageant or exercises of some nature are observed. This is in accordance with the idea of play now being taught in up to date schools.

Thus Bucknell, desiring to give her students the best possible preparation will reestablish its old cuttom. On May 4, the young ladies will present the May Day play, called "The Tarrying of Spring." This is an original play coming from the Dramatic Department. The special features of the program will be the unveiling of the May Queen, the winding of the May Pole, and several May Day dances. The girls of all classes are working hard and with as little expense; yet all are working to surpass the May Day's of farmer years.

The program is arranged so that it will not last more than one hour and a half, commencing at 2.30 P. M. Should the day be wet and rainy the program will be postponed till Monday May 6. All are invited to this merryMay Day festival and to share again the joy of the Springtime.

ELOCUTION CONTEST

The annual contest of the Elocution department will be held in Bucknell Hall Saturday evening May, 4.

The affair is an annual event and one of the Spring Term attractions which is well worth while. The contest is open to students of the elocution department. The contestants receive training under the direction of Miss Schillinger and Miss Hamler. The person who is returned the winner is announced on Commencement Day and receives a money prize.

A splendid program is promised this year and everybody is invited. No admission will be charged.

FRESHMAN DANCE

The plans for the Freshman Hop, to be held Thursday of this week, are coming along very well. The famous Ne-Cal orchestra, with "Doc" Evans singing besides, has been secured for the occasion. The committee reports that, as only forty-five tickets will be sald and as nearly that number have been sold already, all those who wish to attend should secure their tickets at once. The available girl supply seems to be running short also, so haste should be made in securing a partner. Dancing will be from 9 to 2 at the Lewisburg Club. Subscription $2.00.

CHEMICAL LAB. FIRE

On Thursday night a fire broke ont in the Chemical labrotary caused by a burner which had been left lighted catching upon the woodwork. The fire was fed by benzine in two large bottles which stood near by. The damage done amounted to about $25.

MONDAY APRIL 29, 1918.

SOME TRIALS

Within the next few weeks, there will be introduced in these columns, some innovations, for such we shall call them, although previous editors may have used them, but because they bring a change, we shall give them the aforementioned appellation. They are six in number.

1. It is the belief of the writer, that for the convenience and use of the student body a calender containing a record of the activities for the ensuing week, would be desirable. However, it has been the case in the past, that because of last minute news notices, the calenday delayed the printing of the paper. To avoid this no news which is received after Sunday, 6 P. M. will be printed in the calendar. For the present, hand all news items to the editor.

2 Activities of the Musical and Elocution departments will receive due notice. It has been customary not to deal with Women's College news of this sort, because it was considered as belonging to the Woman's College Journal. However, since the Journal's work is mainly literary, the use of this material will not likely be objected to. Furthermore, the use of this news will make the paper more representative, inasmuch as Women's College news other than Y. W. C. A. meetings, will be brought before the student body and alumni.

3 In place of the column of "Hill Gossip" and "Women's College Notes" there will be a "Visitors" column. Formerly, there was a separate item noting each visitor and each visit of the students, here and elsewhere. The notice of student visits, except for some delegation or such work, is of no real news value. However, a list of visitors to college is deemed advisable. A notice for this column must be in before 9 P. M. Sunday evening of each week.

4. A column of news items of other colleges will be run whenever possible. This not only familiarizes the students with the activities of other colleges, but it also tends to raise the paper above what so many college papers are, a mere local news sheet.

5. Space, whenever available, will be given to the printing of government news. At a meeting of editors of the leading college papers, at Columbia recently, it was decided to use as much government news as possible, not only for patriotic purposes, but for the news value of the material itself.

6. A summary of the week's war news will appear, also. In one of our exchanges appeared the following: "St. Lawrence University weekly has a summary of the week's war news; a helpful thing for the fellow who can't find time for the daily papers." The idea is well worth giving a trial.

It may seem that the wholesale introduction of these changes is unwise, but inasmuch as most of them are successfully carried on by many of the best college papers, warrants our giving them a trial, at least.

With Other Colleges

In annual contest of the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Oratorical Union, Franklin and Marshall's representation won first place and Gettysburg's won second. Ursinus, Muhlenberg, Swarthmore and Lafayette were also represented.

The University of Chicago has rescinded the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws conferred on Count von Bernstorff in 1911, not because the United States is in war with Germany, but because he, as a guest of this country, violated its laws and the rules of hospitality.

New Hapmshire's library receives copies of "Plane News," a publication printed in France by the American Expeditionary Forces.

"Epitome," Lehigh's class book, made its appearance last week. Only 405 copies were printed.

Gettysburg will hold its commencement and close its year's work on May 15. Ex-president Taft will be the orator of the day.

Tho food administration board of Pittsburgh in order that the German name "sauer-kraut" might not hinder its sale, named it "pickled cabbage."

SORORITY NOTES

Pi Beta Phi celebrated Founder's Day on Saturday night in the living room of the Woman's College. The Freshmen gave a play.

Kappa Delta freshmen entertained the active chapter with a hay ride to Mifflinburg last Saturday.

Delta Delta Delta patronesses and alumni were accorded a reception on Friday evening in the parlors of the Woman's College.

OUR NEW FLAG.

Recently, a new flag made its appearance on the college flag staff, displacing the emblem which had, with bad results, weathered the winter winds and snows. With the coming of the brightness and greenness of spring, it is fitting that the "Stars and Stripes" should shine in the sunlight. The students appreciate the promptness with which this matter was attended to by those in charge.

OUR CAMPUS

At the present time of the year, our campus becomes more and more the attraction of visitors to college and to Lewisburg. On this account it is obligatory for each of us to take care that we do nothing to detract from its beauty. In one respect many of us are at fault. We have became careless about the disposing of scrap paper, candy bags and the like, the campus being considered a fit depository for such material. Do we think that such waste material will be carried away by the winds, decomposed by the weather, or picked up by an all attentive guardian? True it is, that often it is taken in charge by those who look after the campus, but just as often their time can not be given to this work, as a result of which paper is strewn everywhere. Let us be more careful! In the library and in some of the class rooms there are waste paper baskets. Keep your paper until you can place it in some receptacle supplied for that purpose.

The biological laboratory has received a dozen frogs from New Orleans. They measure form fifteen to sixteen inches. As is customary, the Glee Club will employ them as bass singers, if they qualify.

—All men interested in football will please report at the gymnasium on Thursday of this week at 3.30 P. M., to meet the new football coach.

FRENCH LIFE DESCRIBED

Extracts from a letter of Captain Penrose Shelley, M. D. in which French life is described are printed below. Captain Shelly is a surgeon in the regular army. After graduating from Bucknell, he attended Jefferson Medical College, of which he is a graduate. He was one of the sixty out of 100 who passed the examinations for Army Medical College.

After serving in El Paso, Texas, as a first lieutenant for eight months, he was promoted to the rank of Captain and sent across in December, 1917. The letter describes some new views of French life.

"Somewhere in France.

"Our trip across the great waters was rather tiresome and uneventful. We saw no submarines, but did have a dreadful rough sea for several days. Pratically everybody was seasick, but I fortunately escaped owing, I believe, to the fact that I was in splendid physical condition. But I have lost all faith in drugs as a remedy for seasickness.

"We shot thru the danger zone right after this storm and before the submarine crews had a chance to recuperate. Our quarters were very comfortable. I roomed with a Major and Captain, who were most congenial companions.

"I have been busy all morning writting official letters, trying to get things straightened out since our arrival. We lost some of our property in the scramble at the place of debarkation and it has caused me considerable trouble. You know that I now have all the responsibility of the company and that means something over here.

"We had a delikhtful trip thru France. It was cold, however, but we dressed to suit the weather.

"I am located fairly close to the front; can hear things very distinctly and see numerous aeroplanes daily and an occasional Boche plane.

"The people here are very poor The roads everywhere are splendid. France certainly has something on us when is comes to public highways.

"I am billeted with a French family. The father is Mayor of the village and I use his office for my office. The room is heated by a fire place, but the wood is green and covered with snow, so that I must blow it up with the soufflez about every five minutes. I have a nice little bedroom which the family would gladly care for, but I prefer to have one of my men to look after it. You ought to see my bed! It is built in the wall and is about four feet high, with curtains in front of it. I feel very much like a king when in bed. The bed is quite comfortable, but a trifle short. The officers have their own mess. A French woman cooks for us. The food is fairly good, but not like the kind I am accustomed to at home.

"This was pay day and the men are the happiest bunch you ever saw. We left the United States about the time our money was due, so that their pockets were about empty, and it surely does look good to see them buying altho they can not appreciate the French coin as they would the good American dollars. They do not know the different denominations and their values. After they are 'stung' a few times they will get wise.

"We have a great time trying to talk to the French people. They chatter so fast, but we are getting along fairly well. They are anxious to talk French to us, but do not want to learn English.

"I just drank water from my canteen and these people laugh every time I do it and say, 'Mon Dieu.' They never drink water, always wine, but I really do not like the stuff and it does not quench my thirst at all.

"I got a quart bottle of wine when I came here, for we couldn't get any water at first, but I have scarcely touched it. The white and red wines seem to be popular ones. but I can not see anything to them.

"Champagne is very cheap. The American troops are not allowed to use the heavy wines and liquors.

"The family with whom I am billetted keep a wine candy and notion shop. I see some of the men in ther

IMPORTANT TO STUDENTS

The United States government is in urgnt need of thousands of typewriter operators and stenographers and typewriters. All who pass examinations for the departments and offices at Washington, D. C., are assured of certification for appointment. It is the manifest duty of citizens with this special knowledge to use it at this time where it will be of most value to the Government. Women especially are urged to undertake this office work. Those who have not the required training are encouraged to undergo instruction at once.

Examinations for the Departmental Service, for both men and women, are held every Tuesday, in 450 of the principal cities of the United States, and applications may be filed with the Commission at Washington, D. C., at any time.

The entrance salary ranges from $1,000 to $1,200 a year. Advancement of capable employees to higher salaries is reasonably rapid.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth birthday on the date of the examination.

For full information in regard to the scope and character of the examination and for application blanks address the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., or the Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board of Examiners at Boston, Mass.; New York, N. Y.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Atlanta, Ga.; Cincinnati, O.; Chicago, Ill.; St. Paul, Minn.; St. Louis, Mo.; New Orleans, La.; Seattle, Wash.; San Francisco, Cal.; Honolulu, Hawaii; or San Juan, Porto Rico.

SENIOR TEAM SCORES DOUBLE VICTORY

DEFEAT JUNIORS 4 TO 2 AND SOPHOMORES 4 TO 3.

SENIORS LEAD IN INTER-CLASS LEAGUE

In Junior-Senior Game, Harar and Newcomb Starred.—In Soph.-Senior Game Deland, Williamson, Northrop, Baird, Swenkler and Waddell Played Best.

Senior-Junior Game

About 4 P. M. the Juniors decided they would play the Seniors men or no men. So after a fine combing process eight Juniors were found and Johnson, a High school lad was pressed into service. The game started with Lewis lamming out a clean single to center field.. Hollern walked and Withington drove a single into left field, scoring Lewis. Northrup who was pitching for the Seniors tightened tnd Kline. and Harter were retired in order.

The Seniors in their turn touched Hollern for one run. This ended the scoring till the third round. Aided by several errors on the part of the Senior infield, the Juniors scored their second counter and incidently their last one.

In their half of the fourth inning the Seniors went on the war-path and as a result of their strenuous efforts, they brought three runs across the plate and thus ended the scoring of the game.

From the fourth inning each pitcher received sterling support. While many players took a healthy wallop at the ball some fielders glove was always ready to receive the sphere.

In the fifth round Hassrick drove a scorching liner which looked to be going through to left field, but before one could think Harter had jumped and with a great one hand stab, caught the ball. Likewise Newcombe made several sensational catches in center field; it being impossible to put a ball over his head owing to his height and the fact he played way back. Withington and Williamson gave a good exhibition of catching.

No box score was kept. Score by innings is below.

"A Comedy of Errors"—not as rendered by "Cap and Dagger" but by the Soph. baseball team of the university, took place Saturday P M. With the aid of three hits and errors by 1920, the Seniors won to the tune of 4-3. Failure to hit in the pinches cost the Sophs several tallies. A glance at the number of men left on bases showed this clearly. The Seniors had three men stranded; the Sophs eleven. It may be truly said that the Sophs beat themselves.

1920 went to bat first. By virtue of a base on balls and a hit batsman, two men were on, with two gone when Swenkler came to bat. He was thrown out, catcher to first. In their half of the first the Seniors won the game. Deland, first man up, cracked out a pretty single. Northrop then knocked a roller to Davis, who missed it, thus preventing a double play. After Hassrick went out on a pop fly, Musser reached first on a fielder's choice, Newcomb walked and Williamson singled. Swenkler found out that unless some one in covering the bag, a ball thrown to second will travel to the outfield. Hence run number three.

In the second, both teams went out in one, two, three order. Reamer got a Texas leaguer in the third and Fraker again walked, but the other batsmen did not bring either of them in. Again the Seniors went out without a kick.

The fourth saw the winning run come over. Williamson rolled to the shortstop, but Fraker, too anxious, missed it and paved the way for trouble. Swenkler attempted to throw "Red" out at third, but "Matty" let the ball get through him and the game went on ice.

The Sophs rallied in the sixth. Dorris was out for interference, but 'Matty" drove a clean one over second. Salaczynski drove one down the right field foul line. The ball looked fair and two runs went across, enough to tie the score, but "Dieffe" called it foul, so the runners had to return to their bases. 'Sally" went out, Bair, hitting as a pinch hitter, almost broke up the game with a long drive to deep center, which Newcomb gathered in.

For their part the Seniors went out in order.

Now for the lucky seventh. The first three men up hit safely. Dorris came to bat, anxious to make up for that error, but in his zeal, popped a fly to "Jake." Matty fanned and "Sally" went out, short to first.

Deland was the heaviest hitter of the day, getting two singles in three times at bat. For the Sophs Waddell and Swenkler got 2 hits in four times at bat.

Williamson caught a fine game and made two catches of foul flies that were "humers." "Red" Baird had the edge on Jake Northrop, but was not given good support. Each pitcher fanned seven opponents. A curious fact was that in the whole game extra base hits, sacrifice hits and flies, and double plays, were minus quantities.

STAFF FOR 1918-19 HANDBOOK ANNOUNCED

Y. M. C. A. PLANS FOR ITS ANNUAL PUBLICATION. WORK TO BSGIN AT ONCE.

Even though the times are so abnormal, as at present, the Y. M. C. A. of the university will put out its annual handbook. The staff for the 1918-1919 handbook is: Editor, Jas. Sherman, '19; Asistant editor, Francis F. Reamer, '20; manager, Stephen F. Dimlich, '20; Assistant manager, Warren H. Slocum, '20.

The purpose of the handbook is to get acquainted with the new men. Each new student is sent in the summer before his arrival at college one of the handbooks, containing a resume of general college customs, college organizations and directions for the help of the new men.

MUSICAL CLUB CONCERT, WILLIAMSPORT

CONCERT HELD FOR BENEFIT OF RED CROSS

AUDIENCE FILLS FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Program Included Numbers by Glee Club, Orchestra, Quartette and Vocal and Violin Solos.

The account of the concert, as it appeared in the "Williamsport Sun" spoke so favorably of the entertainment, that it is deemd well to print it. It follows:

The concert given by the Bucknell musical club in the First Baptist church last evening, under the auspices of the Baptist Social union, was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience.

The program opened with the delightful overture, "Raymond," by Thomas, in which the orchestra appeared to good advantage, showing unusual ability in concert work. A quartet number by Messrs. Davis, Stout, Hutchinson and Eaton was very well rendered. The men were compelled to respond to an encore. The "Nun of Nidarus" was the first number rendered by the glee club and was given in an unusual manner. Mr. Hartz assisted in this number as tenor obligato. Mr. Eaton's vocal solo, "Bandolero," was a very impressive number. Prof. David Berlino, the noted concert pianist, who was to have rendered a piano solo at this point in the program, was drafted into the United States service and had already reported to Camp Lee. While the audience was disappointed in not hearing this accomplished pianist, they were much delighted with the number that was given in its place.

Messrs. Heim and Davis sang a pleasing vocal duet, entitled, "Farewell Forever." The orchestra number, "Little Lady," was very well rendered. "Walter's Prize Song," by Mr. Hartz was a pleasing number. The glee club then favored the audience with another selection which was delightful in every detail.

The violin solo, 'Mazurka," by Mynarski, was most excellently rendered by Mr. Derby. Mr. Davis' vocal solo, "Celeste Aida," sung in Spanish, was one of the most pleasing numbers on the program. Mr. Davis has a very beautiful tenor voice. The ever popular "Soldier's Chorus," from Faust, rendered by the glee club, received much applause.

The members of the musical club deserve much credit for the splendid manner in which the program was rendered. The excelent rendition of each number emphasized the fact every one had worked hard to make a success of the program, which had been arranged after careful consideration and selection. There is some unusual talent among the boys and the concert was a great credit to the university. The proceeds of the evening are for the benefit of the Red Cross.

RECEIVES WAR CROSS

The name of Charles Afflerbach Reed, '18, has been added to the list of Bucknell students that are "over there" who have won high honors. The French government recently awarded Reed the War Cross for bravery while on one of the active fronts in a recent battle. While here Reed was preparing for the ministry and was a member of the Forum fraternity.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement of R. P. Lewis, '19, to Miss Mary Hitchey, of Bridgeton, N. J., was announced on Wednesday.

A HERO'S LETTER

The following letter is offered by the recipient as an evidence of the proverbial modesty of a true hero.

"I received your kind note of congratulation several days ago and I want to assure you that it made me feel proud to think perhaps some deed of mine had reflected honor on Bucknell—however small that honor may be. Please do not overlook the other men in the section in your praise, for they, to a man, are working to their utmost to serve the "Cause" faithfully. It is only due to a whim of Dame Fortune that some of us have been drawn forward a mite.

Charles A. Reed, '18, has also been awarded the Cross of War for brave work during a recent attack.

Thanking you again for your thoughtful kindness, I remain,

Respectfully yours,
Harold A. Stewart

Mr. Stewart was one of the first Bucknell Ambulance men to be awarded the War Cross.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR

This week has witnessed a lull in the German drive, due perhaps to the great loss of life, sustained in the attack on Kemmel. The allies improved their defences and recaptured Loire, a village a little southwest of Kemmel. Heavier American casualty lists are being published; the 'blue devils" (marines) and New England troops, suffering most. Sunday's newspapers give us news which presages the fourth phase of the German offensive.

In Italy, the Austrians are shelling the Italian lines with an intense and severe bombardment. Whether Italy is to be invaded remains to be seen. Foch has been given comand over the Italian front as well as the western front.

In our country, the Third Liberty Loan went "over the top" with a bang, over four bilion dollars being subscribed.

The Kappa Sigmas entertained several college girls at an informal dinner party on Friday evening, Miss Fowler was the chaperon.

MAY DAY PROVES MOST DELIGHTFUL

MISS LOUISE HAHN CROWNED QUEEN OF THE MAY.

PLAY ORIGINATED BY DRAMATIC DEPARTMENT

Women's College Campus Is Scene of Beautiful Spectacle.—Sophomore Class Wins Loving Cup for Class Presenting Best Appearance.

The annual May Day festival given by the girls of the "Sem" was held last Saturday afternoon on the Women's College Campus commencing shortly after 2.30 o'clock. The custom of holding these performances was done away with last year, the girls putting their time on Red Cross work, and when it was decided to resume the custom this year, the decision met with a most hearty approval by all.

The campus presented a beautiful scene, the girls moving to and fro in their many colored gowns and even nature itself aided by covering the ground with pretty bluets. Several hundred people from the town as well as many friends and relatives joined with the students in viewing this pleasing spectacle. The title of the play was "The Tarrying of Spring" and the plot was originated and worked out by Miss Schillinger assisted by Miss Hamler. It was a big success in the fullest sense of the word because the presentation of each part showed careful training and so delighted the spectators that every one left more than pleased with it and glad of having been there.

The opening scene showed King Winter (Miss James) upon his throne wishing to leave, but Earth (Miss Champion) begs him to remain until Spring appears. The King consents, then the Snow Maidens (Misses Muir, Sprout, Mackereth, Sipley, Davis, Davis, Lotte and Smith) enter and dance a Salute to Winter. Earth next bids her heralds (Misses Mat-

MORE HONORS

The United States government has issued a call to all colleges and universities with engineering courses of recognized merit for men to be sent to the Engineers Reserve Officers' Training Camp. The number of institutions upon which this honor was conferred is limited. Bucknell can well be proud that we are included in the number.

It was requested that we send two men as our quota. When the call arrived, the heads of the Engineering department conferred in order to choose the men best qualified to represent Bucknell in the work. Clifford Sterkes Deck; and Stanley Newton Harris were chosen. They will report May 5th at Camp Lee Petersburg, Virginia.

In behalf of the student body, we express our congratulation to the men upon attaining this honor, and extend to them our best wishes for success.

WEEK OF ORATORICAL AND DECLAMATION CONTEST

FRESHMAN BOYS' AND GIRLS' DECLAMATION AND SOPH ORATORICAL CONTESTS

This will be a busy week for Bucknell orators. On Wednesday the men of the Freshmen class will appeal in their annual declamation contest. Some good old time standard selections will compete with others never before heard in Lewisburg. Dramatic poetry, special adaptations of classic prose, and humorous harangues will provide a pleasant evening.

On Thursday night the Women of of the Freshman class will hold the platform in strenuous competition. A number of clever declamations, new and old, will be delivered by selected speakers.

Saturday night has been reserved for the Sophomores. They will present a double header, both men and women being on the program. According to custom the men will confine themselves to oratorical efforts, most of them being up to date addresses by eminent men; while the women will present selections of a varied character.

All of these exercises will be interspersed with music by special arrangement with the school of music.

GIRLS WIN "B's" AND NUMERALS

In the Physical Education contest for Women Thursday, May 2, "B's" were awarded to

Emily Devine,
Freda Mackereth,
Marjorie Sprout.

Numerals were awarded to Charlotte Silpey, Helen Beck, Dorothy Davis, Barbara Coe, Lucille Evans and Lulu Tompkins.

FIRST SENIOR MUSICAL RECITAL WINS FAVOR

MARKED ABILITY SHOWN BY FIVE STUDENTS OF SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The first of a series of Senior musical recitals was enjoyed by the students and townspeople in Bucknell Hall on Wednesday evening. The program showed that the music students possessed musical talent of extraordinary excellence, and the results of attentive preparation and careful instruction. The students who took part in the program were Misses Aileen Larson, Helen Ruggles, and Rosamond Mayer, pupils of De Sylva Schoen; Miss Emily Mackey, pupil of Prof. D. Berlino, with Miss Hazel Hagerman at the piano. The program:

1. (a) Adore and be still, Gounod;
   (b) The Swan, Saint Saens;
   (c) The Catechist, Hardel—(Vocal Trios)
2. (a) Springsong (from Sompson and Dalila), Saint-Saens
   (b) Enticement, Dessauer
   (c) My Lover is a Weaver Hildach
   Miss Maher
3. (a) Aria From "Madame Butterfly", Puccini
   (c) Sunlight, Waltz, Ware
   Miss Larson
4. (a) Spin, Spin, Swedish Folksong
   (b) Hear Our Prayer, Abbot
   (c) Sunny Spain, Balero
   (Arranged by Kamperman)

7. Card Scene (from 'Carmen' Bizet
   Carmen—Maher
   Mercedes—Miss Ruggles
   Frasquita—Miss Larson

FRESHMAN HOP

An innovation in Bucknell customs was sprung upon the unsuspecting student body recently when a number of enterprising members of the Class of 1921 announced a Freshman Hop. The Hop was hopped last Thursday evening according to schedule and the 50 odd couples who were in attendance enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Ne-Cals Orchestra of Sunbury, assisted by Walter Evans was unusually "pepiferous" and played all the late pieces from 9 until 2. Of course the majority of the dancers were wearers of the green but the other classes were well represented, and several alumni were present including men from the service.

The guest of honor of the evening was Mrs. Geranium, a charming young widow of Shamokin. Mrs. Geranium is a brunette of the athletic type but coy and winsome in disposition and soon had host of young masculine admirers at her feet. Mrs. Geramain's debut at Bucknell was highly successful and we hope that in the future she will be a frequent visitor. The only disappointed person of the evening was Shaw who made a date with the splushy one, to find out later that his engagement was with none other than Maurice Hoovan.

Prof. and Mrs. Lindemann, Mrs. Hoffa, and Miss Bender were patronesses. The succes of the affair is due to the work of the enterprising Chairman, Huthinson, who was ably assisted by a committee of seven other first year men. The committee expected the expenditures to balance the receipts but in case there is any surplus the extra amount will no doubt be put to a good use.

LAST CONCERT OF ARTIST COURSE GIVEN

MISS MacCUE PLEASES WITH PROGRAM OF DELIGHTFULLY RENDERED SONGS

Miss Beatrice MacCue contralto with Miss Jessie Cooper at the piano, furnished the program for the last concert of the Artist Course of the School of Music. It is regretful that this splendid course is ended for the year, for it was one of the highest class and most delightful courses of entertainment of the college year.

The powerfulness of her voice, the richness of her tones showed that Miss MacCue is a highly talented singer. The program was in itself a varied one, containing numbers of all kinds necessary to bring forth the range of the singer's voice and the smoothness of her tones. The program follows:

Calm as the Night, Bohm; The Star, Rogers; The Cock Shall Crow Carpenter; Sing to me Sing, Homer; Dinna Ask Me, Homer; Dear Lad O'Mine, Branscombe; My Homeland, Speaks; Angus MacDonald, Roeckel; Morning Dew, Sunshine Song, Greig; The Dew is Sparkling, The Dream, Rubenstein; Melisande in the Wood, Goetz; The Little Dutch Garden, Mead; Deep River, I want to be Ready, Burleigh; Come up, Come in With Streamers, Deis; Ah! Love But a Day, Gilberte; O Red is the English Rose, Forsyth; Thy Beaming Eyes, MacDowell; The Danza, Chadwick.

FRESHMEN GIRLS' DECLAIM

Plans for the annual Freshman Girls' Declamation contest which will take place Thursday evening in Bucknell Hall, have been completed

For some time past pupils in oratory have been working under the direction of the elocution department in preparation for this contest and no doubt impassioned eloquence and a wealth of dramtic tone and gesture will mark the efforts of the participants Thursday evening.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT ELOCUTION CONTEST

EIGHT GIRLS COMPETE FOR PRIZE. WINNERS TO BE ANNOUNCED JUNE 4.

A large audience attended the annual contest of the elocution department held Saturday evening, May 4 in Bucknell Hall. The program was made up of numbers of various kinds from the comical to the serious, all however, were of high class. Several gave excellent opportunity for character portrayal. The program showed careful selection and long preparation, holding the interest and attention of the audience throughout. The program:

B. U. MILITARY INSIGNIA

The Bucknell Military Insignia having arrived, it is desired that each fraternity hand the number required for their group to R. E. Boyer. Thus, each group will be expected to forward this insignia to their members in the service. All students enlisting from this and last year's classes are awarded the military B. U. "Jake" Northrop will take care of the non-fraternity interests.

Prof. Bromley Smith was away last week on a lecture trip to Nottingham, Pa., and Tome Institute, Indiana. On his return he visited the famous M'Call's Ferry Power plant which supplies power and light to Lancaster and Baltimore.

tern and McClintock) seek Spring and during the search the college seniors presented a minuette in a credible manner. The Sun Maidens (Misses Childs, Sipley, Wertz and Smith) enter and learn that the cause of Spring's delay is the lack of love in the world. They then offer a prayer to the Sun, being part of a religious ceremony used by the Eastern Sun Worshippers. This dance was well interpreted and well given. Upon the conclusion of this, the Sun Maidens presented their Dance of Glee, this also being well received. Next, Earth calls the birds to tell the Queen of the world's love for May and the Queen yields. The queen (Miss Louise Hahn) accompanied by her attendants (Misses Potts, Lotte, Gay, Michael, Fritz, Coe, Gabel and Harris) and many followers marched slowly across the campus to the throne and received the crown of the Queen of May or Spring. The Mist Maidens dance gaily, Winter and his Snow Maidens vanish while Spring reigns supreme. The Gypsies (the Juniors) came to welcome the Queen and presented one of the prettiest dances of the day. Dressed in red, black and yellow, with tambourines in hand they executel gracefully the movements of their dance. Following this the Sophomores representing Flowers trooped in at the call of the Queen and portrayed a pleasing dance. However, during this part of the program, Old Sol evidently became angry because he was not on the throne, at any rate he started to weep and the tears fell so rapidly that they seemed like rain upon the earth and many of the spectators left. Nevertheless, the dancing Flowers refused to droop and successfully completed their number just as Old Sol stopped weeping. The Freshmen girls dressed in green and white appeared next and presented The Dance of the Whole Green World in the same clever manner as the Juniors and Sophomores, all three of which won applause from the onlookers. The grand march took place after a few moments and this was one of the most impressive events of the day. The Seniors led, having on their caps and gowns, the Juniors followed, then the Sophomores and Freshmen in order. They marched to the May poles, there being one for each class and the May pole dances were given. The last number was the planting of the 1918 Senior girls' tree, followed by the singing of "Ray Bucknell," and the Star Spangled Baner," making an excelent finale to an excelent entertainment. The loving cup which is usually awarded to the class presenting the best appearance was won by the Sophomore girls.

FRESHIES AND SOPHS EACH VICTORIOUS

SENIORS' FIRST DEFEAT SOPHMORES TIE FOR SECOND

FRESHIES 8; SENIORS0.
SOPHS 2; JUNIORS 1

Moyler Allows But One Hit. Freshmen Teamwork Good. Baird holds Juniors. Sophs—Junior Game Best of Season.

The last week witnessed a shake up in the league standings. As a result of Thursday's game, the Sophs climed from the cellar, willing that berth to the Juniors. It was the best played and the most hotly contested game, which has yet been played. The 3rd and 6th innings were the only times a run was made, as Stout and Baird were twirling great ball.

SOPHOMORE-JUNIOR GAME

To start things, Fraker walked. Faust's attempted bunt ascended upward and the double play resulted, Withington to Klein. Lenker singled but Dorris grounde out. Four men faced "Red' Baird, as Withington secured a free ticket to first.

In the second, Swenkler, obtained his first hit but was stranded. The Seniors went out in order. The thirsi was a funny one, that is, funny from any except a Junior's point of view. Fraker poled a long one to Lewis and now the fun. Faust got to first on an error. Not to be outdone, Waddell and Lenker did likewise. All this, with a wild throw by Withington, resulted in two runs on no hits.

Turning the clocks ahead does put us back several months, but still not to Christmas time.

The fourth saw the prettiest play yet pulled off. Two passes and two hits went for naught and Withington was all to blame for it. With the bases loaded, he whipped one to Gerhart. Then the spectators saw Tony Swenkler several yards from second. It was a very pretty play, as first Withington had forced Bair back to third by a bluff throw.

The Seniors got their first hit in the fourth and repeated in the fifth and sixth. The Sophs could not touch after the fatal fourth. In the sixth Lewis doubled and scored on Faust's muff of a hard try.

Both pitchers deserve credit for their performances. For the Sophs Lenker and Swenkler secured two hits each. Withington played his usual good game.

FRESH—SENIOR GAME

Somewhat to the surprise of the Seniors and to every one else, the first year men launched an attack against the Seniors which could not be stopped throughout the seven innings played.

In the second round of the game the Freshies started their attack on the unoffending Senior pitcher, "Jake" Northrup. Aided by a pass and singles by Eaton and Dorris respectively, they scored the first run of the game.

Mohler held the Seniors in check during their turn at swinging the bat. Then came the terrific bombardment which conquered the fast traveling Seniors. Starting with Burrough slaming out a clean drive for two bases and then continued by Kostos who drove the sphere for three bases the fray went on till every Freshmen player had faced the opposing pitcher and hadhad a share in the undoing of their opponents.

After this big drive on the part of the Freshies no more scoring took place till the last inning, when the Freshmen again started things and as a result of their efforts added two more counters to their score.

Captain Savidge at second base handled five chances coming his way nicely and played his position well. Mohler while hit hard kept the Seniors at hitting flies to his teammates. He allowed but one safe hit during the game only walked two men out. Burroughs, Kostos, Wargo and Eaton, the catcher played good ball. Deland played shotstop for the Seniors and played a noteworthy game.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION TO SENIORS, THURSDAY

FRESHMAN WILL BE REQUESTED TO SLEEP WITH THEIR SHOES ON.

On Thursday night, May 16th, the annual reception given by Dr. and Mrs. Harris to seniors will be held. This will be be a memorable evening in the life of the senors, since the donning of the cap and gown Thursday initates the long list of commencement activities.

The evening will be featured, as is the custom, by an aftermath, in line of a reception of the Seniors to the Freshmen. For the benefit of the wearer of the green, it might be said, unless the members of the class '20 sleep with their shoes on, and not only on, but tied, the Seniors will give them a warm reception. Woe be unto the Freshman who is not in his room!

A CHANGE

Last week it was announced that James Herman, '19, would be editor of the 1918-19 Y. M. C. A. hand book. Mr. Herman is unable to take the position, and will be replaced by Herbert Greenland, '20.

PROF. WILCOX PLANS FOR NEW STUDENTS

MEETING OF ENTIRE STUDENT BODY MAY 20th.

REGISTRAR SHOWS NEED OF UNITED ACTION

Speeches To be Given Bp Professors And Students.—Motto: "Let Each One bring A new Student With Him.

Last week Professor Wilcox met two representatives from each fraternity and two from non-fraternity groups to discuss plans for getting new students for next fall. The Registrar gave a short talk, stating that this is the first time that there has been any organization movement of the student body to help to secure new students. Due to war conditions, nearly all the other colleges show large defeits for the year, while we are one of the few who are in good financial condition. However, unless a strong effort is made to secure new men for next year, our financial condition will suffer.

Professor Wilcox then pointed ont why every high school graduate who possibly can, should go to college, by showing the value of a college education both to the individual and to the government as seen from this war.

In order to secure united action, the Registrar stated that a meeting of the entire student body and faculty will be held on Monday, May 20th. Addresses will be made by faculty members and students. "Pep" will be instilled by the presence of the band and the cheer leaders. The motto will be "Let every one bring a new student with him." How this can best be done and why it should be done will be pointed out by the speakers. Watch the bulletin board for notice of the time.

FRESHMEN GIRLS HOLD EXPRESSION CONTEST

EIGHT GIRLS OF CLASS OF '20 RENDER EXCELLENT PROGRAM

Bucknell Hall was filled with students and parents on Thursday evening to hear the Freshmen Girls' Annual Declamation contest. The work of the contestants was of high quality, which was evidenced by the interest and attentiveness of the audience. The splendid rendition of the pieces was further added to by the fact that the program included numbers of various kinds, from the depiction of the innocence of a child and the love problems of a young girl, to the awakening of the soul of a woman.

The program:

FRESHMEN DECLAIM, SOPHOMORES ORATE

LARGE AUDIENCE ATTENDS ANNUAL PRIZE CONTEST

WORK SPEAKS WELL OF TRAINING IN EXPRESSION

Programs Include Dramatic Poetry, Humorous Harangues, Classis Proce and Orations.

On Wednesday evening last the wearers of the green button held the annual Declamation Contest. The contest was on a par with other years and the new men showed that they have talent in the class of 1921. At intervals during the program there were musical selections rendered that were pleasing. The speakers for the contest are chosen by their classmates. Their names and selections were as follows:

Carmault Benjamin Jackson, Woodstown, N. J.,

The Chariot Race, Ben Hur
James Leo Hess .....Lewisburg
The Prodigal Son ..... Anon

SOPHOMORE CONTEST

Saturday evening there were other efforts put forth in the line of oratory. The Sophomores held forth at this time. The selections rendered were, in the case of the men, ones which had to do with the present situations in the war. The audience semed pleased with the choice. The girls also rendered pieces that were pleasing. We were also favored by a solo by Miss Arbogast and one by Mr. Eaton. The performance was an all-star one. Word comes that the judges each chose different ones as winners, there being no one person chosen by all or by several. Comparative rating must decide. The orators were volunteers of the class of 1920 and their orations and names were as is given below:

March.

THE END IS NEAR

"A thing done right today, means less trouble tomorrow." At this season of the year, that much taunted, much dreaded phantom, Spring Fever, makes its presence felt on the campus. The desire to let up on our work is paramount. Let us be on our guard against this sprite. But a few weeks remain of the school year. Every day's work shirked now means hours of cramming later on, and this at a time when the attractions of nature will lure us more than ever, college activities will be at their best. "Today is here, use it."

WAR PROHIBITION

No better movement has ben started this year than that which was set on foot last week, namely—the movement to have students and members of the faculty to sign a petition which reads as follows:

Hon. Boise Penrose,
United States Senate,

We, the faculty and students of Bucknell University respectfully urge the enactment of wartime prohibition as an emergency war weasure.

Bucknell University has furnished two hundred students for the army and navy and we ask that their sacrifice shall not be multiplied because of the interference of the liquor traffic with America's efficient prosecution of the war.

When we realize that petitions similar to this are being signed by over 500 colleges, that deputations from colleges are being sent out to nearby communities to urge the sending of similar petitions, and that publicity is being given the plan by all the college papers, we can know the extensive and titanic drive of which we are a part. Sign that petition today! If you have not seen it, see Thomas Heim, '20, and sign it!

PROGRESS OF THE WAR

During the last week the Allies, by means of a series of raids, have bettered their position from Amiens to the North Sea. The Germans still refrain from launching another drive. We expect to hear of more activity in German Navy circles for again the English have raided the submarine bases. This time Ostend was the objective, and the Vindicative which distinguished itself so greatly in the attack on the Zeebrugge base, was sung by the British in the Ostend Canal. Thus both Zeebruggee and Ostend are blocked, at least partially so.

In America, Secretary of War Baker officially announced that 500,000 American troops are in France. An investigation into the airplane trouble has been ordered.

Remember this week is W. S. S. Pledge Week.

B. U. GRADUATE ON WAY TO FRANCE

LIEUT. L. H. CAMPBELL IN COMMAND OF DETACHMENT OF AERO MEN

The Following Article Appeared In "The Utica Daily Press" of Utica, N. Y., Concerning Lieut. Campbell:

He went with about the first contingent of drafted men to leave this city last summer to Camp Dix and although he had offered his services for aero service in July, 1917, he was not accepted until October 20. He was then sent to Fort Omaha, Neb., where he worked diligently for six weeks in the captive ballon service and after passing all examination in this branch was sent to Kellyfield, Tex., where he studied free ballooning and was then transferred back to Fort Omaha, where he was given the commission for second lieutenant. He was then sent back to Kellyfield as an instructor January 20, where he remained until about two weeks ago and then he was given a detachment of 109 men and sent to an Atlantic port and is now thought to be on the high seas bound for France.

Lieut. Campbell is most enthusiastic about this branch of the service and with earnest effort he is putting into his work it will be no small wonder if within a short time he is promoted.

He was graduated from Bucknell University and had studied medicine in the University of Pennsylvania for about six months when his studies were brought to a close by our entrance into the war. About a month before he offered his services, he married Miss Edna Corbett of New York.

DEMONTHENIAN PLAY

The annual play given by the Delta Sigma Fraternity was produced last Friday evening on the lawn adjoining their home before a large and appreciative audience composed of visitors, members of the faculty and students. As usual there was a representative from each fraternity present and one from the non-frats. The play, coached by Miss Schillinger, was entitled "Pyramus and Thisbe," a masque from Shakespeare's Midsummer's Night Dream, and was a good presentation of clean comedy. After the play refreshments were served and a general good social time folowed.

PHI DELTA SIGMA DANCE

The annual Phi Delta Sigma dance was held in the Kappa Sigma House on Saturday evening May 4. The dance was formal, music being furnished by the S. A. E. orshectra.

The following were initated the same day: Kappa Sigma—Biehn and Nancarrow; S. A. E. Roose and Wagoner.

Chance; Sigma Chi—Morrison and Wagoner.

PACIFISTS PREACH WAR IN GOVT. PUBLICATION

Committee on Public Information Releases War Pamphlet to Public

Washington, D. C., (date.)—"Between a worthy patriotism and a virile peace patriotism, there is no essential difference." These words of Assistant Secretary of Labor, Louis F Post, are put at the head of the latest publication of the Committee on Public information, entitled "The War for Peace," issued recently. With these are joined the statement of Dr. David Starr Jordan that, "Now that we are in the war, the shortest way out is forward."

The compiler of the publication is Arthur D. Call, editor of "The Peace Advocate," and secretary of the American Peace Society, the oldest peace organization in the United States. The Publication may be obtained free by writing to the Committee at 8 Jackson Place, Washington, D. C.

Mr. Call's own position is shown by his statement that, "The supreme duty of every man, woman, and child in America, today, is avoiding panics and hatred of persons, to remember the ghastly offences of a might worshipping aggressor, and bend every possible effort to win and end this war."

In thirteen sections from as many separate societies or groups are set forth utterances of American friends of peace who support our government in its righteous war. "He who proposes peace now either does not see the stake for which the Allies are fighting or wishes the German military autocracy still to control the destinies of all of us as to peace or war." This is from an address by Ex-President William H. Taft, now president of the League to Enforce Peace. "No one should be permitted to cloak attacks upon his Government or aid to the enemy under the claim that he is exercising freedom of speech. Unity throughout the Nation is imperatively necessary during the war—dissention would be disastrous, we must win—and division among us would but prolong the war and increase its cost." So writes William Jennings Bryan, former Secretary of State. Among other well known individuals and organizations quoted in this publication are Samuel Gompers, Theodore Marburg, Clarence Darrow, Herbert Hoover, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, the World Peace Foundation, the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and the American Branch of the World Alliance for Promoting International Friendship through the churches.—Committee on Public Information, Washington, D. C.

IN Y. M. C. A. WORK

The National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. has sent to France in less than three years over sixteen hundred men to serve the American and Allied armies.

The country has been searched to find experienced men to serve with the troops as physical directors, speakers and educational directors. Among those sent was Fred Brooke. He has been for five years boy's work secretary at Bellingham, Washington. Mr. Brooks is a graduate of Bucknell.

SOPH. COTILLION.

"If you'd know the value of money, go and borrow some." Yes, borrow some if you have to; but hy all means get to the Sophomore Cotillion on Friday night of this week, Milton Park. Ne Cals Orchestra and $1.50 a couple! Enough! See any member of the committee.

Sprout, '17, after a week with his fraternity brothers left on Wednesday for Cape May.

A remarkable change in the attitude of men students toward woman sufferage was manifested by the Freshmen of the oratory class addresses this year. A comparison with preceeding classes is quite interesting. The present Senior class in its Freshman year was 65 per cent. and the Sophomores 57 per cent. in favor. of granting suffrage, Juniors 63 per cent. This year only 2 per cent. were against. The change is ascribed to the support the women have given to the men in the war, to their ability to do the work of men, and to the favorable vote of New York State.

SENIOR TEAM WINS THREE GAMES

FRESHIES, JUNIORS AND SOPHS ARE DEFEATED

SENIORS LEAD LEAGUE WITH 3 WON AND 1 LOST

Freshies Beaten 7 to 2; Juniors 9 to 5; and Sophs 6 to 3.—Deland, Baird, and Northrop Pitch Good Ball.

Freshmen-Seniors

It was not very long ago, when the Freshmen defeated the Seniors 8-0. In the second contest our august friends, the Seniors, determined to get one, Mohler by name. The pitching job for the Seniors fell upon Deland and nobly did he come up to the expectations of his classmates, for, barring a misjudged fly, that was easy to catch, the Freshmen would probably have been held hitless.

In the first inning the Seniors showed that they could play ball by a prettily executed double play, Musser to Hassrick. It was a hard try that "Muss" had to make good. Two walks and three strike-outs were Mohler's present to the Seniors. So the game continued and then just when everyone was looking for a pitching duel it happened. It took the form of seven runs in the fourth and fifth innings. In the fourth Musser walked and stole second, Newcomb popped out, then Hassrick got a life on Evan's error and when Miles and Smith singled three runs were over.

The Freshmen tried to redeem themselves. Smith walked and then came Mohler's fluke hit which Miles misjudged. There should have been a double play, so while Deland was thinking about what should have been, Collins doubled and two runs were scored.

Two men are gone and the Freshmen are thinking about next bats. Mason singles. Mohler misses a fly and Musser is safe, Newcomb triples—gee, its warm—Hassrick singles, Mohler misses a grounder, Smith and Deland single but Miles gets caught trying to reach home. Four runs. Thereafter, both pitchers had little trouble in retiring opponents. The green battery of the Seniors easily bore off the honors of the game.

LAST ISSUE

Due to the fact that college activities will be few this week and because work has been started in the "Commencement News", this is the last issue of 'The Bucknellian' for the college year.

COMMENCEMENT NEWS

On Saturday, June 1, the first issue of the "Commencement News" will appear followed by issues of Monday, June 3 and Tuesday, June 4. This publication will cover completely the events of commencement week. As is customary, the editor, the manager and three members of the staff of "The Bucknellian," will be in charge.

SOPHOMORE COTILLION SCORES BIG SUCCESS

NE-CAL FURNISHED MUSIC FOR DANCING FROM 8.30 TO 2

Good music, graceful dancing, happy faces and gay colors combined to make the Sophomore Cotillion a success on Friday night. The Cotillion was held at Riverside Park, Milton, with Ne-Cal's Orchestra, of Sunbury, as the merry-makers of the occasion. The cars leaving Lewisburg were unusually crowded for the occasion, and even a stranger in this part of the country could have guessed that an unusual occurrence was being staged, from the mere fact that the L. M. & W. line was enjoying a prosperous era.

The committee, composed of Mathieson, chairman, Lees, Friedenburg, LaClair, Amerise, Warfel, Connelly, Moore and Smith, deserve the praise of the class for the manner in which the dance was conducted. A well arranged program of twenty dances was interrupted only by lack of time. Encore after encore was demanded with such vigor that the orchestra could not refuse, and the short time from 8.30 until 2.00 o'clock was found to be insufficient for the program.

The refreshments were greatly enjoyed. A warm evening made the refreshments doubly refreshing. The extent to which they were enjoyed is attested to by the remembrance of the long line of anxiously waiting customers which at all times besieged the commissary department.

Mrs. Collins, Miss Blue and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller were named as patronesses and patron for the Cotillion.

To say that everyone present had a good time would be to put it very mildly. The expressions on the faces of the dancers and the wildness and long duration of applause after the last encore, furnished sufficient evidence that no one departed from the floor disappointed.

SENIOR RECEPTION HELD THURSDAY

CLASS OF '18 ENJOYS ANNUAL SOCIAL

PARADE TO PRESIDENT'S HOME IN CAP AND GOWN

Lambda Chi Alpha Orchestra Plays Fine Program.—Evening of Social Enjoyment Pleasingly Passed.

The annual reception to the Senior Class of Bucknell University was given by Dr. and Mrs. Harris at the President's residence last Thursday evening. The reception was in a way a farewell to the present graduating students, and as such, will be recalled in the future by all participating as one of the big events of their school life.

The order of events followed the time-honored custom. Senior men assembled in front of the Chemical Laboratory and at 8.00 P. M., proceeded in an orderly way to the Seminary, where they were joined by their fair classmates. With the latter in the lead, the members of the class of 1918 marched to the President's home, where they were welcomed by President and Mrs. Harris.

The Seniors presented a very attractive appearance in the conventional garb of the Black cap and gown. The costumes were all of the same pattern, except that the students of the School of Music were distinguished by white tassels on the caps and the Domestic Science girls by tassels of gray.

The Lambda Chi Alpha orchestra furnished a delightful musical evening of all the latest popular songs. Delightful refreshments were served at a suitable hour and about 11.30 the Seniors reluctantly took their leave, the fellows escorting their fair classmates to the doors of the Women's College. The Senior men, however, after bidding their friends good night, did not seek their downy cots, but wandered at large upon the Hill. The object of their peringrinations was to see that all the wearers of the green had their pedal extremities encased in the conventional leather forms, also to see that no Sophomore presented his appearance upon the sainted precincts. Several Freshmen were made to make addresses from the lofty summits of radiators, and two Sophomores were for appearing outside of their rooms but under the showers at the "Prep" and thus was the time honored custom carried out to the letter. Nancarrow of the Sophomore class outran the fleetest of the Freshmen class when he was discovered on the "Hill." 'Tis said he did not stop until he passed the "Sem." but we doubt whether he stopped even there, judging from the rate at which he started.

KAPPA SIGMA FRATERNITY HOLDS "SEM" PARTY

PARTY HELD ON LAWN WHICH WAS BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED FOR OCCASION

The Kappa Sigma fraternity entertained with a novel "Sem" party on Saturday evening. The party was held for the greater part on the lawn, which was beautifully decorated. At 5.30 dinner was served, the tables being arranged on the lawn. During the meal a fine program of popular airs was rendered by the S. A. E. orchestra. After dinner the evening was passed in cards and a general good social time. Guests from all the fraternities were present, along with many members of the faculty. Ten o'clock, the time for the girls to depart, came all too soon.

CAP AND DAGGER ELECTION

The Cap and Dagger Society unanimously elected Chester Leaber, president for next year. Mr. Leaber's work in the society is only too well known to need be spoken of more than to say that the honor onferred upon him was well deserved. The other officers are: Vice president, F. D. Jones, '19; secretary, H. Le Roy Heller, '21 and treasurer, Stephen Dimlich, '20.

LAST TWO SENIOR RECITALS PLEASE

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAMS GIVEN BY MUSIC STUDENTS BEFORE GOOD AUDIENCE

The last two Senior musical recitals were fully in harmony with the high class of skill displayed in previous recitals. It is the opinion of relatives and friends of the graduates that the work done was highly commendable.

Monday night's recital was given by Miss Mary Catherine Arbogast, a pupil of Mme. de Sylva Schoen; Miss Florence Buffington and Miss Hazel Mae Smith, pupils of Miss Brown. Miss Marion Reese was at the piano. Wednesday night's recital was given by Miss Katherine Pauline Reed, a pupil of Mme. de Sylva Schoen and Miss Margaret Thompson, pupil of Miss Brown. Miss Hazel Hagerman was at the piano.

The programs for the recitals follow:

SUMMER WORK

At the beginning of the present term, it was decided to close some two or three weeks early. The purpose was to allow students to have this much more time to aid the government in this world crisis. Now that we have these extra days, along with the regular vacation, what are we going to do with them?

The Seniors for the most part, have secured work directly connected with the government. The class of '18 deserves great credit for this.

What of the other classes? The farms need you; the shipyards need you; the munition works need you; and for those interested summer training camps at Plattsburg, N. Y., and Morris, Connecticut could make use of you. Above all the fact is clear, that all thoughts of spending an idle summer must be abandoned. Opportunities for industrial, agricultural and military service surround you. Let every Bucknell student respond! Here lies your chance to do "your bit". When the fall term opens, let us return with an industrial roll of honor as high as our military roll of honor!

single and Kline's error, two runs resulted. In the second, the Juniors got the lead. Harer doubled and the next three men walked. Northrop couldn't come clase to the plate. Deland then let one go through him, while playing in close and Newcomb chased it out to the path. Three runs. Now you might as well try to stop a tank as there Seniors, for they come back strong, for Musser drove in a run with his double.

In the fourth Gerhart doubled and reached third, when Hassrick dropped Deland's throw to third. On a passed ball "Geary" ambled homeward.

For the Seniors Deland flew out. Mason singled and Musser reached first when Suanders looked crooked a ta fly. Newcomb walked, then two more singles. Two more errors and a double by Northrop created six perfectly lovely tallies. In the sixth Mason scored one more run. In the seventh "Bunny" Lewis scored another run on Wthington's single. The latter stole two bases even. Klein and Harar retired by the aerial route. Mason and Boswell starred for the Juniors and for the Seniors and Gerhart for the Juniors. Harar had an off day, but as the diamond is rough, errors must be expected.

Soph.-Senior Game

"Caesar had his Brutus, Charles I had his Cromwell,"—and the Sophs have their Seniors. That is, from one point of view, but from another the Seniors have the Sophs. The score was—well really it is sort of embarrassing but then 6-3.

Deland was again on the mound for the Seniors and "Red" Baird officiated for 1920. here was absolutely no damage done for the first three innings; the ophs had two hits and the eniors none. But the next three innings; Sophs had two hits and the Seniors none. But the next three innings should be severely censored. Faust made a fine error of Mason's grounder and paved the way for two runs. Musser advanced Mason to second. Newcomb singled and Hassrick tripled! "Red" put down further insurrection.

Dorris started for the Sophs with a single and Baird doubled. He was caught at third, Smith to Hassrick, while Dorris scored. The trouble with the Seniors is that they never leave well enough alone. Deland walked, Boswell bunted and caught Bobby Waddell asleep. Sally then showed how easy it is to drop an easy fly. Musser lived up to what is expected of a clean up man and two runs came over on his hit. In this half the Sophs scored a run; a home run from the Sophs' point of view and an error from the Seniors. Take your choice, but Bobbie Waddell did wallop the ball. Lenker started trouble with an error, after Smith had doubled. He made another error on Boswell and the Seniors were four runs to the good. The next inning "Lenk" offended once more, preventing a double play. The game soon ended and the best the Sophs could do was one run driven in by Waddell.

The Seniors have always taken the best of their chances and as a team have fielded well. Good consistent playing has clinched for them the first place in the league with five games won and one lost.

The Student's Part in the War

Speaking of the part played by the College men of America in the present European conflict, Corporal O. E. McDuffey, chief of the Milton recruiting station, who will spend Tuesday afternoon and evening on the campus for the benefit of those who wish to enlist, makes the following remarks:

"In every news dispatch from Revolution mad Russia, there is an item similar to the following: 'The Revolutionists were composed of Artisans and students.'

In every country on the globe the College Student is a factor of recognized power in active politics.

And the Student Body of America, facing less serious fact of life than the crowded European countries, and in consequence, a gayer and more frivolous set of younger men, is at last given the opportunity to rival its brethren across the seas, and to show the stuff of which it is made. The thousand of boys and young men who have sprung from the cloistered Hall of our American universities, in eager response to the call that they take their place among their fellow students of the Allied Nations are an answer to the question whether or no the nation led by a student can survive in a conflict with an armed clan led by a soldiery, whose practices of war have given him the fixed and immovable resolve that the free pursuit of knowledge and ideas shall be dominated by the iron hand of militarism.

"You have lived in an ideal world of ideas.

"Now when the entire nation is summoned by a high freedom of destiny to defend those ideals and to carry the flaming beacon of thought, speech and life itself, will you meet the grim fact of war with the calmness born of your training?

"If the college course has not trained you to be a man it has failed. And if the free system of American Education cannot compete with the iron standards of Prussian Gymnasium, then surely is our nation doomed, with the discredited youth of its schools and colleges, who refuse to carry the banners of ideal freedom into the armed camp of the enemy.

"If your training is along any line, technical or otherwise, there is a place for you in the special units of the service.

"If you have only your two hands and a desire to use them for your country in her hour of trial, there is work for men."

JUNIOR EX.

The Junior Ex. will be held on Friday night as part of the program of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. exercises. Only a few survivors of the original number chosen will appear. The others have enlisted, left college, become ill, professed themselves overworked, or confessed their inability to meet the "high degree of excellence" required for this honor.

Professor Bromley Smith will close a busy commencement season with an address at the graduating exercises of the Connellsville High School.

At the last meeting of the Y. W. C. A. Professor Bromley Smith occupied the evening by reading "War Poems."

Seniors Entertain Sophs

Friday evening the Seniors delightfully entertained the Sophomores with a party held in the living room of Women's College. During the course of the evening each Sophomore, who had presented her Senior with a gift, received a present in return. Dancing and games were enjoyed, also. Agnes Hoffman and Helen Moyle received the prize awarded. Refreshments were served.

Freshmen Entertain Juniors

The Freshman class entertained the Juniors at Wolfeland Friday night. The trip was made in two hay wagons. Ice cream and cake were served shortly after their arrival at the greve. A general round of fun was indulged in. The Juniors highly praise the freshmen as hostesses.

Pi Beta Phi

Saturday afternoon the patronesses of Pi Beta Phi entertained the sorority at the home of Mrs Stewart. A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed.

On Sunday morning the Pi Beta Phi girls breakfasted at Shriner's Island.

VISITORS

Mrs. Levegood and daughter visited Emma Levegood over the week-end.

Katherine Brooks, of Indiana State Normal School, visited Ethyle Culbert for several days.

Elizabeth Davis entertained her mother over Saturday and Sunday.

Walter Roose was visited by his parents over Sunday.

Errol Derby's father and family were week-end visitors.

Several of the college girls were entertained at the Phi Gamma Delta house at dinner on Saturday evening.

The Progress of the War

The past week has been lacking in military events of great importance. The Allies are awaiting an expected attack upon Amiens. Sec. Baker's weekly report, is now superceded by a daily official communication from General Pershing. Our country holds four sectors, perhaps the most important being at Mondidier. The front held by our troops is now longer than that held by the Belgians.

Over fifty wooden ships have been launched by our shipyards. Statistics of the French Sec. of the Navy show that the tonnage being built is more than the submarines are destroying.

President Wilson marched on foot at the head of the Red Cross parade in New York and received perhaps the greatest ovation that any president has ever received.

SIGMA CHI

A. W. Elliott, '18, returned for a short visit last week. "Buck" is a Naval Reserve at Norfolk, Va., and is Captain and shortston of the "Mine Sweepers" baseball team.

* * * * *

L. C. Seabright, '13, was initiated into Sigma Chi on Friday night.

B. R. Seeman, '21, is spending a few days at the Sigma Chi house. "Coz" is home on a furlough, from the Third Officers' Training Camp.

IMPORTANT

Bucknell Summer School will begin June 5. Those desiring to take work will arrange with the professors.
